Police Search For Identity Of Two Persons

The Garrett County Sheriff's Office is searching for any information regarding the identity of two suspicious persons in the area of Kitzmiller on Monday, Sept. 8, between the hours of 12 and 5 a.m.

Persons with any information should call the Sheriff's Office at 301-334-1949, or Crime Solvers at 301-334-1975.

Garrett County citizens area urged to lock all vehicles and valuables due to the recent abundance of reported thefts throughout the southern end of the county, according to police.

Professionals Set To Speak At Area High Schools

Young business people from Allegany, Garrett, and Mineral counties are volunteering their time to enter ninth grade classrooms to share "real world" work and life experiences. They are taking part in the second year of Achievement Counts, a business speaker in the schools program sponsored by the Greater Cumberland Committee (TGCC).

Speakers will visit Northern High School on Sept. 24, and Southern High School on Oct. 1.

The Achievement Counts program allows young business people from the community to get involved by volunteering to lead an interactive class lesson with ninth graders. The message focuses on the importance of doing well in school and the connection that has with their future success. Speakers will also have useful information to share with students about the cost of living in this area compared to bigger cities, as well as college and post-secondary training information.

TGCC nas attempted to recruit volunteers from all types of businesses since June, and all volunteers attend a half-day training session by TGCC.

Last year, this program placed 30 young adult speakers into seven area high schools reaching 1,230 students.

Agnew Prosecutor George Beall To Speak At FSU

George Beall, the prosecutor who led the investigation that culminated with the conviction and resignation of U.S. Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, will speak at Frostburg State University Tuesday, Sept. 30, at 11 a.m. in the Lane University Center Atkinson Room (201).

The Frostburg native will discuss the events 30 years ago that thrust him, then a 35-year-old U.S. attorney for Maryland, into the national spotlight. The lecture is free and open to the public.

At the height of the Watergate scandal, investigators in Maryland were looking into other corruption – that of kickbacks being paid to public officials by architects, engineers, and contractors doing business with public agencies in the state. Before becoming Richard Nixon's vice president in 1969, Agnew had been governor of Maryland and Baltimore County executive. Investigations pointed to misconduct by Agnew as far back as 1964.

With the investigation beginning to implicate Agnew, the possibility that the president and vice president would both face charges of official misconduct was a daunting possibility for the nation. Agnew resigned as vice president on Oct. 10, 1973, pleading "no contest" to charges of tax evasion.

Beall's personal papers concerning the Agnew investigation and resignation are now housed in the Beall Archives at FSU's Ort Library, which also houses the papers of his father, J. Glenn Beall, and his brother, J. Glenn Beall Jr., both of whom served in the U.S. Senate.

"[George] Beall was at the center of a unique and crucial turning point for our country," said an FSU spokesperson. "He has seldom spoken publicly about his role, making his appearance at FSU a rare opportunity for anyone interested in this important time in American history."

For more information about the Beall lecture, Persons may call Nat DeBruin at the Beall Archives at 301-687-3114.

Zion Lutheran Women Convene

Women of the ELCA of Zion Lutheran Church, Jennings, held their monthly meeting in the church on September 3.

The session began a new series of study, "I Thank God for You! Forming Community With Paul." The first lesson in this series, "Always Mentioning You in Our Prayers," was led by Leota Baker. By beginning to read St. Paul's letter to the Thessalonians, the principal objectives were to experience Paul's first thanksgiving for new converts, and to learn about some themes and concepts important to understand Paul's faith.

Devotions closed with the hymn "Lord, As a Pilgrim."

Judy Stanton presided over the business meeting.

A letter of thanks was received from the Lutheran Home, Kane, Pa., for the package of invalid gowns sent recently by Zion's unit.

The annual washcloth shower for the Lutheran Home at Kane was held during August. A total of nine dozen washcloths were received, and were sent with three additional invalid gowns to the home.

Sweaters and children's clothing will be received for a package to Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Montana, for the Christmas clothing giveaway on the Rocky Boy Indian Reservation.

Microsoft Access Crash Course Set At Garrett College

A one-session Microsoft Access "crash course" will be held at Garrett College's McHenry campus on Thursday, Sept. 25, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The session will include a one hour break for lunch.

Students will explore electronic databases associated with the Access program. The instructor will cover setting up databases, compiling information, and all the basic functions of Access. The instructor is Alice Bosley, a former Gateway programmer/trainer.

For additional information or to register, persons may call Sue Smith of the Small Business Development Center at Garrett College at 301-387-3080.

Once again, they come...busloads of children and young people depending upon their teachers to prepare them for a successful future. The dictionary defines success as "achieving a hoped-for outcome." You might say, "They will change their minds again and again! My child has been through five careers so far...just this year."

Perhaps then, we also must teach our youngsters how to achieve, so they will be successful in the career they finally choose.

How does one learn to "achieve" or accomplish, as it is defined? The wise King Solomon devoted an entire book of the Bible, Proverbs, to the advice he gave to his son to prepare him for success. He acknowledged, "The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul." (Proverbs 13:19) He went on to advise... "Through wisdom is a house built; and by understanding it is established." (Proverbs 24:3) Solomon reminded his son, "He who walks in integrity walks securely." (Proverbs 10:9) In conclusion he stressed, ... "Trust in the Lord with all your heart...in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make straight your paths." (Proverbs 3:5-6)

Won't you worship with your children this Sabbath? God will sustain you and your family in the coming school year and in the years to come.

A Labor of Love

Whether it is physical, mental or a combination of the two, it feels good to work hard at something that we are skilled at and enjoy doing.

On the other hand, some tasks are sheer drudgery or are so difficult that they frustrate us. When we are doing something that we truly enjoy and are good at, we seem to find our own most unique and true self. Ironically, we sometimes lose ourselves in our work. It may happen unexpectedly: while playing a musical instrument, operating a machine or writing a poem. In these situations, when we are doing what we love, it often feels that this is what we are meant to do, with good reason. God has a plan for all of us, and part of that plan is finding the work or vocation that is uniquely suited to us. When we find it, we will know intuitively that we have found our life's work. If we haven't found it yet, we should keep looking and reflect prayerfully on what our talents are and how we can best put them to good use. We should remember that we will be happiest when doing work that we enjoy, that we are good at, and most importantly, that which benefits others.

Vitamins May Protect The Heart

A new study looking at the diets and use of vitamins in over 85,000 women recently concluded that supplementing the diet with vitamin C may protect the heart from disease. Even after taking into account women's age, smoking habits, and other factors, those who took vitamin C supplements were 28% less likely to develop heart disease than women who didn't. However, when supplements were not taken, the amount of vitamin C in the diet seemed to have little effect on heart disease.

Studies have questioned the benefit of supplementing vitamin E in persons with existing heart disease. One study found that daily use of vitamin E over four and a half years did not significantly affect cardiovascular outcomes. This finding contradicts earlier research which concluded that supplementation was beneficial in a variety of ways. Obviously, more studies are needed to determine if vitamin E supplementation is of value in persons who have or may develop heart disease.

Estate Jewelry

Q. I collect estate jewelry and often go to yard and garage sales. Can you suggest a concise price guide that would fit in my pocketbook? — *Carole, Miami, Fla.

A. The Warman's Antique Jewelry Field Guide by C. Jeanenne Bell (Krause, $12.95) measures a mere 4-by-5 inches. Despite its small size, it contains hundreds of up-to-date prices and includes some 400 photos and illustrations. The listings are arranged alphabetically, making it user-friendly. This handy guide also features dating tips, makers' marks and real vs. fake stones. It can be ordered through the toll-free number 1-888-457-2873, or Web site, www.krause.com.

Q. My husband has a Hopalong Cassidy wristwatch from the 1950s, packed in its original box with warranty card. I would like to know how much it might be worth. — *Sharon, Wellsville, N.Y.

A. One of the best sources is "Hopalong Cassidy Collectibles" by Joseph J. Caro (Cowboy Collector Publications, $42.50). This excellent book covers every aspect of collecting Hoppy memorabilia. You can order a copy by writing the publisher, P.O. Box 7486, Long Beach, CA 90807. You might also want to contact Laura Bates, president of the Friends of Hopalong Cassidy Fan Club International, 6310 Friendship Drive, New Concord, OH 43762.

Homegrown Catnip

Q. In a recent article about catnip, you said that it can be grown in the garden. Could you tell me where I can obtain seed for catnip? — *Charles W., Russell Springs, Ky.

A. Fresh catnip is becoming a popular item among cat owners (and cats too, I presume). The increased demand for this herb means that you can buy it, fully grown and ready to transplant, at a local nursery or in the garden section of your home-improvement store.

Starting catnip from seed is fairly simple, and the seeds can be purchased from either a gardening shop or ordered from just about any seed catalog. Just make sure you're ordering the correct variety, "nepenta cataria" (more than four types of ornamental catnip are available now, none of which will interest your cat in the slightest).

Plants and seeds are easiest to purchase in early spring, but you can start them in a sunny window indoors during the winter. Starting them inside will also protect them from outdoor cats that can't wait to try the new shoots before they're established.

Next spring, after the last hard frost, plant the herb outdoors in the garden or in patio pots. As soon as the stems reach 1 foot in height, you can start harvesting them and continue to cut them all summer. Cut a few sprigs for your cat as a treat, and don't worry if he or she eats all the leaves.

Of course, the benefits of growing catnip are that you always have a supply on hand (you can even dry the herb yourself and store for the winter), and you know the conditions under which the plant is grown, allowing you to limit the amount of pesticides and nonorganic fertilizer used. Never mind the fact that your cat will suddenly love "gardening!"

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

• Some scientistd believe that kissing evolved as a way for people to smell and taste others' faces in order to gauge what kind of mood they were in.

• It was John F. Kennedy who observed, "Mothers all want their sons to grow up to be president, but they don't want them to become politicians in the process."

• Originally, wedding cake was thrown at the bride and groom rather than being eaten by them.

• Several very early cultures used to enjoy chocolate as a beverage. The Mayans enjoyed it so much that when they died, they were buried with the cups or bowls they used for drinking chocolate while they were alive.

• In the Apache language, "kemo sabe" means "white shirt."

• More actual song titles from days gone by: "Get Your Biscuits in the Oven and Your Buns in the Bed"; "If My Nose Were Full of Nickels, I'd Blow It All on You"; "Jesus Loves Me (But He Hates You)"; and "Where Did Robinson Crusoe Go with Friday on a Saturday Night?"

• If you're like most people, as a child your mother told you that money is filthy and never to put it in or near your mouth. Well, she was right; a study published in the magazine Infections in Medicine found that 11 percent of bills and 3 percent of coins have bacteria growing on them. The Japanese, though, have come up with a way to handle the problem. At some ATMs in Japan, you can get your money laundered — legally. The machine will press the cash between rollers at very high temperatures, which will kill most bacteria.

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

• On Sept. 16, 1620, the Mayflower sails from Plymouth, England, bound for the New World with 102 passengers. The ship was originally headed for Virginia, where the colonists — half religious dissenters and half entrepreneurs — had been authorized to settle by the British crown.

• On Sept. 15, 1916, during the Battle of the Somme, the British launch a major offensive against the Germans, employing tanks for the first time in history. Some of the 40 or so primitive tanks advanced more than a mile beyond enemy lines but were too slow to hold their positions.

• On Sept. 20, 1946, the inaugural Cannes Film Festival opens at the resort city of Cannes on the French Riviera. The festival had intended to make its debut in September 1939, but the outbreak of World War II forced its cancellation.

• On Sept. 19, 1960, "The Twist," by Chubby Checker, hits the top of the charts. The song was one of the most successful singles in history and was the only song to top the chart twice — it was No. 1 again in 1962.

• On Sept. 18, 1970, guitarist Jimi Hendrix dies at the age of 28 following a drug overdose in London. Hendrix played his last concert in August 1970, at the Isle of Wight Festival in Britain.

• On Sept. 17, 1978, at the White House in Washington, D.C., Egyptian President Anwar al-Sadat and Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin sign the Camp David Accords, laying the groundwork for a permanent peace agreement between Egypt and Israel after three decades of hostilities.

• On Sept. 21, 1989, the Senate Armed Forces Committee unanimously confirms President George H. Bush's nomination of Army General Colin Powell as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Powell was the first African-American to achieve the United States' highest military post.

Shockey Buys Team One GM-Jeep Dealership

Local businessman Greg Shockey recently purchased the Team One GM-Jeep dealership in Oakland. A 1978 graduate of Southern High School, Shockey has been employed in the automotive business since graduating from Frostburg State University with a bachelor's degree in business administration in 1983.

A four-year starter on the Bobcat football team, Shockey was named to the Maryland All-College Team his senior year at FSU.

He was first employed with Team One in 1986 as a salesman for Oakland Equipment GMC-Jeep, a predecessor of the company. He was named sales manager for Team One when the company was formed in 1988 as a dealership for Chevrolet, Buick, GMC, Oldsmobile, and Jeep.

Shockey was named general manager under the ownership of Jenkins Automotive Group in 1991 and continued as minority partner and general manager with the late Mervin "Skip" Bernard.

In addition to serving as president of the Oakland New Car Dealership Association, Shockey is a member and past president of the Oakland/Mtn. Lake Park Lions Club. In 1999 he was named "Lion of the Year" in recognition of his service to the community.

He also served from 1997 to 2002 as a coach and advisor to the Oakland area youth football league and is serving as a Big Brother with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Garrett County. He is also a member of the Little Meadows Chapter of the Maryland Society Sons of the American Revolution, where he serves as a member of the board of directors.

He is married to the former Susan Glotfelty. The Shockeys are the parents of one son, Daniel.

Local Businesses Getting U.G.L.Y. For MS Society

Three local establishments have registered for the annual U.G.L.Y. Bar & Restaurant Challenge (Understanding, Generous, Lovable, and Young at heart). The Long Branch Saloon, Mtn. Lake Park, Black Bear Tavern, Deep Creek Lake, and the Oakland Elks Lodge #2481 will join their counterparts from across the state to raise money for the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Maryland Chapter.

Two free tickets to the U.G.L.Y. Ball will be given to establishments that turn in at least $400 in proceeds from their fund-raisers. The awards ball will be held on Nov. 18 at Martins West, Baltimore, and will be hosted by Rhonda Wardlaw, a reporter for WJZ TV and news director for WNAV radio.

The National Multiple Sclerosis Society is dedicated to ending the devastating effects of MS. To help "fun-raise" for the chapter, persons may call 1-800-FIGHT MS or visit nationalmssociety.org/MDM/home.

"Diabetes And Foot Care" Class Slated In MLP

A free class titled "Diabetes and Foot Care" is slated for Wednesday, Oct. 1, from 6 to 7:30 p.m. at the Oak Park Church of the Brethren, located along Oakland Drive from Southern High School in Mtn. Lake Park. The class is sponsored by the University of Maryland Cooperative Extension.

The session's guest speaker will be foot specialist and podiatrist Dr. Brian G. Dowling, who will provide information on several aspects of foot care. Among the topics he will address are the causes of foot problems in diabetes patients, methods for avoiding these problems, and ways to lower one's chances of developing these diabetes-related foot problems.

The session is the second in a monthly series of diabetes classes that are being held in Oakland. To make a reservation for this class, or for further information on this or upcoming classes in the series, persons may call Jennifer Bentlejewski, registered dietitian with the Garrett County Cooperative Extension, at 301-334-6960.

GC Continuing Ed. Classes Slated At Grantsville Center

Garrett College has scheduled a variety of classes that will take place in September and October at the college's Grantsville Outreach Center.

Advanced Conversational German will meet from 6:30 to 9 p.m. for five consecutive Friday evenings, Sept. 19 — Oct. 17. Students will further explore aspects of German culture while increasing oral fluency, writing skills, and comprehension. The course provides continued instruction to German pronunciation, intermediate vocabulary, and common phrases and communication strategies for more advanced conversations. The instructor will be Elke Cosner, a native of Germany.

Introduction to AutoCAD LT will meet from 6:30 to 9:45 p.m. on Mondays and Wednesdays, Sept. 29 — Nov. 5, for a total of 12 sessions. This course is designed to introduce students to two-dimensional computer aided drafting. Topics to be covered include basic shapes, formatting, using objects, and building templates. The sessions will be instructed by Ron Beiler.

Study of Disease Processes is slated for 6 to 9:15 p.m. over 10 consecutive Mondays, Oct. 6 — Dec. 8. The course will cover certain elements of human diseases, which will be presented according to organ and body system, manifestations and pathological processes, frequency and significance, and therapeutic approach. Multi-system diseases will also be reviewed. Kristine Graber will be instructing the course.

Computer Skills for Seniors, Level II, is slated for 9 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. over four consecutive Tuesdays, Oct. 7-28. Seniors will learn additional computer skills such as basic Windows operations, files, folders, diskettes, and accessing the Internet, Web pages, and e-mail.

Microsoft Word I will be offered from 6 to 9:15 p.m. over four consecutive Thursdays, Oct. 16 — Nov. Nov. 6. The hands-on course will introduce students to the processing of various types of documents, as well as how to edit, assemble, format, sort, and save. The student will also learn how to create graphs and tables. A prerequisite of Introduction to Computers, or working knowledge of computers, is required.

For additional information about these classes, persons may contact Terry Beachy by calling 301-895-3368, or via the e-mail at tbeachy@garrettcollege.edu.

SHS School Improvement Meeting Set

Southern High School's 2003-04 School Improvement Team will hold its monthly meeting on Monday, Sept. 15, at 3:30 p.m., in the media center.

Team members work to create and implement goals and strategies for the school, according to Tom Woods, principal.

State's Candidate For U.S. "Teacher Of Year" To Speak

The Southern Garrett County Republican Women's Club will host Broad Ford Elementary School faculty member Jodi L. Nichols as guest speaker at its upcoming club meeting. The event is slated for 7 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 17, at the Mountain Glade Adult Day Care Center in Oakland, and is open to the public. Refreshments will be provided by club members.

Nichols is the Maryland state candidate in the national competition for "My Favorite Teacher of the Year. " She is being sponsored for the honor by the Southern Garrett County Republican Women's Club.

The center is located along Pythian Avenue behind Garrett County Memorial Hospital. For more information, persons may call 301-334-2147.

Hinebaugh Gets Degree From PT Assistant Program

Sonya Kay Hinebaugh recently graduated with an associate of applied science degree from the physical therapist assistant program at Allegany College of Maryland. While attending ACM, she was the recipient of the Sincere Compassion Award and was on the dean's list.

She also holds a bachelor's degree in sports medicine from Alderson-Broaddus College, where she graduated in 1995.

Hinebaugh has been employed with GO PT (Garrett Orthopedic Physical Therapy) for three years as a physical therapy technician/office assistant. Her professional interests include manual therapy, sports-related injuries, woundcare, Pilates, wellness, and fitness. She resides in Mtn. Lake Park with her husband John and daughter Haley.

Notes From Bittinger

by Joan Sussman

My basic nature is to get going on some "critical" task and to get it done. Too many days though, I find that I have nothing really important to do, and no one special to see. Every time I see the Verizon ad "Make Progress Every day" I feel at a loss because I don't know what I am supposed to do to make any real progress. It is especially bad right now, as my excellent, small, hinged ankle brace just wore out, and forced me to wear the brace from *. It sometimes seems that the trek across the living room is too far to go in this new brace.

I've been working on getting the replacement for my smaller one, but can't seem to get that going fast enough. Every call seems to tangle me in red tape, and trying to get the doctor on the phone seems impossible. So, I just leave messages here and there, hoping to hear back within the week. Now I found out that my phone wasn't working well the last week, so I didn't get all incoming calls. The phone company did show up today, so now it is fixed, and with that done maybe I'll have more luck this week.

With that done, I went down to Buckle's store to do some post office business and get a few important staples. Driving there, I started to worry that I still had not found a monarch caterpillar for an older lady at the Meyersdale Nursing Home. Marci told me she loved the ones I sent to her over the last few years. I don't know, but they seem harder to find this year. It may be because of the endless rain, or who knows, maybe they are just getting rarer every year as farmers try to get rid of the milkweed. Or then again, maybe my eyes aren't as good as they once were. After several hunting sessions, I still couldn't find any. But perseverance paid off, and I finally scored a big one and a tiny one, so I guess that is one critical task that got done.

Today I just couldn't help but admire two new paintings that I did for the Autumn Glory celebration at the Arts Council Gallery. They are due tomorrow. One is a farm landscape and the other is a close-up view of summer wildflowers, including Queen Anne's lace, wild geraniums, and a daisy. Both helped me in picturing summer during last year's long winter. It really seems to be slipping into autumn in a hurry here around Bittinger. I saw two swamp maples already showing red. With the nights turning so cold, I am often tempted to turn up the furnace in the mornings. Most of what I am seeing along the roads is golden rod and Queen Anne's lace, not many other wildflowers left, with the exception of some wild asters. I have enjoyed seeing the last moments of late haymaking around Bittinger. With the heavy dews of early September, I am sometimes tempted to tell them to just give up.

I've been thinking of time flying. Today is September 9, and it is the 19th wedding anniversary of Rodney and Marci Glotfelty. Nineteen years ago today was just like yesterday for me. I can remember the sun shining, blue sky all around. This was a good thing for the big finale we planned. We filled hundreds of colored balloons with helium and released a colored cloud into the sky. It was a beautiful sight, almost as beautiful as the bride, who was dressed in a lovely Victorian-style dress, which I helped make. A designer friend of mine from New York designed it for a movie. It's nice to think that fairy tales do come true sometimes. Rodney and Marci are as happy as ever, and they took being fruitful and multiplying seriously, as their house with four teenagers shows. Sweet Blakely will turn sweet 16 later this week.

We will all have our work cut out for us when she and my three girls, along with cousin Emma, come of age. That will be a whole bunch of weddings. I hope someone can fit in their mother's gown. So far only my Caitlin is a sure thing.

A surprise guest from the Southwest blew into town and stopped by Rodney's house on Sunday, all the way from Albuquerque, New Mexico. Mike Flynn, who lived here years ago, came East to visit his father, and of course he came up to visit Garrett County where he still has many friends. He threw a steak barbecue party with ice cream to follow at the Glotfelty house. Luckily, it was a nice evening without rain, with a beautiful moon showing her stuff over the woods.

We took time out from eating to admire the Glotfeltys' newest pet-a very cocky rooster who escaped from the Grantsville sale and landed at the home of one of Marc's co-workers. Since he likes to do what roosters do (roost high and crow loud, often at daybreak) he had to find a new home in the country and not in town. He made himself the owner of a secure roost in one of the trees behind the Glotfelty house, and he was up there as soon as the sun went completely down. Now I guess they won't need alarm clocks. It will not be too long until he will have to move inside their chicken house, because that tree roost may soon become a little too cold with autumn coming soon.

Thank goodness, Rock Lodge spring is running again. I made a special trip to see it to make sure that it had recovered and was all right. I forgot to mention that I found a few baby wooly worm caterpillars on my monarch hunt, and they just seemed the usual run of the mill kind, being mostly black with two brown ends. So, it looks to me, based on that, that we'll have a regular Bittinger winter. Not too bad or terrible, but not mild like it was during the 1980s.

After a rigorous practice regime, the Northern High School marching band is on the road again. They opened their season at Elkins, W.Va., with a clinic in the morning and a show in the evening. I was proud of their first place, but the kids say there is a lot more work to be done.

Last week, I was delighted and surprised by an unexpected visit from friend Mike Will and his horse-crazy wife (Joanne), who are now living near Albright, W.Va. They are formerly of Finzel.

Ruth DiPaolo and her friend Margaret Hatcher took a bus trip to Tennessee to visit the Grand Ol' Opry and Graceland over the past weekend. She didn't tell me if she saw Elvis.

REALTORS SUPPORT HOSPITAL EVENT – Long & Foster Realtors recently donated $1,000 to the Garrett County Memorial Hospital Foundation. The money will used for the foundation's upcoming "Night at the Oscars" Dinner/Dance. ## HOW, WHEN & WHERE?

Looking for a new home? How can you learn which homes are currently for sale? More specifically, how can you identify which homes are for sale in the area you prefer, in the price range you expect, and with the features and amenities you desire?

Locating just the right home could take you days, weeks or even months – if you try to track them down on your own. Just imagine how many phone calls and personal visits you'd need to make.

Some would look just right – and be over-priced. Others might be priced to suit, but offer few amenities.

Then, there's that other consideration: pride-of-ownership. Just when you think you've found the perfect price in the right neighbor-hood, with all the features you expected, you learn about "deferred maintenance." That's when the owner has been meaning to do the repairs, but hasn't quite gotten to them yet.

Just in case you haven't guessed – there's an easier way to find the perfect home. Make just one phone call – to a REALTOR®. By making that first contact with a real estate specialist, you'll be opening the door to a very pleasant and satisfying home search. First, before looking at homes, you'll be asked to share your home buying objectives.

Be prepared to describe preferred locations, as well as the size and style home you desire. The real estate agent will also help determine a likely price range, and suggest financing sources.

The agent will conduct a computer search to identify a selection of suitable homes, while eliminating those that do not match your criteria. The next step, looking at homes, will be the most enjoyable since you will see only homes that meet your objectives.

Doesn't it make good sense to spend your time looking at great homes? One phone call can make your next home purchase a breeze.

Caring Faculty A Hallmark In (And Outside) Garrett's Halls

by Joan Crawford

As the 32nd class of new freshmen begin their college careers at Garrett College this September, it is appropriate to focus on the GC faculty, each of whom have been on hand to greet their new students and to help them achieve success in their chosen academic programs.

The members of the Garrett faculty come from many different states, one foreign country, and 21 different educational institutions to make for a diversity of background and experience; yet the 24 individuals who are full-time faculty members and/or directors of academic programs at Garrett College are of one mind when it comes to the students they teach. Over and over again, when students speak of their experiences at Garrett or complete a satisfaction survey as they graduate, the statement is made "Garrett's faculty are great! They really care about us."

This caring, personal attention the faculty gives to its students has been a hallmark of Garrett College for three decades. Dean of Academic and Student Affairs Dr. Lillian Mitchell has experienced this feeling both as a faculty member and as an administrator. "I have been at Garrett College for many years. I am impressed with the commitment and dedication of the faculty," she remarked. "They truly want to help students succeed and are willing to take extra time to make this happen."

Mitchell also points out the learning that takes place outside the classroom as members of the faculty take students on trips that give added dimensions to their education. "You just don't find faculty at other colleges who give this generously of their time and energy to coordinate such interesting projects for their students," she observed.

Because most professional employees at the small college wear more than one hat, a number of faculty members are also directors of particular programs. This is true of Kevin Dodge, who fills the multiple roles of professor of wildlife and biology and director of the Natural Resources and Wildlife Technology program. Each spring Dodge leads members of the Wildlife Club on a trip to Arizona, where they hike from deserts to mountains and through canyons, observing native wildlife and their habitats, camping at state parks, performing work projects like building dams across a creek and tearing down old buildings at the Aravaipa Canyon Preserve. This year the group visited Tombstone, where they were able to watch a re-enactment of a gun fight.

Commenting on the value of these annual trips, Dodge stated, "The strength of Garrett's NRWT program is not just in the depth of what our students learn and the variety of skills they develop, but also in the relationships we build with them. We spend a lot of time with our students in class, in the field, on trips, and informally. They know that we are personally invested in their welfare and success."

Other faculty members take students on trips related to their academic programs. Lonnie Brewster, professor of English, leads a group to New York, where they see a Broadway show, have the opportunity to meet with theater professionals backstage, and tour other sites. Professor of art Ron Skidmore heads an annual trip to the Smithsonian and the National Gallery of Art. This spring Stacy Miller, associate professor of business and economics, took students on a trip to Boston, where they visited financial institutions.

During the January break, Steve Stork, associate professor of adventure sports, has led students on canoe expeditions through the Everglades. Other adventure sports students who enjoy winter activities have chosen to follow associate professor Mike Swiderski for a week of cold weather camping, snow shoeing, and ice climbing.

Dr. Nancy Priselac, coordinator of math and distance learning, has taken students to math conferences in Orlando, Fla., Germany, Tokyo, and Hawaii, where they have made presentations on the use of technology in the mathematics classroom. A trip to Copenhagen is planned for the near future.

Commenting on Garrett faculty's commitment to their students' success, Dr. Virginia Broaddus, director of arts and sciences and associate professor of English, said, "Our arts and sciences faculty are the most committed, concerned, and creative team with which I've ever worked. They strive to ensure that students achieve their fullest potential, and their dedication is incredible."

Terry Kasecamp, associate professor of psychology, has high expectations for her students, and she gives them the personal attention and one-on-one tutoring to help them meet those expectations. This past spring she led the students in her Psychology of Women class on a trip to the Women's History Museum in Seneca Falls, N.Y. Her experiences as a mother of four, and as a counselor of adolescents and children, give her insightful perspectives for the teaching of psychology.

Dr. Greg Jenkins, associate professor of English and published author, enjoys seeing his students show improvement and works to help them achieve success. Ben Sincell, associate professor of speech and theatre, is committed to helping his students make connections between subjects they discuss in his classes and what they learn in other classes. A professional magician, Sincell applies his magical talents to the sets he constructs as he encourages a love for the theatre among his students.

A relatively new member of the Garrett arts and sciences faculty, Dr. Jeffrey Reitz, associate professor of mathematics, said he has a dream of reforming math education to make it relevant to student's needs. An avid gardener and football fan who would like to try ski diving, Reitz said that he appreciates Garrett's small classes that enable him to get to know his students personally. Carolyn Deniker, assistant professor of biology, works especially with students who plan to pursue careers in allied health professions, advising them on courses they will need to transfer to colleges that have programs in nursing, dental hygiene, and other health related fields. Because of her commitment, a high percentage of Garrett's students are accepted into these programs each year.

Faculty who teach in other disciplines share this feeling of commitment to their students.

Pramod Kapoor, professor of business who was born and educated in India, brings the diversity of that culture to his classroom where he says students are the best part of teaching. Newest member of the faculty Ron Bertolina, associate professor of computers, enjoys the personal environment of Garrett's classes as he works to increase computer fluency among his students. Native Garrett Countian and graduate of GCC, Lyz Biser has returned to her alma mater to direct the Juvenile Justice program because she wants to make a difference.

Director of Athletics Ann Wellham, who is also professor of health and physical education, finds satisfaction in helping her students achieve their goals in the classroom and on the athletic courts.

Other members of Garrett's caring faculty and administrators are Elizabeth Luers, professor of social sciences, who is the advisor to Phi Theta Kappa; Jack DuBose, writing lab coordinator, who helps students with writing problems; Peter Skylstad, associate professor of natural resources and wildlife technology and assistant director of that program; Jim Allen, director of technology, who works closely with the Garrett County Board of Education in planning smooth transitions from high school to college for students in the Tech Prep program; Willie Lantz, instructor of applied agriculture, who takes students to area farms and livestock shows; Terry Norris, interim director of business and information technology, who coordinates the high school computer academy; and Mike Logsdon, director of the Adventure Sports program, who plans many extracurricular activities for students in that program.

Throughout the years a number of "tag lines" have been employed to attract prospective students to Garrett College — "Wherever you're going we'll help you get there," "Encouraging each to succeed, challenging all to excel," "Quality education at an affordable price," "Small college, big results," "The first step to a brighter future."

In all of them the message is clear — Garrett College is a smart place to start, and the word from the faculty is "We care."

News from Preston, Tucker, Grant and Mineral Counties.

Support Meeting Set For Preston Co. Caregivers

The Preston County Caregiver Support Group will meet on Monday, Sept. 18, from 7 until 8 p.m. at the Heartland of Preston County (300 Miller Road, Kingwood, W.Va.).

The meeting is designed for those who are caregivers in the home. "A rich source of information, the support group is medicine for the caregiver," an organizer said.

The discussion will be facilitated by Dr. John Keefe, Melissa Groves, and Janie Lou White. The meetings are always held at Heartland on the third Monday of the month. Free supervision is available for loved ones during the course of the meeting.

For more information, persons may call 304-329-3195.

Canaan Valley Woman's Club To Host Craft Show

The eighth annual craft show sponsored by the Canaan Valley Woman's Club of Davis will be held on Sept. 27 at the Canaan Valley fire hall, located along Rt. 32, seven miles south of Davis, W.Va. The show will take place from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

There will be 32 tables displaying a large variety of crafts, a spokesperson said. Food will be available, sold by the Canaan Valley VFD Ladies Auxiliary.

AURORA/EGLON

Cemetery Association Orders Grave Markers

The Aurora Cemetery Association has ordered and received branch of service bronze grave markers for each of the following: Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, and Coast Guard; also for the following conflicts: WWI, WWII, Korea, and Vietnam. There is also a marker with "U.S. Veteran" inscribed upon it.

All markers are equipped with an 18-inch rod, and the diameter of each is six inches. The exceptions are WWII, Korea, and Vietnam, which are five inches. The back of each marker will accommodate a grave marker flag.

Some of these markers are in place and can be viewed in the Aurora Cemetery. For further information persons may contact James Slawter at 735-3531. The cost of each marker is $30.

Bloodmobile Visit Planned

It is planned for the Red Cross bloodmobile and staff to be at the Aurora-located Union Ambulance squad hall on Oct. 15, between 1 and 7 p.m. All potential donors are encouraged to participate.

Dinner Winners

The Mountain Lions Club and Union Ambulance Service express appreciation to those who participated in another successful Elimination Dinner. The following were winners: Tom Coberly, Jeff Coberly, Nina Bolyard, Frank and Wilda Blamble, Todd Arnold Construction, Darrell Shaffer, Jeff Lipscomb, Clyde Cummings, Mary Kelly, Darvin Friend, Jessica Shillingburg and Wyatt and Emily Snyder, Phyllis Adams, Keith Douglas, Terra Alta Lions Club, Greg Adams, Melanie and James Slaubaugh, Grace Giordine, John Adams, Don Cussins, and A&W Lawn Service.

Mountaineers Meet

Members of the Eglon Mountaineer 4-H Club met Sept. 8 in the Eglon Memorial Building. Vice President Craig Rembold presided in the absence of Ashley Bachtel. Katelyn Harsh led the group in the 4-H and American flag pledges. Devotions were presented by the conservation committee, Sara Lewis and Caitlin Norwish. Kaitlyn Schalker, secretary, read the minutes. Thirteen members and three leaders were in attendance.

Plans for the upcoming Buckwheat Festival were discussed. Tuesday, Sept. 23, is the deadline for project exhibits to be taken to Memorial North Building. National 4-H week, Oct. 5-11, will be observed by members wearing 4-H T-shirts which were painted by members at this meeting. Officer elections resulted in the following: President, Sara Lewis; Vice President, Caitlin Roth; Secretary, Nicole Britner; Treasurer, Kaitlyn Schalker; Reporter, Debbie Colins; music leaders, Katelyn Harsh and Nathan Cussins; and game leaders, Caitlin Norwish, Julia Britner, and Trevor Spaid.

The Oct. 13 meeting will see the members bringing in homemade Halloween desserts, which will be graded by each club member, and collecting canned goods from neighbors and the community for the Preston Food Pantry.

Personal Mention

A recent Preston County Senior Citizen trip to The Greenbrier and the bunkers there was joined by several Union District seniors, Clifton and Grace Bachtel, Eugene and Bernadine Bachtel, and Marie Mullenax.

A Sunday after-church picnic at Leadmine was attended by members from the Maple Spring Church of the Brethren this past Sunday, Sept. 7. On Saturday evening, Sept. 6, grandparents of the church were treated to a dinner by the junior youth and their parents, and entertainment followed the dinner.

Gay Roth of Thomas was a Monday surgical patient at a Morgantown hospital.

Wanda Evans of Horse Shoe Run fell Saturday at her home and is a patient at Ruby Memorial Hospital, where she underwent surgery on Monday.

Reba Mullenax Williams of Horse She Run was taken to Garrett County Memorial Hospital and transferred to Ruby Memorial on Saturday, after she apparently became extremely ill at her home.

Ronald Parsons is staying with his daughter and son-in-law in Kingwood, Jean and Carlton Skipper. He will appreciate visits from friends here. Here for the funeral of his wife, Avenell Parsons, were his grandchildren and their families, as well as his wife's sister, Joyce and Larry Buckley of Dover, Del., many nieces and nephews, and members of the Roth family, too, including those from Ohio, Pennsylvania, and South Carolina.

Winner of the big prize at the Sept. 5 Elimination Dinner, co-sponsored by Mountain Lions Club and Union Ambulance Service, was Grace Giordano of Eglon. The dinner was served at the Union Ambulance squad hall.

Carl and Betty Fint of Aurora visited this weekend at Wildwood Crest, N.J., with Julia Kapustina, a Russian student who had lived with them while attending Preston High School, and who is employed for the summer at a water park there. They were joined by their daughter, Carla Fint of Norristown, N.J., for the weekend, and also made a visit to nearby Cape May.

NORTH GARRETT FFA TEAM WINS STATE COMPETITION – The North Garrett FFA Livestock Judging Team came home from the Maryland State FFA Livestock Judging competition as champions last month. The FFA contest was held in Howard County in early August, just before the Garrett County Agriculture Fair. The four-member team competed against several other groups in all areas of judging livestock. The members evaluated pigs, sheep, and beef cattle, they completed intensive written tests, and they answered many questions concerning animal health, medicines, feed, meat parts, and other topics. The young women scored 100% on the test concerning how to determine which animals should be kept and which should be removed from a herd. Now the state champions, the four will move on to national competition at the National FFA Convention, slated for Oct. 28 to Nov. 1 in Louisville, Ky. The members, from left, are Tracy Bowman, Becky Berkebile, Lacie Berkebile, and Bridgette Welch. The girls expressed their gratitude to the businesses that donated market lambs at the fair to help defray travel costs. These businesses were Mettiki Coal, Hutzel Trucking, FA Tractor and Equipment, Bowman Milk Transport, Accident Garage, and the Grantsville Feed Supply. Sheriff Dick Sanders also helped the team. Those who would like to make a donation toward the cost of their trip to Louisville may contact Nancy Berkebile at 301-746-8884.

Annual Meeting Set By Oakland's Southern States

Southern States Cooperative will announce its preliminary year-end results at a series of local annual meetings, including the upcoming meeting for members of Southern States Oakland Cooperative. The local co-op's membership meeting is set for 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 25, at Pleasant Valley Community Center, 975 Joni Miller Road.

"The news is good," said national Southern States CEO Thomas R. Scribner. "Our restructuring strategy has enabled us to better serve our core business of agriculture while paying down our debt by some 62 percent in less than two years. I believe our members will be encouraged by the improvement in our financial position."

With the theme "Southern States Is Here to Stay," the cooperative's management will use the meeting to report on both local and company-wide operations, as well as projected budget results for next year. Local board members and Farm Home Advisory Committee (FHAC) members will be elected, and retiring FHAC and board members will be recognized.

Board nominees include Paul R. Bowers, Willard Broadwater, Terry Hauser, and Daniel Yoder. FHAC appointees include Dorothy Bernard, Lois Strawser, and Sandy Schmidt.

"The annual meeting is the best single opportunity to outline our plans for the future to our membership and discuss our progress in meeting our financial goals," noted Tom Hart, manager of Southern States Oakland Cooperative.

Wet Weather Slows Harvest

Cloudy days with continued rain showers resulted in 3.1 days suitable for field work for the week ending Sept. 7. Air temperatures ranged in the 80s for highs and the 70s for lows. Maryland farmers received an average of 1.4 inches of rain last week with the lower Eastern Shore and parts of western Maryland receiving in excess of 2 inches.

Corn is beginning to dry down as half of the crop is now in the dent stage of development. Over 10 percent of the corn silage has been harvested. This is 59 percent behind last year and 30 percent behind the five-year average. Soybeans are filling pods and will start to turn color in the next few weeks. Weeds are becoming a problem in hay fields, and insect and disease pressure on vegetable crops is becoming high, especially for lima beans.

Grant Funds Available For Ag. Program

USDA Rural Development state director Marlene Elliott has announced the availability of $27.7 million in competitive grant funds to help agricultural producers enter into value-added activities.

Applications are being accepted for the Value-Added Agricultural Product Market Development Grant Program that is designed to help independent producers, agricultural producer groups, farmer or rancher cooperatives, and majority-controlled producer-based business ventures process their raw products into marketable, value-added goods. "This program is designed to help bring new uses to farm products and increase the farm economy," said Elliott. "The program further supports two of President Bush's pillar initiatives, economic growth, and renewable energy."

The grant program is authorized under the Farm Security and Rural Investment Act of 2002. Ventures in which agricultural producers add value to their products through processing, segregation, or other means are eligible to apply for grants. Priority is given to ventures that create new energy sources. Grants can be awarded for such activities as developing a feasibility study or business plan, or using as working capital while the venture develops cash flow.

Grant funds cannot be used for the development of acquisition of buildings or other facilities, or to purchase, rent, or install fixed equipment. The maximum allowable grant amount is $500,000, and grant recipients must provide matching funds equal to the grant. The funds are available nationally on a competitive basis. Application deadline is 4 p.m. on October 20, 2003.

Additional application criteria can be obtained by calling the USDA Rural Development State Office for Delaware and Maryland at 302-697-4323 or 697-4300, or visiting the Agricultural Marketing Resource Center at www.agmrc.org. TTY users should call 302-697-4303.

Scholarships Awarded To GC Students

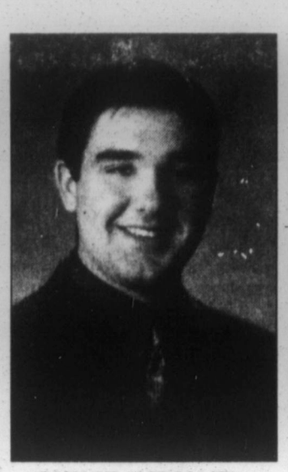
RACHEL MORSBERGER

JENNIFER BISER



GUY STANTON III

LORI YODER

JESSICA WISE

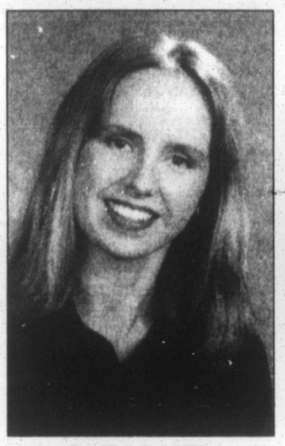
Seven students who have had a variety of secondary education experiences have been awarded scholarships by the Garrett College Foundation, according to the organization's executive director, Bretta Reinhard.

Rachel Morsberger, a 1997 graduate of the Advanced Training Institute of Oakbrook, Ill., has received the Garrett College Continuing Education and Training Division Scholarship. After being home schooled for 10 years, she has enrolled in the General Studies Program at Garrett and plans to become a photojournalist or photographer. Her hobbies are photography and crafts, and she enjoys working with the youth ministry at the Maranatha Church and helping to plan community outreach dinners in Grantsville. Morsberger is the daughter of Clyde and Linda Morsberger of Grantsville.

Jennifer Biser, a 2003 graduate of Southern High School, has received the MeadWestvaco Scholarship. In high school she was named to Who's Who Among American High School Students all four years, and was inducted into the National Honor Society. Biser was also voted Most Valuable and Dedicated Cheerleader and Cheerleader of the Year, and received the Captain's Award for cheerleading. At Garrett she is enrolled in the General Studies Program with plans to become a certified public accountant and eventually own her own accounting firm. She is the daughter of daughter of Kevin and Brenda Biser of Oakland.

Guy Stanton III, son of Mary and Guy Stanton Jr. of Grantsville, has received the Verizon Telecommunication Technology Scholarship. A 2002 graduate of the Zion Christian Academy, Stanton is enrolled in the Math-Science Program at Garrett, and plans to become a landscape architect. His ambition is to transform the ancestral farm where he lives into a profitable business and the "most beautiful place on earth." His interests are cats, cooking, and body building.

Lori Yoder, daughter of Terry and Ruth Yoder of Salisbury, Pa., has received the GC Board of Trustees Scholarship. She is a 1997 graduate of Mountain View Christian Academy in Springs, Pa., where she was editor of the yearbook, student director of dramatic productions, valedictorian of the graduating class, and was named to Who's Who Among American High School Students. At Garrett she is a member of the Honors Program and plans to transfer to Frostburg State University to complete degrees in elementary education and psychology. Her ultimate goal is to work with children who have fetal alcohol syndrome, possibly with Native Americans. Her interests are choir singing, participating in her church youth group, reading, traveling, and "enjoying the simple joys of life, but not shopping."



RAILI RAUD

JENEBA DARAMY

Jessica Wise, daughter of Richard and Patricia Wise of Waynesburg, Pa., has also received a Board of Trustees Scholarship and is now enrolled in the Natural Resource and Wildlife Technology Program. After she receives her associate in applied science degree, Wise plans to work outdoors and teach others to enjoy the environment without destroying it. She is a 2001 graduate of Waynesburg Central High School where she participated in Alpha, Interact, Grapplers, TV Workshop, and FFA, and was a member of the school choir, French Club, and Spanish Club. She was named to Who's Who Among American High School Students,and the National Honor Society, and was the 2000 Coal Queen representative. Her interests are camping, hiking, fishing, reading, singing, and spending time with family and friends. She volunteers to sing at churches, nursing homes, and funerals.

Raili Raud of Estonia received a Board of Trustees Scholarship as well. She graduated from Laagna Gumnasium in Tallinn, Estonia, where she participated in track and field, and was a member of the basketball and swim teams. At Garrett she is majoring in psychology and plans to become a clinical psychologist. She is vice president of the International Club and serves as a psychology tutor. She volunteered to assist at the Tall Tale storytelling festival for children, and helped with a mime workshop for first grade students and with costume design and rehearsals for second grade students at Broad Ford Elementary School. Her interests are art, painting, reading, sports, and traveling.

Jeneba Daramy, daughter of Abibatie Daramy of Germantown, has also received a Board of Trustees Scholarship. She is a 2002 graduate of Seneca Valley High School in Germantown, where she was in the International Club, the Sisters Club, and Quizmaster. She is majoring in international studies at Garrett, and she is a member of the college's International Club. Her interests are reading, dancing, and helping other people, which she does by volunteering at a nursing home.

MSP Release Aug. Statistics

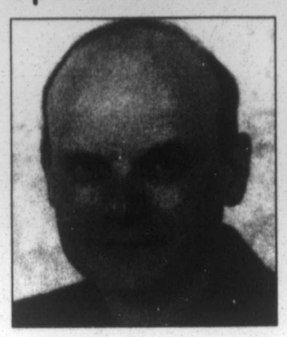
Cancer Society Sets "I Can Cope" Speakers' Series



DR. IHOR ZAKALUZNY

The Western Maryland Chapter of the American Cancer Society has slated "Learning About Cancer," the first of its free "I Can Cope" series, for 6 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 23, at the Garrett County Community Services building, located adjacent to Garrett County Memorial Hospital in Oakland.

Dr. Ihor Zakaluzny will be the guest speaker at the first session, which is open to all residents of Garrett County and the surrounding area. Zakaluzny will be speaking on such topics as the nature of cancer, types of cancer treatment and effects, and the disease process and how it affects the patient. He will also answer any questions that participants have. "This will be an evening of learning and sharing, in which participants will have many materials on cancer made available to them," said a Cancer Society spokesperson.

Zakalazny earned his doctor of medicine degree from the University of Calgary, and is currently in private practice in general surgery in Oakland.

Registration is suggested to guarantee materials but is not required. To register, or for further information, persons may call GCMH's Sara Burdette at 301-533-4311.

FRIENDSVILLE NEWS

Asher Glade Church of the Brethren

District Conference will be held Sept. 19 and 20 in Moorefield, W.Va.

Freedom Chapel

Freedom Chapel will be holding a "Celebration of Praise" on Friday, Sept. 19, at 7 p.m. and continuing every first and third Friday through October.

This non-denominational, contemporary style of service will include special music, special guests, and fellowship. The public is invited. Freedom Chapel is located along Bear Creek Road. For more information, persons may call 301 746-5172.

The Freedom Chapel is currently taking orders for Krispy Kreme doughnuts to help raise money for a new piano. The cost is $6 per dozen, and orders must be received by Sept. 18. The doughnuts will be delivered fresh on Friday, Sept. 26. To place an order, persons may contact any church member or call 301-746-5172.

Friendsville United Methodist Church

In recognition of Grandparents' Day, the youth of the church presented a short program. Those participating were Bryce, Emily, Noah, and Natalie Manges; Hannah Fike; and Hannah and Patrick Sines. Alison Sines sang a solo. Flowers were presented to everyone in the congregation.

Visitation teams are being planned. Anyone interested is asked to contact Pastor Phil at 301-746-5251.

Volunteers are needed to tape Sunday morning services, make copies of the tapes, and make deliveries. This will be done in all three churches, with only one recording done each week in rotation. For more information, persons may contact Pastor Phil.

Joint choir practices will be held Wednesday, Sept. 17, 24, and Oct. 1, beginning at 6:30 at the Friendsville Church. The joint choir will sing during the Oct. 5 morning worship services.

The Burlington Barn Festival will be held Sunday, Sept. 14, from 2 to 6 p.m. at the Bietschehof Farm in Grantsville.

Praise in the Park

"Praise in the Park" will be held Saturday, Sept. 20, from 3 to 10 p.m. in the Friendsville Town Park. The churches being represented in this event will be the Asher Glade Church of the Brethren, Little Sandy Church of the Nazarene, Cherry Glade Mennonite Church, and Oak Grove Church of the Brethren. This program is being coordinated by Nicole Sisler and will include a togetherness of worship with music and praise. The groups participating are: Oak Grove Musical Presentations, 3-6.30 p.m.; "Unseen," 6:30-8 p.m.; and Cherry Glade Praise Band, 8-10 p.m. Emcees will be Pastor Mike Robinson, Nicole Sisler, and Remington Friend.

The public is invited to attend this first-time event. For more information, persons may contact Nicole Sisler at 301-746-5750.

Senior Citizen News

An informative video will be shown on cholesterol Monday, Sept. 15, at 11 a.m.

A movie on France will be shown at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 17, followed by an ethnic French meal at noon.

21st Annual Spear Reunion

The 21st annual Spear reunion will be held at the Mountain Fellowship Center on Saturday, Sept. 13, at 10 a.m. The lunch will begin at 1 p.m. This year's theme is the 1950s and the reunion will include games, auction, skits, king and queen contest, special singing, and a nail-driving contest. Those who won afghans in previous years are asked to bring them this year. For more information, persons may telephone 724-483-6671.

Friendsville Fireflies 4-H Club

The next meeting of the Friendsville Fireflies will be held at the home of Gary and Alice Long on Tuesday, Sept. 16, at 6 p.m. They will be having a picnic and a hayride.

Friendsville Community Watch

The Friendsville Community Watch held its meeting on Monday at the town park. A topic of discussion was the upcoming picnic for the senior citizens.

The Community Watch will be setting up a booth at the Town Park on Saturday, Sept. 20, from 5 to 8 p.m. and will be serving hotdogs, sloppy joes, chili dogs, soda, coffee, and water during the "Praise in the Park."

They will also be sponsoring the St. Jude's Bike Rodeo on Monday, Oct. 6, starting at 5:30 p.m. at the Town Park. Money raised will go to the St. Jude's Cancer Research. For more information, persons may contact Brenda Frazee at 301-334-7730, ext. 6530.

The Community Watch meeting will be held on the second Wednesday of every month beginning Wednesday, Oct. 8, at 6:30 p.m. at the Friendsville Elementary School cafeteria.

Diabetes and Foot Care

There will be a diabetes and foot care class on Wednesday, Oct. 1, from 6-7:30 p.m. at the Oak Park Church of the Brethren in Mountain Lake Park. The instructor, Dr. Brian G. Dowling, foot specialist/podiatrist, will give instruction on topics such as what causes foot problems in diabetes, how to treat them, and how to lower one's chances of developing foot problems. The class is free, but to reserve a seat, interested persons should call 301-334-6960 by Sept. 26. This class is being sponsored by Maryland Cooperative Extension.

"In Honor and Remembrance Ceremony"

Woodmen of the World Lodge 45 is conducting a special community ceremony to honor the heroes and victims of September 11, 2001. The ceremony, called "In Honor and Remembrance–Woodmen Salutes America's Heroes," will also include a salute to the police officers, fire fighters, members of the armed forces, and others who help ensure safety.

The ceremony will be held this evening, Sept. 11, at the Town Park in Friendsville at 6:30 p.m.

This is the second year the lodge is sponsoring this project. Over the past two years, more than 1,100 ceremonies will have been conducted by Woodmen lodges nationwide. Many of the ceremonies, held at town halls, police and fire stations, schools, and other community buildings, include the dedication of flagpoles and commemorative plaques and the presentation of U.S. flags.

Community Watch

Any student who wishes to get community service hours for school may do so on Sept. 27 by helping with some projects in Friendsville. As a reward for doing service hours, the Friendsville Community Watch will reward these volunteers by taking them to the movies on Friday, Oct. 17, but in order to be able to go to the movies they must do service hours first. For more information or to preregister, persons may contact JoAnn at 301-746-4210 or Sharol at 301-746-5032. Registration is required no later than Friday, Sept. 26, at 4 p.m. to be able to do the service hours on the 27th.

Wing Night

Wing Night will be held every Friday from 6 to 9 p.m. at the Friendsville fire hall. A variety of wings will be offered, as well as fishtail sandwiches, french fries, onion rings, chicken tenders, and more. Live music is also played on certain nights. Proceeds go to support the Friendsville Volunteer Fire and Rescue Dept. Inc.

Collecting Aluminum Cans

Mary Ann Umbel is currently collecting aluminum cans, with the proceeds to go toward the Tim Umbel Memorial Fund. All help would be "greatly appreciated." Anyone who has cans that they would like to donate to this cause may do so by contacting Mary Ann and she will come pick them up.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
Garrett County Water and Sewer Master Plan

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing of the County Commissioners of Garrett County is scheduled for Tuesday, September 23, 2003, at the 11:00 a.m. in the Garrett County Commissioners' Public Meeting Room, located at the Courthouse, Oakland, Maryland, to consider an amendment to the Garrett County Water and Sewer Master Plan.

Residential Development is scheduled to occur on property owned by Deep Creek Development LLC; Marsh Mountain LLC and an area East of 219 Northbound Lane in McHenry recently purchased by Hugh Umbel. The developers would like to become part of the public water and sewer system to increase residential property value and make the sites more suitable for building.

A Preliminary Engineering Report for this area will show how the sewage flow will be accommodated with pumping stations and improvements to the force main.

The Buildout Projections and Preliminary Engineering and Environmental Report for the treatment facility on Mayhew Inn Road includes interim upgrades to the facility (already complete) and an initial orbal oxidation ditch accommodating 2.2 MGD. This is to be accomplished using the existing oxidation ditch facility with the interim upgrades complete and a 1.5 MGD orbal oxidation ditch to be completed by mid 2006.

Phase II of the treatment facility upgrade includes an additional 1.5 MGD orbal oxidation ditch with retirement of the initial facility bringing the total capacity to 3.0 MGD.

A collection and conveyance study of all contributors to the Deep Creek Wastewater Treatment Facility will be conducted estimating project costs including design activities to accommodate other Deep Creek communities into the system which are in need of service.

Interested persons will be heard at the Public Hearing on September 23, 2003, to determine if the amendments to the Garrett County Water and Sewer Master Plan are necessary for the public health, safety, and welfare of the residents of the proposed service area and if feasible financially and from an engineering standpoint.

By Order of the County Commissioners of Garrett County
R. Lamont Pagenhardt
County Administrator

PUBLIC NOTICE
Charter Revision Resolution 2003-1

A resolution of the Mayor and Town Council of Accident, Maryland, adopted pursuant to the authority of Article XI-E of the Constitution of Maryland and Section 13 of Article 23A of the Annotated Code of Maryland, 1957 Edition as amended, to repeal Sections 1-86 and 1-87 of the present Charter of the Town of Accident, said Sections being entitled: "Misdemeanors" and "Municipal Infractions," in their entirety, and to reenact a new Section 1-86/187 in its place and stead.

Be it resolved by the Mayor and Town Council of Accident that the present sections 1-86 and 1-87 of the present Charter of the Town of Accident, being entitled: "Misdemeanors" and "Municipal Infractions," are repealed in their entirety, and replaced by a new Section 1-86/181, "Enforcement," in their place and stead, a true copy of which will be posted at the Accident Town Hall for a period of forty (40) days following this enactment. A fair summary of the changes proposed is as follows.

1) Section 1-86/87, Enforcement: The Mayor and Town Council may provide that violations of any Town Ordinance shall be a "municipal infraction" as defined by Article 23A, Section 3, of the Annotated Code of Maryland, unless the violation is declared to be a felony or misdemeanor by State Law. All "municipal infractions" shall be considered civil offenses and shall be handled in accordance with the procedure set forth in Article 23A, Section 3, of the Annotated Code of Maryland, or any amendments thereto. The Mayor and Council shall from time to time, by resolution, establish the level of fines to be imposed for all such "municipal infractions." Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit or prevent the town from seeking other legal remedies such as injunctions, criminal prosecution, or damages in a civil action pursuant to Section 7.01 of Article 66B Annotated Code of Maryland as amended.

The Mayor and Town Council of the Town of Accident hereby gives public notice of the adoption of this Charter Revision and its intent to publish a fair summary of the changes proposed by this Revision in a local newspaper of general circulation in the town not less than four (4) times, at weekly intervals, within a period of at least forty (40) days following the enactment of this Resolution.

If a proper petition for a referendum has not been received within the forty (40) days timeframe, this Charter Revision shall become and be considered the Charter of the Town of Accident in all respects to be effective and observed as such upon the 1st day of November 2003.

Authority, Mayor and Council of the Town of Accident

SUBSTITUTE TRUSTEES' SALE
OF
OAKLAND, MD 21550

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain Deed of Trust from Harold Franklin Moreland to Household Finance Corporation, III, Trustee, dated November 8, 2002, and recorded in Liber 930, folio 234 among the Land Records of Garrett County, Maryland, the holder of the indebtedness secured by the Deed of Trust having appointed Gerlad Danoff, Dennis W. King, and C. Larry Hofmeister Jr., Substitute Trustees by instrument duly executed, acknowledged and recorded among the Land Records of the County aforesaid, default having occurred under the terms thereof, and at the request of the parties secured thereby, the undersigned Substitute Trustees will offer for sale at public auction

AT THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR GARRETT COUNTY, AT THE COURTHOUSE DOOR, OAKLAND, ON FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 2003 AT 1:30 O'CLOCK P.M.

ALL THAT LOT OF GROUND AND THE IMPROVEMENTS THEREON situated in Garrett County, Maryland, and more fully described in the aforesaid Deed of Trust.

The property is improved by a dwelling and is in fee-simple. The property address is 222 Moreland Drive, Oakland, MD 21550.

The property will be sold in "as is" condition and subject to conditions, restrictions, and agreements of record affecting the same, if any, and with no warranty as to the description of the improvements.

Terms of Sale: A deposit of $12,000 will be required at the time of the sale, such deposit to be in cash, cashier's check, certified check, or in other form as the Substitute Trustees may determine acceptable, in their sole discretion. Balance of the purchase price is to be paid in cash within ten (10) business days of the final ratification of sale by the Circuit Court for Garrett County. If payment of the balance does not take place within ten business days of ratification, the deposit will be forfeited and the property will be resold at the risk and expense of the defaulting purchaser. Interest to be paid on unpaid purchase money at the rate pursuant to the deed of trust note from date of sale to date of settlement, in the event the property is purchased by someone other than the note holder. Taxes and water rent to be adjusted to date of sale. All other public charges and assessments payable on an annual basis, including sanitary and/or metropolitan district charges to be adjusted for the current year to date of sale and assumed thereafter by the purchaser. Cost of all documentary stamps and transfer taxes shall be borne by the purchaser. If the Substitute Trustees are unable to convey good and marketable title, the purchaser's sole remedy in law or equity shall be limited to the refund of the deposit to the purchaser. Upon refund of the deposit, this sale shall be void and of no effect, and the purchaser shall have no further claim against the Substitute Trustees. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale shall assume the risk of loss for the property immediately after the sale.

PUBLIC NOTICE
Charter Resolution 2004-1

A resolution of the Mayor and Town Council of Grantsville, Maryland, adopted pursuant to the authority of Article XI-E of the Constitution of Maryland and Section 13 of Article 23A of the Annotated Code of Maryland, 1957 Edition as amended, to repeal Section 18-22 of the present Charter of the Town of Grantsville, being titled: "Enforcement," in its entirety, and to re-enact a new Section 18-22 in its place and stead.

Be it resolved by the Mayor and Town Council of Grantsville that the present section 18-22 of the present Charter of the Town of Grantsville, being titled: "Enforcement," is repealed in its entirety, and replaced by a new Section 18-22, "Enforcement," in its place and stead, a true copy of which will be posted at the Grantsville Town Hall for a period of forty (40) days following this enactment. A fair summary of the changes proposed is as follows.

1) Section 22-18, Enforcement: The Mayor and Town Council may provide that violations of any Town Ordinance shall be a "municipal infraction" as defined by Article 23A, Section 3, of the Annotated Code of Maryland, unless the violation is declared to be a felony or misdemeanor by State Law. All "municipal infractions" shall be considered civil offenses and shall be handled in accordance with the procedure set forth in Article 23A, Section 3, of the Annotated Code of Maryland, or any amendments thereto. The Mayor and Council shall from time to time, by resolution, establish the level of fines to be imposed for all such "municipal infractions." Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit or prevent the town from seeking other legal remedies such as injunctions, criminal prosecution, or damages in a civil action pursuant to Section 7.01 of Article 66B Annotated Code of Maryland as amended.

The Mayor and Town Council of the Town of Grantsville hereby gives public notice of the adoption of this Charter Revision and to publish a fair summary of the changes proposed by this Revision to be published in a local newspaper of general circulation in the town not less than four (4) times, at weekly intervals, within a period of at least forty (40) days following the enactment of this Resolution.

If a proper petition for a referendum has not been received within the forty (40) days timeframe, this Charter Revision shall become and be considered the Charter of the Town of Grantsville in all respects to be effective and observed as such upon the 1st day of October 2003.

Authority,
Mayor and Town Council of the Town of Grantsville

FEE-SIMPLE PROPERTY
SALE AT THE MAIN ENTRANCE OF THE CIRCUIT COURTHOUSE FOR GARRETT COUNTY IN OAKLAND AT 203 SOUTH 4TH STREET
NO. 852 FIRST AVENUE, FRIENDSVILLE, MD 21531

Under and by virtue of the power and authority contained in a certain Deed of Trust from Earl W. Meyers and Linda M. Fike, to William T. Wheeler, Trustee(s), dated October 17, 1989, and recorded among the Land Records of Garrett County, in Liber 538, Folio 428, (R. Douglas Jones and/or Mary Jane Fischer, having been appointed as Substituted Trustees therein by Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc., the present holder of the Note secured thereby), the insurer thereof being THE SECRETARY OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT, default having occurred in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured, and at the request of the party secured thereby, the undersigned Substituted Trustees will offer for sale at public auction at the main entrance of the Circuit Courthouse for Garrett County in Oakland at 203 South 4th Street, on

at 10:00 a.m.

all that land and premises described in said Deed of Trust as follows:

Lying and being in the Town of Friendsville, known as Lot No. 14 and the northern ½ of Lot No. 13, Block 3, on the plat of Steele's Addition, beginning at a stone planted on First Avenue marked "E" and running South 73° East 200 feet, thence South 17° West 75 feet thence North 73° West 200 feet to First Avenue, thence North 17° East 75 feet to the beginning, containing 15,000 square feet, more or less.

The property will be sold in "AS IS" condition, subject to conditions, restrictions and agreements of record, if any.

The property is improved by a DWELLING.

TERMS OF SALE: $4,000.00 cash, cashier's check, certified check, or in such other form as the Trustees may determine acceptable, in their sole discretion, will be required of the purchaser, (other than the above named Note holder or THE SECRETARY OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT) at the time and place of sale, balance of the purchase money in cash upon final ratificaiton of sale by the Circuit Court for Garrett County and to bear interest at 10% per annum from the day of sale to the day of settlement. In the event the above named Note holder purchases the property no deposit will be required and the requirement of interest on the balance of the purchase price shall be waived. All charges for conveyancing, recording, stamp taxes, transfer taxes, certificate of title, etc. to be at the cost of the purchaser. All other expenses, water rent, and real estate taxes and all other assessments and public charges, payable on annual basis including special paving tax, if any, to be adjusted to the date of sale, and assumed thereafter by purchaser. It shall be the purchaser's responsibility to obtain possession of the property in the event it is occupied.

Time is of the essence and terms of sale are to be complied with within ten days after final ratification thereof by the Court, otherwise the deposit will be forfeited and the property will be resold at the risk and cost of the defaulting purchaser. This sale is subject to Ratification by the Circuit Court for Garrett County. If the sale is not ratified, or if for any reason the Substituted Trustees are unable to convey clear, marketable title, the sale shall be void and the purchaser's sole remedy shall be the return of the deposit.

PREPARING FOR THE WORST – A car-owner in Grantsville isn't taking any chances today as Hurricane Isabel makes her way toward western Maryland. The Casselman River, which is close to this home, could indeed rise if the county is hit with significant rainfall. As of this morning, the predictions have eased up a bit for the local area, with 2 to 4 inches now expected instead of the original 6 to 8, which could have been disastrous. High winds are still a threat, though. One has to hope that this tree can withstand whatever may come, as the car is bound to it for the duration. It was learned at press time that county schools will be closed tomorrow, by order of the Garrett County Board of Education. All residents are urged to be aware of the pending storm, take proper precautions, and, most of all, use common sense.

MIEMSS Offering To Pay For New Grantsville Tower

Director Brad Frantz, Garrett County Emergency Management, told the Garrett County commissioners this week that a new Grantsville communications tower could be built without costing the county anything.

The 330-foot tower, tower foundation,12-foot-by-38-foot equipment building, and the required hardware would be paid for and installed by the Maryland Institute for Emergency Services Systems (MIEMSS) at the new county roads department complex in Grantsville. The $300,000 tower project had been slated for another area of the state, Frantz said.

The state agency's proposed tower would improve communication capabilities in the county for public safety, public works, and inter-agency and inter-jurisdictional mutual aid, according to county officials. It would also aid future communication needs.

County officials have been working on a similar project. Frantz said Lawrence Dawson, facilities and equipment supervisor for General Services, has been looking into installing a communications tower at the complex. Officials wanted the tower to not only benefit the roads department, but also accommodate the communication needs of the county.

Dawson said the county's project, involving a 100-foot tower, would cost the county $30,000 to $40,000. "It just keeps us from having to build one," Dawson said about the agency's offer to pay for and build a bigger tower. County administrator Monty Pagenhardt noted that the offer would not only cost the county nothing, it would save it money.

Commissioner Fred Holliday asked if there were any "down side" to the state's offer.

MIEMSS is only requiring that the county share the tower with it, said Frantz. The state also requires that a public hearing be held on replacing and installing the tower at the complex. He noted that the taller tower would just be replacing an existing one and would be in the "shadow of a couple of other towers."

The hearing is scheduled for Tuesday, Sept. 30, at 11:30 a.m. in the commissioners' meeting room in the courthouse in Oakland. State officials will attend the hearing and address the technical aspects of the project, Frantz said. "MIEMSS supports us," he said. "They want to see this take place.

AUTUMN GLORY ROYALTY INTRODUCED – The names of the Garrett County high school students selected as members of the royal court for the 2003 Autumn Glory Festival were recently announced. Travis Friend, a senior at Southern High School, will serve as king; Leslie Gaither, a senior at Northern High School, will serve as queen; Eric McFadden, an NHS senior, was selected as prince; and Natalie Domenick, an SHS senior, was chosen to be the court princess. Mike Kennedy of Railey Realty, royal court sponsor, and Blair Glass of Marvin's Men's Wear, provider of tuxedos for the king and prince, met with the students last week at the offices of the Garrett County Chamber of Commerce. Pictured, left to right, in the front row are Domenick and Gaither. In the back row are McFadden, Kennedy, Glass, and Friend.

Oakland To Host Second Strategic Planning Meeting

The town of Oakland is inviting all residents and interested persons to attend the second public meeting of its strategic planning process. The meeting will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 23, from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Mighty Oaks South, Oakland Golf Club.

The second meeting will follow up on the initial public meeting held on Sept. 9. At that meeting, participants designed the front page of a newspaper 20 years in the future. The headlines reflected participants' vision for changes that will occur in the community over the next two decades. This information will be used to craft a vision statement for Oakland which will guide the future direction of the strategic plan.

The meeting on Sept. 23 will result in the identification of priorities on which the plan will be focused. Task forces will be formed to assist in the development of project ideas for each issue area.

"The first meeting was lively and interactive, and I expect a lot of good ideas to be generated at this second meeting," said Mayor Asa McCain. "I really want to

Area Readies For Hurricane Isabel; Officials Urge Caution, Not Panic

The year 2003 continues to bring unusual weather to the Garrett County area, as a hurricane is now threatening to pass through. At press time this morning, Hurricane Isabel was slamming into the coast of North Carolina. It is projected to move north, across Virginia, parts of West Virginia, and then take a path through western Maryland. According to reports, it should continue through western Pennsylvania and western New York state before dissipating in Canada by Saturday.

Local emergency officials are preparing for possible flooding and wind damage throughout the county. The public schools will be closed tomorrow, according to the Garrett County Board of Education.

Brad Frantz, director of Garrett County Emergency Management, said the storm will affect Garrett County to some degree, although original predictions of a devastating 6- to 8-inch rapid rainfall have now been cut back to a more manageable 2 to 4.

"The storm has apparently shifted a bit to the east," Frantz said, "making the predictions a little more in line with something we can deal with."

Because of the wet spring and summer, the ground throughout the county is already saturated, which may pose a danger in windy, rainy conditions. Trees may come down, which could result in power outages and other damage.

Frantz has been preparing for the storm all week, meeting with weather officials and keeping in contact

Liberal Leave In Effect For State Employees

Governor Robert L. Ehrlich Jr. announced Wednesday that he has authorized liberal leave for all non-essential state employees for today, Sept. 18, and Friday, Sept. 19, because of the arrival of Hurricane Isabel. Essential employees should report to work as planned.

The governor made the decision after consulting with top state officials. He wants to keep roads clear for emergency vehicles and other essential traffic. The uncertain availability of public transportation after the storm hits also contributed to the decision.

"I urge state employees to use a common-sense approach and stay off of the roads as much as possible over the next several days," Governor Ehrlich said. "High water levels and debris from floods and blowing winds could make roads extremely dangerous for travel."

Hurricane Isabel made landfall along the coast of North Carolina early today and will bring tropical storm force winds and heavy rains to Maryland and other Middle Atlantic areas later tonight and Friday.

ClosetMaid Announces Delay In Construction At Grantsville Site

ClosetMaid officials recently advised the Garrett County commissioners that the company is delaying construction of the proposed ClosetMaid manufacturing and distribution facility at the Northern Industrial Park in Grantsville until "sometime in 2004 or 2005." The company cited the continuing weakness of the economy as the reason for the delay.

According to county administrator Monty Pagenhard, the officials reassured the commissioners that the Grantsville location is still valid to meet ClosetMaid's future distribution and manufacturing needs for its large Northeast customer base. They also stressed that the announcement is only a change in the start date.

"We have chosen the best location for not only the geography, but the individuals that make up the community," said Ken Russell, vice president for operations for ClosetMaid. Company officials went on to say that the building design and equipment layout have been completed, according to Pagenhardt.

The proposed ClosetMaid manufacturing and distribution facility would include approximately 800,000 square feet and employ more than 700 people when fully operational, he said.

"While we are obviously disappointed at this news,

Two GC Bridges Closed Following State Inspections

The Garrett County Roads Department recently announced that two bridges will be closed. The closings went into effect yesterday, Sept. 17.

Detour signs will be posted at the Savage River Road, the one closest to Bloomington on Savage River Road, and at Oakland-Rosedale Road Bridge over the Little Youghiogheny River outside Oakland.

During their recent biannual bridge inspection, state-assigned consultants noticed significant change to these bridges from previous inspections. Deterioration was significant enough that the consultants issued closing recommendations to the county, according to Dwight Emory, engineer for the county roads department.

"These are not permanent closures," he said. "The bridges will not be abandoned but will be replaced."

Garrett College To Expand, Update Its Athletic Facilities

Garrett County Community Action Committee recently received word from Victor Hoskins, secretary of the Maryland Department of Housing and Community Development, that is child care program at the Overlook Judy Center will receive funds that will support the program for another full year, according to Duane Yoder, president of GCCAC.

A few months ago, the Department of Human Resources announced that its funding would be discontinued as a result of the state budget deficit. Without state funding, 80 children and almost 60 families would have lost childcare at the Overlook Center, according to Yoder.

The funding commitment from Hoskins came after parents met with the secretary and Delegate George Edwards to seek continued funding for the program.

Yoder stated that he felt that the power of statements by parents to these officials and their letters to Governor Robert Ehrlich were instrumental in getting the renewed funding. All these parents work or are full-time students and in some cases both, explained Yoder.

"Without state support for the program, parents would not be able to afford childcare and parents have told me that they would have to quit their job if this program would cease to exist," said Yoder.

Pam Nelson, vice president for community services, said that the program serves children between the ages of 0 and 12 between the hours of 6 in the morning up to 11 in the evening.

"We really try to meet the needs of working families and at the same time make sure that the quality of care is such that children learn and are successful in school," Nelson said.

Overlook Judy Center To Receive State Funds For Another Year

The long held dreams of the mountain top community to have an indoor year-round recreation center and of Garrett College to expand and update its athletic facilities have coalesced in the plans about to be announced for a Garrett College Athletic and Community Recreation Center. The proposed center, now being discussed by college president Dr. Steve Herman with individuals in the community, will be jointly financed by state, county, and private contributions.

To be located on land that will be donated to the college on top of Marsh Mountain, the center will contain three gymnasiums, a weight room, exercise room, and two swimming pools – one Olympic size for competition and the other a recreation pool. The facility will be available for use by all ages of community residents, from youth to senior citizens.

Community leagues in basketball, soccer, and volleyball will have more space to compete; Garrett County swim teams will use the pool for practice and competition; major high school and college tournaments can be staged at the center;

Oakland Woman Dies Following ATV Accident Friday Afternoon

An Oakland woman died from injuries she sustained following an ATV accident at a private residence along Forest-Dobbins Road, Oakland, Friday afternoon, according to Garrett County sheriff's deputies.

Myrtle Ellen Dobbins, 77, was operating a 1991 Honda 300 ATV along a narrow trail, and for undetermined reasons she lost control of the vehicle, police said.

The accident is still under investigation by the GCSO crash reconstruction unit.

See obituary on page A-6.

DNR Shuts Down Parks, Grounds Because Of Storm

Upon the recommendation of Maryland's director of homeland security and the secretary of the Department of Natural Resources (DNR), Governor Robert L. Ehrlich Jr. directed DNR's State Forest & Park Service to evacuate campers from all DNR-owned lands, including all state forests and parks, and to close these areas Thursday and Friday. The decision was made in preparation for Hurricane Isabel.

All DNR owned and managed lands are closed to public access for any reason effective immediately. Existing reservations for hunting public lands on Thursday and Friday are canceled.

Maryland has 48 state parks, six state forests, 33 wildlife management areas, two natural environment areas, and four natural resource management areas. The evacuation and closures also affect Chesapeake Forest lands on the Eastern Shore. A decision to potentially open all DNR owned and managed lands will be made pending storm damage assessment.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS SUPPORT SGCRS BUILDING PROJECT – The Catholic Daughters Court, Oakland #2209, have offered support to the Southern Garrett County Rescue Squad's building project by donating $5,000 to the cause. The members have complemented their donation by issuing a challenge to other civic organizations to match or pass their donations. The rescue squad is in the process of constructing a new facility, which will be located along Rt. 135 in Mountain Lake Park. Pictured from left are Rayma Weeks, building committee chairperson; Catholic Daughter Paula Redinger; and Barbara Thorne, regent.

South African Math Educators Visit Garrett Col.

Five educators from South Africa are currently on a seven-week visit to Garrett College, where they are being hosted by Dr. Nancy Priselac, GC coordinator of mathematics, and members of the mathematics faculty and staff. The purpose of their visit is to observe techniques of teaching mathematics through the use of technology and to attend the two-week Mathematics Institute, which is scheduled at the college Oct. 18-31.

During their stay in the county, the visitors will shadow teachers and administrators, including Linda May, Mike Nedrow, Barry Stephens, Tim Foster, Dr. Jeff Reitz, and Priselac. They will also attend activities planned by the Garrett County schools for other international students in the area, tour economic development sites, and participate in cultural activities.

The South African educators may also offer co-curricular programs so that Garrett students can learn about their country's culture, according to Priselac.

The educators who are visiting Garrett are David Fransman, principal of Welkom Secondary School; Lucy Kganyago, mathematics teacher at Minerva High School; Thembilizwe (Tee-gee) Hawker, curriculum advisor for mathematics in South Cape/Karoo EMDC of the Western Cape Education Department; Masepe Harold Mokone, acting principal of Beacon Senior Secondary School; and Thembeni Dorothy Cele, mathematics teacher of Mshweshwe High School.

In addition to the five individuals now here in Garrett County, 34 other educators from South Africa are currently visiting high schools and colleges in southern Maryland. All 39 of the visitors will attend the Mathematics Institute.

The program will be conducted by Priselac and Mickey Merritt of Casio Inc., who will demonstrate use of technologies that include the graphing calculator, global positioning unit, probe, pocket personal computer, and a lap top with specialized mathematics software. Priselac and other Garrett faculty will present strategies for teaching mathematics and distance learning activities.

The South Africans' visit to the United States has been made possible through a grant written by Prince George's Community College and funding from the South African Ministry of Education.

OFFICIALS SIGN TOBACCO RESOLUTION – The Garrett County commissioners Tuesday signed a resolution in support of a public law to eliminate self-service tobacco displays in order to reduce youth access to tobacco products. The resolution noted that the existence of self-service tobacco displays increases youth access to tobacco products by making it easier for minors to shoplift the products and by increasing the likelihood that a minor will attempt to purchase tobacco and that a sales clerk will complete a sale to a minor. "Tobacco products are among the most commonly shoplifted items," noted Kendra Todd, director of health education for the Garrett County Health Department and member of the Tobacco-Free Coalition. The resolution stated that nearly 90 percent of adult daily smokers started at or before the age of 18; approximately 23 percent of Maryland high school seniors smoke, and rates for Garrett County are generally higher than the state average; and of the current youth smokers in Maryland, approximately 104,000 will die prematurely because of a tobacco-related illness. Seven Maryland counties have passed local legislation prohibiting self-service tobacco displays. Pictured, left to right, in the front row are Commissioners Ernie Gregg, Fred Holliday, and Dave Beard. In the back row are STEAM (Student Tobacco Elimination Among Minors) members from Northern and Southern high schools: Nicki Bender, Kara Bowser, Michelle Bender, Shaina Custer, Becky Guthrie, Lacy Glotfelty, Chaz Lantz, Terri Tasker, Randall Lewis, Katelyn Mark, and Lois Dever. ## Juvenile Charged Following Motor Vehicle Accident

Two juveniles were traveling southbound on Bradley Lane north of the Oakland Country Club when the driver failed to negotiate a turn, lost control, and struck two trees on the golf course Monday around 6 p.m., according to the Oakland City Police.

The passenger was transported by private vehicle to Garrett County Memorial Hospital, where he was treated and released.

The driver was not hurt in the incident, but further investigation revealed the juvenile did not have a driver's license and did not have permission from the vehicle's owner to drive the vehicle, police said.

The driver was later released to the parents.

The driver was charged with unauthorized use of a motor vehicle, destruction of property under $500, and driving a motor vehicle on a highway without required authorization.

According to the police, Seese failed to give his full time and attention to his driving. The Deep Creek Volunteer Fire Company and Maryland State Police also assisted at the scene. Neither driver was transported to the hospital.

WV Man Arrested Following Motor Vehicle Accident

An Aurora, W.Va., man was arrested after his vehicle was involved in an accident Friday along George Washington Highway, according to Garrett County sheriff's deputies.

Allen Dale Humphrey was traveling at a speed too great for the roadway conditions, and was found to be carrying prescription medication that was not prescribed to him, police said.

He was charged with possession of a controlled dangerous substance, and was later released on his own recognizance.

In a separate incident, Kimberly Braden Van Pelt, 20, Clifton, Va., was stopped Sunday along Interstate 68 at Amish Road for speeding, police said.

Upon contact with her, suspected marijuana flakes were observed in plain view, according to the report. She was mirandized and admitted to having marijuana. Van Pelt was arrested, and the vehicle search revealed suspected marijuana and paraphernalia.

She was charged with possession of a controlled dangerous substance.

In other police news, Darwin William Seese, 29, Markleysburg, Pa., was charged with failure to reduce speed to avoid a collision Friday afternoon when his vehicle rear-ended another vehicle driven by Heather Renae Nugent, 20, Friendsville.

Elections Board Slates Move To Mtn. Lake Park

The Garrett County Board of Elections will be moving out of the courthouse and relocating to the Public Service Center at GW Plaza, 2008 Maryland Highway, Suite 1, Mountain Lake Park.

The board had been scheduled to move this week, however, that has been delayed. The office will now be closed Sept. 23-24, and will reopen at the new site on Thursday, Sept. 25. The new office phone number will be 301-334-6985, and the fax number will be 301-334-6988.

CARD SALE PROFITS GO TO LIBRARY FUND – Joanne Durst, Accident, who recently completed a project in memory of her sister – consisting of an abstract painting done with acrylics on water color, titled "Angel Watching Over Me," then turned into a greeting card – is now donating the profits of her card sales to the Grantsville Library Book Fund. Initially being sold for $2 each throughout the area, Durst has totaled $1,500 in sales. Pictured above, Durst, left, presents the check to Cathy Ashby, director of the Ruth Enlow Library, and Kim Lishia, Grantsville branch manager.

Rabies Clinics Scheduled By Health Dept.

A series of low-cost rabies clinics have been scheduled by the Environmental Health Services office of the Garrett County Health Department. To date the county has had six confirmed positive cases of rabies in wildlife in 2003, and officials urge citizens to protect their pets and families from the disease by having their dogs, cats, and/or ferrets vaccinated at one of its clinics.

The rabies vaccination clinics will be offered from to 5 to 6 p.m. at the following locations: Grantsville Elementary School, Monday, Sept. 22; Swanton Community Building, Tuesday, Sept. 23; Crellin Elementary School, Wednesday, Sept. 24; Kitzmiller Community Building, Thursday, Sept. 25; and Friendsville Elementary School, Friday, Sept. 26. A sixth clinic is slated in Oakland, at the Health Department, located along Memorial Drive, for 10 a.m. to noon on Saturday, Sept. 27.

The vaccination cost is $5 per animal, and Health Department officials remind the public that only pets under the control of a responsible person may be brought to a clinic. Dogs must be on a leash, and cats and ferrets must be in a cage or tightly secured box with air holes. If a cage/carrier is not available cats must be carried in a pillowcase or suitable cloth sack. No other animals will be vaccinated.

For further information on the clinics or on the rabies disease, persons may call Environmental Health Services at 301-334-7760.

Allegany Woman Injured In Single Vehicle Accident

A Cumberland woman was injured when her vehicle ran off a wet Bittinger Road in heavy fog Monday afternoon, according to Maryland State Police troopers assigned to the McHenry barrack.

Randi Brant, 34, was southbound when she lost control of her 1994 Jeep Wrangler shortly after 1 p.m. approximately ½ mile north of New Germany Road. The SUV hit an embankment on the right side of the road before coming to rest.

Brant was transported by the Northern Garrett County Rescue Squad to Cumberland Memorial Hospital. Also responding to the accident scene were units from the Bittinger Volunteer Fire Department and the Southern Rescue Squad. No charges were filed.

GCMH To Benefit From Deep Creek Brewing Co. Gala

The Deep Creek Brewing Company, located in McHenry, will host a "Grand Re-Opening" event on Saturday, Sept. 27, titled "Night in Motown." Proceeds from the evening will benefit the Garrett County Memorial Hospital Emergency Room Equipment Fund.

A buffet dinner will be served from 6:30 p.m., followed at 8 p.m. with a performance by the Bobby Nicholas Band, a popular blues group. The dress is semi-formal.

Bobby Nicholas has had a lengthy career in music, including touring with Ray Charles and performing at many casinos. He has played at the Dunes and the Golden Nugget in Las Vegas, and has appeared with recording artist Nancy Wilson at Pittsburgh's Heinz Hall. He and his band perform regularly at numerous night clubs throughout Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Ticket price for the benefit is $50 per person, which includes dinner, an open bar, tax, and gratuities, according to Darrin Green, general manager.

The "re-opening" of the restaurant and brewing company is in recognition of recent improvements, including a new dining room, bar expansion, and a new deck. Employing approximately 60 people, the Deep Creek Brewing Co. has been in operation since 1996. After some changeover in ownership, the current site opened in the summer of 2000.

Green said the company has one mission: to bring the best food and beer to Deep Creek Lake.

"At the same time, we wanted the restaurant and pub to reflect the glory of Garrett County through exceptional service and a relaxing atmosphere," Green said.

The company hosts two fund-raisers for local charities each year. In addition to Night in Motown, the company will again host the annual Big Bear Biatholon/Duathlon.

For Night in Motown ticket information, persons may call 301-387-2182.

Judy Center

The Overlook Childcare Program has been operating for 8 years. Parents pay a sliding fee based on their income. The difference between the income from fees is what is provided by the state and will be funded through the Community Development Block Grant administered by the Department of Housing and Community Development.

The Overlook childcare center is part of the Judy Hoyer Early Child Education and Community Action's Head Start programs. It works closely with the surrounding elementary schools to help prepare preschool age children for school and to enhance performance of those children in school, Nelson stated.

encourage those who are interested in the future of Oakland to come to this meeting and give us your input. This plan will be the roadmap for many activities in the future."

The Garrett County Community Action Committee, the agency that received funding to support this effort, has contracted with Terrell Ellis & Associates, a consulting firm from Charleston, W.Va., to facilitate the strategic planning process. The firm specializes in community and economic development planning and has extensive experience in working with rural communities like those in Garrett County.

Jacquelyn Shirer Named Chair For "Autumn Splendor"

Jacquelyn L. Shirer, a long-time resident of Garrett County, has been named as the honorary chairperson for the Garrett County Memorial Hospital Foundation's Autumn Splendor Dinner/Dance scheduled for this Saturday at the Wisp Resort, Mcenry.

"We are very pleased to have this opportunity to honor Jacquelyn Shirer," said Wayne Johnson, event chairman. "We have referred to Jacquelyn as the 'Mother of the Foundation.' The idea of having a foundation to help fund equipment and capital improvements first came about at her suggestion. Jacquelyn refers to the foundation as a dream of hers."

Shirer has been an active hospital advocate for many years. She has continued to serve on the foundation board since its inception in 1989. Shirer also served as a member of the hospital's board of governors for 17 years. During that time she has held several different positions to include vice president, secretary, and treasurer. Her late husband, William Shirer, also served on the board.

A certified medical technologist, Shirer was one of the hospital's first employees when it opened its doors in 1950. Her role was to set up and run the lab and X-ray department.

Seeing Shirer's foundation dream come true has turned out to be an asset to both the community and the hospital, said a GCMH spokesperson. Many technological advancements have been funded through the generous community support for the foundation. Most recently was the successful Capital Campaign, which raised more than $2 million to help fund the building expansion and renovation project currently under way.

Be Careful, Be Patient...

While having no desire to create panic by overreacting to the impending arrival of the remains of Hurricane Isabel, we utilize this column today as a warning that things could get a bit dicey by late tonight and early tomorrow. As late as this morning there were predictions of 6 to 10 inches of rain for our region, but just before press time the National Weather Service reported that the storm has shifted slightly to the east, and now we can expect between 2 and 4 inches of rain.

Six to 10 inches would, literally and without doubt, result in a major disaster, particularly for our towns located along waterways (Kitzmiller, Crellin, and Friendsville, in particular). Making things worse is the fact that our ground is already rather saturated, making flash flooding far more likely with rapid, heavy downpours.

We hope the new forecast is accurate; however, receiving even 2 to 4 inches of rain in a 10- or 12-hour span, likely coupled with gusts of wind at 50-plus miles per hour, has the potential for some major problems. Thus, even with the latest forecast this situation should not be taken lightly by anyone. Carelessness under such conditions can quickly lead to tragedy.

While we on the Mountaintop are more familiar with the precautions for blizzards, many of them are the same for hurricanes: be prepared to relocate, particularly if you live in low-lying areas; have flashlights, extra batteries, and fresh water on hand; put away lawn chairs and anything else that might blow away; prepare for a flooded basement; keep a cell phone handy, and make sure it's charged; check on elderly neighbors/relatives; make sure pets are safe; and prepare for power outages. Don't attempt to drive through deep water on the roadways, and be particularly wary of trees. Our trees are accustomed to receiving wind from a westerly, rather than easterly, direction; plus, the aforementioned saturated ground makes uprooting, even of perfectly healthy trees, more likely.

There are many other suggestions that could be listed, but the best single catch-all is to simply use good common sense. Don't take unnecessary risks or knowingly place yourself in harm's way.

Also remember that our volunteer emergency fire and rescue workers, as well as the staff of the Garrett County Office of Emergency Management (911), law enforcement officials, and utility company workers are going to be extremely busy; they will probably be stretched to the max before it's all over. They are limited in number, and there is a limit to what they can quickly accomplish. Therefore, those who need their assistance are asked to exhibit as much patience and understanding as possible. Flooded basements, no matter how destructive, will always be second (or third or fourth) in priority if someone's life is at stake.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

I lived in Garrett County (Grantsville) for more than nine years, and I can say that I shared your pet peeve (in The Republican of September 4, 2003) 100%! As my wife (the former Elizabeth Ann Warnick) will testify, I griped about exactly the same thing all the time we lived there. Now that we are back in Tennessee, I can say that the problem driving with their lights off is about the same here. I don't think we have as many who drive with only their parking lights on as you all do there.

Anyway, thanks for publishing "a pet peeve." I hope it does some good!

Sincerely,
Tom Fife

To the Editor:

How can the American people be so "bushwacked" as to think his leadership is anything but ridiculous?

Start a war with dubious facts—find no weapons, spend 5 billion dollars a month (equal to Vietnam in "real dollars"), lose close to one American soldier per day, ask for another 87 billion dollars, ignore our allies and the U.N., and then ask them for help with no say in the rebuilding process.

Leave no child behind? How about all of them?! We will spend more money in Iraq next year than we will spend on education.

Health care? Twenty-five million more people will be getting free health care next year...in Iraq!

All of the above, while at the same time giving back tax money mostly to the upper 5%. Never have we gone to war without raising taxes. It costs money to fight a war and we are going to pay the freight. Meanwhile, many of the president's political contributors will be making out like the bandits they are.

Wake up, America! We deserve better leadership than this.

To the Editor:

Recently our esteemed editor confessed to a slight case of writer's block as an editorial deadline loomed. This caused a light bulb to flicker in my big noggin.

A few weeks ago reader Ann Combs had an outstanding letter to the editor about how tourists are rude to the very Garrett Countians who work like dogs to serve them and give them a pleasurable and memorable vacation.

Unfortunately, her letter was the very last one, and chopped up as it was formatted around advertisements on the page.

Even worse, since there was no headline over the letter, there was nothing to attract the reader's attention to her valid observations. Personally, I thought her letter should have been in a big black box on the front page of The Republican, so as to draw the attention of the tourists and perhaps make them think before they became rude and crude.

Since our hard-working editors, in the words of the McDonald's jingle, certainly have situations where they "deserve a break today," perhaps there might be some consideration of granting a guest editorial to outstanding reader concerns when writer's block attacks the Republican staff on rare occasion. After all, when it comes to vacations it should be just as easy to give one to Garrett County citizens (i.e., Republican employees) as the "outlanders," else we would have inhumane expectations.

Sincerely yours,
Douglas Scott Arey

To the Editor:

The Federal Communications Commission recently issued its Triennial Review that included revised regulatory procedures for telecommunications and broadband usage.

The Federal Communications Commission order is good news for consumers. It ensures more competition and thus lower prices in local telephone service.

The issue now moves to regulatory authorities in the states. Each state will make an individual decision as to how best to foster competition. The FCC has expressly recognized that in many places, artificial barriers to competition exist. It is up to the state regulatory authorities to tear down those barriers and bring the benefits of true competition to the great majority of consumers.

At the same time, the FCC is premature in declaring the existence of sufficient competition in the Internet broadband market. Perhaps we will reach that point, but we are not there. The failure to consider all local aspects of broadband competition is detrimental to the growth of competition and will not benefit consumers either in the range of choices or the costs.

While the FCC order is a step in the right direction on voice services, there is still much to accomplish on the state level to maximize the benefit of competition for consumers.

Sincerely,
Maureen O'Connor

To the Editor:

Veterans beware!! Promises made are being broken.

The American Legion is a leader in attempting to maintain, restore, and/or increase promised benefits for veterans.

Some benefits have been diminished or eliminated over the years. Promises made and promises broken. Six months or more is too long to have to wait for medical care in a Veterans Administration (V.A.) facility. Some facilities are under staffed while others are closing. This is unacceptable, not just for those who have required medical care from prior service, but also for those who are serving now and will need the V.A. facilities upon their release from the service.

You can help! Maybe you don't need such care right now. Thank God that you don't and pray that you never will. However, there are thousands upon thousands who do need immediate care. Write to your representatives and senators and let them know that you want the veterans to have the benefits promised them. Make the V.A. funding mandatory, not discretionary.

There is strength in numbers. The American Legion is the world's largest wartime veterans organization and we need to add to our number to have a stronger voice when addressing these issues.

Proctor Kildow Post 071 is located here in Oakland and is accepting new members. Our membership is higher than it has ever been, possibly because of veterans realizing the importance of the Legion speaking out to Congress on their behalf.

If you would like to join Post 071 and are a veteran of the current conflict or other major conflict since World War I, contact any present member of Post 071 for an application. You may also pick up an application at the Post Home, 423 Memorial Drive, phone 301-334-3308 or e-mail mylegion @iceweb.net and one will be mailed to you.

To the Editor:

Just a quick response to Linda Kyle's letter last week. First off, I want to thank you for showing your expertise in last week's letter. Let me introduce myself. My name is Linda L. Paugh, "owner" of B & L Discounted Treasures in Gorman. Please make note that B & L stands for Bruce and Linda. Bruce E. Brown of Gorman is assistant chief/first responder of the Gorman Vol. Fire Dept. and has been an active member for 18 years. Yes, one of those selfless, wonderful firemen you praised in one paragraph and slandered in another.

My question to you, Ms. Kyle, is what and whom are you mad at? Would you rather see the Gorman Vol. fire hall lying on the ground in a bundle of rubbish? Where was your letter of concern when you first learned of the financial trouble of the fire hall? Yes, it is heart wrenching, the lack of support for the ones who will be there for you when you are sick or in need. But this is not a new problem, nor does it exist only in our community. I don't call asking the public to withhold contributions from the fire dept. being real supportive. Community organizations work together to survive. Where would you and your auxiliary be without the Gorman Vol. Fire Dept.?

Bruce and I opened B&L Discounted Treasures, a variety and gift shop, a year ago in a very small basement next door to the fire hall. Our business grew quickly within a year and we were in need of a larger building. At the same time the Gorman fire hall was in danger. I looked at it as though God said, hey, put two and two together! We helped the firemen out; they still own their building, and have no financial burden, and they in return helped us out. I don't understand why someone would prefer that a building not exist than for someone else to be in it, take over the bills, and free the fire dept. of some debt? B&L Discounted Treasures is a wonderful variety and gift shop. We are not in this to make a killing; we are in it to make a living. We have many wonderful customers who support us to strive and grow.

Please don't slander us, or the Gorman Vol. Fire Dept., until you have all your information (gossip) and calculations correct and in order. If you have further questions, I am available daily at the store from 10 to 5. I would be more than happy to fill you in on the truth. Thank you for your concern.

with the National Weather Service. He will meet this afternoon with all local public safety people, including those from the police, fire departments, rescue squads, the American Red Cross, public works, and the roads department.

"We want to be sure everyone is ready, and everything is coordinated," he said. "The EMS stations are all on standby, and the DNR water rescue team is activated. This team can be used locally wherever we may need it."

Frantz said arrangements have been made for the re-routing of 911 calls, should that need arise in the event of power outages.

The areas of concern for Garrett County are those close to rivers and streams, such as Friendsville, Crellin, Kitzmiller, and along the Savage River. As of this morning, no evacuations have been ordered.

"The only area for now that may be evacuated is near the Savage River below the dam," Frantz said. The bridge there was closed this week because of structural problems. Therefore, residents should be prepared to leave by another route, and may want to relocate voluntarily, Frantz said.

The director said two shelters are already established in the Oakland area. One is at the Oakland fire hall and the other is at the Oak Park Church of the Brethren. A third shelter in the southern part of the county will be in operation by this evening, as well as a fourth in the Finzel/Grantsville area, Frantz noted. Persons who need to be transported to the shelters may contact the emergency management office at 301-334-1930.

As in all cases of high water, persons are reminded not to drive through streams even if they appear to be shallow.

"That's how most deaths occur in situations like this," Frantz said.

Residents who live in low-lying areas should have plans for relocation, or they may want to relocate now, Frantz said. These residents should also move household belongings to upper floors, if possible.

Storm preparations are taking place across Maryland, as Governor Robert Ehrlich has already declared a state of emergency. This declaration calls the Maryland National Guard into active service and allows the emergency operation centers for local jurisdictions to access state resources when the need extends beyond their capabilities.

"I ask Marylanders to monitor their local news outlets in the coming days for further information [about Hurricane Isabel and its effects]," the governor said.

we understand and appreciate the reasons for the delay," said Garrett County Commission board chairman Ernie Gregg. "The board is optimistic that this represents a temporary setback and remains excited about the project. We will continue to work closely with ClosetMaid and the Maryland Department of Business and Economic Development to bring the project to reality."

GC To Expand

and special activities for seniors – water therapy and healthful exercise – will be scheduled.

In addition to enhanced student recreation, Garrett College will have state-of-the-art athletic facilities for its men's and women's intercollegiate teams.

Because the facility will be the college's athletic center, the state will contribute 60% of the cost of construction, according to Herman. To offset the required local matching dollars, the Garrett College Foundation will conduct a campaign to secure private donations and will seek to reach a fund-raising goal of $4 million so that the facility can operate free of debt service. The Recreation Center will be owned and operated by the college, with its services and facilities available to Garrett Countians at affordable rates.

Herman explained that the center will be adjacent to the Adventure Sports Center International, and the college will move both its physical education program and its adventure sports program to that location.

"Garrett's physical education facilities are by far the worst in the state," he says. "Our entire inside athletic facility consists of an undersized, outdated bare bones gymnasium with limited seating capacity. When this facility and the Adventure Sports Center are completed, Garrett College will add a recreation major to the curriculum, and possibly a physical therapy major, and our students will then have opportunities for paid internships that will give them a leg up on their future careers. Students will be able to attend classes and hold part-time jobs in their field, all in the same location."

Pointing out that the mountain top location will create two campuses, Herman said that many colleges, including West Virginia University, have dual campuses and that Garrett College will provide bus service for students between its upper and lower campuses.

Beyond the healthful benefits to Garrett's students and community residents, Herman said he sees the new Athletic and Recreation Center giving a boost to future enrollment and to economic development in the county. Not only will the center employ a year-round staff, but in conjunction with the Adventure Sports Center, it will help to establish a four-season tourism industry in Garrett County.

Economic benefits to the county will be realized, and with the new athletic facilities for the college, more local students will elect to get their first two years of higher education at Garrett, thus creating a financial benefit for their parents, he added.

Plans for the athletic and recreation center are being developed by a steering committee which has been meeting periodically with Herman through the summer months. Members of this committee are Delegate George Edwards, Commissioner Ernie Gregg, Meg Ellis, Don Battista, Jim Hinebaugh, Mike Kilgus, Mike Logsdon, Eric Urfer, Ann Wellham, Duane Yoder, and Dr. Duane Cummins.

As plans are developed, the community will be informed through newspaper and radio announcements, town meetings, and group meetings. Herman states the college's mission in this project as one of service to the community.

"This center will be operated for the benefit of the college's students and community citizens of all ages. It will be open and accessible to everyone," he said.

MATCHSTICK MEN

Rated PG-13 - Running Time: 1:56 - Released 9/12/03

Matchstick Men is the latest from director Ridley Scott, who has given us such memorable products as Alien, Legend, Bladerunner, and more recently, Gladiator and Black Hawk Down. Like those, this film is distinguished by impressive visuals and a brisk pace, but frankly, with his talent and that of his cast (Nicolas Cage, Sam Rockwell, and Alison Lohman), I would have expected better. Matchstick Men isn't bad; it's just average, but when you've built a reputation for excellence, sometimes average is a bit of a disappointment. Anyway the fault here lies mostly with writers Ted Griffin (Ocean's Eleven) and his brother Nicholas, who together adapted the screenplay from the novel by Eric Garcia. Garcia's story is reasonably clever and quirky, if a bit implausible, but the Griffins' screenplay seems to overemphasize the implausibility and downplay the cleverness, forcing the actors to say and do things that emit just the slightest hint of rat odor far too early for the film's own good. Smelling a rat is perfectly proper for a con caper movie like this, where one isn't supposed to know who is conning whom until the final reel, but things aren't supposed to get really ratalicious until late in the film's second half.

Cage plays Roy Waller, a con man from Los Angeles whose method of ripping people off (a combination of telemarketing fraud and door-to-door swindling) wouldn't be all that notable were it not for the fact that he suffers from agoraphobia, obsessive/compulsive disorder, and what seems to be a mild form of Tourette's syndrome, all of which cause him to have a need for extreme order in his life lest he begin twitching, winking, and/or grunting uncontrollably. His ability to hold it together while bilking a retirement-aged couple out of their money, in the midst of such crippling confidence-breakers as floating dust particles, filthy pets, and soiled shoes being allowed to touch the floor, is mainly thanks to two things: the undying support of his partner, Frank Mercer (Rockwell), and the pills supplied to him by his psychiatrist (Bruce Altman). During several of his twitchy therapy sessions, we learn that Roy is 14 years divorced and may or may not have a child out there somewhere. His treatment is soon put to the test when a teenage girl named Angela (Lohman) appears, not only claiming to be his long-lost daughter, but asking if she can stay with him for a while as she and her mother have had a falling out. This of course has a mind-blowing effect on Roy, since her casual habits undermine his carefully ordered routine and besmirch his painfully immaculate suburban home. Things are further complicated when Angela, a talented grifter herself, learns about the big con Roy and Frank are about to pull on a wealthy snob (Bruce McGill), and asks if she can help out.

There's a lot of fake laughing and fake crying in this movie, and not all of it is supposed to be fake; director Scott should have done something about this, but he is known more for shotmaking than interpersonal relationships. Lohman, who was astounding in White Oleander, is clearly struggling with the text; her delivery is as believable as she can manage it but the faulty dialogue makes it difficult for her. Cage's neurotic affectations are fascinating to watch, but he too is burdened with unrealistic wordplay and a sometimes laughably simplistic story line. Rockwell, meanwhile, is the only one who shines throughout, but that may be only because he is underused. His charisma is sorely missed during the central portion of the film during which Roy and Angela are having their long, awkward bonding session.

Matchstick Men is ultimately a slightly tarnished treasure; with the combined talent of its production team, it could have been great, but because of its clumsy writing style it has to settle for just being good. ★★★½

LOCAL YOUNG PEOPLE WORKING TO BECOME "SEAFARERS" – Five local individuals are currently taking part in a unique program in conjunction with the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy in southern Maryland. Pictured above is Timothy Ross, Friendsville, on lookout on the bridge of the vessel Horizon Hawaii, off the coast of Puerto Rico. The AFL-CIO Appalachian Seafarers International Union and the Paul Hall Maritime School for Maritime Education and Training have formed a partnership with the Seafarers Apprenticeship Introductory Link (SAIL) in order to provide pre-apprenticeship training. Qualified individuals may earn scholarships which cover entry to the school and, upon a successful completion of the training, seafarer job placement. Funded by the Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing, and Regulation, the program offers dislocated, unemployed, or underemployed individuals the opportunity to receive training and employment. Any Workforce Investment Act qualified youth at least 17 1/2 years of age may apply. Other local people engaged in the training are Mike and Gregg Alexander and Joseph Lynch, all of Sang Run; Kenneth Casteel, Finzel; and Richard Wiltison, Barton. For more information about this program, persons may contact David Schroyer, Merchant Marine instructor for the SAIL program, at 301-334-8122, or may visit him at the Western Maryland Consortium office, located along Third Street in Oakland.

A RECAP ON SUMMER ACTIVITIES

Steve Rounds, an NHS senior, attended the Dickinson College Summer Spanish Immersion Program. He was one of only six American students chosen to travel to Mexico for three weeks to study Spanish. In preparation for the trip, Steve had two weeks of Spanish instruction at Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pa., where he achieved a 4.0 in the Spanish 116 course. While in Mexico, Rounds attended class six hours a day at the Universidad Autonoma de Queretaro. He also had the opportunity to tour central Mexico, where he visited Mexico City and the ancient pyramids of Teotihuacan. Steve's future plans include attending Dickinson College, where he plans to double major in Spanish and international studies in Latin America starting in the fall of 2004.

Six students from NHS traveled to Ubrique, Spain, this summer for a two-week exchange program. Those students selected were Dallas Miller, 2003 graduate; Amanda L. Friend, senior; Steve Rounds, senior; Darsey Branthoover, senior; Brandy Custer, senior; and Margaret Mastej, junior. The American students were each paired with a Spanish student, with whom they resided for the two weeks. The students sat in on various classes prepared for them to get a better understanding of the historical events of southern Spain. The classes were taught in Spanish only, putting their listening skills to the test. Communicating with their host families also brought about a challenge as most family members spoke no English. The six Spanish students arrived in the United States on September 10 to fulfill their half of the exchange. While in America, the students have been touring unique sites of the county, such as Hickory, the state parks and Amish country. The students will also be participating in classes at both Northern and Southern. The last three days of their trip will be spent touring the nation's capital along with 15 other history students at Northern. The exchange program has been made possible by the Smith Family Foundation.

HOMECOMING

The annual homecoming football game will be held on Friday, Sept. 26, at 7 p.m. All local businesses are asked to support the Huskies all week by proudly displaying blue and gold, the school colors. Students are asked to show their spirit by dressing up on the designated days. Monday: Oldies Day, Tuesday: Wacky Day, Wednesday: Dress Like Your Favorite Movie Star Day, Thursday: Twin Day, and Friday: Blue and Gold Day. There will be a door decorating contest held during homeroom on Monday. Most creative outfits and best door designs win prizes.

DANCE

The homecoming dance will be held on Saturday, Sept. 27, from 8 to 11:30 p.m. The theme this year is: A Night in Hollywood. Cost is $5 per person.

NOTES FROM THE GUIDANCE OFFICE

If you are interested in the Maryland Page Program, please sign up in the guidance office by Sept. 26.

A representative from Garrett College will be at the school on Monday, Sept. 22, at 2 p.m. Anyone interested in meeting with the representative should sign up in the guidance office before Friday, Sept. 19, at 3 p.m.

Congressman Roscoe Bartlett is hosting an academy night on October 13 for prospective military academy candidates and their parents to learn more about the process. The program will be held in Frederick at 7 p.m. Interested candidates should start the application process in April of their junior year. Students desiring more information on Congressman Bartlett's meeting should see Mrs. Douds.

STEAM

There will be a STEAM meeting on Sept. 22, 3:30-4:30, in Room 200. Students can earn service learning hours. This is sponsored by Garrett County Health Dept., Sharon Custer, and Brenda Frazee at Community Health and Outreach.

ATTENTION MIDDLE AND HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH FROM THE FRIENDSVILLE AREA

Free Trip: to Garrett 8 Cinemas for Friendsville Fun Night (includes bus ride and admission fees).

Requirement: Must do two hours of community service at the Friendsville Library or Town Park on Sept. 27 between the hours of 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Call Sherry Coddington at 301-746-5302 or JoAnn Ross at 301-746-4210 to sign up or for more information.

JOSTEN'S TO BE AT NHS

Josten's will be at NHS on Friday, Sept. 19, at 1:30 p.m. They will be meeting with sophomores to discuss class rings.

PLANS FINALIZED FOR ANNUAL DINNER, SILENT AUCTION – Members of the community relations committee met recently to finalize plans for the fifth annual dinner and silent auction to benefit the Maryland Salem Children's Trust. Slated this Saturday, Sept. 20, at the Lane Center at Frostburg State University, the auction begins at 5:30 p.m., with dinner at 6:30. Guest speaker Doug MacMillan, CEO of the Todd Beamer Foundation, will talk about his friendship with the "Let's Roll!" hero and about dealing with family trauma in children's lives, the shared mission of Salem and the Beamer Foundation. The Salem Choir will sing, and Gary Ruddell, president of Hobby House Press and Total Biz Fulfillment, will serve as emcee. The dinner celebrates Salem's 25th anniversary of bringing hope and help to hurting children. Auction items include autographed copies of three September 11-related books. Other items include gift certificates from area businesses. Items on view at the auction will range from an antique chair, courtesy of Hummel's Furniture, to two wedding dresses donated anonymously. For information or reservations, persons may call 301-689-8176, ext. 206. Pictured above, from left to right are Roxanne Baer, Tom Ruckert, Cathy MacFawn, Sam Reckley, and Sandi Gardner. Other members of the committee are Gary Durr, Hal Forsyth, Louise Richards, Gary Ruddell, Luanne Ruddell, and Joyce Sauder.

Certain Medications Can Cause Tremors

Tremors are an involuntary shaking or quivering. They can be annoying, embarrassing, and sometimes physically debilitating. An essential tremor is the kind commonly experienced by the elderly because it progresses with age and is commonly seen in different family members. A shaking that intensifies with an action such as raising a cup to drink is known as an action tremor. Resting tremors occur when the person affected is at rest. There are many causes of tremors. Some tremors can be cause by medicines and are, therefore, considered treatable.

Resting tremors may be caused by antipsychotic medications. Action tremors can be brought on by a variety of different medicines including thyroid medications, certain seizure drugs, and many antidepressant medicines. Tremors associated with antidepressants can occur with normal drug doses. When a tremor is thought to be drug-related, the prescribing physician may decide to change the dose or switch to a different medication.

The varsity football team will play at Berkeley Springs on Friday, Sept. 19, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Their first home game is scheduled for Friday, Sept. 26, against Turkeyfoot at 7 p.m.

The JV football team will play against Westmar on Monday, Sept. 22, at the NHS field, beginning at 7 p.m.

The NHS boys' soccer team will compete against Beall on Thursday, Sept. 18, at NHS at 6 p.m. They will compete at Berlin on Monday, Sept. 22, at 7 p.m., and they will host Petersburg on Wednesday, Sept. 24, at 6 p.m.

The NHS girls' soccer team will compete at Westmar on Tuesday, Sept. 23, beginning at 7 p.m. They will host Fort Hill on Thursday, Sept. 25, at 6 p.m.

PREPARING FOR THE HARVEST SALE – Students and parents of Swan Meadow School's PTO make many handmade gifts like quilts, cookie mixes in a jar, grapevine wreaths decorated with dried flowers, twig-adorned vases filled with wildflowers, and nature note cards for the school's annual fund-raiser on Friday, Sept. 19. The 54th Harvest Sale begins with the concession stand opening at 5:30 p.m. with dinner, dessert items, and beverages; the students singing at 6:45 p.m.; and the auction of farm produce and homemade goodies starting at 7 p.m. Warm, glazed doughnuts and cinnamon rolls, fudge, caramel popcorn, moon pies, the famous Black Walnut Cake, and many other traditional treats will be sold at the concession stand. The public is invited to attend on Friday night at the Pleasant Valley Community Center. Attendees should turn onto Paul Friend Road from Route 219 South, pass Rigidply Rafters on the right, turn right onto Joni Miller Road, and proceed to the community center on the right.

Town Hall

LOCH LYNN HEIGHTS

•Street paving is scheduled to begin the last week in September.

•Last day to file for candidacy for the upcoming November election's two town council positions is Monday, Oct. 6, at 5 p.m.

•Donations and volunteers are being accepted for the completion of the concession stand. Persons wishing to donate time, materials, equipment, or funds may contact the town hall at 301-334-8339. All donations are greatly appreciated.

•Tree replacement planting is scheduled for this fall. Persons wishing to have a tree planted on town property near their residence should list their request with the town hall. There will be several varieties of trees from which to choose.

•The pavilion and all purpose room at the Community Center are available for rent the last two weeks of September and the month of October.

The next mayor and town council meeting is scheduled for Oct. 7 at 7 p.m. at the town hall.

North Star 4-H Club

The North Star 4-H Club met at the Accident fire hall on Tuesday, Sept. 9. There were 18 members, adults, and guests present. There was no speaker for the evening; instead the group played board games. Roll call was answered by naming a favorite sport. Brett Stanton and Kara Savage led the pledges. Kevin Haenftling and Corey House gave a report on the trip to the landfill. The next meeting will be held on Saturday, Oct. 4, at the Cove Corn Maze at 3 p.m. with a covered-dish picnic. Alice Bender will speak to the group about the corn maze.

The North Star 4-H Club is sponsoring a picnic in the Cove at St. John's pavilion on Saturday, Sept. 27, for area 4-H club members. A covered-dish picnic will begin at 6 p.m. Meat will be provided. All area 4-H Club members are invited to attend with their families.

Personals

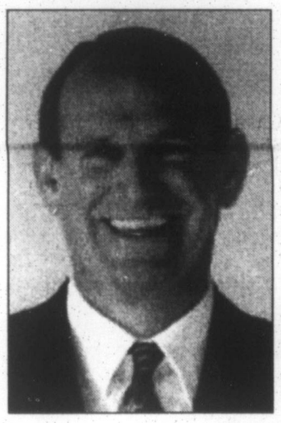
Rachel Schmidt, who is a member of the North Star 4-H Club, attended the Westmoreland County ARBA Rabbit Show on Saturday, Sept. 13, near Greensburg, Pa. Rachel received two blue ribbons, two best of opposite sex variety, two red ribbons, and a white ribbon for her rabbits. Her mother, Darlene, and her sister, Pam, accompanied her.

Harmon Slated To Present Series Of Revival Meetings



Itinerant preacher Tom Harmon from Owosso, Mich., will present a series of revival meetings at the Pleasant View Baptist Church Sunday through Wednesday evenings Sept. 21-24, at 6:30 p.m.

He will be preaching from the biblical book of I Peter in a series titled "A Living Hope – The Key To A Genuine Faith."

Harmon and his wife Joyce have been married for 32 years. They have four married children.

Upon graduation from high school, he attended Northern Michigan University on a four-year full athletic scholarship. He played four years of college football, and graduated with a bachelor of science degree. In 1973, he graduated from the Michigan State Police Academy and was a state trooper for 11 years.

He pastored a small church north of Lansing for four years and has been a full-time itinerant preacher speaking in churches, camps, and Bible conferences for the past 14 years.

"Some people say, 'God will never ask me to do something I can't do.' I have come to the place in my life that, if the assignment I sense God is giving me is something I know I can handle, I know it probably isn't from God. The assignments God gives in the Bible are always God sized," Harmon said.

The public is invited to attend these special meetings. A nursery will be available for infants through 4 years old.

The Pleasant View Baptist Church is located just 2 miles south of Oakland on U.S. Route 219. For more information, persons may call the church office at 301-334-8515.

Notes From Bittinger

by Joan Sussman

I survived the NHS class of 1971 reunion one month ago today. Although it was billed as our 50th birthday party, I almost won the prize for the last classmate who would turn 50 this year, but I was surprised by the appearance of Steve Schlosnagle who is just two weeks younger than I. I will turn 50 on November 6, but he will not do so until November 22. Oh, well!

I did win the prize for the youngest child. My 12-year-old Meredith was younger than any other child of my classmates. In fact, I was among the few who do not have any grandchildren. Some have seven or more!

It was a pleasant evening. I can't go so far as saying fun, except when I shocked Tim Galico and Randy Wiley with the funniest dirty joke I ever heard. The female team of classmates defeated handily the male team in a trivia contest. We brought down the house with our rendition of our school song. But neither the boys' nor the girls' team actually knew the number of people in our class and had only a hazy memory about who our faculty advisors were. Some of the girls on our team remembered the score of our football game with Southern in 1970, 0-0.

I enjoyed hearing from two classmates who were in my college class and said they thought I was the best teacher they ever had. That is pretty hard to believe since we had some really fine high school teachers, including William Carlson, Joanne Miller, Luther Parrack, Vonda Younker and husband, our art teacher Richard Miller, and several others. But college students are much more motivated, especially the adult college students.

Patty Walker told the reunion group that she used to be so scared when she had to speak in front of a crowd. She had me for Speech 101 and now speaks like a real pro. I guess I must have done something right. We have lost no classmates by death so far, in spite of my extreme close call in 1994. We had lots of missing faces, and I was disappointed in not seeing Rodney Warnick, Grant Southerland, Sharon and Ruth Bender, and June and Peggy Opel. Many people were there whom I see around regularly.

The first day of school has come and gone and my Claire had her first day as a member of the 2004 senior class of Northern High School. This was the shortest summer I have ever experienced since the rainy spring extended into late June. The other day I saw a red leaf under my maple tree, and several trees around here already have turned red way before our first fall frost. It has turned cool enough that I had to turn on my furnace for the first time.

I had a strange dream on the night of August 28, which was the anniversary of one of the greatest days in America, the March on Washington, D.C., led by Martin Luther King Jr., who delivered the greatest speech in the history of humankind. "I have a dream when all people will be judged not by the color of skin, but the content of their character. And when all colors living together, even arrested together...."

Why such a great day? Because it was not just black men in hundreds of thousands around the Lincoln Memorial, but also white men and women, including Jews, who all listened and demanded the justice that Lincoln proposed and died for. Yes, hundreds of every race were arrested together.

I am proud to learn that my Uncle Wayne Buckle was hauled into an American jail while demanding America live up to the vision of our founding fathers... "With liberty and justice for all...."

As much as white Americans denied those two things to the black race, it is nothing compared to what we did to the first Americans. We stole their homeland and violated every treaty we made with them. We promised "The Black Hills would always, as long as grass grows, belong to only the Native Americans." But that treaty was signed before someone found gold there. Nothing seems so important to America except wealth. This date was also the anniversary of the Battle of Little Big Horn, or "Custer's Last Stand." Read up on this battle and see some of the happenings and results.

Very few people realize that one of the reasons that France often opposes America goes back to the French and Indian War. I resented the French people who turned their back on America before we went to war with Iraq, but I suspect it was really more based on their historical rivalry with Britain. They dwelled more on that than what America did for them in invading France and freeing their country from the Nazis.

I am terribly relieved that we got through another anniversary of the tragedy of September 11. I know of one Bittinger resident who is glad this September 11 is over. Cyndi Kolbe's birth date is September 11, along with that of my Aunt Betty Hummel. As Betty pointed out, the only date half as bad for birthdays is December 7 (Pearl Harbor Day). It is sad but true that our commander in chief didn't know that date, but he will never forget the 11th, as it was a big boost for his popularity.

The huge deer population ranging between Negro Mountain and Meadow Mountain claimed another motorist victim. While he was traveling between his cousin Courtney's house and his family's home on Rock Lodge Road, brother Barry Glotfelty was a victim of a mass attack by three deer on Accident-Bittinger Road. Nature lover as he is, he tried very hard to avoid hitting any, but three were just too much, so one antlerless deer hit his car broadside and disappeared into the wood. Barry was in a frenzy of guilt, but he didn't shed buckets of tears as my Claire did when she hit a squirrel. I tell her there is nothing you can do to prevent wildlife intending to commit suicide on the highway. I, too, had a close encounter with a wild animal on Accident-Bittinger. A huge hawk was busy feeding on a road kill, but luckily he flew away before he joined his meal.

It is time for my youngest Meredith and her cousin Emma to start attending Confirmation class along with the rest of the seventh grade age kids in our parish. Beginning September 28 they will attend class one Sunday evening each month for two years.

Ruth DiPaolo returned from her trip to the Midwest on Saturday night. She traveled with Dorothy Sechler, Meyersdale, not with Margaret Thatcher as reported last week.

Jean Cope, Cumberland, visited Ethel Buckel and Harriett Buckel on Monday afternoon.

The Northern High School Band participated in a band competition Saturday at Hedgesville (W.Va.) High School. They received a first place and also were happy to improve their rating.

Lea Stanton Pochet, Vandenburg Air Force Base, Calif., spent the weekend with her parents, Sam and Cindy Stanton. She also attended the wedding of a friend, Kristen Heslop, in Oakland on Saturday afternoon. She returned early Monday morning from the Pittsburgh Airport.

Ethel Buckel and daughter Judy Perkins, Fayetteville, Ark., attended the wedding of Jeff Buckel and Kathleen McElroy in Chestertown over the weekend. Judy has been spending some time with her mother following the death of her father Ralph.

Jeff and Sheli Gray and daughters Ashlin and Abbie were weekend guests of Linda and William Oester in Salisbury, Pa. The Grays have moved from Hanover to their recently purchased home in Ashburn, Va. Other family members enjoying Sunday dinner at the Oester home were Lisa and Amanda Platter, Smithsburg; Karmen, Julius, Janelle, and Allison Carey, Frostburg; Tom Glotfelty, Alpine Lake; Warren and Josephine Oester, Salisbury; and Ida Reckner, and Jim and Donna Glotfelty. Jim has been traveling to Morgantown for daily radiation treatments for bone cancer, and is now somewhat improved. He was able to attend the Windy Ridge Bluegrass Program Friday evening. Rhea Hetrick, Salisbury, Pa., was a recent visitor of the Glotfeltys.

Adorable Adoptables

DREAMING OF NEW HOMES – These sleepy little kittens' dreams will come true when they are adopted from the Garrett County Animal Shelter. Their friends, a camera shy, orange longhaired male tabby, above right, and Butch, below left, a 4-month-old male bulldog/beagle mix, are also looking for homes. "The shelter now has three nice spayed and declawed female cats who would be perfect lap cats for a single person or a household without other pets," said a Humane Society spokesperson. One of them is Smokey, below right, a gray tabby. A male Eskimo spitz is also available from the shelter. Other pets available for adoption can be viewed on the shelter's web site at gcadopt.tripod.com or on the adoption board in the pet food aisle at Wal-Mart. For more information, persons may call the shelter at 301-334-3553.

PAWS Slates "Volkswaggle" For October 5

Partners for Animal Welfare and Safety (PAWS) will host its Volkswaggle fund-raiser in Oakland on Sunday, Oct. 5, from noon to 4 p.m.

Persons interested in collecting donations in advance may obtain registration and sponsor forms now. They are available at the Ruth Enlow libraries, county veterinary offices, and pet grooming salons.

Loosely based on the German tradition of the "Volksmarsch," which involves groups of people gathering together and hiking along the countryside, the Volkswaggle encourages pet-owners to step out and exercise with their animals.

The Volkswaggle will form at the Mtn. Fresh Producers Pavilion in downtown Oakland, with registration taking place at noon. Anyone making a contribution or turning in pledges of $30 or more at registration will receive a complimentary Volkswaggle T-shirt. Free gift bags will also be handed out to all walkers who register.

At 1:15 p.m., just before the walk begins, there will be an animal blessing at the pavilion in celebration of the Feast of St. Francis, the patron saint of animals. Those not able to bring their pets are encouraged to bring a picture, toy, or some other article belonging to their pet to be blessed. The blessing is open to the public, whether persons participate in the walk or not.

Walkers and pets will then exit the pavilion and begin the 1.5-mile Volkswaggle, following a marked route around town. The journey will end back at the Mtn. Fresh Pavilion. Walkers and their pets will then be invited to join in a variety of games and activities led by PAWS volunteers and members of West Virginia Dogs 'N Discs, a group devoted to helping pet owners discover the joys of getting out and playing with their animals.

The new PAWS 2004 calendars will go on sale during the Volkswaggle. A number of tables featuring pet-related wares and information from various vendors and animal groups will be set up in the pavilion.

In addition to the calendars, shoppers will be able to pick up homemade dog biscuits, pet fashions, leashes, and other pet paraphernalia.

Food and refreshments will be available throughout the afternoon from BumBleQ's and the Lakeside Creamery.

The Volkswaggle is free and open to the public. Anyone wishing for further information about this event and the PAWS programs it supports is encouraged to call 301-334-2699 or 301-895-3711.

VFW To Hold Essay Contest

Local VFW Post #10077, Deer Park, will hold the "Voice of Democracy" audio/essay contest for students. The theme for this year's contest is "My Commitment to America's Future."

This is a national program/contest presented by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States and its Ladies Auxiliary. Those students who choose to enter will have an opportunity to win up to $25,000 for first place, with a paid trip to Washington D.C. All winners will have an opportunity to win cash prizes at all levels of competition.

The deadline for entering is Nov. 1. Persons interested may call the Deer Park VFW at 301-334-9109 or Post chairman Don Allen Bland V. at 301-359-9301.

Storytelling Workshop Classes Set

Tongue-in-cheek storytelling will be highlighted in three workshop classes to be given at two of Garrett College's outreach campuses.

"Yarn spinners" near the Oakland area may attend a series of two classes at the Oakland Armory on Mondays, Sept. 29, 7 to 9 p.m., and on Oct. 6, 7 to 9 p.m.

Would-be-storytellers near Grantsville can take one class on Oct. 1 at the Garrett College Outreach Center in Grantsville. Participants should register by phone and then pay at the class.

To register for the Oakland workshops, persons may call Patricia Baer at 301-334-8304. To register for the Grantsville workshop, persons may call Terry Beachy at 301-895-3368.

Dr. Gail Herman of Swanton will conduct the workshops and lead participants through activities to retell a tall tale or to create a tall tale from scratch or by using personal experiences, a little exaggerated, but based on truth. Hints for retelling will be given, such as attaching local geographical names to existing stories from the literature. Tall tales require an easy, informal speaking style; members of the workshops will practice this style with each other as they write and retell.

Dr. Herman directs the Tall Tale Festival at Autumn Glory (Oct. 11) as a benefit for a scholarship that the American Association of University Women (AAUW) gives to a Garrett County woman. She has been performing tall tales, folktales, and family stories for over 20 years in schools, libraries, and for organizations. She also teaches at several colleges and universities.

MLP NATIVE PERFORMING IN RENAISSANCE FAIRE – Sara Sincell, a native of Mountain Lake Park and graduate of Southern High School, is currently performing in the Pennsylvania Renaissance Faire, located near Manheim, Pa. Sincell, who in 2002 graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in theatre from Shenandoah Conservatory (Winchester, Va.), auditioned for a role at the faire early this year and landed a part with the select Chamberlain's Players. Sincell is shown above second from the left, singing with her cohorts, the "Sultry Sirens." She is pictured below as she "de-fends the queen" by engaging in stage fencing on a great chess board. The faire opened in mid-August and will run through the end of October. The players perform every Saturday and Sunday for the general public, and on several days of the week for school groups. Sincell sings, dances, stage fights, performs stunts such as two-story falls, and, staying "in character" as she walks the grounds, engages in spontaneous, ad lib performances with guests. She has been asked to perform in the Renaissance Faire's holiday event as well, titled "A Dickens of a Christmas," slated for Nov. 28 through Dec. 22. Information about the faire, now in its 23rd year, can be obtained on its web site, located at www.parenfaire.com. It is the largest Renaissance faire in the country, and has been designated as one of North America's top 100 events. Sara is the daughter of Don and Suzanne Sincell, Mtn. Lake Park. ## Biblical Storyteller Slated To Speak

The Potomac Highlands Mission Community, Shenandoah Presbytery, and the West Virginia/Western Maryland ELCA will be sponsoring biblical storyteller Dennis Dewey the weekend of Oct. 3 to 5.

He has performed and led storytelling seminars across the U.S. and Canada as well as in Europe, New Zealand, Australia, Korea, South Africa, and Israel. He is an ordained minister in the Presbyterian Church (USA), and has been engaged full time in this itinerant, ecumenical ministry of biblical story since 1992.

For more information persons may contact his web site at www.dennisdewey.org.

He will conduct workshops on Friday and Saturday at Moorefield Presbyterian Church in Moorefield, W.Va., and lead services at Moorefield Presbyterian Church on Friday, Oct. 3, at 7 p.m.; Faith Lutheran Church in Franklin, W.Va., on Oct. 4 at 6 p.m.; and Keyser Presbyterian Church in Keyser W.Va., on Sunday, Oct. 5, at 11 a.m.

A free-will offering will be taken at the services on Friday and Saturday to benefit the ministry in the Potomac Highlands.

Buckingham Finishes Role In Footloose

Scott Buckingham, a former Garrett County resident, recently completed the role of Willard in a Dr. Phillips High School production of Footloose in Orlando, Fla.

Two of the school's performances were given in the Linda Chapin Auditorium at the Orange County Convention Center. The theatre had recently been renovated, and the Dr. Phillips cast was testing its acoustics, lighting, and other new features prior to the upcoming production of Grease. That production will star school alumni Joey Fatone, Jeff Conaway, and Alfonso Ribeiro.

Buckingham, a senior, is in his second season with the school's Visual and Performing Arts Theatre Magnet Program. Since realizing his passion for the theatre two years ago, he has had a variety of theatrical roles, including Donalbain in the school's production of Macbeth last season.

He has been cast in the role of Petruchio in the upcoming production of The Taming of the Shrew, to be performed at Dr. Phillips High School early next month. Following graduation, Buckingham hopes to attend New York University's Musical Theatre Conservatory.

Ham Radio Hobby Allows Area Man To Communicate Around The World

by Jeremy Carr

Richard Kennedy has communicated with people in nearly every country, on every continent, all without having to leave a basement room of his home. In this room, Kennedy practices his hobby of amateur radio. He is a ham radio operator, holding the licensed call sign of W8PT, and has been for approximately 40 years.

Richard first became interested in this form of communication — which uses three modes: voice, code, and digital — when he was growing up in Pennsylvania. As a grade school student, he used to visit his neighbor who had a short wave radio. Richard was instantly hooked. He would go on to serve in the U.S. Navy as a radioman on ships and on land, using basically the same equipment he now owns.

Sitting atop a knoll just outside Friendsville, he can see the hills surrounding Oakland, Grantsville, and Terra Alta, W.Va. With the assistance of a crane, he has planted four towers, each with separate antennas, that operate on licensed frequencies from just above the AM band to just below the FM band on a car radio. This setup enables him to receive and transmit signals that reach other amateur operators all over the world. He chose this Friendsville location because of the hilltop rural setting and the community atmosphere of Garrett County.

Kennedy is an active-duty officer with the U.S. Public Health Service, stationed in Morgantown, W.Va. He is a member of several radio clubs, including the American Radio Relay League, and has communicated with individuals from a Nobel laureate to an 11-year-old boy in Russia.

The amateur radio organizations have divided the world into 40 zones and 335 entities. Of these 335 entities, Kennedy has spoken to people in 322. In order to transmit radio signals on any amateur frequencies, individuals need to take tests, read the required books, study the rules and regulations, and get federally licensed.

Aside from the basic potential of meeting new and interesting people, Kennedy also acknowledges the public service capabilities of amateur radio, such as local, state, and federal communication backup, frontline response to natural disasters, and partnering in search and rescue operations. As he noted, one thing that amateur operators cannot do is to conduct any form of business; it is strictly for education, enjoyment, and service.

The success of really long-range communications, say between two locations separated by thousands of miles, depends primarily upon which frequencies can skip off the ionosphere. And the condition of the ionosphere is directly influenced by the sun in a somewhat predictable manner that follows an 11-year cycle. When conditions are perfect, it is amazing how little power it takes to send signals around the world.

In 1999, near the peak of the sunspot cycle, Kennedy contacted a station in eastern Europe, a distance of 5,000 miles, and an exchange took place between the two stations with each using just one watt of energy. That's much less than the average household light.

One of the things Richard enjoys most is the ability to talk to people so far away without the use of any commercial devices such as a telephone or an Internet connection.

"It's nice to hear a conversation from very long distances with nothing in the middle. It's just me and the other person," he said.

Though radio systems are not as frequently upgraded as computers, Richard pointed out that he "loves to experiment with the antennas and see what new, cutting-edge technology comes out of it."

Persons interested in finding out more about amateur radio can visit the following website: www.arrl.org. Those who would like more information on the Garrett County Amateur Radio Emergency Service may call Lyman Fitzgerald, KA7OES, PO Box 875, McHenry, MD 21541-0875, or one may leave a message at 301-387-8184.

HAM RADIOMAN COMMUNICATES AROUND THE WORLD – An avid ham radio operator, Richard Kennedy of Friendsville enjoys talking with people from as far away as Russia and many other international locations, all from his home here in Garrett County. The technology of ham radio has been surpassed, in some ways, by the Internet, but the enthusiasm remains for many who use the equipment on a daily basis. See feature story. Photo by Jeremy Carr.

Open House Set At Hickory Center

The Hickory Environmental Education Center will sponsor an open house on Monday, Sept. 22, from 5:30 to 8 p.m.

Parents with students in the Garrett County school system are invited to attend.

Coordinated through Garrett College, the course is open to all, but class size is limited.

Certified Sport Yoga instructor Peggy Santamaria will teach these sessions. For more information and to enroll in the class, persons may call Terry Beachy at Garrett County offices in Grantsville at 301-895-3368.

Chamber President Discusses Tourism At Highland Festival Board Meeting

Garrett County continued to have a successful summer season in spite of the rainy weather, Chamber of Commerce president Charlie Ross told the Highland Festival of Garrett County board of directors Saturday at Garrett College.

Although it was a terrible year for Ocean City, with a 25 percent drop in tourism, the number of tourists coming through the Garrett County Visitors Center remained even for June, July, and August when compared to last year, he said.

Ross said he wants to encourage people's awareness of what the county has to offer. Community Legacy planning is doing the same thing, and the Chamber plans to piggyback that effort.

Ross began as president/CEO of the Garrett County Chamber one year ago. One of his first efforts was the vacation guide, which stressed "extremes" – taking recreation to the very edge, as well as extreme relaxation and life revolving around "Garrett County time."

Results of marketing efforts led to a 10 percent increase in the number of visitors going through the visitors' center. Also, the accommodations tax was 24 percent and amusement tax was 22 percent above fiscal year 2002, according to Ross.

Next year's theme will revolve around "Mountain Journeys," said the director, which should work well with the state's "Driving Maryland."

The upcoming vacation guide will include more information on other areas and activities in Garrett County, as well as Deep Creek Lake. More emphasis will also be placed on event such as the Highland Festival in the spring, Garrett County Agriculture Fair in the summer, and the Autumn Glory Festival.

With only a few highland festivals available in Maryland, Garrett County offers the look and feel of the Scottish Highlands, Ross said. He plans to continue promoting these events, as well trying to bring people to the county during slower (or "value") times.

The Internet will play a more important role in future tourism marketing, Ross noted. There are now 26 ways to enter the chamber's recently redesigned web site at garrettchamber.com. The site is "the world's window on Garrett County," he said. It is just one of the strategies used to bring people to the area.

More information about the Highland Festival of Garrett County is available on the Internet at highlandfest.info.

Redinger Notes Sports Schedule Update For SHS

Because of the anticipated heavy rains arriving tonight, changes to the sports calendar for Southern High School were announced this morning by Matt Redinger, athletic director.

The golf match slated for today has been postponed, and there will be no practice tonight.

The home football game with Westmar scheduled for Friday has been postponed until Saturday, with kickoff set for 7 p.m.

The boys' soccer team will play Westmar at noon on Saturday, and the girls' team will face Bishop Walsh at 2 p.m. Both of those matches are home.

Laker Women's Soccer Debut Is 8-0 Disaster

The inaugural women's soccer match for the new Garrett College team ended in an 8-0 disaster yesterday in Cumberland, where the Lakers were shut out by Allegany College.

Bethany Sindy finished with a hat trick for the Trojans, while teammates Holli Gaston and Brandi Page each scored two goals.

Sindy's first came just over two minutes into the match off an assist by Kristen Oxford. Gaston followed with her first goal off a feed by Page at the 35:05 mark.

Sindy scored again with 26:46 left in the half off an assist by Gaston. Three minutes later Page made it 4-0 with a goal off another assist by Gaston, and Gaston concluded the first-half scoring with a goal at the 1:50 mark off an assist by Erin Fisher.

The second half featured a goal by Megan Frankenberry off an assist by Fisher, and unassisted goals by Sindy and Page at the 35:41 and 24:39 marks.

The Trojans dominated in shots by a 32-5 margin and led in corner kicks, 4-0.

Huskies Win Fourth By Rolling Over Wildcats, 9-2

Westmar's Aaron Shockey scored the first goal of each half of action Tuesday evening at Northern High School, but the Huskies responded with vengeance both times and went on to record a lopsided 9-2 Western Maryland Interscholastic League victory. The convincing win was the fourth in five starts for Coach Tom Ables and his squad.

Finishing with a hat trick for the Huskies was senior Torrey Poholsky, whose three goals were all scored in the second half.

Recording two goals each for Northern were Chris Speicher and Matt Bass.

After a quarter of scoreless defense, Westmar put the first goal on the scoreboard, as Shockey got the ball past Husky keeper Chris Fickes at the 19:00 mark.

That's all it took for the Husky offense to put things together, with Scott Pusateri tying the score at 1-1 with a goal off an assist by Poholsky just one minute later.

Unassisted goals by Derek Cutter and Speicher followed at the 13:40 and 11:00 marks, respectively, and Speicher earned his second goal off a feed by Robert Fontaine with three minutes left in the half, giving the Huskies a 4-1 lead.

The Wildcats struck again about seven minutes into the second half (32:54), with Shockey getting his second unassisted goal.

The rest of the match belonged to the Huskies, with Poholsky scoring the first of his three unassisted goals at the 25:44 mark.

Bass scored the next two goals, one off an assist by Fontaine at the 23:32 mark and the second off a feed by Cutter with 21:30 remaining.

Southern Girls Win Three More; Have Not Yet Allowed A Goal

Not only is the Southern High School girls' varsity soccer team undefeated, but the Rams have yet to allow a single goal scored against them, as they recorded three more shutouts this past week to up their record to 5-0.

The victories included a 3-0 blanking of host Northern last Thursday in the Area Tournament, a 4-0 win over visiting Fort Hill on Saturday in a second Area Tournament match, and a 7-0 drubbing of visiting Hampshire last night.

Kendra McLaughlin scored two of the Rams' three goals against Northern on Thursday, both in the first half, and Sabrina Scheffel tacked on an insurance score in the second half.

After over 20 minutes of scoreless play, McLaughlin made it 1-0 off an assist by Corey Lewis with 13:38 left in the first half.

She doubled Southern's total about 10 minutes later, scoring off a feed by Scheffel with 3:55 remaining before intermission.

Scheffel's goal came at the 10:34 mark of the second half, with Robbin Gregg getting the assist.

The play was closer than the score would indicate, as the Rams finished with a slim 11-10 lead in shots on goal and a 2-0 advantage in corner kicks.

Senior keeper Alasha Rush was credited with five saves, while Sarah Masters turned away eight shots for the Huskies.

The loss was the first in two matches for Northern.

Scheffel finished with a hat trick and an assist in Saturday's win over Fort Hill, with her first goal just over three minutes into the match (36:51) off an assist by Gregg.

Second Half

S - Scheffel assisted by Jasmine Scheffel, 13:43.

S - Sabrina Scheffel assisted by Gregg, 4:29.

Freshman Lauren Shue made it 2-0 with 12:05 remaining in the half, scoring off Scheffel's assist.

Scheffel scored both goals in the second half of action, the first off an assist by her sister Jasmine with 13:43 to play, and the second off a feed by Gregg with 4:29 remaining.

The Rams dominated the match, finishing with a lopsided 23-7 advantage in shots on goal and a 6-0 lead in corner kicks.

Rush had seven saves for Southern, while Whitney Marker recorded 19 for the Sentinels.

The loss dropped Fort Hill to 2-3.

The Northern Huskies were edged by Bishop Walsh, 2-1, Saturday and nipped by Beall on Tuesday. (See separate story.)

It took only about 10 minutes for Sabrina Scheffel to earn a hat trick last night against Hampshire, as the Rams dominated the Trojans, scoring all seven of their goals in the first half.

Scheffel scored her first goal and the first of the match off an assist by Casey Taylor just under two minutes into the match (38:04).

She combined with Taylor again for her second goal less than two minutes later (36:16), and completed her hat trick at the 29:49 mark with a goal off a feed by Robbin Gregg.

Kendra McLaughlin made it 4-0 with a goal off an assist by Scheffel at the 23:17 mark.

Gregg then took a feed from Lauren Shue for a goal with 10:40 remaining in the half.

McLaughlin scored again at the 8:02 mark with Taylor assisting, and Jasmine Scheffel concluded the scoring with an unassisted goal 3:57 before halftime.

Coach Ron Petrella eased up on the Trojans in the second half, which went scoreless.

The Rams embarrassed Hampshire offensively in more ways than scoring, as they finished with a 34-1 advantage in shots on goal and a 10-1 lead in corner kicks.

Keeper Alasha Rush stopped Hampshire's only shot to maintain her streak of five matches without giving up a single goal.

Emily Every had 10 saves for the Trojans.

The Rams will try to keep their shutout run alive this Saturday when they host Bishop Walsh in a 7 p.m. encounter. They will travel to Hampshire for a 4 p.m. match next Tuesday.

Local Players Help PSC Top Ranked Squad

The Potomac State College soccer team, coached by Rev. Mel Menker of Oakland and featuring several players from Garrett County, recorded a major victory Monday, upsetting nationally ranked CSM at La Plata, 4-3. It was the third nationally ranked team that the Catamounts have met in their four matches to date.

Northern High School graduate Shawn Fike and former Southern High standout Sean Buckle both played in the match.

Scoring for the Cats, who played with only 10 players for nearly three-quarters of the match because of an ejection, got goals from Chadd Wood, James Benton, and Kwandwo Duah (2).

PSC topped the Frostburg State University junior varsity on Saturday, 3-2. Scoring for the Cats were Corey Diehl, Scott Kallner, and James Benton. Fike, Buckle, and former Southern goalkeeper Chris Menker all three played in that match.

The Catamounts, who are 2-2, will play at Anne Arundel CC next Thursday and at Hagerstown CC on Saturday, Sept. 27.

Northern Girls Fall To Rams, Spartans, And Mountaineers

It was a tough week on the soccer pitch for the Northern High School girls' varsity, as the Huskies dropped matches to Southern, Bishop Walsh, and Beall, three of the area's top teams.

Coach Lynn Lais and his team played all three opponents well, falling to the undefeated Rams, 3-0, at the Cove last Thursday in an Area Tournament clash (see other story for details), being edged 2-1 by host Bishop Walsh, also undefeated, in an Area Tournament match on Saturday, and finally falling to Beall on Tuesday, 2-1, in double overtime in Frostburg.

The Southern and Beall contests were Western Maryland Interscholastic League matches.

After a scoreless half with Bishop Walsh, Karen Iames gave the Spartans a 1-0 lead with an unassisted goal at the 15:00 mark of the second half.

Megan McGee doubled BW's total with a goal off a feed by Iames with about 10 minutes to play.

The Huskies rallied for one goal, scored by Lyndsi Butler off an assist by Laura Costa with about five minutes remaining, but that was to be the final goal of the evening.

The Huskies out-gunned the Spartans in shots on goal by a 113-12 margin. Sarah Masters turned away 10 Spartan shots, while BW keeper Konie Christman recorded 11 saves.

The win upped Bishop Walsh's record to 5-0-1.

A penalty kick by Tasha Wilhelm in the fourth minute of the second overtime period is what gave the Beall Mountaineers their 2-1 win over the Huskies Tuesday night.

The Huskies drew first blood in the contest when Tiffany Yoder scored off an assist by Kayla Kamp midway through the first half.

The score was knotted at 1-1 when Beall's Ashley Swarner scored off a feed by Rachel Armstrong with 5:21 remaining in the first half.

After a scoreless second half and one 10-minute overtime period, Wilhelm was awarded the penalty kick with 6:40 to play in the second OT period.

The Huskies were outshot by a 22-13 margin and trailed in corner kicks, 5-3.

Masters had nine saves in goal for the Huskies, while Kacey Kahl was credited with three saves for the Mountaineers (2-0-1).

The Northern junior varsity team was blanked 3-0 in the preliminary match. Scoring for the BW jayvees were Kaitlin Greig, Brooke Africa, and Laura Conner.

The Huskies (1-3) will try to get back into the win column this afternoon when they host Allegany in a 4:30 match. They will travel to Westmar next Tuesday for a 7 p.m. contest.

Ram Booters Drop Matches To Beall And Hampshire

The Southern High boys' varsity soccer team was dominated Tuesday evening by Beall, being out-shot by a 58-8 margin and losing by a tally of 8-1.

Donald Delozier recorded a hat trick plus one for the undefeated Mountaineers (5-0).

Delozier opened the scoring with an unassisted goal at the 31:13 mark of the first half. Carter Dickel made it 2-0 with a goal off an assist by Adam Bowling less than a minute later (30:29).

Bowling then got a goal of his own three minutes later off an assist by Jared Bridges.

Bridges and Delozier followed with one unassisted goal apiece to make it 5-0.

The Rams finally cracked the scoreboard when Mike Edwards scored an unassisted goal with 16:40 left in the first half.

Delozier scored twice in the second half, one unassisted and the other off an assist by Bowling, and Ryan Willingham concluded the scoring for the match with a goal at the 16:52 mark off a feed by Bridges.

Sean Diamond had three saves and Chris Fike had two for Beall. Taylor Crabtree had 11 saves for the Rams, while Logan Craig was credited with 12.

The Rams dropped a match yesterday to visiting Hampshire, but details of that match were not reported this morning.

Southern is slated to host Westmar this Saturday at noon or 5 p.m., weather permitting. If weather conditions force postponement, it will be made up at a later date.

They will host Keyser next Tuesday in a 7 p.m. match.

Runnin' Rams Place Third And Sixth In Frankfort Invitational

Led by senior Craig Conroy, the Southern High School boys' cross country team finished a close third among 11 teams in Saturday's Frankfort Invitational.

Conroy finished fourth among 70 finishers, posting an individual time of 18 minutes, 30.43 seconds to lead the Rams to 104 team points.

Hedgesville won the team title with 95 points, followed by Frankfort with 100, and Southern. Placing fourth was Doddridge County with 123, followed by Fort Hill with 146, Tucker County with 150, Keyser and Westmar each with 156, East Hardy with 170, Allegany with 206, and Hampshire with 224.

David Cuddington was Southern's second top finisher, placing eighth with a time of 18:46.57. The next four Southern runners across the line were: Derek Upperman, 21st; Andrew Goad, 27th; Levi Filsinger, 44th; and Andrew Kight, 58th.

Shawn Dier of Frankfort was the fastest runner for the day, recording a time of 17:44.24, while Ian Beckner of Tucker County and J.R. Benson of Hampshire were second and third (18:24.61 and 18:28.34).

Meanwhile, the Southern girls' team placed sixth among 10 teams, finishing with 167 team points.

Doddridge County won as a team with 49 points, followed by Preston with 66, Frankfort with 88, Keyser with 108, Hedgesville with 127, Southern, Hampshire with 187, Westmar with 200, Tucker County with 207, and Fort Hill with 223.

The top individual finisher for Southern was senior Natalie Domenick, who placed 11th among 66 runners, with a time of 22:22.63.

She was followed by teammates: Sarah Cosner, 27th; Mandi Stahl, 35th; Lisa Wade, 46th; Elizabeth Thayer, 48th; Stephanie DiSimone, 49th; and Krista Hanline, 57th.

Crossing the finish line first among the girls was Clara Grant of Doddridge, whose time was 19:49.69. Allison Simpson of Frankfort was second in 20:53.64, and Preston's Amber Riley was third in 21:07.49.

In the girls' junior varsity race, Southern's Courtney DiSimone finished third, Melinda Smith was fifth, and Leah Warnick placed sixth.

Southern had no runners in the boys' jayvee race.

A meet slated for Tuesday at Beall was postponed. The Rams will run again this Saturday in the Bull Run Invitational at Hereford High School (weather permitting), and are scheduled to host University next Tuesday.

Tomorrow night's Northern varsity football contest at Berkeley Springs has been moved to 7:30 p.m. Saturday night.

Ram Golfers Win Third Consecutive WMIL Title

It was another outstanding week on the golf course for the Southern High School team, as the Rams captured their third Western Maryland Interscholastic League championship on Monday at the Oakland Golf Club course.

The Rams posted a team score of 342, while the Northern Huskies finished second with a score of 353. Beall was third with a 390, followed by Allegany at 412 and Fort Hill with a score of 421.

Southern's Matt Skidmore was the top golfer of the day, finishing with a low score of 75, and teammate Travis Friend took second place by edging Northern's Jason Rice in a playoff. Each finished the regular match with a 79.

In fourth place with an 80 was Michael Bergstrom of Northern, followed by Beall's David Gearing with an 84 and Jessica Jewell of Allegany with an 87 for sixth place.

The WMIL tourney was sandwiched by two other matches.

The SHS team finished with a team score of 171 last Thursday in a triangular meet, also played at the Oakland course. Northern finished second with a 187, and Moorefield was a distant third with a team score of 210.

Skidmore again paced the field with a low medalist score of 39, while Friend was second with a 42. Southern's Josh Lear and Joe Albert carded 44 and 46, respectively.

The Huskies were led by Bergstrom, who finished just one stroke behind Skidmore.

Leading the Yellow Jackets was Jeremy Simon with a 45.

Southern was slated to play a match at Moorefield yesterday, but results of that encounter were not reported this morning.

Sailboat Racing On Deep Creek Lake

MAGELLAN REGATTA

by Dan Muss

The local members of the Flat-Earth Society, who believe that the only known world is south of the Glendale Bridge, sponsor this last regatta of the season. The racers go around all of our nine marks so this was, in effect, a race around the world.

On Saturday morning, though, there was a hard, cold rain falling with very little wind, and several boats (including mine) stayed on shore. But seven intrepid teams went out and by noon the rain had stopped and it had warmed up a bit. Since all sailboats are welcome in this regatta, the race was handicapped using a U.S. Sailing system called the Portsmouth Rating. In this system, faster boats give time to slower boats. There were six Flying Scots and one Laser sailing so the 'Scots had to give time to the Laser.

Most of the 'Scots had either two- or three-person crews, but "Nemesis" was sailed by Kevin Rissell by himself. That means that when he needed to set the spinnaker he had to tie down the tiller, go forward to raise the chute, set the spinnaker pole, then come back to steer and handle the sheets for all three sails. Even with all that, Kevin won the race. I believe he's won this regatta five or six times, but previously in a Laser.

Since the finishing times of all the boats had to be recorded to calculate the Portsmouth correction, the race commander, Dick Gregory, noted that the fastest time around the course was achieved by Lee and Joan Coraor. They did not win because they started four minutes late!

Charles and Sarah Buffington went out with my fearless crew, Marilyn Filemyr. At one point in the race the jib halyard had become twisted around the forestay. On a downwind leg with the chute up, Charles sent Marilyn up forward to take down the jib and take off the halyard so it could be unsnarled. The jib went back up in a normal fashion, but some time later the jib halyard rode up the mast and the jib came fluttering down.

They then were able to get the jib back up using the spinnaker halyard in order to finish the race. When they returned to the dock they careened the boat to retrieve the jib halyard. Gordie Clefton pulled the jib halyard down for them when the jib halyard block on the mast was within reach. He later reported that the shackle on the halyard was closed when he retrieved it! The mystery remains, how could the halyard shackle come loose and end up in the closed position?

So the sailboats are coming out of the water to be stored for the winter and the sailors are left with memories of a great season. See you all next spring!

Rams Start Strong, But Then Fall Hard To Beall

Once again the Southern High School varsity football team scored the first points of the game last Friday evening as they did in their season opener against North Hagerstown the previous Friday. They also held a 17-16 advantage at halftime, but the favored Beall Mountaineers dominated the second half of action to hand the Rams their second loss of the season in as many starts, 42-17.

Led by the running of senior back Mahlon Harper and some key defensive plays by Cody Miller, the 2-0 Mountaineers rallied for four touchdowns in the second half while holding the Rams scoreless.

Harper recorded 128 yards on just 10 carries and scored three touchdowns, while Miller blocked a pair of punts and had a key fumble recovery.

The Rams put the first punts on the board when Cory Bosley scored on a one-yard run with 5:34 left in the first quarter. The run for the two-point conversion failed.

Sophomore running back Andrew VanBogelen made it 14-0 when he scored on an 11-yard run and also ran successfully for the extra two points at the 7:42 mark of the second quarter.

Seconds later, on the ensuing possession, the Mountaineers finally put some points on the board, as Harper broke loose and raced 68 yards to the end zone. Quarterback Eric Parker ran for the conversion to make it 14-8.

Beall took its first lead of the game when Parker connected with Harper on an 80-yard scoring pass. Cody Miller's run for the conversion put the Mountaineers on top, 16-14, with 4:08 remaining before halftime.

The Rams regained the lead with just two seconds left in the first half when senior Karl Hillen hit a 22-yard field goal.

The Rams took full advantage of three Beall turnovers in the first half, but the second half belonged entirely to the defending state 1A runners-up. Their task was made easier, however, with injuries sustained by Bosley and then VanBogelen.

After Bosley went down with an injury, he was replaced by VanBogelen, only to have him sidelined by injury minutes later.

A five-yard scoring run by Miller at the 9:05 mark of the third quarter gave the Mountaineers the lead for good. The run for the conversion failed.

A 12-yard touchdown run by Jimmy Kline with 4:38 left in the third put Beall up by a 28-17 margin.

Harper's third six-pointer of the night was scored on an 11-yard run with just 3:29 remaining in the game. Bobby Fuller booted the extra point.

The final touchdown of the evening was scored on a 40-yard run by David Winner with 1:13 to play. Fuller again tacked on the extra point to conclude the scoring.

Stepping into the quarterback spot for the Rams was split end Brad Reese, who is the third-stringer at that position.

"We were very happy with our effort in the first half," stated Southern coach Fred Gregg. "But after we lost Cory, and then Andrew, we had to really curtail a lot of our offensive plays and stick to the basics. Brad gets very few snaps each week, so we really had to limit the number of plays.

"But I also want to state that Brad came in and did a great job for us," he said. "He ran the offense very well under the circumstances."

Mahlon Harper was the single biggest concern for Coach Gregg and his staff, and his value was proven in the second half.

"Defensively we knew that if we let Harper shake free and get into the open field we would be in big trouble," he said, "and that's what happened in the second half. We had some breakdowns and just didn't respond real well when adversity hit us.

"There are times in just about every game when things don't go well, but that's when you have to count on some kids to step up and get things back on track. We are still learning and working hard on this."

The Rams will try to get into the win column once again this Friday when they play their home opener against Westmar, a team that also poses some big concerns for Gregg and the Rams.

"We are concerned that this team played a very good offensive team in Berkeley Springs and held them to 13 points (a 13-6 loss)," Gregg said, "and that same Berkeley Springs team scored over 30 points against Beall. So we definitely have our work cut out for us."

Three players in particular are at the center of Gregg's concern: junior quarterback and free safety Russell Miller (6-3, 185), senior tailback and linebacker Dan Duncan (5-11, 170), and senior fullback and nose guard Johnny Shingler (5-10, 200).

"Miller runs the option very well, he can throw the ball, and defensively he delivers some pretty good hits," Gregg said. "Duncan is a speedy runner who likes to get on the outside, which is where we are going to have to try to contain him, and Shingler is a very hard runner inside and an excellent blocker. He can also really disrupt things for your offense from his nose guard spot."

He also noted strong play in the secondary by Justin McGregor and Andy Morgan.

Gregg said that Bosley has not had any contact this week, but will most likely play Friday. However, VanBogelen, the Rams' top running back, is listed as "very questionable."

"We should match up pretty well with them in terms of speed and size," Gregg said. "We really need a win."

The kickoff is set for 7 p.m.; however, Gregg said that there is a possibility that the game could get bumped to Saturday night if the area receives heavy rains from Hurricane Isabel, as predicted.

There will also be pregame ceremonies, set to begin at about 6:40, for the purpose of inducting three more persons into the SHS Football Hall of Fame (see separate story for details).

SHS Hall Of Fame To Induct Three Saturday

During special pre-game ceremonies this Saturday evening, Sept. 20, three more persons will be inducted into the Southern High School Football Hall of Fame. (The SHS-Westmar game previously scheduled for tomorrow night has been moved back one day because of the weather forecast.)

Former standout players Rob Unger and Matt Glotfelty, along with long-time SHS football supporter Paul Shockey, will be the 2003 inductees.

The ceremony will be held prior to the 7 p.m. kickoff of the Southern-Westmar game. It will begin at about 6:40 p.m.

Pep Rally For SHS Rams Set This Saturday

A pep rally for the Southern High School Rams football team and cheerleading squad will be held this Saturday, Sept. 20, beginning at 11 a.m. at the Wal-Mart Supercenter in Oakland.

The tentative schedule is as follows: junior varsity cheerleaders will perform at 11 and 11:30; senior varsity cheerleaders will perform at 11:15 at 11:45; introduction of the football players, cheerleaders, and coaches at 12 p.m., followed by a mock football game.

The festivities will continue with a football-throwing contest, with prizes awarded; a picture-taking opportunity with the cheerleaders and the team's mascot, Sam the Ram; and a Coca-Cola tribute by the cheerleaders.

Displayed during the pep rally will be a 1966 Mustang and Classic Coke items.

This special event will be held in conjunction with a nationwide program sponsored by Wal-Mart and the Coca-Cola Company.

SHS Jayvees Blank Beall, Get Edged By Keyser

The junior varsity football team of Southern High School shut out visiting Beall last Thursday, 14-0, and was then edged by host Keyser on Monday, 14-12. The loss to the Golden Tornadoes was the Rams' first in three starts this season.

After a scoreless first half against Beall last Thursday, Jason Wakefield and John Knox each scored a touchdown for the Rams. Wakefield's came on a one-yard dive in the third quarter. He then passed successfully to Anthony Schrock for the two-point conversion.

Knox scored on a two-yard run in the fourth period, and the run for the conversion was stopped short.

Leading the defensive effort for Southern were Schrock and Matt Davis.

A 15-yard touchdown run by David Reams in the first quarter of Monday's game gave the Rams a 6-0 lead over Keyser, and Southern took a 12-0 advantage in the second quarter when Wakefield connected with Schrock on a nine-yard touchdown pass.

However, the Golden Tornadoes took the lead for good in the third quarter with two-touchdown runs and a two-point conversion carry, all by Marcus Brown. His first six-pointer was on a 26-yard run and his second came on an 11-yard run.

The Rams will play again next Monday at Tucker County, with that kickoff set for 6:30.

Huskies Manhandled By Keyser, Key Players Sustain Injuries

Although the final score was not indicative of how well the Northern High Huskies played football against a talented, homestanding Keyser team last Friday evening, the end result was nonetheless a lopsided, 56-21 defeat for the Huskies, their second loss in as many starts this season.

Turnovers proved costly for the Huskies, who were out-manned in the game by a margin of about 40-18. The first giveaway took place soon after the opening kickoff, leading to a Keyser touchdown by Corey Szafran on a six-yard run. He also ran successfully for the two-point conversion to make it 8-0.

Before the evening was concluded, brothers Corey and Chris Szafran would score six touchdowns between them.

But the Huskies regrouped on their ensuing possession, marched 74 yards down the field on 14 plays, and scored on a one-yard carry by Mark Wolf with 2:21 remaining in the first quarter. The score was knotted at 8-8 when Eric Johnson hauled in the conversion pass from Andrew Frantz.

The Golden Tornadoes took the lead for good early in the second quarter when Brian Wilson connected with Tyler Walker on a 45-yard touchdown pass. Wilson then passed to Ryan Spotts for the two-point conversion.

After the ensuing kickoff, the Huskies fumbled the ball away again, which ultimately led to a two-yard touchdown run by Chris Szafran. The pass for the conversion failed, leaving the score at 24-8 with 5:56 to play in the first half.

With time running out for the Huskies on their next possession, Coach Phil Carr and staff knew they needed to put the ball in the air. However, Corey Szafran picked off a pass and raced 70 yards for his third touchdown. His brother ran for the conversion, giving Keyser a 30-8 halftime lead.

Two big offensive plays in the third quarter gave Corey Szafran his third and fourth touchdowns, the first on a 60-yard run and the second on an 85-yard carry. The conversion kicks were no good.

The Huskies finally reached pay dirt again when Tyler Warn scored on a seven-yard carry with 8:38 left in the game. The run for the conversion was stopped short, making the score 42-14.

Chris Szafran broke loose on the next play from scrimmage after the Huskies' kickoff and ran 65 yards for his second TD. The conversion kick was again no good.

Jordan Piraino put Keyser up 56-14 with an eight-yard touchdown run and a successful two-point conversion carry with 4:41 left in the game.

Corey Szafran finished with 192 yards rushing on 13 carries, while his younger brother Chris recorded 83 yards on just four attempts.

Wilson made good on 12 of 18 passes for 124 yards and a touchdown. In all, the Tornadoes amassed 503 yards of total offense.

"If we took away just two big mistakes in the first half, the score would have been 24-16 at halftime instead of 30-8," stated Coach Carr. "But in spite of the final outcome, we saw some real improvement in our team over the previous week. We were particularly impressed with how well our kids bounced back with a nice scoring drive after we fumbled the ball away right in the beginning.

"We held a 91-81 lead in rushing at halftime," he added.

Another squandered opportunity for some Husky points occurred early in the third quarter when Northern recovered a Tornado fumble on Keyser's 12-yard line, but the Northern offense could not punch it into the end zone, turning the ball over on downs at the five.

Injuries also took a major toll on the Huskies, as standout corner Robert Stark and lineman Anthony Lewis both went down with knee injuries, and both are definitely out of the lineup this week.

Also missing the entire game, and out again this week, was Corey Fike, who injured a knee in practice.

"It's a little frustrating to look across the field and see over 40 kids when you have only 17 or 18," Carr said. "Obviously it's tough to play four quarters of ball without getting worn down.

"I was disappointed, though, that with a 42-8 lead going into the fourth quarter, the Keyser coaching staff chose to leave their entire first team in, ran a no-huddle shotgun offense, and continued to put the ball in the air.

"Maybe they figured they needed to work on their passing game or something," Carr said.

The Huskies will face yet another strong opponent on the road this week in Berkeley Springs, a team that scored over 30 points against Beall, last year's state 1A runner-up.

"They love to put the ball in the air, which couldn't hit us at a worse time, with Robert (Stark) out with an injury," Carr said.

The Indians' "go-to guy" for many of those aerials is two-time All-State selection Matt Rockwell, a 6-4 wideout.

"He is obviously a major threat, but so is their running back, Matt Mason, who had over 1,500 yards last year," Carr said. "He's had over 100 yards in each of their three games so far this year, as well.

"They are not particularly big, but they have good speed and they are very athletic," he said.

"The key for us will be to try to control the game by maintaining possession. We will try to sustain some long drives every time we have the ball, which will keep their offense off the field as much as possible. They are such a quick-strike, big-play offense, we want to keep the ball away from them as long as we can."

The Huskies played well last year against Rockwell, Mason, and that quick-strike offense, holding the high-scoring Indians to just 17 points.

"We lost the game (17-6), but if we can contain them the same way this year, we have a chance," Carr said.

Maddawgs Still Undefeated; Top Hunters, 25-6

In Pee Wee Football League action on Saturday, the Northern Maddawgs B team took the field against the Westside Hunters. The defensive first quarter ended with the Hunters breaking loose on a broken play and scoring on a 35-yard run. The six points were the first given up in five games this season by the Maddawgs B team.

The A team played the second quarter and evened the score when Josh Duckworth raced down the sideline on a 68-yard scoring run. The half ended with the score deadlocked at 6-6.

The B team's offensive line picked up the pace in the third quarter, which produced two touchdowns. Josh Mason scored the first by capping a long march with a 20-yard TD run, and Matt Thomas recorded the second on a four-yard carry. The Dogs led 18-6 at the end of the first quarter.

The A team shut down the Hunters' A squad in the final stanza, and added seven more points with a one-yard touchdown dive by Duckworth.

The Maddawgs C team was defeated, 21-6.

Steeler Squads Drop Games To Cumberland Pats

Both the Division I and II Northern Steelers lost Cumberland Youth Football League games to the host Cumberland Patriots on Saturday at Donahue field, with the Pats taking the Division I game, 34-14, and winning the Division II contest, 20-19. It was the first loss in three starts for the Northern Division II team.

Scott Rice and Jasmond Metheny each scored two touchdowns, and Jordan Brooks scored one to pace the undefeated Division I Pats (3-0) to victory. Rice scored on runs of 52 and 15 yards, and finished the game with 115 yards on just five carries. Metheny scored on a five-yard run and a 73-yard interception return.

Scoring touchdowns for Northern were Matt Mason on a one-yard carry and Andy Ganoe on a nine-yard run.

An 85-yard touchdown reception by Eric Espada from J.P. Law and an eight-yard TD run by Randy Wiley gave Northern a 13-0 lead.

The Patriots responded by scoring 20 unanswered points on one-yard touchdown runs by Ryan Brooks and Travis Hedrick, and a 12-yard TD run by Hedrick.

The Steelers finally rallied for a touchdown, scored on a 34-yard run by Wiley in the fourth quarter, but the attempt for the tying conversion point was no good, and the Pats held on for their third straight win.

Hedrick finished with 120 yards on 12 carries and Brooks completed six passes for 110 yards.

Law and Kyle Gillum paced the Steeler defensive effort, while Andrew Broadwater and L.T. White were the top tacklers for the Patriots.

The Northern teams will host Braddock this Sunday.

Oakland Rams Teams Whipped By Braddock

It was a dismal day on the Cumberland Youth Football League gridiron Saturday for the Oakland Rams, as the Division I squad was hammered by Braddock, 44-0, and the Division II team was whipped, 25-6.

Leading the rushing and scoring effort for Braddock in the Division I game were Brian Mathews and Kevin Dunn, as Mathews recorded 107 yards and three touchdowns, while Dunn finished with 116 yards and a touchdown.

Mathews' scores came on scrimmage runs of 51 and 56 yards, and he had a 53-yard punt return for his third touchdown.

Dunn's performance was highlighted by a 99-yard TD run.

Also scoring for Braddock were Gary Henry and Corey Taylor.

Dunn and Nick D'Atri spearheaded the Braddock defensive effort with six tackles each.

Leading the Rams' rushing effort was Tommy Reams with 60 yards, while Caiden Shaffer recorded five tackles on defense.

It was the third win in as many starts for Braddock.

Leading the Braddock Division II team to victory was quarterback Brennan Connelley, who threw for four touchdowns, including three to Jesse Kenney. He completed seven of 12 attempts for 148 yards, while Kenney gained 95 yards on four receptions.

The win upped Braddock's record to 3-0.

Oakland will host Frostburg this Sunday.

After jumping out to a 2-0 start last week the Garrett College volleyball team continued its early season run with a win over Columbus Friday, but the Lakers were then rocked in four straight losses to Lakeland, Southern Maryland, Lehigh Carbon, and Howard. The dry stretch leaves GC with a 3-4 record heading a scheduled road trip tomorrow, which may be canceled because of the weather forecast.

The Lakers competed in the Butler County Community College Tournament Friday and Saturday, and opened with a 2-1 win over Columbus by game scores of 31-29 and 15-9. Columbus took the second game 30-24.

Erin Frantz, a 2002 graduate of Southern High School, powered the Laker win with eight points and six digs. Freshman Molly Wolf, who graduated from Northern High this past spring, recorded eight digs while fellow 2003 NHS grad Amanda Frantz contributed six digs and five kills. Keyser native Autumn Beavers, a freshman, had six kills, and freshman Tiffany McFarland recorded four blocks.

The Lakers' slide began in the following match when they were swept by Lakeland 2-0. NHS grad Jolene Brenneman, a sophomore, netted five points, two aces, six digs, and three kills. Sophomores Marlena Raines and Erin Frantz had five digs apiece, McFarland and Amanda Frantz recorded three kills each, and Beavers tallied three aces.

Although GC notched a game win against Southern Maryland in the next round, the Knights prevailed with a 2-1 match tally. Brenneman had eight digs and seven points, and Amanda Frantz recorded eight digs, seven kills, and six service points. Beavers tallied nine kills, and Erin Frantz hit the floor for seven digs.

Lehigh Carbon then closed out Garrett's tourney appearance by defeating the Lakers in a 2-1 match. Amanda Frantz led GC with 11 digs, while she and Brenneman recorded six service points apiece. Amanda Frantz netted six points from the service line, while Beavers tallied seven kills.

The Lakers returned to action Tuesday on their home floor, but were swept 30-17, 30-28, and 30-20 by visiting Howard. Beavers recorded seven aces, and Amanda Frantz scooped up six digs. The two nailed seven kills apiece, and McFarland finished one off that mark with six kills of her own. Beavers tallied nine service points and Brenneman recorded seven.

The Lakers' schedule shows a road trip to Montgomery Rockville for tomorrow, a match that will likely have to be rescheduled as many Washington, D.C., area activities have already been canceled for today and tomorrow. Garrett is slated to host a triangular match with visitors College of Southern Maryland and CCAC Boyce on Saturday beginning at 2 p.m., then travel to Baltimore City CC for a Tuesday evening contest.

Ram Netters Edge Meyersdale, Whip Allegany And Fort Hill

Success continued on the volleyball court this week for the Southern High School girls' varsity, as the Rams won a grueling five-game match at Meyersdale last Thursday evening, swept visiting Allegany on Monday in a Western Maryland Interscholastic League match, and topped host Fort Hill last night, 3-1, in another WMIL clash.

The results left the Rams with an overall record of 5-1 and a WMIL mark of 3-0.

Against Meyersdale, the Rams won the first, fourth, and fifth games by scores of 25-8, 25-20, and 15-10. The Red Raiders won games two and three by scores of 25-19 and 25-23.

Bethany Steyer recorded 26 service points for the Rams, plus seven assists, while Sarah Bittinger had eight kills.

Bittinger served up 12 points for Southern in the win over Allegany, including three aces, as the Rams won three straight games, 25-13, 25-21, and 25-10.

Megan Pike led Southern in assists with 16, Kayla Nazelrod had five kills, and Julia Bosley contributed four kills.

Rachel Hughes had nine points and two aces for the Campers, who dropped to 1-2 overall and in the WMIL.

The Southern junior varsity upped its perfect record to 4-0 with a two-game sweep in the preliminary match. Natalie Rohrbaugh and Randi Bennett had 12 and 10 service points, respectively. Desiree Banks led the Campers with three points and one ace.

Nazelrod led the Rams' scoring effort last night in the win over Fort Hill, as she recorded 14 service points and six kills.

Southern took the first two games, 25-20 and 25-21, the Sentinels won the third, 25-18, and the Rams won the deciding fourth game, 25-15.

Providing a team-high 14 assists for the Rams was Megan Pike, Julia Bosley recorded seven kills, and Sarah Bittinger had five kills and two blocks.

Leading the Sentinels (2-2, 2-1) were Lauren Mouse with 21 assists and nine kills, Natalie Athey with nine kills and eight points, and Sam Deter with eight points and five kills.

The Southern junior varsity was also victorious, 25-19 and 25-6. Natalie Rohrbaugh finished with eight points and two assists, while Sarah Stephens and Adrienne Yoder each provided two kills.

The Rams are scheduled to play again this Saturday (weather permitting) in the Frankfort Invitational and travel to Beall next Monday.

Fairmont State To Induct Edwards Into Hall Of Fame

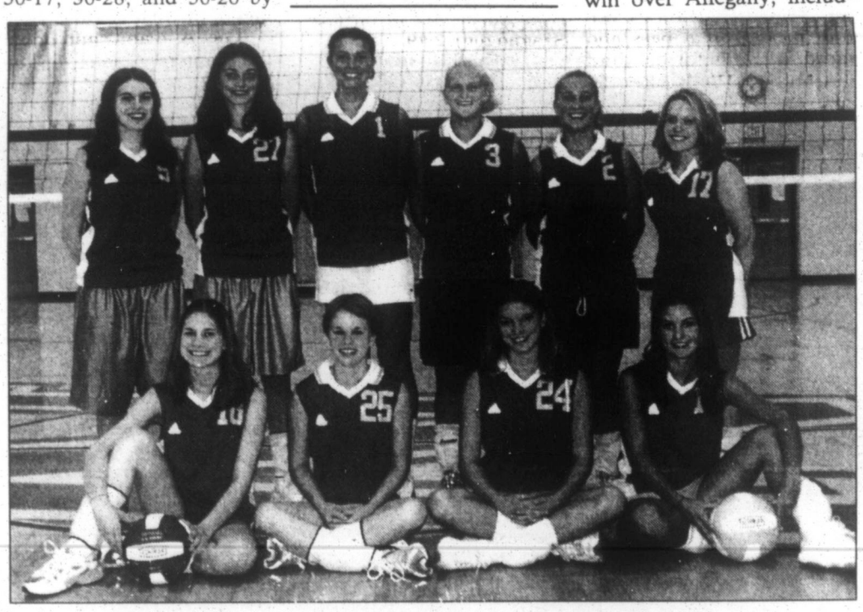
Del. George Edwards, Grantsville, will be one of six new members enshrined in the Fairmont State Lettermen's Hall of Fame. The members will be inducted during the organization's annual dinner on Friday, Oct. 3, at 6 p.m. at the college's Turley Center Ballroom in Fairmont, W.Va.

Edwards was a member of college's Fighting Falcons football team from 1966 to 1969. He was selected as a running back for the First-Team NAIA All-American and was named First-Team All-Conference in 1969. That same year, he was also drafted by the NFL's Baltimore Colts.

Edwards played on the Falcons' 1967 national championship team, and was the leading rusher for Fairmont in 1968 and 1969. He gained 1,751 yards rushing during his career. The Garrett County native is currently 10th on the all-time scoring list in Fairmont football history.

The other inductees to the 2003 Fairmont State Lettermen's Hall of Fame are Vonda Shaw, women's basketball, 1984-88; Blaine Morton, men's basketball, football, and baseball, 1951-54; John Haller, men's swimming, 1975-78; Steve Parlett, men's swimming, 1974-77; and Dave Miller, men's basketball, 1964-67.

The cost of the dinner and induction ceremony is $25 per person. For more information, persons may call the college at 1-800-641-5678.



HUSKIES REBOUND INTO WIN COLUMN – The Northern High School varsity volleyball team took a thrilling 3-2 win Monday night in Westmar to record its first win in three attempts this season. The Huskies won the first two games 25-19 and 25-15 before the Wildcats responded with 25-23 and 25-21 wins that knotted the match. The tiebreaker went down to the wire, with Northern prevailing in a 16-14 battle. NHS junior Jayme Miller paced the Huskies with 16 service points while senior Kristi Garlitz added nine sevice points. The hosts were led by Courtney McGregor, who tallied 17 service points. The Huskies' junior varsity dropped its match, 25-14, 25-23. The 2003 NHS varsity squad is shown above (with some floor positions delineated by the coaching staff). Seated from the left are senior hitter Erin Festerman, setter Garlitz, and senior hitters Nicole Doerr and Lauren Wiley. Standing are junior Amanda Anderson, sophomore hitter Angie Umbel, junior hitter Lakin Weimer, Miller, junior setter Dani Glotfelty, and junior Nicole Kovach. The Huskies will have to wait until Saturday to go after more wins at the Frankfort Tournament, then comes the home opener Wednesday when Beall's Mounties pay a 7:30 p.m. visit.

A LOT OF FISH – This catch from Deep Creek Lake was among those recognized this past week in the Garrett County Fishing Contest. The 7-pound, 8-ounce northern pike that measured 34 inches long was caught by Louis Berta of North Huntingdon, Pa. See story for details on other weekly winners.

FIVE STRAIGHT TITLES – For the fifth consecutive season, the Mettiki Smashers emerged as the champions of the Mt. Top Women's Softball League. The Smashers won the title by defeating Fox's Pizza in the final playoff contest, 17-11, at the Broadford Park fields. They finished the season with a 16-4 regular season. Pictured from left, kneeling, are: Pam Glotfelty, Kelly Johnson, Lee Wilt, Stacy Scripp, Sharon Rinker, Stacy Sypolt, and Denise Householder. Standing are: Coach Mike Sweitzer, Barbara Baker, Carolyn Metheny, Katherine Everly, Jon Cline, Jane Scripp, Coach Dan LaSalle, Melody Friend, Charlotte Strawser, Lois LaSalle, Chris Flanagan, Joyce Crawford, scorekeeper Donna Sypolt, and Rhonda Smith. Not present for the photo were coaches Dan Sweitzer and Scotty Meyers. Any individual or team interested in joining the league for the 2004 season is invited to contact league president Barbara Baker at 301-387-5013.

NORTHERN BAND "GUNNING" FOR FIRST PLACE – The Northern High School Band completed its second competition in the mud on Saturday at Hedgesville. The band increased its score to 74.05, which raised it to second place in the Maryland standings. "All sections of the band increased their scores and were rated the best score for individual marching of all bands participating," said band director Bill Robinson. NHS also placed first in its division. It will compete at Preston High School on Saturday, weather permitting, in Kingwood, W.Va. Pictured are Northern's own "Annie Oakleys" in costume at Hedgesville. In the front row, left to right, are color guard members Margaret Mastej, a junior, Sami Jo Frazee, a sophomore, and Leslie Gaither, a senior and Autumn Glory Festival queen. In the back row are co-captain Amanda Sisler, a senior, Caitlin Sussman, a sophomore, Jessica Friend, a sophomore, and Ruth Ann Ketner, a sophomore.

Garrett County Fishing Contest Winners Named

The winners of the Garrett County Fishing Contest, sponsored by Deep Creek Outfitters and the Garrett County Chamber of Commerce, for the week ending September 14 are:

Bluegill, 14 ozs., 10 in., caught by Bill Woodall, College Park.

Chain pickerel, 2 lbs. 8 ozs., 22-1/2 in., caught by Gene Suomela, McKeesport, Pa.

Northern pike, 7 lbs. 8 ozs., 34 in., caught by Louis Berta, North Huntingdon, Pa.

Yellow perch, 12 ozs., 12 in., caught by Ethan Aidridge, Cumberland.

Correction to last week's listing: The winners listed were for the week ending September 7, not September 1, as noted.

Weekly winners are awarded a certificate, and plaques are awarded for the season's largest catches of bluegill, brown trout, chain pickerel, crappies, largemouth and smallmouth bass, northern pike, rainbow trout, walleye, and yellow perch. To enter the contest, anglers are invited to register their catch at Deep Creek Outfitters, 1899 Deep Creek Drive, McHenry. The fishing contest runs through the first weekend in October.

GRANTSVILLE

MARANATHA CHURCH

Rev. William Ferguson, interim pastor of Maranatha Assembly of God, invites the community to a special service Sunday, Sept. 21, at 10:30 a.m. The guest speaker for the service will be Rev. Paul Graban, the perennial revivalist during the early 1960s in establishing the church. A fellowship dinner will follow the morning service. A special vesper service will begin at 2:15 p.m. and replace the 6 p.m. Sunday evening service this week only.

SALISBURY AREA FAMILY CENTER

A special program will be presented by the center at the Salisbury fire hall Tuesday, Sept. 23, beginning at 7 p.m.

The speaker for the evening will be Dale Yeager, president of Seraph. Yeager has extensive training in criminal profiling, forensic psychology, sex crime investigation, crime scene forensics/procedures, and terrorism analysis. As a criminal analyst, Yeager has been consulted on numerous cases, including the murder investigation of Jon Benet Ramsey.

The center has requested that, because of the nature of the material presented, children not attend. For additional information, persons may call 814-662-2721.

JENNINGS UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

The Laureland Quartet from Meyersdale, Pa., will present a program of gospel music at the church this Sunday, Sept. 21, beginning at 7 p.m. A time of fellowship will follow the service and the public is invited to attend. The church is located along the Jennings Road, 4 miles south of Grantsville.

GRANTSVILLE GOLDEN GLOWS CHEER TEAM

Registration will be held Saturday, Sept. 20, at the town park at 11 a.m. The registration fee is $35 and includes shoes, socks, tights, and hair pom. The instructors for the group are Kista Weimer and Kanya Knox. Additional information can be obtained by contacting Darla Liller at 301-895-5525.

GRANTSVILLE SCHOOL PTO

The PTO has car magnets for sale until this Friday, Sept. 19. They have also begun selling candles and cookbooks to benefit the school. Additional information can be obtained or orders placed by contacting PTO president Jan Thomas, Pam Trautwein, or the school.

Spirit Night for the school will be held at the Grantsville Burger King this Friday, Sept. 19, from 5 to 8 p.m. for dine-in customers only. Ten percent of all the proceeds will benefit the school.

GOODWILL RETIREMENT VILLAGE CORNER

A bus trip to the Cumberland Theater has been scheduled for October 8, to see To Kill A MockingBird. Lunch will be at Gehauf's Restaurant. Those interested in going should contact Linda Beitzel by September 29.

The cookbook was recently submitted to the printing company for publication. The cookbooks will be hard cover and contain over 400 recipes submitted by residents, families, staff and friends. To place an advance order, persons may contact Carrie Getson or Linda Beitzel. The cost is $11, and 100% of the proceeds will benefit the residents of Goodwill.

YOMMER-RESH REUNION

The 21st annual Yommer-Resh reunion was held on Aug. 16 at the Grantsville Park. Approximately 97 persons attended. Prizes were given for the following: eldest woman, Stella Bittinger, 91, Grantsville; eldest man, Orvis Platter, 85, Fort Hill, Pa.; longest married, Orval and Thelma Bittinger, 61 years, Lonaconing; shortest married, Denton and Amy Shriver, four months, Cumberland; youngest girl, Autumn Schaver, 11 months, Mantua, Ohio; youngest boy, Easton Broadwater, 3, Meyersdale, Pa.; and coming the farthest distance, Johnny Resh of Wadsworth, Ohio. Pauline Yommer, Grantsville, had 19 family members attending the reunion. The guess cake was won by Letha Platter, Fort Hill. The next reunion will be held Saturday, Aug. 3, 2004, at Grantsville Park.

THANK YOU!
The Oakland Rams Youth Football League

would like to thank the Deer Park Community Volunteer Fire Dept. for allowing us to participate in their Big Bucks Bingo this past weekend and again on Nov. 8. Along with their generous contribution and support from businesses and individuals, the Rams are on their way to paying for new jerseys, equipment and transportation. The Oakland Rams are the new youth football team formed from the Jets, Raiders, Ravens and Redskins. The team joined the Cumberland Area Youth Football League this season to be able to raise the competition level for the youth program. The team is comprised of a Division I and a Division II team, which both hold a 1-2 record. The Oakland Rams will host the Frostburg Mounties this Sunday, Sept. 21, at 2 pm at the Southern High School Football field. We appreciate the continued support of our fans.

Mind-Body Role In Cancer Battle To Be Discussed

"Keeping Well in Mind and Body," the second session of the Western Maryland American Cancer Society's "I Can Cope" series, is set for 6 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 30, at the Garrett County Community Services building, located in Oakland adjacent to Garrett County Memorial Hospital.

The free workshop will focus on helping cancer patients, caregivers, family, and friends deal with symptom management, stress management, the benefits of nutrition, and physical activity during and after illness. The workshop will review several types of ways to keep well in mind and body, which is an "important part of dealing with an illness and keeping well after recovery," according to the presenter, Nancy-Elizabeth Nimmich.

Nimmich is a licensed clinical social worker who has had a speciality in helping people with cancer since 1990. She has also worked with family members of cancer patients and run workshops and retreats focusing on wellness through her practice, Life Transitions. Helping people cope with difficult emotions that come with dealing with cancer has helped reduce the stress they experience and increase the "positive" emotions that can promote better health and improve family relationships.

Nimmich, who also works part time for the Garrett County Health Department and Hospice of Garrett County, serves on the board of the local unit of the American Cancer Society.

The workshop is open to all residents of Garrett County and the surrounding area. For further information, or to register, persons may call Sara Burdette at GCMH at 301-533-4311. Registration is suggested to guarantee materials but is not required.

Alzheimer's Support Group Slated To Meet

The Alzheimer's Association, Greater Maryland Chapter, Western Maryland Region, will sponsor an evening family/caregiver support group meeting in Garrett County on Monday, Sept. 29, at the Garrett County Health Department along Memorial Drive.

The meetings are free of charge and open to the public.

The support group meets September through November and January through June from 7 to 9 p.m. In case of inclement weather, persons should listen to WFRB or WKHJ for cancellations. For more information, persons may contact Donna McClintock Fost at 301-334-7740.

For information about other services available through the Greater Maryland Chapter, persons may call 1-800-696-6830 or visit www.alzgmd.org.

CPR, First Aid Course Slated

The Western Potomac Chapter of the American Red Cross will hold a child, infant, and adult CPR and basic first aid certification course on Wednesday, Sept. 24, from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. in the Red Cross office in Oakland, 12 South Third Street.

For more information, persons may call Mike Dew, regional offices coordinator, at 301-334-3810.

DRADA Group Slates Meeting

The Garrett County DRADA (Depression and Related Affective Disorders Association) group will meet in Oakland on Monday, Sept. 22, from 6:30 to 7:45 p.m.

DRADA is a mutual-help support group for persons with depression or bipolar disorder and their family members. For the meeting location and more information persons may call 301-334-9126.

Bethesda Church To Hold Revival

The Bethesda Church of the Brethren will hold revival services Sept. 22 through 26 at 7:30 p.m., with Pastor Roger Leatherman of the Knobley Church of the Brethren as guest speaker.

Special music is planned for each evening. Pastor Junkins invites the public to attend.

Flowery Vale Health & Fitness Center

by Peggy Santamaria

Serving Garrett County residents age 55 and over, the Flowery Vale Health & Fitness Center has dramatically changed the lives of many who participate in this program provided by Garrett County Community Action's Area Agency on Aging. Maury Feinstein shared his account to let others know of the health benefits this program offers.

Maury Feinstein's wake-up call came loud and clear to him when his physician warned him about an eye problem he was experiencing. Retinopathy with the possible loss of sight in 5 to 10 years could result if Maury didn't get his diabetes under control. "That was it. I had to turn this around," he resolved.

Poor at best is the way Maury describes the general state of his health for many years. In addition to diabetes, he suffered from high cholesterol, excess weight, heart trouble, high blood pressure, and arthritis. "For years doctors have said I should get some exercise and lose weight. 'Yeah, easy for you to say,' is what I always thought," he said. Health clubs were expensive, diets came and went, and sticking with an exercise program just didn't happen. He knew he would need help and support to do this. Fortunately for Maury, he was able to find the support he needed right in his own community.

Flower Vale Senior Health & Fitness Center in Accident offered the resources he wanted at an affordable price. Center director Elaine Kackley sat down with Maury and laid out a plan to achieve his goals. "We researched different diets and how they affect the body. The Atkins diet would take off the weight, but I couldn't follow that one. I would lose muscle mass. Elaine explained the importance of muscles in burning calories," he said.

After checking out various possible diets, Maury decided to join the TOPS chapter at the center and follow the program Kackley laid out for him of resistance training and treadmill work. But Maury knew he needed not just another diet, but a lifestyle change.

Rather than start a particular diet regimen, he learned more about nutrition, cut out some of his "empty calorie" foods, and began eating more fruits and vegetables.

The key to success, Maury said, was follow through. "Do you know what most home treadmills are? Clothes hangers. The bigger ones just hold more clothes," he said. But working at the fitness center, Maury didn't hang clothes on the treadmill. He had a program to follow, encouragement from Kackley, and the support of others; so he got down to it.

"I learned that you really need to watch your diet and do the resistance training. The two together really do it," Maury said.

Today, Maury reports that his work has paid off in controlling his diabetes. He also lists a whole catalog of benefits that have resulted from his dedication to his personal health and fitness program. "Two years ago, before I started this program, my cholesterol was 289. My last tests showed the level had dropped to 131. I had to hear it a second time to believe it," he said. Blood pressure readings on Maury have dropped from 180/80 to 117/60, and the excess weight he had carried for so long is gone.

Resistance training has also improved Maury's mobility and flexibility. "I was taking arthritis pain medication two or three times a day just so I could sleep at night. The pain throbbed in my shoulders and hips. I couldn't get comfortable. Now I take it very rarely and I can sleep comfortably," he said.

After recounting these physical health improvements, Maury notes an increase in energy and sense of well being. "Most important is that good health improves your sex life. And at 62 that is great," Maury said.

With so many reports from members of health improvements, the Area Agency on Aging wants to expand this program, bringing it to other residents in the county. Financial difficulties loom and demand creative responses from the fitness program's director and administrators. Undaunted by funding cuts, the Area Agency on Aging will move forward to reach more senior residents with the model program.

ARMED SERVICES REVIEW

U.S. Marine Corps Sgt. John D. Leuba, son of Patrice J. Wells and Robin E. Leuba of Accident, recently went ashore to Roberts International Airport and the free port of Monrovia in Liberia to provide support for West African forces while assigned to the 26th Marine Expeditionary Unit (MEU), based in Camp Lejeune, N.C.

Leuba is one of more than 4,000 Atlantic Fleet sailors and Marines who are deployed aboard the ships of the USS Iwo Jima Amphibious Ready Group.

The MEU established a quick reaction force at Roberts International to provide support for the Economic Community of West African States' forces if needed, and assisted in securing the free port in an effort to facilitate humanitarian efforts for the Liberian people.

Leuba's unit is an expeditionary intervention force with the ability to rapidly organize for combat operations in virtually any environment. MEUs are composed of more than 2,000 personnel and are divided into an infantry battalion, aircraft squadron, support group, and command element. With this combination, Leuba's unit supplies and sustains itself for either quick mission accomplishment or clearing the way for follow-on forces.

Leuba, a 1996 graduate of Northern Garrett High School, joined the Marine Corps in June 1997.

NASCAR leader to pass reigns to 'prepared' son

By AL LEVINE
Cox News Service

Loudon, N.H.

His daddy gave him the keys to the family car known as NASCAR on Jan. 10, 1972. Now Bill France Jr., 70, has decided that his son is ready to drive.

Brian Z. France, 41, was named Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of NASCAR on Saturday.

"Brian is well-prepared to lead this sport and this company into the future," France Jr. said in a news release.

FRANCE

Brian has been directly involved in the sport's growth from southern passion to national obsession, as president of NASCAR's broadcasting and digital entertainment with an office in Los Angeles.

The passing of the torch isn't all that big a surprise. Bill France Jr. has been in declining health in recent years, battling cancer and heart problems. In 1999 he turned over the day-to-day operation to Mike Helton, who remains the NASCAR president.

France also owns International Speedway Corp., which operates 13 race tracks including Daytona International Speedway and Talladega Superspeedway. He regularly is listed on Forbes' list of America's richest businessmen.

France's father, "Big Bill," started the National Association of Stock Car Auto Racing in 1948. Junior did every job imaginable to help his dad grow the sport.

"I worked in the construction of the tracks, repairing guard rails," France Jr. said in NASCAR's 50th anniversary year. "I parked cars during the events, worked the concession stand and made hot dogs. I stubbed tickets. We call the ticket-taker the stubber."

He also toyed with the idea of becoming a race driver, like his dad. "I drove in a few races," France said. "What I found out right quickly is if you're going to be a race driver, you need to be a race driver and not out parking cars. You can't park cars then go practice two laps and go park some more cars."

Though not unexpected, the latest France family news was still a stunner in the garage at New Hampshire International Speedway.

"Bill's done so much for us, it's time that he do something for himself," driver Rusty Wallace said. "I don't know why he hasn't done it already. If I was him, I'd be enjoying life right now instead of screwing around with controversy at times.

"We wouldn't be here, you guys wouldn't be covering us and I wouldn't be driving these cars if it wasn't for Bill France Jr."

Spencer wins in another division

"Mr. Excitement" now is "Mr. Versatility." Jimmy Spencer became only the second driver to win in all five of NASCAR's racing divisions when he finished first Saturday in the Truck Series New Hampshire 200 in the No. 2 Dodge.

Spencer has now won in Winston Cup, Busch, Busch North, Truck and Featherlite Modifieds. Ken Schrader is the only other driver to win in every division.

A LOOK AHEAD

Sept. 28 — EA Sports 500, Talladega Superspeedway
Oct. 5 — Banquet 400, Kansas Speedway
Oct. 11 — UAW-GM Quality 500, Lowe's Motor Speedway

A great escape

Johnson rallies to win following incident in pits

By AL LEVINE
Cox News Service

Loudon, N.H.

Near-tragedy turned into triumph Sunday for Jimmie Johnson's No. 48 Chevrolet team.

Three members of his pit crew nearly got wiped out by teammate Jeff Gordon's car in a pit road accident on Lap 127. All escaped serious injury. The incident sent Johnson from third to 22nd after he had to come in again under caution to let his crew check the car for damage.

He managed to work his way back to the front with seven laps to go and hung on to win the Sylvania 300 by a whopping 6.240 seconds at New Hampshire International Speedway.

The victory gave Johnson a sweep of the New Hampshire races — he won here in July — and he became the first Winston Cup driver to win both races at the 1.058-mile track in 18 years.

Johnson certainly didn't expect to be celebrating his third victory this season after the pit-road incident.

Under the race's first caution, Gordon tried to cut through Michael Waltrip's pit stall at the same time Waltrip turned left into his stall. Their cars collided, with Gordon's No. 24 Chevy sliding sideways into Johnson's pit stall.

"When I looked up, I saw two of my guys [McCray and Quick] up on the windshield of the 24," Johnson said. "They got up, in pain, and finished the stop and kept us going all day long."

The teammates came back from a checkup at the infield care center and knocked off a four-tire stop in 13.7 seconds.

McCray had a bruised midsection, Quick bruised shins, and all three will be undergoing additional examinations at home in Charlotte. And they'll probably be laughing about Johnson's good-natured ribbing during the winner's press conference.

"Everybody's great," Johnson said. "The one that seems not really home is Ryan McCray, but there's never anyone home there."

Not that Johnson wasn't genuinely concerned.

"Corey and Ryan were on the windshield of the 24 when I went by, and I saw McCray's feet, but I didn't see him hit the ground," Johnson said. "I saw Corey come off Jeff's car and hit the ground. I watched him do the quick check on his body, stand up and look everything over and go back to perform his job."

Other than that momentary excitement, Johnson had to endure a bumping match with Ward Burton before he duplicated his fuel-mileage victory of the summer.

Johnson and Burton's No. 22 Dodge rubbed on Lap 146, Burton went spinning into the wall at Turn 2 and, according to Johnson, spent the next several laps trying to retaliate.

"I ended up getting tangled up with Ward, and I'm sorry for that," Johnson said. "He was racing really hard, and I was, too. He was pretty mad, and he tried wrecking me four or five times while we were out there under green."

Mastering 'The Monster'

Dover International Speedway

Jimmie Johnson, who on Sunday became the first driver in 18 seasons to win both New Hampshire Winston Cup races in the same season, heads to another track this weekend where he has enjoyed similar luck. Last year Johnson swept both races at Dover International Speedway, known as "The Monster Mile." Johnson is shown above celebrating his victory in the MBNA Platinum 400 on June 2, 2002. Johnson won't be able to sweep the Dover races again this year, however. Ryan Newman won the first 2003 race at Dover, the MBNA America 400, on June 1.

POST-RACE NOTES

Rudd: Leave it to crew to decide pit strategy

By AL LEVINE
Cox News Service

Loudon, N.H.

One by one, the contenders fell out of Sunday's Sylvania 300.

Leading with 34 laps to go, Michael Waltrip left pit road with a gas can stuck in his car and finished 26th. Leading with 15 laps to go, Kevin Harvick stalled on his last pit stop and fell to 13th. Running second three laps from the end, Jeff Gordon ran out of fuel, finishing 19th.

RUDD

Things were shaking out so quickly at New Hampshire International Speedway, not even the competitors could keep up with it all, least of all Ricky Rudd.

Rudd finished second behind Jimmie Johnson, but he's not quite sure how that happened.

"I wasn't quite sure who pitted when I pitted," Rudd said. "You lose track easy on a short track. I don't see how the crew chiefs and everybody keep track of everybody because not only are you watching your car, you're having to watch everybody else."

Why did he stay out when others pitted?

"I wish I could answer that question for you," Rudd said "but, to be honest with you, I haven't got a clue other than the fact that I think the trick is to time it so you run out of gas at the checkered flag.

"To be honest with you, I haven't got a clue on how that strategy was playing out. A lot of times I'll question that. I'll say, 'Are you sure about that? Are you sure you want to come in and top off now?' You don't have the whole picture as a driver. You don't see the whole outcome, and I don't add too good anyway, so I let [my crew] do that."

Jarrett a sitting duck

Dale Jarrett's No. 88 Ford was tapped from behind by Jimmy Spencer on Lap 161 and slammed into the wall on the main straightaway. His car briefly burst into flames, and Jarrett had a scary moment as the rest of the field raced back to the starting line with his car stuck in the middle of the track.

"That's not a good place to be sitting, knowing they are coming off there hard racing each other," Jarrett said. "I shouldn't have been there to start with if some guys would use their heads."

He suffered a bruised right knee.

Elliott chalks up solid run

Bill Elliott erased the frustration of his 37th-place finish at Richmond with a fourth-place finish Sunday that matched his best finish this season. Elliott also finished fourth in the two races in California.

"We needed this for the rest of the season," Elliott said. "We've got a lot of races left, and we needed a good run like this just to show that we could do it."

Mr. Consistency

Matt Kenseth got his 21st top-10 finish this season by coming in seventh. It was Kenseth's second consecutive seventh-place finish and his fourth this year.

"That seems to be our magic number lately," Kenseth said. "We stayed up front all day, and then at the end we got ourselves buried too far in the back and couldn't overcome that."

Newman grabs pole again

By AL LEVINE
Cox News Service

Loudon, N.H.

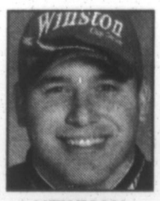
Ryan Newman's pole-winning effort at New Hampshire, at 133.357 mph in the No. 12 Dodge, was Newman's circuit-leading seventh pole of the year and 14th in less than two full seasons. He's averaging a pole about every five races. He's also won six races, more than any driver.



NEWMAN

"I've always said I enjoy qualifying," Newman said. "It's one on one, me versus the race track and not having to worry about anybody else on the track."

Dealing with tragedy

Dale Jarrett's No. 88 Ford team was led by a crew chief-by-committee Sunday instead of regular crew chief Shawn Parker. Team owner Robert Yates and team members Shane Callis, Scott Elkins and Jason Burdett made the race-day calls.

Parker's wife, Tara, was killed in a car wreck near Greensboro, N.C., last week along with two of her sisters.

"We're here because we have to be," Jarrett said, "but our hearts are with Shawn. It's certainly a difficult weekend."

Jarrett finished 41st in Sunday's race.

COMPOUNDS IN PLANTS LOWER CHOLESTEROL

Although it is known that naturally occurring plant compounds called phytosterols reduce cholesterol, new research is showing that doses needed to see this effect may be lower than previously thought. Most phytosterol supplements contain about 2 grams of active ingredient. However, dietary intake equal to about one quarter of that amount showed more than a 30% reduction in cholesterol from just one meal. It is thought that phytosterols work by lowering the absorption of cholesterol across the gut wall, which lowers the amount that gets into the bloodstream.

Postmenopausal women can reduce their cholesterol levels by adding more flaxseed (which is rich in phytosterol) to their diet. In one study overall cholesterol fell by 6% in women consuming flaxseed daily. It is believed that flaxseed works against cholesterol due to it's fiber content and possibly due to its omega-3 fatty acid content.

As a nation, the United States is the richest country in the world. Families build houses for three that can sleep ten. We warm up our cars in the winter without leaving the living room. Our trunk opens as if by magic while we are yet halfway across the parking lot, ready to receive our purchases. Why, we can even take pictures with our phone. The list of conveniences is endless. There is very little we cannot buy...

Then why are so many of us frustrated, depressed, and unfulfilled? We cannot buy peace of mind. It is a priceless commodity that is free, and without it, there is no lasting joy. Without the spiritual elevation that faith in God brings, we try to numb our fears, often making life worse. Sometimes we sink into despair.

In 2 Corinthians 4:6-9 we receive the solution. "For it is God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness...we are afflicted in every way, but not crushed: perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed.'" John 14:27 summarizes, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives."

Your Heavenly Father waits in His House to give you peace of mind. Won't you worship this week?

If You Would Be Loved, Then Love

One way to ensure that we will be loved is to love others. Simply waiting for love to come to us while we sit passively by, puts the cart before the horse. Actively loving others, by doing nice things and expressing our love and concern for them, makes us worthy of their love and lets them know that they are truly important to us. However, many of us are still afraid to openly let others know that we love and care about them, since there is a genuine risk in doing so – the other person may reject our love. Although this can be painful when it happens, the only way to be worthy of love is to love, and like so many other social phenomena, love is a self-fulfilling prophecy.

In situations when we are unsure whether someone loves or even likes us, the best thing is to assume that they do and treat them as a good and trusted friend. Soon they will be just that. Since others tend to live up or down to our expectations, we should think the best of everyone and do our best to love all of God's creatures. When we do this, we might just find ourselves agreeing with Will Rogers when he said that he never met a man he didn't like. So love boldly and without reservation. Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God, and he who loves is born of God and knows God.

Paul McCartney stays on the run in Russia on A&E

Paul McCartney never had visited Russia before, but he says it felt like home once he got there.

The legendary, knighted ex-Beatle made a delayed three-day trip last May, dedicating a St. Petersburg building for the arts, receiving an honorary degree from the Russian Conservatoire and performing a concert in Moscow's Red Square. The almost 100,000 fans included Russian President Vladimir Putin and former President Mikhail Gorbachev. McCartney's historic and emotional trek is traced in the two-hour A&E Network special "Paul McCartney in Red Square" Thursday, Sept. 18.

More than a music special – although it offers a wealth of songs from "Hey Jude" and "Band on the Run" to (of course) "Back in the USSR" – the program explains the impact of McCartney and the Beatles on Russia's population. An opening quote credits Liverpool's "Fab Four" with doing "more for the fall of communism than any other Western institution." Those interviewed confirm that simply knowing the Beatles existed helped many young Russians find their voices against an oppressive regime ... even if some couldn't tell McCartney apart from John Lennon.

McCartney says, "We knew that the Beatles were kind of known over there, and that gave us a lot of pleasure, the idea that we were popular there. We used to think about being the first generation of our families that wasn't called to war, and it created this great freedom of thought."

Not only could the Beatles be creative in that atmosphere, others could appreciate their creativity, even as KGB officers looked over their shoulders. "I'd meet Russians on the street in New York or in England, and I'd always feel a sort of family bond with them." McCartney reflects. "I don't know why; maybe it had something to do with the wars and that feeling of being allies, but that really made it feel like I was an old friend returning when I went to Russia."

Not surprisingly, "Back in the USSR" got an enormous response when McCartney performed it in Red Square. "For years, I had been itching to do that," he confirms. "It took on a whole new sort of significance, and the reality of it far exceeded any dream I'd had. There I was, doing it in a place where I had only seen military processions on film."

McCartney originally intended to go to Russia in 2001, but the terrorist attacks on the U.S. altered his plans. His overseas visit was initiated by Anthea Eno, musician Brian Eno's wife, who invited McCartney to teach a master class at her St. Petersburg charity, which benefits musically talented, underprivileged children. "I thought, 'If I'm going, I don't just want to zip in, do the big-rock-star bit, then leave,' " he recalls. "I really wanted to experience Russia, and it was beautiful. I first got sort of a personal tour, then we got into the charity thing, and then we went to Moscow for the concert. That allowed me to touch Russia, and to let it touch me."

Accompanied by his wife Heather, who is expecting their first child together, McCartney also appreciated the chance to discuss the international land-mine situation with President Putin. The music icon doesn't take such opportunities for granted: "Part of me is still a school kid looking at history, but as it unfolds, I'm now a part of it. That's uncanny to me, but it is great to realize that hopefully, I can make some small difference."

Most people don't realize that there are 15 lakes in Garrett County. For the next several months, The Republican will provide information about each of those lakes in this column.

SAVAGE RIVER RESERVOIR AND BIG RUN STATE PARK

Location: The reservoir is located near the head of Savage River 10 miles south of Grantsville, 5 miles east of Rt. 495, and 5 miles northwest of Bloomington.

Ownership: The dam, constructed in 1952, and the reservoir behind it are owned by the people of the United States – the U.S. government. It is managed by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Upper Potomac Commission. Scott Shumaker is the reservoir superintendent, and Dallas Bittinger is caretaker of the dam.

Purpose: Flood control, water for several industries, pollution abatement, drinking water for Westernport and Piedmont, W.Va., and quiet recreation.

Description: Imagine 6,500,000,000 gallons of water! The "Grand Canyon" of Maryland. This 2.75-mile-long deep and narrow reservoir runs north and south and is fed by Savage River and Big Run on the north, Dry Run and Middle Fork on the west, Spring Lick on the southwest, and Pine Swamp Run and Rhoden Hill on the east side.

The deep-canyon lake is 1,497 feet above sea level, some 800-900 vertical feet below the surrounding countryside. The bordering, well-timbered and very steep hillsides come right down the shoreline. There are walls of sandstone on the west side of the Savage River Road.

The reservoir averages .20-mile wide, and the distance around the lake is about 12 miles. Depth runs 90 to 110 feet at the dam. The temperature of the water is close to 70 degrees in mid summer. It is clear and usually very calm.

At the southern end of the reservoir is a 1,050-foot-long, rock-faced earthen dam and a spillway. Big Run State Park is located at the mouth of Big Run at the north end of the reservoir. The reservoir is situated right in the middle of the 53,000-acre Savage River State Forest.

How to get there: From New Germany State Park, follow the New Germany Road southwest 4 miles to Big Run Road, and then east, steeply downhill, 5 miles to the reservoir. From Rt. 495, turn onto Dry Run Road, about ½ mile northeast of Glendale Road, and travel 7 miles to the water. From Bloomington, follow Savage River Road off Rt. 135 northwest 5 miles to the dam.

Facilities: There are three boat ramps, one at Big Run State Park, one at the mouth of Dry Run, and one at the weather station. The gates at Dry Run and at the weather station are always open. There is a walk-in gate, open 7 a.m. to 3 p.m., permitting access to the dam. At the boat ramp areas, there is not much room for car and boat trailer parking. A concrete building housing equipment to control the flow of reservoir water downstream is located near the dam.

What to do: Good fishing (trout, bass, walleye, pike, bluegill, etc., plus rainbow trout which are stocked three times each year). Hunting is permitted, and there is boating (rowboats, canoes, sailboats, and kayaks). Only electric power boats are permitted. There is usually not much wind for sailing. There are fossils and interesting geological formations.

The area around the control building is carefully maintained. The grass down the steep embankment to the lake is like a golf putting green. Boating down the nearly 3-mile-long reservoir is like paddling through the Grand Canyon, with steep, forested hillsides and vertical sandstone walls. To stand on the dam early in the morning, looking north through the rising mist from the surface of the canyon lake, is surely one of the grandest sites in the county.

Big Run State Park

The park is located at the mouth of Big Run. The 300 wooded acres are sectioned off from the much larger Savage River Forest (53,000 acres). The area is managed by the DNR Forest and Park Service at New Germany.

There are 18 primitive campsites with tables and fireplaces on each side of Big Run Road and 12 sites on the east side of Savage River Road. The second campground borders an open play area a shore for launching a boat.

There are two restrooms, one in the primitive area and one in the open play area. There are two water taps, and a large pavilion with tables to accommodate 100 people.

Campers and day visitors can enjoy the woods, boating, hiking (the well known 5-mile trail, Monroe Run), fishing, hunting, birding, and picnicking. There is now swimming, and no motor boats except electric ones permitted.

Fees: Camping fees are $5 per night in the primitive area and $10 per night ($5 senior citizens) next to the open play area, Sunday through Thursday. For reservations and/or more information, call 301-895-5453.

PRINCIPAL'S LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

The Leadership Academy offers suggestions to live by. The following are weekly suggestions for all students and staff to live by as a part of everyday life at Southern High School: Sept. 15-19, "Have pride in Southern Garrett High School;" and Sept. 22-26, "Don't sell yourself short."

2003 YEARBOOKS ARE ON THE WAY

2003 yearbooks are expected to arrive the first week in October. Persons who did not order a yearbook and wishes to reserve one should contact Erin White.

SCHOOL STORE NEWS

Senior marketing students who help operate the school store have placed orders for new merchandise. They expect to receive long sleeve T-shirts available in red and white, sizes S-XXL. Also ordered are new hooded sweatshirts in red, blue, or grey. Crew neck sweatshirts will also be available in those same colors. A new design for men's and women's polo shirts has been created. The polo shirts will be available in white with red and black trim around the collar and sleeves. Arrival of new fall merchandise should occur within the next two weeks. Call the school or stop by the store during regular school hours.

SENIOR PICTURE MAKE-UPS SCHEDULED

Segull-Majestic will be at the school on Oct. 14 to take make-up pictures for seniors. Seniors who were not photographed last spring as well as those who were not satisfied with their proofs should see Mrs. White to schedule an appointment.

75TH ANNIVERSARY ACORNS FOR SALE

Persons interested in buying the 75th anniversary edition of the Acorn, Southern High's school newspaper, that was printed last May, please mail $2.00 and your name and address to The Acorn, 345 Oakland Drive, Oakland MD 21550. The 28-page paper features articles on past editors and advisors, a review of the Acorn's coverage for each decade starting with the first paper from October 1927, and countless other memories for alumni and regular readers of the Acorn. Don't miss out on this special edition.

SAT PREP AFTER-SCHOOL CLASSES BEGIN

Students who plan to take the SAT this year or who are planning to go to college after high school could benefit by enrolling in the after-school SAT Prep classes. Students can sign up in Guidance for the first session which begins on Sept. 16 and runs for six weeks on Tuesdays and Wednesdays after school from 3:20 to 4:20 p.m. Verbal sessions will be taught by Heather Savage, and math sessions will be taught by Charles Plaugher. If interested, contact the Guidance Office.

PHYSICAL FITNESS TESTING SLATED

The physical education classes will be conducting physical fitness testing on Tuesday, Sept. 23, in coordination with the G.C. Health Department and AmeriCorps. Those students currently enrolled in a 9th grade physical education/health class and physical activity class will be participating in the testing during their regular class time. This is a pre-test which measures each student's level of physical fitness, specifically flexibility, body composition, muscular strength and endurance, and cardio-respiratory endurance. A post-test will be given in December to measure each student's improvements in one's level of fitness. Students are encouraged to set goals which will improve their level of fitness and individual test scores. Regular participation in physical education classes is an important part in reaching these goals. Our physical education classes are designed to motivate students to take an active part in their own level of fitness and to adopt healthy lifestyles.

ELKS SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS AVAILABLE

Applications for the Elks National Foundation Legacy Scholarship and the Emergency Educational Fund Grant are now available. The Elks National Foundation Legacy Scholarship is awarded to those selected children, grandchildren, and stepchildren of Elk members in good standing. This is a one-time $1,000 award. It is not judged at the local lodge level, but is sent directly to Grand Lodge where 15 scholarships will be awarded this year to senior high school students in the Maryland, D.C., and Delaware Association. For more information and an application, students should contact Robin Spiker at 301-334-4669 or at 301-334-1119, ext. 202; or log on to the Elks web site at wwww.elks.org/ENF/Scholars. The Emergency Educational Fund Grant is available for children of deceased or disabled Elk members. For more information contact Robin Spiker at the above numbers.

DON'T MISS THE COLLEGE EXPO

College Expo is Oct. 13 at Garrett College in the gymnasium from 6 to 8 p.m. There will be 30-60 colleges and technical schools represented at this event. All 9th through 12th grade students are encouraged to attend.

Domenick Named MD Distinguished Scholar Finalist

Natalie Domenick, a senior at Southern High School, was recently named a finalist in Maryland's Distinguished Scholar Recognition Ceremony.

Each year, MHEC honors Maryland's "best and brightest" high school seniors who have met the stringent requirements of the program. The program offers $3,000 a year for four years to the state's top high school students as an incentive for them to go to college in Maryland.

Students in the achievement category, such as Domenick, who must have an unweighted grade point average of at least 3.7 on a 4.0 scale are ranked on the basis of GPA and SAT/PSAT/ACT test scores.

She is the daughter of Teresa and Mark Domenick, Mtn. Lake Park.

Masons To Dine

Members of Oakland Lodge #192, AF&AM, will meet for lunch at noon next Wednesday, Sept. 24, at the temple located at the corner of Liberty and First streets, Oakland. All Master Masons, members of the Eastern Star, and their respective guests are welcome. There will be no speaker or business; just a social hour and lunch, according to Robert Ross, Worshipful Master.

Review Panel Sets Meeting

The Local Citizen Review Panel (LCRP) will hold an open meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 23, from 9 until 10:30 a.m. at the Department of Social Services, 12578 Garrett Highway, Oakland.

These review panels in Maryland provide oversight for the child protection system in Maryland by advising the State Citizens' Review Board for Children and the State Council on Child Abuse and Neglect on how effectively state and local agencies are fulfilling their responsibilities related to child protection. This is accomplished by ongoing local system reviews and individual case reviews, according to a local LCRP spokesperson.

"LCRPs offer the community a real opportunity to strengthen its care of children and youth," she said. Panel members include individuals with interest and expertise in the prevention and treatment of child abuse and neglect. All local review panel members have been appointed by the Garrett County commissioners.

For more information, persons may call Crystal Stewart at 301-334-1189.

Garrett College Foundation Awards Scholarships To Six Local Women

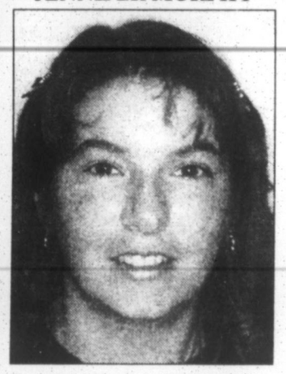
LAURA JOHNSON

MELANIE MOLZ

JENNIFER MURPHY

CHELSEA REMLEY



GLENDA SISLER

Six local women have received scholarships from the Garrett College Foundation that were established by the board of trustees, according to Bretta Reinhard, executive director of the foundation.

Janet Beltza, who completed her GED in 1986, plans to study nursing, become an R.N., and eventually work at Garrett Memorial Hospital. She is married to Fernando Beltza of Oakland, and is the mother of two children, Dustin and Dean Hoffman. Her interests are animals and football.

Laura Johnson, daughter of Howard and Christine Johnson of Oakland, is a 2001 graduate of Southern High School, where she played volleyball and softball and was a member of the concert band and honor band. She was also listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students, was elected Student of the Month for Child Care, and received the Pat Powers Memorial for Excellence in Child Care award.

At Garrett she is majoring in early childhood education with plans to become a kindergarten teacher. In her freshman year she was elected MVP of the volleyball team. She lists her interests as playing volleyball and working with children.

Melanie Molz, daughter of Cindy and Tom Molz of Oakland, is a 2003 graduate of Southern High School, where she was a member of the ski and snowboard club. At Garrett she is majoring in business administration with plans to be a sales manager or entrepreneur.

Her community activities include helping with Special Olympics, Bowling for Kids' Sake, Ecumenical Youth Ministry, and the Ruth Enlow Library. In addition to snowboarding, skateboarding and wakeboarding, she enjoys drawing.

Jennifer Murphy, a 2003 graduate of Southern High School, is the daughter of Randy and Mona Murphy of Oakland. In high school she was a member of VICA, secretary of FFA, and scorekeeper for basketball. When she completes her work at Garrett, she plans to transfer to Allegany College to complete a degree in radiology.

Her community interests include volunteering at fair booths and the adult day care center, and score keeping at Southern Middle School. She also enjoys reading, walking, swimming, and working on her scrapbook.

Chelsea Remley, a 2003 graduate of Southern High School, plans to major in radiology and transfer to a four-year college to obtain a bachelor's degree. In high school she was on the varsity girls' soccer team for four years and the track team for four years, and was captain of each of those teams for one year. She was also on the honor roll all four years, treasurer one year, yearbook editor one year, and in Best Buddies.

Her interests include playing the piano, playing soccer, running, reading, and swimming. She is the daughter of George and Cheryl Remley of Oakland.

Minton China

Q. I have several old pieces of Minton china. My maiden name was also Minton. I would like to know about both the company and if there are any collector clubs. — *Vivian, Mission, Texas

A. Thomas Minton opened his firm in 1793 at Stoke-on-Trent. He built his reputation by producing earthenware with blue-printed patterns. Some of the finest Blue Willow china ever produced was crafted at the Minton studios. Although much of the earlier Minton pieces were marked in a variety of ways, after 1862 each was marked either Minton or Mintons with an impressed year cipher. In addition to the classic Blue Willow, collectors prize the Minton Rose, Chinese Tree and Windsor patterns.

A check of eBay found several pieces of Minton offered for sale, including a dinner plate in the Stanwood pattern, $65; a cup and saucer marked Windsor, $90; and a Gold Pandora salad dish, $55.

One of the better sources for information is the Minton Museum, Minton House, Stoke-on-Trent, Staffordshire ST4 7QD United Kingdom. The e-mail address and Web site are jmjones@royal-doulton.com; and www.royal-doulton.com.

Nighttime Is "Go Time" for This Pooch

Q. I read your column all the time, and now I need some advice. I have a 4-year-old miniature poodle. "Terry" was very easy to train and has been a real pleasure — until lately. Every evening before bed I take him out and give him plenty of time to do his business. He sleeps on the bed, and about once a week or so he gets off the bed during the night and proceeds to leave me a "gift" either in the den or the bathroom. Then he returns to the bed and scratches the sheet to be picked up onto the bed again. Right then I know I'm in trouble. My groomer says this is a "spite thing," but I can't imagine why. Can you help me? — *Elizabeth Q., Port Orange, Fla.

A. I'm pretty sure spite is not the problem here. Barring health problems, Terry is perfectly able to "hold it" through the night and shouldn't be leaving presents anywhere.

Whatever the initial cause, Terry is developing a bad habit of going in the house, at a particular time. You have to break him of this habit, and it won't be easy.

Normally, I'd recommend placing a dog in his or her kennel cage during the night to re-emphasize its initial housetraining. But if you want to keep Terry on the bed at night, you'll have to either restrict him from the areas where he likes to "go" (by shutting off access to them), or restrict him to the bedroom itself (by shutting the door). In any case, you'll have a few sleepless nights as Terry whines and paws at the door. A firm "no" or "quiet" should quiet him down, at least for a few minutes, until he figures out that nighttime is not "go time." Keep working with him, and in a few months he'll do his business before bedtime, not after.

Teen Drinking Is Biggest Youth Drug Problem In U.S.

by Alex Meneses Miyashita
Capital News Service

WASHINGTON – Underage drinking costs the nation $53 billion a year in traffic fatalities, violent crimes, and other alcohol-driven behavior, according to a new report by the National Academy of Sciences. The last Wednesday report said underage drinking is the nation's largest youth-related drug problem, killing 6.5 times more youth than all illicit drugs combined.

While the report did not break out state-specific statistics, officials in Maryland agree that teen drinking is a problem here as well. Of teen traffic accidents in Maryland last year, 20 percent involved alcohol, slightly below the national average of 24 percent, according to data from the U.S. Department of Transportation.

"We have underage drinking going on all over the state of Maryland," said Wendy Hamilton, national president of Mothers Against Drunk Driving, who is the former head of MADD's Maryland chapter.

The report recommended several measures to combat the problem, including restrictions on alcohol advertising and increasing excise taxes for alcoholic beverages. The recommendations drew heated opposition from alcohol industry officials, who said that raising taxes will only hurt consumers of legal age and will not curb underage drinking.

"We're very disappointed they didn't follow the intent of Congress," in drafting the recommendations of the report, said Michelle Semones, spokeswoman for the National Beer Wholesalers Association. "There's been no proof that increasing taxes will decrease underage alcohol consumption." The Distilled Spirits Council of the United States added that the report itself underscored the fact that most underage drinkers get alcohol from adults.

The report's authors argued that not only will raising the price of alcohol lower the number of young drinkers, but that the increased revenue could also be used to fund initiatives aimed at curtailing teen drinking.

"There are some controversial issues that the alcohol industry is focusing on," Hamilton said of the call for higher taxes. "But we all have to take responsibility for this, including the alcohol industry." Maryland Delegate Bill Bronrott, D-Montgomery, praised the report's recommendation for higher taxes. He said Maryland has the lowest liquor tax in the nation, and he hopes the state will raise the tax next year.

Bronrott, who sponsored unsuccessful legislation in this year's General Assembly to raise the state's alcohol tax, said he plans to reintroduce the bill in the next legislature.

Hamilton agreed with Bronrott that higher taxes would help. "This is one of the pieces in the puzzle that will help make a better and safer community for everybody," she said. "It's important to understand that, in America, a lot of people drink alcohol. We just want to make sure it stays out of the hands of our kids until they're 21."

Salisbury VFD Slates Dinner

The Salisbury Volunteer Fire Department and Ambulance will sponsor an "all-you-can-eat" roast beef dinner on Sunday, Sept. 28, from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the fire hall along Ord Street in Salisbury, Pa.

The dinner will consists of roast beef, mashed potatoes and gravy, noodles, vegetables, cole slaw, choice of beverage, and dessert. Takeouts are available. The cost of the meal is $7 for adults, $3 for children under 12 years, and free for those under 5 years.

Day Use Fees To Be Waived At Local Lake

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers will join other federal agencies in waiving day use fees at all of its recreation areas, including Jennings Randolph Lake, this Saturday, Sept. 20.

The date coincides with the celebration of National Public Lands Day. According to the Corps, millions of Americans volunteer their time and effort on this day to build nature trails, improve recreation areas, clean up trash and debris, and walk, hike, or swim on the nation's public lands and waters.

In waiving the fees, the Corps hopes to encourage all Americans to take part in National Public Lands Day activities or just enjoy its public lands and waters.

"Americans seek out the beauty and variety of our nation's public lands to enhance their active lifestyles," said Major General Robert H. Griffin, deputy commanding general of the Corps. "We welcome all visitors to enjoy our parks and realize the benefits that result from engaging in outdoor recreation activities."

At Jennings Randolph Lake, the day use fee will be waived at the Howell Run boat launch. For further information, persons may call the lake at 304-355-2346 or 301-359-9861 Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. or visit the Corps web site at nab.usace.army.mil/recreation/jenran.htm.

Number Of Students On Waiting List For College Aid On The Rise

by Carla Correa
Capital News Service

WASHINGTON – The number of Maryland college students on a waiting list for state-sponsored financial aid increased almost 50 percent this fall, as government funding was stagnant while tuition and the number of college applicants increased.

The Maryland Higher Education Commission has 9,281 students on its waiting list this year, compared to 6,301 last year. Commission officials do not know yet how much total aid they will give out, but they expect it to be around last years $79 million.

The stagnant aid picture comes as 2003-2004 tuitions at the University System of Maryland were raised by an average of 13 percent – 16 percent at Salisbury University and the University of Maryland, College Park – which was on top of an "emergency" 5 percent mid-year tuition increase at all campuses except Coppin State College and University College.

"Unfortunately the state is in real tough budgetary times, and there's not an agency that hasn't been affected by budget cuts," said Linda West, a higher education commission spokeswoman. West said the commission did manage to restate.

"Those students in lower-income brackets, they're not going to have as much assistance," Hunt said. "They're either going to have to go to work part time or go to school for a semester, then take a semester off to work."

Meanwhile, demand for aid appears to be going up. Last school year, 133,692 Marylanders filed the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), the nationwide form that determines aid eligibility. That was up from 118,537 applications from Maryland in the 2001-2002 school year, a 12 percent increase.

"This year and next year are going to be very hard for students," said Mark Kantrowitz, publisher of the Web site finaid.org. "When state support of higher education goes down or remains flat, state tuitions tend to go up tremendously."

But he is optimistic that the situation could change in the near future.

"Every past time that states have done this...it's only lasted for a couple years," Kantrowitz said. "Given that we're entering the third year where states have had double-digit tuition increases, (I see) the year after that improving."

new aid for all students who got assistance last year.

"If you're a student already in the pipeline, we don't want to tell you (that) you have to come out of school," she said.

Andrea Hunt, director of the commission's office of student financial assistance, said waiting-list students will get awards as cancellations occur. She said the agency did distribute some new awards this fall, but not as many as in previous years. "Funding is pretty much flat" for the state's largest need-based awards, she said.

Some grants, like Maryland's Hope scholarships, were not offered to new applicants this fall. Hope offered about $18.4 million to 4,946 people in the 2001-2002 school year.

The number of awards remained steady at about 45,000 between 2001-2002 and 2002-2003, even as the amount of money available inched up from $76 million to $79 million. Officials have not tallied how many awards were granted this year, when available funds remained about the same as last year.

Hunt could not say if funding will remain stagnant next year, but said the commission has asked for additional money from the

THE BLUE STAR BANNERS ARE BACK, not in as great a quantity as during World War II, but with the same meaning. A limited number of the banners are now available for distribution to the spouses or parents of military personnel. Displayed in a window or door of a home, they proudly indicate that a member or members of the family are currently serving in a branch of the U.S. Armed Forces. A blue star is placed on the banner for each member. A gold star indicates a member has lost his or her life in a current conflict. The banners are available free of charge, compliments of the American Legion Proctor Kildow Post 071, as long as the supply lasts. A presentation of the banners will be made on Wednesday, Sept. 24, at 7 p.m., at the Post, located along Memorial Drive in Oakland. "The only thing the Post asks is for the individual receiving the banner to sign a receipt form and fill in the name of the service member whom the star will represent," said a Post spokesperson. "This is just another way your American Legion is showing support for the families of service members and showing concern for those serving." Pictured, left to right, are Earl Boyce receiving a banner for his son Mike, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Bird receiving a banner for their son Rodney Jr., and Post 071 commander Granville "Geep" Halterman Sr, banner presenter.

For College Students, First Lesson In Economics Comes With Tuition Bill

by Carla Correa
Capital News Service

WASHINGTON – Despite rising college costs, students are so focused on admission that they fail to seek scholarships and grants, leaving them – and their parents – shocked when the bill arrives, officials say.

"We have an incredibly difficult time getting anyone to apply to (outside) scholarships," said Cydney Wentsel, supervisor of guidance and counseling for Harford County Public Schools. "What I think is common is a lot of kids assume they're going to go to college in this day and age, and the families aren't prepared for the expense of sending them."

College costs continue to climb, and Maryland is no exception. The University System of Maryland raised tuition this fall by an average of 13 percent. That was after a 5 percent mid-year tuition increase that was imposed in January at all campuses except Coppin State College and University College.

Despite the well-publicized hikes, experts say families are not saving for college, and that 2 to 3 percent increases in family incomes cannot keep pace with double-digit increases in college tuitions.

"People are so focused on the admission process," said David Cooper, managing director for wiredscholar.com, a college-planning Web site run by Sallie Mae. "They didn't spend the appropriate time on how they're going to pay for it."

As a result, Cooper said, more students are taking out loans, which are funding ever-larger portions of a student's college bill. Educators say the number of young students attending less-expensive community colleges is also on the rise.

Nancy Davis, chairwoman of the guidance department at Frederick High School, said the best bet for students seeking college money is the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, which determines eligibility for both federal and state aid.

If students do not qualify for need-based funds, Davis said they should search for scholarships at their college of choice or at their high school, though not all are. Finally, national scholarships are an option, but they are very hard to win.

"For us to have one of our students get the Coca-Cola and the Wal-Mart [scholarships], it has to be the most outstanding student," Davis said.

Wentsel said local groups offer numerous awards for high school seniors going on to college, ranging from $50 to as much as $1,000, but that it is unusual for a student to piece together enough of those to foot a hefty tuition bill. Sometimes, she said, as few as three students will apply for such an award.

Davis said students who do not qualify for aid and cannot get all the scholarship money they need might have to reconsider their options. "My feeling is you don't go to a $25,000 school," said Davis, who worked to put herself through community college. "Not everyone needs to go to University of Maryland (or) Cornell."

Wentsel added that College Park and other schools are becoming more selective each year, further reducing students' chances of aid. "They still want those top students, and they'll finance those top students," Wentsel said. "[But] students five years ago who would get in with a financial aid package are not getting in, or getting in without that financial aid package."

And financing a college education 10 years from now looks grimmer. If tuition rises 7 percent a year, today's third-grader can expect to pay $125,000 for an in-state education at College Park, including room and board.

But that has yet to hit home to most prospective students, the advisers say.

"You have just a select few kids who have the initiative, the motivation (to look for aid) who are truly proactive," Davis said.

RABIES CLINIC SCHEDULE

The Garrett County Health Department announces the third and last series of low cost rabies clinics for 2003 for the vaccination of cats, dogs, and ferrets beginning Monday, September 22 and concluding Saturday, September 27, at the following locations:

| TOWN | SITE | DATE | TIME |
| Grantsville | Elementary School | Monday 9/22/03 | 5-6 p.m. |
| Swanton | Community Building | Tuesday 9/23/03 | 5-6 p.m. |
| Crellin | Elementary School | Wednesday 9/24/03 | 5-6 p.m. |
| Kitzmiller | Community Building | Thursday 9/25/03 | 5-6 p.m. |
| Friendsville | Elementary School | Friday 9/26/03 | 5-6 p.m. |
| Oakland | Health Department Memorial Drive | Saturday 9/27/03 | 10 a.m.-12 noon |

Cost of the vaccination is $5.00 per animal at the clinics. Dogs must be on a leash and under the control of a responsible individual. Cats and ferrets must be brought to the clinic in a cage or a tightly secured box with air holes. If cage or carrier is not available, the cat must be carried in a pillowcase or suitable cloth sack. Close contact of animals at the clinics increases the risk of bites or scratches. Please be prepared to restrain and control your animals in order to avoid a potential incident.

Good Weather For Corn And Soybean Harvest

Sunshine and mild air temperatures allowed farmers 5.0 days suitable for field work for the week ending September 14. Air temperatures ranged in the 70s for highs and the 60s for lows.

A majority of the corn crop is drying down and over 30 percent of the crop is mature. Some fields are being harvested for grain, but a majority of the corn will not be harvested for at least another two to three weeks. Corn silage harvest is slowly progressing with only 23 percent harvested compared with 79 percent last year and 53 percent for the five-year average.

Over 75 percent of the soybeans are filling pods compared with 95 percent last year and 97 percent for the five-year average. Soybeans are at least three to four weeks away from harvest.

Vegetable harvest is almost complete for cantaloupes, cucumbers, potatoes, snap beans, sweet corn, tomatoes, and watermelons. Peach harvest is complete and apples are over 20 percent harvested.

Rain showers toward the end of last week limited hay production. Most farmers are on their third cutting of alfalfa and other hay. Hay supplies were rated 57 percent adequate, 27 percent short, and 16 percent very short.

Farming On The Mountaintop

FARES WELL AT STATE FAIR – Aaron Lantz, a first-year member of the Ryan's Glade 4-H Club, attended the Maryland State Fair in Timonium, where he and his goat received the Grand Champion Junior Showman Trophy and ribbon. His market goat also won the Rate of Gain Trophy by gaining 0.68 pounds a day. It also won Reserve Grand Champion Market Goat. The goat was purchased by F.J. Grady of Oakland's Farm Credit of the Virginias at the state fair for $5.25 a pound. Lantz also participated in the 4-H Communications Contest, and participated in the county, district, and state extemporaneous contest. Lantz had also participated in the Garrett County Fair with another goat, which was purchased by Don DeWitt of L&D Farm. Aaron, the son of Arlene and Lillie Lantz of Oakland, is pictured above with Grady.

FRIENDSVILLE NEWS

Asher Glade Church of the Brethren

District Conference will be held Sept. 19 and 20 in Moorefield, W.Va.

Freedom Chapel

Freedom Chapel will be holding a "Celebration of Praise" on Friday, Sept. 19, at 7 p.m. and continuing every 1st and 3rd Friday through October.

This new, non-denominational, and contemporary style of service will include music, special guests, spirit-filled singing, and fellowship. The public is invited to attend. Freedom Chapel is located on Bear Creek Road in Friendsville. For more information, persons may contact 301-746-5172.

Sand Spring Church of God

Special services will be held on Saturday, Sept. 20, and Sunday, Sept. 21, at 6 p.m. each evening at the Sand Spring Church of God. Rabbi Ted Simon will be speaking on what Islam, Judaism, and Christianity have to do with terrorism. Included will be a biblical history as it relates to events of today and the hope o what the Bible promises for the future. The public is invited to attend.

The Primetime Children's program will begin on Monday, Oct. 6, at 6:30 p.m. at the Sand Spring Church of God.

The Sand Spring Church of God Homecoming will be held on Sunday, Oct. 12, with Pastor Bill Rodeheaver.

The fall WCSC Rally for the ladies of the church will be held on Thursday, Oct. 16, at the Fellowship Hall.

In Honor and Remembrance Ceremony

The Woodmen of the World Lodge 45 sponsored a remembrance ceremony on Thursday, Sept. 11, at the Friendsville Town Park. Mayor Spencer Schlosnagle welcomed the approximately 200 citizens who attended. Pastor Mike Robinson gave the invocation. President Roger Lohr introduced Burton Lytle, who gave the In Honor and Remembrance dedication. The ceremony in Friendsville was one of 400 WOW ceremonies held throughout the United States.

"The events of Sept. 11, 2001, changed how we look at our lives and our country," stated Burton Lytle," and it is important to remember that the casualties of this tragedy are not just a number, but that they were over 3,000 unique individuals." He also continued to emphasize of the importance that the armed services of both the past and present are to this ceremony as well as those lost and the rescue personnel who unselfishly devote time and energy to help in all situations.

At the conclusion of his speech, Lytle presented a United States flag to the members of the Central Garrett Baseball League. Eugene Sines, with the help of Caitlin Spear, Brianna Lowdermilk, Derek Harding, and Lacy Schroyer, raised the flag. After the raising, the Pledge of Allegiance was spoken and the "Star Spangled Banner" was sung.

Walter Fearer introduced the dignitaries. Those present were as follows: County Commissioner Fred Holliday, House of Delegates Minority Leader George Edwards, Lt. Randy Resh of the Maryland State Police, Deputy Thomas of the sheriff's office, Donny Simmons, WOW Fraternal coordinator from Hagerstown, local churches, the mayor and town council, Kenny Harding of the FVFD, and members of the Northern Garrett Rescue Squad stations 1, 2, and 3. Fred Holliday and George Edwards also addressed the audience.

Several vocal selections were presented by the McHenry United Methodist choir and the Accident Community in Harmony Chorus. The closing prayer was given by Methodist Pastor Philip Dukes, and closing remarks were made by Roger Lohr. Music throughout the evening was provided by the Accident Concert Band. Refreshments followed.

Ice Cream Social Scheduled

An ice cream social will be held at St. John's Lutheran Church in Addison Pa., on Sunday, Sept. 28, from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. There will be a selection of ice cream and toppings as well as sandwiches, pies, and drinks.

A free-will offering will go to help offset the medical expenses of the Dick Morrison family (uncle of the late Jennifer Lowdermilk). Donations will be matched dollar for dollar by Thrivent Financial for Lutherans. This event is being sponsored by the St. John's Lutheran Church on Main Street in Addison, Pa.

Praise in the Park

"Praise in the Park" will be held on Saturday, Sept. 20, from 3 to 10 p.m. in the Friendsville Town Park. The churches being represented in this event will be the Asher Glade Church of the Brethren, Little Sandy Church of the Nazarene, Cherry Glade Mennonite Church, and Oak Grove Church of the Brethren. This program of worship with music and praise is being coordinated by Nicole Sisler.

The groups participating are as follows: Oak Grove Musical Presentations from 3 to 6:30 p.m., "Unseen" from 6:30 to 8 p.m., and Cherry Glade Praise Band from 8 to 10 p.m. Emcees will be Pastor Mike Robinson, Nicole Sisler, and Remington Friend. The public is urged to attend this first-time event. For more information, persons may contact Nicole Sisler at 301-746-5750.

Samuel and Ella VanSickle Family Reunion

The Samuel and Ella VanSickle family reunion was held on Sunday, Aug. 31, at the Macedonia farm. Approximately 140 family members attended. Prizes were awarded to: Wendell Eisentrout for the oldest man present, Ethel Frantz for the oldest lady present, Rileigh Lowdermilk for the youngest girl, Colby Lowdermilk for the youngest boy, Katherine Eisentrout Friend for the one who traveled the farthest, and Glen and Amy Ridenour for the couple most recently married. The quilt and shams were won by Ruth Ann Fox, and the family pillow was won by Jeff Lowdermilk.

Door prizes were won by Wilma Wakefield, Stephanie Evans, Karen VanSickle, Helen Benson, Rebecca Lehman, Amy Hinebaugh, Gary Friend, Tim McKinnie, Shelby McKinnie, Angela Evans, and Ruben Humberson. Plans were made for the next reunion, which will be held on Sept. 5, 2004.

Walter and Martha Meyers Family Reunion

The Walter and Martha Meyers family reunion was held on Saturday, Sept. 13, at the Sand Spring Fellowship Hall. There were 90 family members in attendance.

Door prizes were won by Joyce Meyers, Paul and Judy Lancaster, Sherry Fearer, Jimmy Meyers, Margaret Workman, Brianna Moats, Wendy McKenzie, Danielle Moats, Dale Meyers, Avis Evans, Walt Meyers, Cecil Friend, Kim Meyers, and Charles Patton. Partners After School

The Friendsville Community Watch will be sponsoring Partners After School beginning Tuesday, Sept. 23, at the Friendsville Elementary School cafeteria from 3:15 to 6 p.m. This program gives participants the opportunity to engage in a variety of activities that encourage positive mental, social, and physical growth by exploring new hobbies, interacting with members of the community, and learning about making healthy choices.

Partners After School meets Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 3: 15 to 6 p.m. at the school. Enrollment forms are available by calling the After School Program at 301-746-5477 or the Friendsville Elementary School at 301-746-5100. Participants may join the program any time throughout the school year.

Energy Assistance Applications

Energy assistance applications will be taken on Wednesday, Sept. 24, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Friendsville Senior Center. Anyone interested in signing up for energy assistance can do so that day. Information needed at the time of application includes proof of income, Social Security number, driver's license, birth certificate, and electric and gas bills. No appointment is needed. For more information, persons may contact the Friendsville Center at 301-746-5300.

Friendsville Community Watch

The Community Watch will have a booth at the town park on Saturday, Sept. 20, from 5 to 8 p.m. and will be serving hotdogs, sloppy joes, chili dogs, soda, coffee, and water during the "Praise in the Park."

They will also be sponsoring the St. Jude's Bike Rodeo on Monday, Oct. 6, starting at 5:30 p.m. at the town park. Money raised will go to St. Jude's Cancer Research. For more information, persons may contact Brenda Frazee at 301-334-7730, ext. 6530.

The Community Watch meeting will be held on the 2nd Wednesday of every month beginning on Wednesday, Oct. 8, at 6:30 p.m. at the Friendsville Elementary School cafeteria.

Community Watch

Any student who wishes to earn community service hours for school may do so on Sept. 27 by helping with some projects in Friendsville. As a reward for doing service hours, the Friendsville Community Watch will reward these volunteers by taking them to the movies on Friday, Oct. 17, but in order to be able to go to the movies they must do service hours first. For more information or to preregister, persons may contact JoAnn at 301-746-4210 or Sharol at 301-746-5032. Registration is required no later than Friday, Sept. 26, at 4 p.m. to be able to do the service hours on the 27th.

Wing Night

Wing Night will be held every Friday evening from 6 to 9 p.m. at the Friendsville fire hall. A variety of wings will be offered as well as fish tail sandwiches, french fries, onion rings, chicken tenders and more. Live music is also played on certain nights. Proceeds go to support the Friendsville Volunteer Fire and Rescue Dept.

Family Gathering

Dale and Joyce Schroyer hosted the annual Schroyer Labor Day gathering at their home at Mill Run. Attending were their sons Vance, and Dane, and daughter Laura, and Chipper, his wife Jennifer and their children, Dia and Kirkland; Janice Frazee and her sons, Steve, Sam, Scott and his wife Carla and their children, Taylor Marie and Tyler; Kim and Mike Thomas and their sons, Chris and Jason; Mark and Tammy Gallagher and their children, Will and Madison Ann; Charles Friend; Bud and Bernadine Friend; Bill and Pat Glass; Harold Humberson, and Joanne Engle.

School News

Pre-K, K, first, and fifth graders will have vision and hearing screening on Sept. 24. Parents of students from the other grades may request screening if they desire.

Interact Story Theater will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 24, for students, beginning at 9 a.m.

Mid-terms will be Sept. 25.

The Deep Creek Volunteer Fire Company has donated ½ beef to Friendsville Elementary School to be used as a fund-raiser. Tickets are $1 each or 6 for $5 and can be bought from any student or by contacting the school. The classroom selling the most tickets will win a pizza or ice cream party and will have a fireman as a lunch guest. The drawing will be held on Sept.30.

A school-wide trip will be taken to the Springs Festival on Friday, Oct. 3.

Rabies Clinic

The Rabies Clinic will be at the Friendsville Elementary School on Friday, Sept. 26, from 5 to 6 p.m. Dogs must be on a leash, and cats must be contained in a carrier or box with holes. Licenses will be available also.

Personals

Penny Friend Bathum returned to her home in Enumclaw, Wash., after spending a week with her family – Bud, Bernadine, Sherry and Terry Friend – and attending her Northern High School class reunion.

Her family hosted a friend and family picnic at the Friendsville Boat Club Wednesday evening. Those in attendance were Joyce and Dale Schroyer, Dane and Laura Schroyer, Kim Thom and sons, Harold Humberson, Joanne Engle, Charles Friend, Larry Hite, and John Deniker. Thursday, the "Original Five" – Bud, Bernadine, Sherry, Terry, and Penny – dined at Nemacolin Woodland, Golden Trout Restaurant, Uniontown, Pa., and Friday evening Terry entertained with a cookout at his home in Cumberland.

WOODMEN CEREMONY HONORS SEPT. 11 HEROES AND VICTIMS – This is the second year the Woodmen of the World have held this ceremony called "In Honor and Remembrance – Woodmen Salutes America's Heroes" on Sept. 11 at the Friendsville Town Park. The ceremony also salutes the heroes in this community: the police officers, firefighters, members of the armed forces, and others who help ensure the public's safety each and every day. "Woodmen's In Honor and Remembrance ceremonies are a patriotic way to honor those who lost their lives on 9/11, and to salute the men and women who risk their lives to safeguard our community and our nation," said James Mounce, Woodmen president and CEO. In September 2002, President George W. Bush designated Sept. 11 at "Patriot Day," and encouraged all Americans to observe the occasion with appropriate activities. Pictured is the dedication of the flag to the Central Garrett Baseball League at the Friendsville Little League Field. Present was Burton Lytle, representative of Lodge 45, with members of the Central Garrett's Brianna Lowdermilk, Caitlin Spear, Lacy Schroyer, and Eugene Sines. Approximately 200 citizens turned out to observe this occasion, which included band selections by the Accident Concert Band, patriotic singing by the McHenry United Methodist Choir and Accident Community in Harmony Chorus, and guest speakers. Veterans of the different wars were also recognized and applauded.

TAKE AN INTEREST!

You can hear it almost everyday now on the news, in those oft-repeated TV commercials, and maybe even from your friends. "Mortgage interest rates are at their lowest point in over 40 years!!!"

Perhaps you've asked yourself, "Fine, but how does that compute?" OK, let's look at it from another angle. In November of 1981, mortgage rates reached an all-time high of 15.8%. If you had borrowed $150,000 on a home at that time, your payments would have been $1,992.96 each month, a hefty sum. As recently as July of 2000, rates were still at 8.17%. Your payments on that same $150,000 would have dropped to $1,118.47.

In May of 2003, rates averaged 5.68% and your payment would have been only $868.70! How much lower can rates go? Not much. The real question is "How much longer will you wait before buying your next home?"

One of the greatest advantages to these low rates is timing. Homebuyers have traditionally opted for a 30-year mortgage to keep payments as low as possible. Now, with exceptionally low rates, a 15-year mortgage can be an attractive alternative.

The same $150,000 over 15 years at 5.68% would result in payments of $1,240 per month. Fifteen years later, the home would be free and clear of any mortgage, and the owner would have saved $89,532 in unnecessary interest payments. Cool!

If you'd like to buy a home, but feel "out of touch" with what's happening in real estate, give me a call today!

Ask The Everyday Scientist

by Dr. Thomas P. Sheahen

Why do hurricanes have eyes ?

To anyone who has been caught in a hurricane, the "eye" is certainly the most unforgettable part of the experience. With violent winds howling all around, suddenly an eerie stillness sets in, and after several minutes the violent winds resume again. The eye is so small in extent that relatively few people actually experience it.

To understand the eye, first it is necessary to understand how the winds increase to such high speed. When something is rotating, a very important concept is the angular momentum. Most people know what regular momentum is: A bus has more momentum than a car, which has more than a motorcycle, and so forth. But angular momentum is much less familiar. The angular momentum is the product of multiplying [the regular momentum] times [the distance away from the center of rotation]. Every one of the planets has a certain amount of angular momentum as it rotates about the sun. The moon has angular momentum relative to the earth. Earth, spinning on its axis, has a certain amount of angular momentum of its spinning motion.

On Earth, when a large mass of air starts to rotate, it too has angular momentum. As some of the air moves from the outside of the rotation pattern to the inside, the angular momentum is conserved, which means that it is the same at the inside as it was at the outside. When the radius (the distance from the center) gets smaller, the velocity of the motion has to get larger in order for the product of the two to remain the same. If, at a point 100 miles from the center of rotation, the wind speed is 5 miles per hour, then that air can be said to have 500 units of angular momentum. When it moves inward to only 5 miles from the center, the air speed must increase to 100 miles per hour in order to keep the angular momentum the same. Also, when the velocity of air goes way up, the atmospheric pressure drops.

Keep going with this kind of arithmetic and at one mile from the center, you would expect the wind speed to be 500 miles per hour. But that doesn't happen because other factors come into play. At some speed (usually between 100 and 200 mph) the flowing air starts to trip over itself, and becomes turbulent. The motion becomes disorganized and random, and the uniform motion of a lot of air – what we know as "wind" – goes away. The wind averages to zero, and we say it is "calm." That small zone in the exact center is the "eye" of the hurricane. Everywhere around the eye is a "wall," a virtual cliff made of clouds, and packing a very high wind right behind the wall.

The pressure inside the eye is abnormally low. Therefore, what happens inside the eye is that air moves straight upward. Warm moist air from the surface of the ocean is sucked up to the top of the clouds as if by a vacuum cleaner, cooling as it rises. This is the "engine" that keeps a hurricane going. The longer it stays over warm water, the more a hurricane gathers strength. If it goes into a region of cold water, it "runs out of steam." More likely, when the hurricane comes to a continent and goes inland, the source of warm moist air is no longer there, the eye stops doing its job, and the engine shuts off. But the clouds are still there, and so is the circulating wind. So as the hurricane dissipates its energy over land, the clouds empty out in tremendous rainstorms and wind.

Sometimes a hurricane crosses a narrow stretch of land (such as Florida) and continues into more ocean on the other side, where it gains strength again. The infamous hurricane Andrew of 1993 clobbered both Florida and Louisiana this way.

When a tropical depression forms off the west coast of Africa, nobody knows at first whether or not it will develop into a hurricane as it moves west. Some tropical storms never get organized sufficiently to form a powerful mass of rotating air, never achieve large angular momentum, and thus never form an eye. We don't call such a storm a "hurricane."

The eye of a hurricane is actually a very peaceful place. The trouble is, it doesn't stay that way for long as the hurricane passes through.

Open House Set In Kitzmiller For Gov.'s Wellmobile

The Governor's Wellmobile will hold an open house in Kitzmiller on Wednesday, Oct. 1, from 1 to 3 p.m. at the town hall. The 33-foot van is outfitted as a full-service health clinic. Free blood pressure, blood sugar, and anemia screenings will be available during the event.

Beginning today, Sept. 18, the Wellmobile will stop at the Kitzmiller Senior Citizens Community Center every Thursday from 1 until 4 p.m. Adult and child physical exams, cancer screenings, blood pressure management, diabetes screenings and management, patient education, and other services are available.

The Governor's Wellmobile Program for the western Maryland region provides healthcare for the underinsured and uninsured of all ages in Allegany and Garrett counties. Its mission is to promote health and prevent disease in Maryland, particularly among vulnerable populations by making preventive care, primary care, and health education more accessible.

GOVERNOR'S WELLMOBILE MAKES PIT STOP IN GRANTSVILLE – The Governor's Wellmobile recently visited the Ruth Enlow Library in Grantsville, where staff members handed out information about the Maryland Children's Health Program (MCHP). The 33-foot van is outfitted as a full-service health clinic. Services, including exams and cancer screenings, are available for the uninsured and underinsured of all ages. The Wellmobile stops at the Kitzmiller Senior Citizens Community Center on Thursdays from 1 to 4 p.m. See related story. For more information about the Governor's Wellmobile Program, persons may call the Cumberland office at 301-723-3905.

The program is administered by the University of Maryland School of Nursing, in conjunction with Allegany County and Garrett County health departments. For more information, persons may call the Cumberland office at 301-723-3905.

Amish/Mennonite Annual Meeting To Highlight Mast/Maust History

The history of the early Amish/Mennonite Mast immigrants of 1737 and 1750 and the early Mast/Maust settlers in present day Elk-Lick Township of Somerset County, Pa., will be the focus of this year's annual meeting of the Casselman River Area Amish and Mennonite Historians.

The meeting is scheduled for Sept. 19 and 20 at the Oak Dale Mennonite Church near Salisbury, Pa.

The program will begin with input on the European and Berks County background of two immigrants: Jacob Mast, who arrived in Philadelphia in 1737, and a Jacob Mast, who arrived in 1750.

The 1737 immigrant will be discussed by a descendant, James Hershberger of Stuarts Draft, Va., a researcher of Mast history who has traveled to early Mast locations in Europe and Pennsylvania. The immigrant of 1750 will be presented by Lamar Mast of Masthof, Elverson, Pa., who will include slides of European locations of the Masts.

Evan Maust of Salisbury will discuss the second generation, telling about the children of Jacob Mast, who was among those of the 1737 immigration. Kenneth Yoder, descendant of Jacob, will speak about life on Negro Mountain.

Yoder addressed the Historians' meeting of 2002 on the topic of "Somerset County as They Found It," with a special focus this year on the Mast experience.

The final feature of the program will be a bus tour to locations in the area relevant to the Mast history.

The meeting is open to the public, and all interested persons are invited to attend. The Friday session will begin at 7 p.m., with a business meeting and program scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

A program flier is available by writing or calling the Casselman Historians at P.O. Box 591, Grantsville, MD 21536, or calling the organization at 301-245-4326.

Persons may also write online to christio@juno.com.

Moms In Touch Group To Meet

Moms in Touch, a prayer and support group for children and their schools, now in its 13th year, is holding meetings each week.

The Grantsville Elementary School meeting will be on Tuesdays, from 9 to 10 a.m.; Accident Elementary, Wednesdays, 9 to 10 a.m.; and Northern Middle and Northern High schools, Thursdays in Grantsville 9 to 10 a.m.

For exact locations, more information, or consideration for starting a new group, persons may contact Christine Brenneman at 301-895-5191.

The group's web site is www.momsintouch.org.

FSU To Host Former NFL Player Tuesday

Former NFL Football player Donald McPherson will present the lecture "Men and Women: Joining Together to End Violence Against Women" at Frostburg State University on Tuesday, Sept. 23, at 7 p.m. in the Lane University Center Manicur Hall. The event is free and open to the public.

McPherson travels to various venues to discuss the issue of stopping violence against women. He and his work were profiled in the October 2002 issue of O, Oprah Winfrey's magazine, and he was also a guest on the "Oprah Winfrey Show" that same year.

A native of West Hempstead, N.Y., McPherson is the founder and executive director of the Sports Leadership Institute at Adelphi University in Garden City, N.Y. He played for the Philadelphia Eagles for two seasons before being traded to the Houston Oilers, only to return to Philadelphia following that season. In 1991, he headed north to the Canadian Football League, joining the Hamilton Tiger-Cats (1991-93) and Ottawa Rough-Riders (1994).

Upon retiring from professional football in 1994, McPherson worked as co-director of Athletes in Service to America, director of Sports in Society's Mentors in Violence Prevention Program, a gender violence prevention program designed to encourage men to take a proactive position in the effort to stop men's violence against women.

As program coordinator of the Student-Athlete Leadership Program, McPherson trains thousands of high school student-athletes in motivational speaking and group work dynamics. His training includes mobilizing students within their respective school districts and communities to address self-esteem, substance abuse, violence prevention, bullying and teasing, and academic issues. By using sports as an educational tool, student athletes learn to teach, using their personal experiences as motivating examples for young people.

In 1997, McPherson was called to testify before the United States Congress on behalf of a resolution to create a national summit that would address violence in sports and society. He is regularly quoted in print articles and has been featured on several television shows, including "A&E: Investigative Reports," MSNBC, Fox News, ABC's "Nightline," "The Phil Donahue Show," and WNBC's "Today in New York."

The event at FSU is sponsored by FSU's Feminist Majority Leadership Alliance, Student Government Association, and the University Programming Council. For more information, persons may call Nicole Mattis at 301-687-3212.

Miss Lewis, Mr. Young Wed In July Caribbean Island Ceremony

Tom and Linda Lewis of Eglon and Bill and Betty Young of Falling Waters, W.Va., have announced the marriage of their children, Emily Lewis and Chuck Young. The ceremony was held July 26, 2003, on Mermaid Beach of the Buccaneer Resort on the island of St. Croix, where they also honeymooned.

The bride is a 1992 graduate of Preston High School, and received her bachelor of science degree in business administration with an emphasis in accounting in 1996 from West Virginia University. She earned her CPA status in 1997 and is employed with American Woodmark Corporation in Winchester, Va., as a cost analyst.

The bridegroom graduated from Martinsburg High School and received his accounting degree from Shepherd College in 1995. He is a CPA and senior accountant with Cox Hollida LLP in Martinsburg.

A reception was hosted by the groom's parents at their home on August 23. The bride's family — her parents, sister Sara Lewis, grandparents Claude and Jean Winters, aunt and uncle Mary and Richard Norwish and Caitlin — attended. Also attending were Emily's sister and family from Virginia Beach, Va., Julie, Gary, Grayson, and Madison Baker.

The couple reside in Martinsburg.

Miss Stonebraker To Wed Mr. Nelson

The engagement and upcoming wedding of Kellie Leah Stonebraker, Mtn. Lake Park, and Deryle Keith Nelson Jr., Canaan Valley, W.Va., has been announced by the bride's mother, Juanita Stonebraker.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Juanita and the late Lawrence "Doug" Stonebraker. She is a graduate of Elk Garden High School and is employed at Garrett County Memorial Hospital.

The prospective groom is the son of Freda Ratliss, Canaan Valley, and the late Deryle Nelson. He is employed at Coastal Lumber in Horse Shoe Run, W.Va.

A July 2004 wedding is being planned.

Bill And Betty Ream Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

Bill and Betty Ream, Swanton, recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a family picnic at their residence.

The couple were married on June 17, 1953, with the late Rev. Walt Spiker officiating the ceremony at his home.

Mr. Ream is the son of the late Bert and Eunice Ream. He retired from the construction union in 1997. He enjoys fishing and hunting. Mrs. Ream is the daughter of the late Bruce and Lydia Sweitzer. She is a homemaker and sews in her spare time.

The couple have five children: Peggy, Kenny, and Billy Ream Jr. and Wilma Stemple, all of Oakland, and Barbara Newman, Cheltenham. The couple also have four grandchildren.

Marriage Permits Recently Issued

Six couples recently applied for their marriage licenses, according to David Martin, clerk of the Garrett County Circuit Court.

Gregory Thomas Smith, 20, and Amber Dawn Boler, 19, both of Oakland.

Roy Charles Fazenbaker Jr., 22, and April Joy Friend, 21, both of Friendsville.

Andrew Michael Ross, 25, and Michelle Diane Teter, 22, both of Oakland.

Michael Allen Layton, 38, Stephens City, Va., and Patricia Ann Bircher, 41, Oakland.

Ms. Hershman To Wed Mr. Strawser

Sue Hershman, Oakland, and Edward A. Hershman, Cumberland, announce the engagement and forthcoming wedding of their daughter Susan Deborah to Charles W. "Petie" Strawser III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Strawser Jr. of Ridgeley, W.Va.

The bride-elect is a 1993 graduate of Southern High School. She graduated from Frostburg State University with a bachelor of science degree in business administration. She is currently employed with Enterprise Rend-A-Car, Rockville, as an operations coordinator.

The prospective groom is a 1994 graduate of Southern High School and a graduate of Pittsburgh Technical Institute. He is currently employed with A. Morton Thomas Associates in Rockville as an IT manager.

The couple will exchange wedding vows on June 19, 2004. Invitations will be sent.

Potomac State Experiencing Best Enrollment Ever

As students at Potomac State College of West Virginia University, Keyser, settle into their fourth week of classes, reports show that for the third consecutive year enrollment is up with a total of 1,365 students, a 3 percent increase over last year. Comparably, residential halls are at capacity.

According to Beth Little, director of enrollment services, this fall's increase equates to a 13 percent increase in first-time freshmen, a stable in-state enrollment, and an increase of 18 percent in out-of-state students. She also reports that there are approximately 100 Promise Scholars on campus this semester.

"Three consecutive years of enrollment growth indicate a high degree of consumer confidence in Potomac State College and its academic offerings," said Dr. Kerry Odell, interim president. "We are pleased that our students have chosen us, and we plan to continue our mission of providing a high quality, comprehensive education in a friendly environment conducive to learning."

Again this year, the numbers reflect a mix of students with a diverse representation from both in-state and out-of-state. Students come from 32 counties in West Virginia, with 13 states represented from across the nation. There are also several international students from Germany, Kenya, and Canada.

Little agrees with Dr. Odell and believes a significant reason the college has experienced continual growth is because of the quality academic programs and the special attention faculty give to their students. "Time and time again we hear testimonials from students who have continued on to other colleges and it's Potomac State College that they credit for giving them their best college experience," said Little.

She also believes new scholarship opportunities for both in-state and out-of-state students, continuing renovations to the campus, and referrals from West Virginia University, which is also experiencing an all-time high enrollment, have contributed to this semester's positive numbers.

The residential situation is similar to last year in that the halls are filled beyond capacity. Again this year, the college is handling the overabundance by requesting that students and resident assistants with private rooms temporarily accept roommates.

Dean of Student Affairs Bill Letrent said, "The college is committed philosophically and financially to providing students the services and facilities they deserve. Many students returned from last year's freshmen class because they saw that Potomac State College is committed to enhancing student services."

Letrent believes this trend will probably continue as renovations to the campus include upgrades to residence halls and the Student Union. He also notes that the Academic Success Center, a department that provides tutoring, academic advice, career guidance, skills workshops, and disability services to students, is now fully operational. "There are a lot of positive things happening here and students are noticing," he said.

The recent enrollment upswing began in fall 2001, with a 13 percent increase, earning the institution the highest percentage increase in enrollment throughout the state's higher education system in the 2001-2002 academic year. Then, in fall 2002, enrollment jumped another 3 percent, bringing the total to 1,321 students, the first time enrollment had exceeded 1,300 since 1990.

"As we become a fully integrated division of WVU, opportunities for enhancements to our academic programs and additional facilities to strengthen the campus experience will only get better," commented Dr. Odell.

Potomac State College is the only two-year residential, regional campus of WVU. The Keyser campus offers 47 majors for transfer to WVU or most other four-year institutions and 18 career/technical majors. Residents of Bedford, Fayette, and Somerset counties in Pennsylvania, Allegany and Garrett counties in Maryland, and Frederick County in Virginia receive a tuition discount off out-of-state rates.

Grant County Arts Council To Present "Mountain Echoes"

The Grant County Arts Council and community sponsors of the Hardy County Heritage Weekend will present Mountain Echoes, a group of traditional storytellers, on Friday, Sept. 26, at 7:30 p.m. at the Petersburg Baptist Church Fellowship Hall.

Patrons of the Heritage Weekend may enter free, and others may give a free-will offering. The program is presented with financial assistance from the West Virginia Humanities Council, a state program of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Persons requiring accessibility assistance may contact the Arts Council one week in advance at P.O. Box 988, Petersburg, WV 26847 or at emv1@mardy-net.com.

15th Annual Leaf Peepers Festival Slated Sept. 27-28

Tucker County's 15th annual Leaf Peepers Festival will be held Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 27 to 28. A wide variety of cultural and outdoor activities will take place in Canaan Valley, Davis, and Thomas.

Events include craft fairs, a Leaf Peepers bus tour, ghost walk, photo contest, canoe float trip, craft demonstrations, silent auction, and antique British car show. Competitive events will include the sixth annual Fall Colors Golf Tournament, the Tour of Davis 5K, and the eighth annual Dog Show. Also slated is the grand opening of the new Mountainmade Country Store in Thomas.

Music will also be featured at the festival, provided by fiddle champions the Brew House Crew, the newgrass band From the Hip, and acoustic blues musician Paul Sprawl.

Guided hikes of Canaan Valley and scenic rides through the Blackwater Canyon Rail Trail will be available to help festival goers enjoy Tucker County's natural beauty.

The festival will also feature a wide variety of food selections at the Appalachian Craft & Food Fair, as well as a corn roast and cornbread and bean dinner.

For more information about the Leaf Peepers Festival, persons may call 304-259-5315 or 800-782-2775.

AURORA/EGLON

The Aurora Cemetery Association has ordered and received bronze grave markers for Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, and Coast Guard, as well as for WW I, WW II, Korea, Vietnam, and one marker has just "U.S. Veteran" inscribed upon it. These grave markers are for families of deceased veterans of these particular branches of the military.

All markers are equipped with 18-inch rods, and the diameter of the WW I markers is six inches, the diameter of the others, five inches. The back of each marker will accommodate a gravemarker flag.

Some of these markers are already in place and can be viewed at the Aurora Cemetery. The cost of each marker is $30. For further information, persons may contact James Slawter at 735-3531.

Annual Texas Sing

The annual Texas Bethel United Methodist Church sing is scheduled for Sept. 8. Groups will be singing, beginning at 1 p.m., and the public is invited.

Harsh Birth

A son, their second child, was born Sunday morning, Sept. 14, to Scott and Lyvonne Harsh of Aurora. Sister Megan is learning to know her 7 pound, 14 ounce brother. The grandparents are Bobby and Carolyn Harsh of Aurora, and Marvin and Ellen Harsh of Horse Shoe Run. Audra Teets of Eglon is a maternal great-grandmother.

Class of '43

A celebration of the 60th anniversary of their graduation was held by the Aurora High class of 1943 on Thursday evening, Sept. 11, at the Maple Spring Church of the Brethren, Eglon. A roast beef dinner was served by the Eglon Mountaineer 4-H Club, to benefit the Horticulture Judging team that is preparing for national competition.

Attending were Grover and Nada Evans of Elkins, Jesse and Elsie Harsh of Oakland, David and Wilma Mae Teets of Horse Shoe Run, Tom and Lois (Teets) Adams of Aurora, Eileen (Henline) Rembold of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Jessie (Sims) Winters, and Claude and Jean (Miller) Winters, Eglon. Unable to attend were Reba (Hinkle) Guilliam, Washington, D.C, Norman Harsh, Roanoke, Va., and Lorida, Fla., and Arlene (Kight) Bandenberg, Ft. Myers, Fla.

Personal Mention

Attending a fall meeting of United Methodist Women, Saturday, in Parsons were Ressie Conrad, Wilda Harsh, Jessie Fedorow, Doris Arnold, and Alma Snyder of the Aurora United Methodist Church.

Reba Williams returned from Ruby Memorial Hospital to her home at Horse Shoe Run last week.

On Monday, Wanda Evans of Horse Shoe Run was transferred from Ruby Memorial to Heartland in Kingwood to continue her recuperation.

Carlton and Jean Skipper and Ron Parsons of Kingwood visited Sunday in Eglon and attended Maple Spring Church.

Relatives here received work that Erma Heise of Arthurdale fell and has a fractured foot. She is a daughter of the late Carl and Ruth Shaffer.

Denver and Peggy Martin of Straughn, Ind., are visiting relatives in the Oakland area this week, and visited Saturday afternoon at Eglon with Claude and Jean Winters.

The David Conrads of Eglon were involved in an accident Saturday, when their vehicle was reportedly rear-ended by another on U.S. 219 at Mt. Grove. Mrs. Conrad was taken to Garrett County Memorial for examination and treatment, then released to her home.

TERRA ALTA

Terra Alta Public Library will sponsor a car wash on Saturday, Oct. 4, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the library parking lot. This will be worked by the students of the Summer Reading Program and other volunteers. All proceeds will go toward purchasing juvenile books.

Libra Foundation has awarded a Books For Children grant to the library. The foundation will match a two-to-one ratio of all proceeds from the car wash.

In accordance with the U.S. Supreme Court and CIPA regulations, the West Virginia Library Commission has implemented the required filtering services on all computers. Each patron will need to fill our a new Internet Policy form, as new forms have been in effect since Sept. 2.

The library has suffered from water damages, which has prohibited the donation of books, puzzles, and other circulation materials. Work is still being done to avoid further flooding. The library asks that all donators be patient while holding on to their donations until the problem is corrected.

More microfilms have been ordered. These include Preston County News and Journal newspapers, other newspapers from other counties, and WV Argus film. These can be reviewed at the library on the microfilm reader at convenience.

Church To Host Buckwheat Cake All-Day Feed

The annual "All-Day Buckwheat Cakes" event at the Terra Alta First United Methodist Church will be held on Thursday, Sept. 25.

Cooks will be ready for guests at 5 a.m. at the church, which is located along Rt. 7 in Terra Alta. The buckwheat cakes will be served until 7 p.m.

The menu will include the cakes, sausage, sausage gravy, fried potatoes, applesauce, and coffee. The price for the meal is $6.

Davis's Black & Bluegrass Festival To Benefit Food Bank, Youth Prog.

The first Davis Black & Bluegrass Music Festival will be held Friday, Sept. 26, from 6 p.m. until midnight, and Sat., Sept. 27, from noon until midnight, in the Davis Community Center. The festival is the kick-off event for the Bear Hollow Community Project.

"The main goal of the BHCP is to start a food bank to serve the community of Davis," said a Bear Hollow spokesperson. "Our secondary goal is to set up funding for a youth program at the Davis Community Center."

The lineup for festival so far includes the Country Trio, Roy's Midnight Rambler Boys, and Jim'n I. "We are looking for more acts to fill the 18 hours of music," said the spokesperson.

Other activities planned for the festival include midway games, vendors, food, and fire-spinning performances.

Admission to the festival is $5 for adults and teens. Reduced admission is $3 with a donation of non-perishable food. Admission is free for children 12 years and under.

BHCP will also hold a second fund-raising event, "Halloween Town," starting Oct. 1 and running every weekend until Halloween night. That event will include a haunted hay ride, ghost walkthrough, candy barn, pumpkin patch, and fire and light shows. Vendors will also be set up for the event. Admission to the hayride is $5 for adults and teens and $3 for children under 12.

Event organizers are seeking volunteers to help with both events. For more information about volunteering or performing at the Black & Bluegrass Music Festival, persons may call Bear Hollow at 304-259-5425 or e-mail the organizers at jason@earthsongmw.com.

Brookside Church To Hold Revival

The Brookside Church of the Brethren will hold a revival on Oct. 2, 3, and 4, featuring guest speaker Tom Wegman.

The revival will begin at 7:30 p.m. each day, and will be held at the church, which is located along Rt. 50 near the Aurora fire hall.

Special music will also be part of the three-day event.

Thank You

We would like to thank all those who sent cards, food, flowers, words of comfort, prayers, and calls during the loss of our Mother, Leah Luzier.

A special thank you to Cortland Acres, for their care of Mom, Hinkle Funeral Home, Scott Hinkle, Dr. Rader and Staff, J.J. Johnson, for coming back to do the service, Sandy Brooke, Davis United Methodist Choir, Rebekah Lodge #274, Aunt Ella Jean, Mike & Vicki Shaffer, and Jessica & Jerrod Upole.

We appreciate all the love you showed us.

We will all miss Mom, but she will live on in our hearts forever.

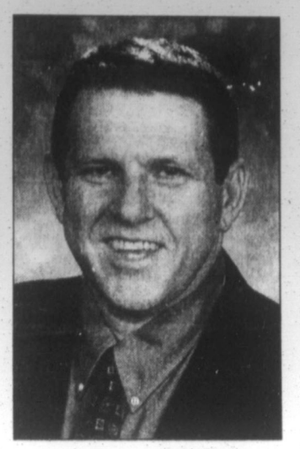
Don Nuce Joins Coldwell Banker Deep Creek Realty



Coldwell Banker Deep Creek Realty recently announced that Don Nuce has affiliated with that office as a full-time sales associate. He is licensed as a real estate salesperson in both Maryland (since 1995) and West Virginia (since 1996).

Nuce has a background in construction and property management, acquisition, sales, and marketing. He has been a property owner in Garrett County for over 20 years. Prior to that, he spent his summers growing up at Deep Creek.

"I'm delighted to return to Coldwell Banker where I began my career in real estate," said Nuce. "I know that working with an established and experienced organization will be a real asset in building my business and serving my clients. Coldwell Banker's nationwide network, along with access to the North Central West Virginia Real Estate Information Service, will be a great aid in serving my clients. My personal commitment is to serve the community and my clients with integrity and determination."

Nuce is originally from Kingwood, W.Va. He and Marianne, his wife of 18 years, have one adult son, Jason. Nuce has been active in local fraternal organizations, and served as an assistant coach, referee, and chief coordinator of the Mountain Top Youth Soccer League.

GBI Warns Public To Be Wary Of Telephone Scam

Several area individuals contacted the Garrett Bureau of Investigation after they received phone calls and messages regarding unclaimed money in their name earlier this week.

According to police, the individuals were given a phone number and a code to access their money by phone, fax, or internet. Once contact is made, the individuals are requested to send a specific dollar amount to receive information regarding the unclaimed money.

This is a scam, said a GBI spokesperson. Residents are urged to use common sense when answering these types of advertisements. They are also reminded never to send money or provide credit card information to companies such as these.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Garrett County Water and Sewer Master Plan

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing of the County Commissioners of Garrett County is scheduled for Tuesday, September 23, 2003, at the 11:00 a.m. in the Garrett County Commissioners' Public Meeting Room, located at the Courthouse, Oakland, Maryland, to consider an amendment to the Garrett County Water and Sewer Master Plan.

Residential Development is scheduled to occur on property owned by Deep Creek Development LLC; Marsh Mountain LLC and an area East of 219 Northbound Lane in McHenry recently purchased by Hugh Umbel. The developers would like to become part of the public water and sewer system to increase residential property value and make the sites more suitable for building.

A Preliminary Engineering Report for this area will show how the sewage flow will be accommodated with pumping stations and improvements to the force main.

The Buildout Projections and Preliminary Engineering and Environmental Report for the treatment facility on Mayhew Inn Road includes interim upgrades to the facility (already complete) and an initial orbal oxidation ditch accommodating 2.2 MGD. This is to be accomplished using the existing oxidation ditch facility with the interim upgrades complete and a 1.5 MGD orbal oxidation ditch to be completed by mid 2006.

Phase II of the treatment facility upgrade includes an additional 1.5 MGD orbal oxidation ditch with retirement of the initial facility bringing the total capacity to 3.0 MGD.

A collection and conveyance study of all contributors to the Deep Creek Wastewater Treatment Facility will be conducted estimating project costs including design activities to accommodate other Deep Creek communities into the system which are in need of service.

Interested persons will be heard at the Public Hearing on September 23, 2003, to determine if the amendments to the Garrett County Water and Sewer Master Plan are necessary for the public health, safety, and welfare of the residents of the proposed service area and if feasible financially and from an engineering standpoint.

By Order of the County Commissioners of Garrett County
R. Lamont Pagenhardt

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Grantsville Communications Tower

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing of the County Commissioners of Garrett County is scheduled for Tuesday, September 30, 2003, at 11:30 a.m. in the Garrett County Commissioners' Public Meeting Room, located at the Courthouse, Oakland, Maryland, to consider the replacement and relocation of the Grantsville Communications Tower to the new Grantsville County Roads complex located at 13266 National Pike, Grantsville, Maryland 21536.

The tower, tower foundation, equipment building, and associated hardware will be provided and installed under an existing contract through the Maryland Institute for Emergency Medical ServicesSystems (MIEMSS).

The new tower will greatly improve communication capabilities within Garrett County including public safety, public works, inter-agency and interjurisdictional mutual aid as well as allowing for future communication needs.

All required studies, permits, and licensing will be obtained in conjunction with the proposed project.

Interested persons will be heard at the public hearing on September 30, 2003, to determine if the proposed project is beneficial, cost-effective, and necessary to provide adequate communications capabilities for the above stated entities.

By Order of the County
Commissioners of Garrett
County
R. Lamont Pagenhardt
County Administrator

PUBLIC NOTICE

Charter Revision Resolution 2003-1

A resolution of the Mayor and Town Council of Accident, Maryland, adopted pursuant to the authority of Article XI-E of the Constitution of Maryland and Section 13 of Article 23A of the Annotated Code of Maryland, 1957 Edition as amended, to repeal Sections 1-86 and 1-87 of the present Charter of the Town of Accident, said Sections being entitled: "Misdemeanors" and "Municipal Infractions," in their entirety, and to reenact a new Section 1-86/187 in its place and stead.

Be it resolved by the Mayor and Town Council of Accident that the present sections 1-86 and 1-87 of the present Charter of the Town of Accident, being entitled: "Misdemeanors" and "Municipal Infractions," are repealed in their entirety, and replaced by a new Section 1-86/181, "Enforcement," in their place and stead, a true copy of which will be posted at the Accident Town Hall for a period of forty (40) days following this enactment. A fair summary of the changes proposed is as follows.

1) Section 1-86/87, Enforcement: The Mayor and Town Council may provide that violations of any Town Ordinance shall be a "municipal infraction" as defined by Article 23A, Section 3, of the Annotated Code of Maryland, unless the violation is declared to be a felony or misdemeanor by State Law. All "municipal infractions" shall be considered civil offenses and shall be handled in accordance with the procedure set forth in Article 23A, Section 3, of the Annotated Code of Maryland, or any amendments thereto. The Mayor and Council shall from time to time, by resolution, establish the level of fines to be imposed for ail such "municipal infractions." Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit or prevent the town from seeking other legal remedies such as injunctions, criminal prosecution, or damages in a civil action pursuant to Section 7.01 of Article 66B Annotated Code of Maryland as amended.

The Mayor and Town Council of the Town of Accident hereby gives public notice of the adoption of this Charter Revision and its intent to publish a fair summary of the changes proposed by this Revision in a local newspaper of general circulation in the town not less than four (4) times, at weekly intervals, within a period of at least forty (40) days following the enactment of this Resolution.

If a proper petition for a referendum has not been received within the forty (40) days timeframe, this Charter Revision shall become and be considered the Charter of the Town of Accident in all respects to be effective and observed as such upon the 1st day of November 2003.

OAKLAND, MD 21550

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain Deed of Trust from Harold Franklin Moreland to Household Finance Corporation, III, Trustee, dated November 8, 2002, and recorded in Liber 930, folio 234 among the Land Records of Garrett County, Maryland, the holder of the indebtedness secured by the Deed of Trust having appointed Gerlad Danoff, Dennis W. King, and C. Larry Hofmeister Jr., Substitute Trustees by instrument duly executed, acknowledged and recorded among the Land Records of the County aforesaid, default having occurred under the terms thereof, and at the request of the parties secured thereby, the undersigned Substitute Trustees will offer for sale at public auction

AT THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR GARRETT COUNTY, AT THE COURTHOUSE DOOR, OAKLAND, ON FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 2003 AT 1:30 O'CLOCK P.M.

ALL THAT LOT OF GROUND AND THE IMPROVEMENTS THEREON situated in Garrett County, Maryland, and more fully described in the aforesaid Deed of Trust.

The property is improved by a dwelling and is in fee-simple. The property address is 222 Moreland Drive, Oakland, MD 21550.

The property will be sold in "as is" condition and subject to conditions, restrictions, and agreements of record affecting the same, if any, and with no warranty as to the description of the improvements.

Terms of Sale: A deposit of $12,000 will be required at the time of the sale, such deposit to be in cash, cashier's check, certified check, or in other form as the Substitute Trustees may determine acceptable, in their sole discretion. Balance of the purchase price is to be paid in cash within ten (10) business days of the final ratification of sale by the Circuit Court for Garrett County. If payment of the balance does not take place within ten business days of ratification, the deposit will be forfeited and the property will be resold at the risk and expense of the defaulting purchaser. Interest to be paid on unpaid purchase money at the rate pursuant to the deed of trust note from date of sale to date of settlement, in the event the property is purchased by someone other than the note holder. Taxes and water rent to be adjusted to date of sale. All other public charges and assessments payable on an annual basis, including sanitary and/or metropolitan district charges to be adjusted for the current year to date of sale and assumed thereafter by the purchaser. Cost of all documentary stamps and transfer taxes shall be borne by the purchaser. If the Substitute Trustees are unable to convey good and marketable title, the purchaser's sole remedy in law or equity shall be limited to the refund of the deposit to the purchaser. Upon refund of the deposit, this sale shall be void and of no effect, and the purchaser shall have no further claim against the Substitute Trustees. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale shall assume the risk of loss for the property immediately after the sale.

Gerald Danoff, Dennis W. King, C. Larry Hofmeister Jr.,
Substitute Trustees

Temporary Bridge To Be Installed Over Savage River

The Garrett County commissioners and county roads officials met Tuesday with more than 30 residents affected by the closing of the bridge on Savage River Road over the Savage River. Last Tuesday, the state ordered the more than 25-year-old bridge closed following the recommendation of a state-appointed inspection team of engineers. The bridge is only open for pedestrian traffic.

"We're moving on this as fast as we can," said Commissioner Fred Holliday about remedying the problem.

Supervisor Fred Polce, Garrett County Roads Department, announced that the county had purchased a temporary bridge for $160,000, which will be installed adjacent to the closed one. The 150-foot structure was ordered last Friday and is expected to arrive by this Friday, Sept. 26.

In the meantime, the roads department has been working with property owners and utility departments to secure rights of way and prepare the site. The temporary bridge could be open for one-way traffic within three weeks.

Commissioner Dave Beard noted that the bridge's closure caught everyone off guard, as the bridge was not even on the list of those to be inspected this year. "We just found out about this problem a week ago," he said.

He and Holliday traveled the road and walked across the bridge on Sunday.

Autumn Glory News Sought For Publication

Organizations, churches, and other groups planning Autumn Glory events are urged to contact The Republican with their information for publication in the paper and the special fall supplement, Splendour.

Persons may submit information via e-mail at newsroom@therepublicannews.com; fax, 301-334-5904, or mail it to P.O. Box 326, Oakland, MD 21550.

THE GEESE ARE ON THE WING these days, seeming to denote the arrival of fall, which did begin this week with the autumnal equinox on Tuesday. Canada geese, once rarely seen in Garrett County, have apparently decided that they like it here and are populating nearly every pond and lake. They fly from place to place, speeding in their characteristic V-formation over soccer practices, afternoon football games, and recess time at local schools. Their distinctive honking can almost always be heard before they are seen winging along. A beautiful sight, really, along with all the other pleasing autumn spectacles in Garrett County. ## Hearing Held On Water, Sewer Plan; Cost Of Deep Creek System Increases

The Garrett County commissioners held a public hearing this week on the county's water and sewer master plan. State law mandates that the master plans for all local jurisdictions be amended and updated every five years. Hearings must then be held on the final drafts of those updated/amended plans. About 15 residents attended the county's hearing on Tuesday.

Director Mark Tonkovich, Department of Public Utilities, reviewed the county's new amendment in chapter four of its plan, which outlines how and why the Deep Creek Lake wastewater collection system is being expanded and upgraded.

Developers of several tracts of land in McHenry have requested that their developments be included in the Deep Creek Sanitary District, as the housing density, soil conditions, and grade slopes make the areas unsuitable for private septic systems.

As stated in the amendment: "The former master plan to utilize spray irrigation at the White Face Farm has now been amended and replaced with expansion of the Deep Creek Lake wastewater treatment plant to provide greater processing capacity at the most economical means."

Tonkovich also read a letter from John Nelson, Garrett County Planning and Zoning director, stating that the amendment to the county's master plan for the Deep Creek Lake Water Collection System was "fully consistent with the County Comprehensive Plan, as well as all land-use regulations and policies recommended with the plan."

Residents at Tuesday's

Maryland Students Will Not Be Required To Make Up Missed Day

by Lydia X. McCoy and Carla Correa
Capital News Service

ANNAPOLIS - Maryland students got a little hurricane present Tuesday from state school officials: one fewer day in the school year to make up.

The Maryland State Board of Education Tuesday granted all 24 school districts a one-day waiver of the 180-day school year requirement on the recommendation of State Superintendent of Schools Nancy Grasmick.

"I recognized the extraordinary efforts that systems make in trying to stay open," Grasmick said in a statement. "These are circumstances beyond our control."

The decision covers Friday, Sept. 19, when all state school systems shut down for the variety of problems caused by Hurricane Isabel, which rolled through the area Thursday and Friday.

Maryland schools are required to be in session for a minimum of 180 days and 1,080 hours per school year at the elementary and middle school levels, and 1,170 hours at the high school level.

School systems pad their calendars for weather-related closings and vacations, but it's unusual for schools to be using up days already, said Bill Reinhard, spokesman for Maryland State Department of Education.

"(Grasmick) thought they should be forgiven for the one day," Reinhard said.

School districts determine the extra number of days they should add to their calendars by historic performance and weather predictions. Last winter's harsh conditions caused school systems to quickly use up their extra days.

"We had unusually high number of schools out because of weather," Reinhard said about last year. "And the year before it was exceedingly light."

In Charles County, Isabel closed schools for three days while flooding receded and downed power lines and impassable roads were repaired. It has four inclement weather days built into its calendar.

Woman Flown From Rt. 495 Crash Scene

A Grantsville woman was flown by Trooper 5, the Maryland State Police medevac helicopter, to Cumberland Memorial Hospital following a Tuesday morning accident on Bittinger Road.

The single-vehicle crash occurred shortly after 11 a.m., when Tammy Lynn Friend, 32, lost control of her 1995 Ford Aspire near the Beitzel Corporation complex as she was driving north at a "high rate of speed," MSP troopers said. She failed to negotiate a righthand curve, and her sedan drifted off the right side of the road and onto some loose gravel, causing a skid. The car skidded back across both traffic lanes and struck an embankment on the southbound side of the road.

The Northern Garrett County Rescue Squad and the Bittinger Volunteer Fire Department responded to the accident scene prior to the request for medevac assistance.

The MSP press release stated that although Friend sustained minor head injuries and a fractured right femur, her general condition 24 hours after the mishap was good. Police credited the proper use of seatbelts and the deployed driver's side airbag in preventing her from being

MLP Man Gets Three Years For Meth Charge

A Mtn. Lake Park man pleaded guilty last week in Garrett County Circuit Court to attempted manufacture of methamphetamine and possession of marijuana. Related charges against Terry K. Hebb, 25, were dismissed upon his plea.

Judge Jim Sherbin sentenced Hebb to three years in the Division of Corrections, with all of the sentence suspended but 18 months. He was also fined $500, and a concurrent sentence of six months was imposed for the possession of marijuana charge. After his release from jail, Hebb will be on supervised probation.

In March, he was arrested and charged by officers with the Garrett County Narcotics Task Force after Hebb's residence

SHS, NHS Athletic Departments To Receive $7,500 Each From County

The Garrett County commissioners on Tuesday voted unanimously to allocate funds to the athletic departments of Southern and Northern high schools. Each will receive $7,500.

Commissioner Ernie Gregg said a request had been made to assist the departments of both schools. He stressed, however, that the request was not a disparegement against how the Board of Education allocates its funding. With the rising cost of transportation and fuel, it has become increasingly difficult for the board to support the departments all the time, he noted.

Dr. Wendell Teets, superintendent of Garrett County schools, said the board has increased funding to the departments by $1,000 or $2,000 per year, but it has never been enough to cover all of the expenses. He noted that the expenses also put a strain on the atletic boosters.

Other boards of Garrett County commissioners have supported the departments in the past, as well as the bands, Gregg noted. He added that of the eight athletic teams at a school, only about 2½ of them generate incomes.

The last time a board of commissioners supported the departments was in the 1980s, according Financial Services director Wendy Yoder.

Commissioner Dave Beard said he had been approached by the athletic departments and the schools' principals, who asked if the county could help them. Beard noted that transportation expenses were $1,000 for the football team to travel to Musselman High School (located in the eastern panhandle of West Virginia).

The athletic departments will forward their invoices to the commissioners' office, which will then be paid for by the county from discretionary funds.

Local Man Faces More Than 70 Criminal Counts

An Oakland man who was the center of a theft and forgery investigation since early June was arrested Tuesday while sitting near the Greyhound bus stop along Main Street in Grantsville, according to the Garrett County Narcotics Task Force.

Jonathan David Jones, 25, allegedly stole checks and a debit card from several persons in Garrett County, then forged the checks, uttering them to local businesses in Garrett County, police said.

A total of 13 businesses in Garrett County were victimized, according to the report.

Jones is charged with more than 70 criminal counts, including burglary first-degree, attempted theft, misdemeanor theft, theft scheme, forgery, uttering a

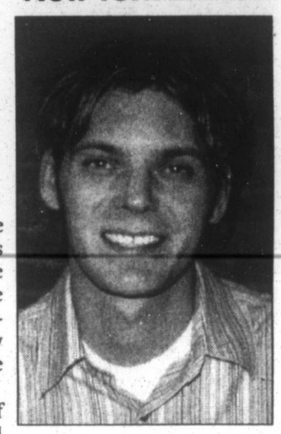
Work By Local Artist Places In New York Exhibit



"Block 5 Veiled," a linocut by Deep Creek Lake artist Steven Matthews, was recently selected for the international juried exhibition "Best of Drawing and Graphics 2003" at the Stage Gallery in Merrick, N.Y.

The work was one of only 23 works of art selected from among hundreds of entries from all over the world by exhibitions director, illustrator, and printmaker Matthew Widro.

Steven Matthews is a western Maryland native and graduate of Allegany College and Frostburg State University. The son of Shirley and George Matthews of Deep Creek Lake, he currently resides in Baltimore, where he attended the Maryland Institute College of Art. He recently graduated, obtaining a master of fine art degree from MICA's Mount Royal School.

Matthews' current work explores opposing relationships. He represents these contradictions through figurative and interior architectural subjects executed as linoleum block prints.

FRED TICHNELL IS GRANDPARENT OF THE YEAR – Fred Tichnell, Mtn. Lake Park, has won AARP Maryland's Magnificent Grandparents Award. Tichnell (third from left) celebrated the occasion at a recent brunch and award ceremony in Baltimore with his family. Despite being 82 years old and dealing with the effects of two brain surgeries that have left him with equilibrium problems and difficulty with fine motor skills, the honoree handcrafts most of his family's gifts. "These disabilities might have slowed lesser men down, but Fred nonetheless makes intricate wood pieces for his family year after year — wood clocks, frames, and crafts," said an AARP official, who also noted that the honoree's oldest grandchild is 43 and the youngest is just 3. Ary G. Bosley, Tichnell's granddaughter, nominated her grandfather for the award. "My grandfather has barely ever missed any of our major events, such as graduations, even with his major surgeries. He has only missed two events because of illness," she said in her nomination letter. "No gift in the world would ever replace what my grandfather means to me and my family . . . . Even if he doesn't win, my award to him will always be love, respect, and honor for who he is and what he has done to be a positive influence on my life." Pictured from left are Ary; her fiancé, Jason Schneider; Tichnell; his wife Vera; their daughter-in-law Kathy; and son Gary. Tichnell is also the father of Dawn Panther, Todd Bosley, Linda Margraff, Fred Tichinell, Susan Colaw, and Robin Smith.

ISABEL DRENCHES, BUT DOESN'T DEVASTATE – The results of Hurricane (Tropical Storm) Isabel were not as grievous locally as they could have been, although some Garrett Countians were indeed evacuated from their homes because of rising water. This dramatic shot tells the tale rather well, showing the Little Yough in Oakland, swollen and muddy on Friday morning, coursing through the Mountain Fresh Pavilion with depth, but not terrible speed. Rivers and streams throughout the county spilled over their banks as Isabel brought up to 4 inches of rain on the mountaintop. Kitzmiller was the most troubling area, according to Brad Frantz, director of the county's emergency management office. Approximately 25 to 30 people in that town were evacuated to the Kitzmiller fire hall. Wind did not create much of a problem, although several trees did come down in various parts of the county. See other photographs of the storm in this section of today's issue. Photo by John McEwen.

Federal Funding Available For Md. Hurricane Victims

President George W. Bush on Friday declared that a major disaster existed in Maryland and ordered federal aid to supplement state and local recovery efforts for areas struck by Hurricane Isabel the day before.

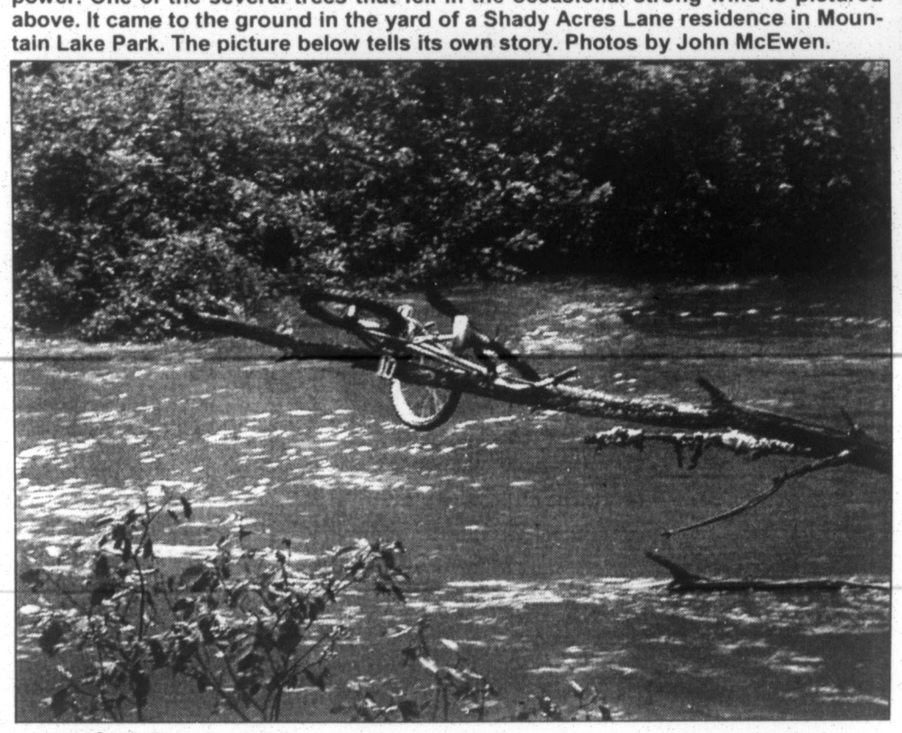
The president's action makes federal funding available to affected individuals in all 23 Maryland counties and the city of Baltimore. Assistance can include grants for temporary housing and home repairs, low-cost loans to cover uninsured property losses, and other programs to help individuals and business owners recover from the effects of the disaster.

Federal funding is also available to state and eligible local governments in all of the counties and Baltimore on a cost-sharing basis for debris removal and emergency protective measures, including direct federal assistance under the Public Assistance program, at 75 percent federal funding.

Representing the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), Michael D. Brown, under secretary for emergency preparedness and Response, Department of Homeland Security, named William Lokey as the federal coordinating officer for the federal recovery operations in the affected area.

The agency said that damage surveys are continuing, and additional forms of assistance for the state and local government agencies may be designated after the assessments are completed, according to the White House press secretary.

The agency also said that residents and business owners who sustained losses in the designated counties can apply for assistance by calling 1-800-621-FEMA (3362), or 1-800-462-7585 (TTY) for the hearing and speech impaired. The toll-free telephone numbers will operate from 7 a.m. to midnight seven days a week until further notice.



A BIT OF A MESS WAS LEFT by Hurricane Isabel last week after she had moved on to pester Pennsylvania and beyond. While high winds were not a significant problem for most of Garrett County, there were gusts that packed some power. One of the several trees that fell in the occasional strong wind is pictured above. It came to the ground in the yard of a Shady Acres Lane residence in Mountain Lake Park. The picture below tells its own story. Photos by John McEwen.

FLOODWATERS IN CRELLIN – As is always the case when the rivers overflow, homeowners in the town of Crellin suffered flooding and water damage when Hurricane Isabel blew through western Maryland last Thursday and Friday. Most of the local high water events occurred in the southern end of Garrett County, according to Brad Frantz, director of the county's emergency management office. Kitzmiller sustained the most damage, Frantz said, although the effects of flooding were felt throughout the entire county, with numerous roads closed for a short time because of high water. Normalcy returned relatively quickly, though, as the winds were not as severe as they could have been, and the storm was in a hurry to go north. Photo by John McEwen.

Third Street Crash Injures W.Va. Woman

A West Virginia woman was injured Tuesday when her minivan was rear-ended by a car on Third Street north of downtown Oakland, according to Oakland police officers.

Lana May Armstrong, 37, Thornton, was traveling north near Omar Street when her 1994 Dodge Caravan was struck from behind by a 2002 Oldsmobile operated by Jeanette McCarthy, 73, of Terra Alta, W.Va. The Southern Garrett County Rescue Squad transported Armstrong to Garrett County Memorial Hospital for treatment of her injuries. Personnel from the Oakland Volunteer Fire Department also responded.

No charges were filed by the Oakland Police Department.

Morgantown Man Gets 30 Days For Marijuana Charge

A Morgantown, W.Va., man pleaded guilty to a possession of marijuana charge last week in Garrett County Circuit Court. Judge Jim Sherbin sentenced John Patrick Rohlich, 19, to 30 days in the Garrett County jail, with all of that suspended for a period of six months' probation. A fine of $300 was also imposed.

Rohlich was arrested and charged by Maryland State Police in May 2002. He was a passenger in a vehicle, which had been stopped for a equipment violation. The vehicle was searched after the trooper smelled the odor of burnt marijuana coming from the vehicle. During the search, Rohlich claimed ownership of book bag in which a small quantity of marijuana was found, according to the state's attorney's office.

Bereavement Parent Support Group Starting

Healthy Families Garrett County, along with the Garrett County Partnership for Children and Families, will hold the first Bereavement Parent Support Group meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 15, from 7 until 8 p.m. in the boardroom of Garrett College, located in the Continuing Education Building.

The featured speaker, Lisa Drummond, will discuss the topic: Grief and Beyond: A Parent's Perspective.

The support group will meet monthly. It is designed for families who have experienced the loss of a baby during pregnancy, at birth, or shortly after birth. The group will meet the third Wednesday of every month at the location and time noted above.

The support group is not a therapy group, organizers noted. It is available free of charge to anyone, no matter where they may be in their grief process, and no matter how long it has been since the loss. Persons may choose to talk or simply listen, the organizers noted. No one is asked to "share."

A few professionals who help grieving parents will also attend the meeting.

The topic for Nov. 19 will be: Getting Through the Holidays. The featured guest speaker will be Brooke Schneider, MA, L.P.C., director of Mental Health Services of the Garrett County Health Department (GCHD).

The topic for Dec. 17 will be: I Feel So Guilty. The guest speaker will be Mary Bell, MA, child and family counselor for GCHD.

All are welcome and there is no need to reserve a seat. For more information, persons may contact: Yvonne McConnell, RN, JoAnne Greene, RN, or Maria Friend, RN, at 301-334-7720 or 301-895-3111.

Democratic Club Dinner To Host Paul Sarbanes

Senator Paul Sarbanes will be the keynote speaker for the annual Garrett County Jefferson-Jackson Day Dinner, slated for 7 p.m. tomorrow, Friday, Sept. 26, at the Pleasant Valley Community Center.

Sarbanes is a senior member of the Foreign Relations, Budget and Joint Economic committees, and is currently the ranking member of the Senate Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee. In that capacity he chaired the hearings that led to the passage of the bipartisan Sarbanes-Oxley Act. The legislation is designed to reform the accounting industry and restore the investor confidence that had eroded following the Enron collapse.

First elected to the U.S. Senate in 1977, Sarbanes made Maryland history in November 2000 by winning re-election to an unprecedented fifth term.

The Salisbury native is the son of Greek immigrants, and he is a graduate of Princeton University, the University of Oxford, England, where he attended on a Rhodes Scholarship, and the Harvard School of Law.

The Jefferson-Jackson Day Dinner is sponsored by the Garrett County Democratic Club. The cost to attend the event is $25 per person, and reservations may be made by calling Michael Bello at 301-533-3242.

Correction Noted

Two headlines were reversed in last week's paper concerning Garrett College's athletic facility and the Overlook Judy Center. The Republican regrets the error.

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month

The Dove Center and Garrett County Family Violence Coalition

invite you to join us to honor survivors of domestic violence, remember those lost to it, and show support for those whose lives are currently in turmoil as a result of it.

The Second Annual Awareness Ceremony will be held Wednesday, October 1, at 5:15 pm at the Oakland Train Station.

Activities will include the Clothesline Project Exhibit, the Silent Witness Display, information distribution, a performance by Pandora's Box, presentation of the Outstanding Dedication to Assisting Victims Award, as well as a brief remembrance ceremony.

We will also begin the Purple Ribbon Campaign during the ceremony, and free purple ribbons and pins will be distributed. Designate yourself as an advocate for a violence free community by wearing your ribbon during October, and/ or year-round.

Join us for a Fall evening in downtown Oakland, to commemorate a very worthy cause. Warm cider and gingerbread cookies will be served as well.

Sportaerobic Team To Serve As AG Grand Marshal

The honorary title of Grand Marshal for the 2003 Autumn Glory Grand Feature Parade has been awarded to the Garrett County Sportaerobic Team, according to Asa McCain, chair of the Garrett County Chamber of Commerce Autumn Glory Task Force. A group of 25 highly skilled young athletes, the Garrett County Sportaerobic Team has achieved national acclaim for five consecutive years under the leadership and coaching expertise of Brenda Brosnihan. The team will travel to Buenos Aires, Argentina, Oct. 2 to 4 to compete in another international competition.

"The members of this top-notch competitive performance group earned worldwide recognition for their county, state, and nation while capturing the title of 2003 World Junior Team Champions. For this achievement, among many others, the Autumn Glory Task Force selected these young people to represent Garrett County as Grand Marshal for our festival parade," McCain said.

Brosnihan praised the members of her team for not only their sportaerobic accomplishments, but also their accomplishments as individuals and citizens.

"As a coach I am proud to see that the discipline and commitment of being on a sportaerobic team is building confidence and poise among our team members. This confidence is being recognized as many of our athletes are showing outstanding achievements in academics, sporting events, talent competitions, pageants and many other areas of their lives. The life experiences for our team have been incredible," she said.

The Grand Feature Parade of more than 100 units of marching bands, clowns, floats, and drill teams will begin at 1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 11, in Oakland. Early arrival is encouraged to assure access to the parade route. Vendors and entertainment are scheduled prior to the parade. For complete listings of other Autumn Glory events slated Oct. 8-12, persons may visit the Chamber of Commerce web site at www.garrettchamber.com.

WORLD CHAMPS REPRESENT HOMETOWN – The Garrett County Sportaerobic Team earned international recognition and praise by winning the 2003 World Junior Team Championship. Now they will be recognized by their hometown as the Grand Marshal for the 36th annual Autumn Glory Festival Parade slated for Saturday, Oct. 11, at 1 p.m. in Oakland. Representing the team in the photo above are, in row one from left to right, Paige Carr, Samantha Taylor, Abby Wildesen, Kellie Shotwell, and Jennifer Feaster; kneeling in row two are Jessica Warnick and Anna Keefer; in row three are Morgan Brosnihan, Alayna Gaither, Rachel Margroff, Kelsey Jones, and Coach Brenda Brosnihan; in row four are Kira Farley, Alissa Garland, and Stan Stewart. The team will hold a pep rally this Friday, Sept. 26, at Garrett College at 8 p.m. to honor the athletes. The pep rally is free to the public, but donations to offset expenses will be accepted. This will be the last opportunity for the public to show its support to these world champions.

Woman Injured Following Two-Vehicle Accident

An Oakland woman was injured after her vehicle was struck from behind as she was attempting to turn into a private drive along Maryland Highway near the intersection of Truesdale Road Saturday morning, according to Garrett County sheriff's deputies.

Doris E. Junkins, 69, was transported by Southern Rescue Squad to Garrett County Memorial Hospital, where she was treated for injuries.

William I. McClanahan, 57, Oakland, was also eastbound on Maryland Highway when he rearended Junkins' vehicle.

The collision caused the Junkins vehicle to spin and strike the eastbound ditch, police said.

Deer Park Community Volunteer Fire Department also responded and assisted at the scene.

In other police news, Harold A. Hillery, 42, Kingwood, W.Va., was arrested and charged with driving under the influence (DUI), driving while impaired (DWI), and DUI per se.

His vehicle was stopped after deputies observed the vehicle's license plate light was not working.

GC Narcotics Task Force Arrests Two On Drug Charges

Two McHenry residents were arrested on drug charges after a two-month-long investigation by the Garrett County Narcotics Task Force.

Jacob Harman, 22, and Katie Graham, 21, were arrested and charged with possession of marijuana with intent to distribute, possession of marijuana, and possession of drug paraphernalia. Both were released on personal recognizance pending trial.

Task force personnel were assisted by uniform members of the Maryland State Police and Garrett County Sheriff's Office during the arrests, which occurred Friday at approximately 10:30 p.m. at a residence along Marsh Hill Road.

Man Arrested After Cashing Bad Checks

A Sharon, Pa., man was arrested following an investigation into two checks totaling $1,351.50 that were written on a closed account at WEPCO Federal Credit Union, according to Garrett Bureau of Investigation.

After reviewing the lobby's surveillance tapes, it was determined that Nathaniel Seth Jones, 19, cashed both checks in question. According to police, he was the account holder and admitted to knowing the account was closed when he wrote and passed the checks.

Jones was arrested in Oakland after turning himself in to authorities, and was charged with two counts of bad checks over $500 and two counts of theft over $500.

To Be Installed

Beard said they were now well aware of the inconvenience of the bridge's closure. Where residents used to have four miles to drive, they now have at least 36 miles, he noted.

County engineer Dwight Emory said the state inspects the bridge every two years. The last time it was inspected was May 2002. He noted that the state was concerned with the bridge's beams cracking and breaking. "It's not just a matter of deterioration, but of heavy loads placed on it," he said.

Several of the residents voiced their concerns about the well being of the 20 or 30 families who live in the affected area during emergency situations. They noted that many of the residents are elderly.

"We're two miles from Bloomington and 30 miles from nowhere," said one resident, who was concerned about fire trucks and rescue squads reaching them in time now that the bridge is closed. The rescue personnel would now have to come from Deer Park, Bittinger, or Grantsville, rather than from nearby Bloomington.

Another resident asked if one lane of the old bridge could be left open for emergency equipment. Emory said his department had thought about that, but someone other than emergency personnel might drive across the bridge and it could collapse.

Commissioner Ernie Gregg stressed that once the inspectors made their recommendation, state law required that the bridge be closed. If the county allowed it to remain open, it would be liable if someone were injured while driving across the bridge.

Several residents were also concerned about the safety of students crossing the bridge. Bus driver Roland Murphy has to drive one busload of children down to the bridge, park that bus and escort the children across the bridge, where they all board another bus parked on the other side. The residents were worried that the students, some of whom are kindergarteners, would fall off the slippery steel bridge as they walk across it.

Gregg said the county would put plywood down or some other type of material would be installed on the bridge to make walking easier. In closing, he thanked the residents for coming to the meeting. "We appreciate your input," he said.

The temporary bridge will remain at the site until a new permanent bridge is built over Savage River. The county will be able to use the temporary bridge "again and again somewhere else in the county," Gregg noted. The roads department already has one temporary bridge that it uses during bridge replacement and repair work. That structure, however, is currently in use.

Hearing Held

hearing also learned that Deep Creek Sanitary District customers would be paying more for the expansion and upgrade of the system than was originally anticipated. Tonkovich said another $15 million would be needed for collection and conveyance. This would be added to an original estimate of $15.6 million for upgrades and expansion of the sewage treatment plant.

To pay for the debt service on a 20-year loan for all the improvements to the system, it now appears that current customers, who have both water and sewer service, would pay $818.13 a year.

Two public hearings have been held on expanding the Deep Creek Sanitary District. Some of the McHenry residents who attended those hearings also attended the master plan hearing on Tuesday.

As at the other hearings, some of the residents voiced their objections to being required to hook up to Deep Creek's public system, especially since they already have adequate private systems. Some residents already on the system have also objected to having to pay for its upgrades.

At Tuesday's hearing, however, one McHenry resident gave the commissioners 88 signatures of Marsh Hill area residents who want to be included in the Deep Creek Sanitary District.

The commissioners will keep the record open on the Garrett County Water and Sewer Master Plan and expanding the district until next Tuesday, Sept. 30.

More information about the proposed expansion of the Deep Creek Sanitary District is available online at garrettcounty.org on the Public Utilities page.

CONSTITUTION WEEK PROCLAIMED – Martha Kahl, registrar, and Dorothy Cathell, regent, of the Youghiogheny Glades Chapter of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution recently appeared before the Garrett County commissioners as they signed a proclamation designating the week of Sept. 17-23 as Constitution Week. This marks the 216th anniversary of the drafting of the Constitution of the United States by the Constitutional Convention. The proclamation asked citizens to "reaffirm the ideals the framers of the Constitution had in 1787 by vigilantly protecting the freedoms guaranteed to us through this guardian of our liberties, remembering that lost rights [may] never be regained." Pictured, left to right, in the front row are Commissioners Ernie Gregg, Fred Holliday, and Dave Beard. In the back row are Kahl and Cathell. Photo courtesy of the chapter.

Police believe that Jones fled to Georgia after learning warrants had been issued for his arrest. After his arrest, Jones told investigators he had fled the area and spent time in Georgia and Florida.

Jones is currently being held at the Garrett County Detention Center on $80,000 bond.

STEALING IS STEALING...

Back in the news recently is the controversy surrounding the downloading of music off the Internet, one of those practices that is technically illegal, but done by millions of people. The sale of music on compact disks has taken a dramatic downturn over the past year or so, the reason being the aforementioned piracy. CD distributors have dramatically slashed prices in recent weeks to try to improve sales. However, even if the prices are cut in half, which is what some distributors have done, free is always going to be the preferred price.

We wholeheartedly agree that the downloading of music off the Internet is stealing, pure and simple. Why is it that we tend to relate thievery only to the stealing of items one can hold in his hand, or put in his pocket, or drive down the road? We all agree that taking an item that belongs to someone else, without permission, is stealing, whether it is money, a car, jewelry, or a bicycle off the front porch. We would also include a sculpture or a painting in that list. A man who builds a piece of furniture and then has it stolen is without doubt a victim of crime, for which there should be punishment. Why is it then that we don't think of music in the same vein?

Music that is copyrighted is no different than that piece of furniture or the bicycle on the porch. It is possessed solely by the composer/lyricist. The time and effort going into creating it are often every bit as extensive as for the furniture maker. It is private property and thus should be protected by law.

We know that most of the people stealing this music are not common criminals who would just as likely steal the bicycle. But most of them at least have some sense that it is "not right." So we do not view these lawsuits as frivolous, even though a slap on the wrist for the first offense should probably be the punishment. The suits are important so that our society can get it through its occasionally thick skull that stealing is stealing.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

This is a new experience for me. Like everyone else, I have my opinions, but have never had the urge to express them in this fashion.

I have recently found out that there is going to be an open meeting, sometime in the near future, about an ordinance regarding domestic cats. We have a leash law for dogs, but no laws regarding cats.

Many people have kindly suggested numerous ways I can cope with my cat problems. Cat hair on the cushions of my porch furniture can be brushed off, the cushions washed, etc. My small modest herb garden would not, in all probability, be used as a litter box if I provided a separate litter box and cleaned it regularly, or I could make a special bed and plant catnip for the little creatures. Why? I don't own a cat.

It is ludicrous to think I should have to clean up after animals I do not own. I understand I have to clean up after chipmunks destroy my potted plants, etc., but I should not have to deal with other people's domestic animals.

One quote I have been getting is "Cats should roam free." I don't think so! My herb garden was destroyed by cats. I tried red pepper and chili powder, and it worked, but as we know it rains frequently.

I don't own a cat, don't want a cat, and I certainly should not have them forced on me.

I am requesting that anyone interested in this new ordinance watch for the announcement and try to attend the open meeting. Responsible cat owners should welcome laws that would protect their pets.

Thank you,
Ann E. Hetrick

To The Editor:

During the past few decades, we have seen advances in treatment and preventive efforts as science contributed to an improved understanding of mental health and mental illness. However, many persons with mental health problems do not obtain the services they need. Not only are appropriate mental health services financially inaccessible to many Americans, but also the stigma associated with mental illness prevents many people from seeking help.

Misinformation, as well as stigmatizing attitudes and practices, are barriers to providing and receiving competent and effective mental health treatment. For this reason the Depression and Related Affective Disorders Association (DRADA) of Garrett County is hosting a Mental Health Fair at the Oakland Wal-Mart, Oct. 4, from 10 a.m. till 8 p.m., to commemorate Mental Illness Awareness Week.

The purpose of the Garrett County Mental Health Fair is to raise consciousness by educating all members of the community, including consumers, family members, providers, and educators.

Those participating in the event are DRADA of Garrett County, the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill (NAMI) of Garrett County, the National Institute of Mental Health, Maryland Mental Hygiene Administration's Youth Crisis Hotline, Lighthouse, Astra Zeneca Pharmaceuticals, Phizer Pharmaceuticals, Solvay Pharmaceuticals, LifeSkills Psychiatric Rehabilitation, the Mental Health Center, and there may be more.

As we work hard on our Mental Health Fair, we must always think back on the worst times that we and our loved ones have experienced, trying to work through the maze of the system and deal with the loss caused by these tragic illnesses. This will reinforce the fact that any sacrifice we make now is worth it. If we can educate people and end stigma, thereby opening doors for help, it will be a giant step on the road to equality.

To the Editor:

The Gorman VFD would like to thank the following citizens for attending our meeting on Monday night with concerns about our decision in regard to our dining hall: Linda Kyle, Linda Skeweris, and Betty Dalton. We also would like to thank Wanda Riley and Melanie Mayne for their support and understanding at the meeting. We sincerely hope the facts that were presented to you at the meeting will clear up any questions you previously had. We only wish you would have come to us before all the misleading information was carried throughout the county.

Please allow us at this time to assure everyone in our immediate running area and our mutual aid areas that this department is now and will continue to be at your service for your emergency and medical needs. This company was founded as a fire department and later in the years our medical services were added. This is what we strive to be best at so that in return we can be there for you when you are in need. As for the dining hall, yes in the past years it was used to raise money for the department to help defray some of our expenses, but in the past several years this has not been the case. In fact, it has become a liability to us instead of an asset, therefore, we were faced with making a decision.

The choice we made, as always with our sole purpose of being a fire/emergency medical department in mind, was to change our current liability, which was the dining hall, to a once again asset. This we have accomplished, and now we can use the money we are gaining to purchase much-needed gear and equipment to continue our service to our community. As we mentioned before, the department is continuing its same operations as before – services such as elections, rabies clinics, brown bag, etc., can be moved to our engine station instead of being at the dining hall.

Mrs. Kyle, we don't know if you are going to continue this crusade against us or not, but the only request we have to you is please have all your facts intact before you continue. Our request to the community is, if you have any further questions regarding this decision or for that matter any questions at all regarding our department, please come to us.

We have a meeting every other Monday, and you are welcome to present any questions you might have. This department does not have anything to hide from you, and we do not do things in secret behind closed doors, as we have been accused. Once again, please come and get your facts from us instead of letting gossip swarm throughout the neighborhood and darken the thoughts of everyone.

May God bless each and every one of you and keep you safe.

To the Editor:

This is in response to the Bill Thomas letter featured in the Sept. 18 edition of The Republican. Mr. Thomas called the American people "bushwacked" and then proceeded to back his statement with slanted left-wing opinions that are unable to be backed with truth. So you oppose the war and occupation in Iraq. Why? The cost? Consider the cost of not fighting this war. The war was to liberate an oppressed society of people and to forever eliminate the threat from the regime of Saddam Hussein. How could any American not support a president who is willing to defend our great nation, instead of a coward like the previous Clinton administration who refused to take any action after the first WTC bombing and other terrorist acts? The peaceful approach of "they haven't bothered us yet, or how are they hurting us now so let them alone" is over. Thousands of Americans died on Sept. 11, 2001, and not eliminating a possible threat or those who help those who pose a treat is ridiculous. Why wait for another attack?

Now that Iraq has been liberated, should we just abandon the people of Iraq?

This thought is wrong and inhumane. We must help rebuild Iraq and in doing so we will benefit with freedom in the Middle East and better security for America. The occupation is costing us less as a percent of the GDP than Vietnam ever did. World War II cost 130% of our GDP at that time. Iraq will never cost that much.

As for our allies, like France and Germany, they owe their freedom to us. Germany was ruled by Adolph Hitler and France was taken over by Germany. Without America, our so-called allies would all be speaking German and live under Nazi rule. We helped rebuild them and they need to help us rebuild Iraq so it has the same opportunities that they had. Back your comments about the cost with actual facts, not huge numbers that scare Mr. and Mrs. Average Joe into buying your false truths. Also, Vietnam never posed a threat to America's shores.

As for the upper 5% getting most of the tax cut, that may be true in this respect. Those who make the most, pay the most. It is wrong to tax a person less or more because he has bettered himself via the good old American way. Free enterprise and all are equal. Nothing or nobody is stopping you or me from getting our fair share of the pie. Raise taxes and lose jobs.

Education is a state and local responsibility. Your numbers on us spending more in Iraq than on education are simply untrue. Local and state tax dollars make up most of the education funding and that allows for local control. The federal government has a constitutional responsibility to provide national security. Would you rather the states or local towns do that? The roles of state and federal government must somehow be blurred in your mind.

As for the campaign contributors, you can contribute to any campaign that you support and if you get those who agree with you to contribute, you could have your way. The wrong way nonetheless, but your way. And if you're not happy, vote and participate in our democracy and suggest a solution. Don't just complain.

To the Editor:

In October 1981, the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence observed the "First Day of Unity." The purpose of this day was to connect advocates who were working to end domestic violence in their communities. Eventually, the Day of Unity evolved to include a special week of local, state, and national activities. These events varied among communities; however, three main goals emerged: mourning those who have died as a result of domestic violence, celebrating the lives of survivors, and recognizing and connecting the many dedicated domestic violence advocates across the nation. In 1987, October was named Domestic Violence Awareness Month, with the beginning of the first national, toll-free hotline.

Since then, domestic violence agencies everywhere have utilized the month of October to engage in massive public awareness campaigns in an effort to prevent and end abuse. The Dove Center and Garrett County Family Violence Coalition would like to take this opportunity to invite the community to engage in our awareness activities.

On Wednesday, Oct. 1, we plan to begin Domestic Violence Awareness Month with our second annual Awareness Ceremony, which will be held at the Oakland Train Station, beginning at 5:15 p.m. Activities in the ceremony will include the Silent Witness Display, which is a mobile, wooden sculpture, representing adults and children whose lives have been devastated by domestic violence.

The Clothesline Project will also be displayed. This project initially began in Cape Cod in 1990, to allow survivors to tell their stories of victimization by decorating T-shirts in a way that represents their experiences. The shirts are then displayed for the public in an effort to put a human face on the statistics surrounding domestic violence and sexual assault. Families and friends of victims may create T-shirts as well.

Pandora's Box, a local theatrical group, will be performing as part of the event, and for the first time, we will recognize a community member with the Outstanding Dedication To Assisting Victims Award.

This event will also serve as the beginning of the Purple Ribbon Campaign. Community members are encouraged to show a visible gesture of support for victims and survivors of domestic violence by wearing a purple ribbon throughout the month. The greater the number of purple ribbons seen in the community, the more powerful the message that domestic violence will not be tolerated. Purple ribbons will also be available at the Dove Center business office for those unable to attend the ceremony.

We look forward to having community members join us for a fall evening in downtown Oakland to commemorate a very worthy cause. Refreshments will be served during the event. For more information about this event, or Dove Center services, please call 301-334-6255.

LE DIVORCE

Rated PG-13 - Running Time: 1:57 - Released 8/29/03

The latest from the famous partnership of Indian-born producer Ismail Merchant and American director James Ivory (not to mention their longtime screenwriter Ruth Prawer Jhabvala), Le Divorce again showcases the notable abilities of the creative team responsible for such acclaimed period pieces as A Room With A View, Howard's End, and The Remains Of The Day. While Le Divorce does not attain the excellence of those films' interpersonal relationships, it certainly features an intelligent story complemented by fine work by a dizzying array of gifted actors, a combination which has become a standard prerequisite for Merchant/Ivory productions. Starring Naomi Watts, who showed us her impressive ability in David Lynch's freaky 2001 film Mulholland Drive, and the effervescent Kate Hudson, it tells the story (based on the bestselling book by Diane Johnson) of two American sisters who learn separate lessons about the price of love in present-day Paris, but it also functions as a sort of comparative study on the differing mores of French vs. American society. While it contains occasional textual flaws, like some unnecessarily obvious expository dialogue, and occasional acting flaws, like people trying to find a way to deliver said dialogue convincingly, and it strains for a long time to find likable characters, this is for the most part a well-performed and engaging film, especially compared to what else is out there right now.

When Isabel Walker (Hudson) sets off from her home in California for a prolonged visit to her pregnant sister Roxanne de Persand (Watts) in Paris, she doesn't realize that she is walking into the middle of a marital breakup. Even as she arrives, Roxanne's French husband Charles-Henri (Melvil Poupaud) is walking out the door, leaving his wife, their young daughter Gennie (Esmée Buchet-Deak), and the unborn baby Roxanne is carrying. Although the situation saddens Isabel, she can't help but enjoy the Parisian lifestyle, and she soon gets a job organizing the literary papers of noted liberal American poet and women's activist Olivia Pace (Glenn Close), who is donating them to the University of Tulsa. Meanwhile she falls in love with a scruffy Frenchman named Yves (Romain Duris), who also works for Pace. Her affair with him is put on hold, however, when she becomes attracted to a wealthy diplomat named Edgar Cossett (Thierry Lhermitte), a politician with the sexual appetites of Bill Clinton and the politics of George W. Bush. But better looking than either. And he's also the brother of Charles-Henri's propriety-obsessed mother (Leslie Caron).

Isabel's romantic pursuits could be considered the typical adventures of any young woman in Paris, but trouble starts when Roxanne's in-law family seeks legal counsel regarding the separation of property between her and Charles-Henri. The dispute particularly concerns a beautiful painting of Ste. Ursula, the patron saint of young girls, which may or may not have been painted by the famous 17th-century French artist Georges de La Tour (and therefore could be worth millions). The painting, given to Charles-Henri and Roxanne as a wedding present by her parents (Sam Waterston, Stockard Channing), was a Walker family heirloom for generations, but since it was a gift to the couple, his family claims joint ownership. Soon all the above family members and others join together for a strained summit meeting on the situation, culminating in an ill-fated trip to the Eiffel Tower.

Although this film has its lighthearted moments, it probably shouldn't be seen by anyone going through a painful separation, as it seems mostly to be about people being careless with each other's hearts. Few of the characters are really likable people, as most are either obsessed with money, appearances, or themselves, and therefore it is somewhat difficult to bond with any of them. However, the beautiful scenery of Paris is presented with the traditional style of a Merchant/Ivory production, and although this is not a period piece, it is clear the wardrobe department was doing its best to provide clothing to counteract the character problem, offering a wide variety of garments showcasing the versatility of Hudson's fabulous derrière. Hudson is of course her cute, bubbly self, and even when her butt is offscreen, she carries herself admirably and reaches some emotional colors which betray her underrated talent for real acting. Watts is similarly effective; although her character is less prominent and she spends most of the film being hurt, angry, and/or weepy, while growing in size all the time, she is able to achieve a subtlety of behavior that can be quite arrestingly real.

The film's conclusion turns out much more happily than most divorces probably do, but, well, Paris is the city of light, isn't it? ★★★★

The cost for adults is $3, for students, $2.50, and children under 4 eat free. There will also be door prizes, "Souper Soup Baskets," cake walks, and entertainment by Christopher Jones. Also during the supper there will be raffle tickets for the quilt which has been created by Minnie Bittinger, a past cafeteria worker at Grantsville Elementary School. The quilt tickets will be sold at $1 each or six for $5. Pictured above, standing with several varieties of soup, dinnerware, and the quilt are, left to right, Jones, Marlene Perkins, Linda Buckel, principal, and Marsha Swauger. Interested persons may call the school for reservations at 301-895-5173 or 301-746-8662.

Baltimore Man Sentenced For Cocaine Charge

A recent Garrett County District Court hearing resulted in a one-year sentence, seven months of which was suspended, for a Baltimore resident after he pleaded guilty to cocaine possession.

Reuben Levi Parrish II, 22, was also placed on two years' supervised probation by Judge Ralph M. Burnett, while the state's attorney declined to prosecute additional charges of possession of cocaine with the intent to distribute, and possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia. Parrish's June arrest by the Maryland State Police occurred when a trooper observed several individuals acting suspiciously in the parking lot of the Keyser's Ridge McDonald's. As a trooper began speaking to the group, he observed Parrish surreptitiously inserting several small plastic bags into his mouth. When the suspect complied with a request to spit the bags out, the trooper found that they were filled with cocaine.

Gary Babilya, 42, Yukon, Pa., pleaded guilty to charges of possession of cocaine, second degree assault, and driving while intoxicated, and was handed an eight-month sentence, all but one month of which was suspended, fined $1,055, and placed on one year of supervised probation. His July arrest resulted from a traffic stop during which a state trooper observed a bag of suspected marijuana sticking out of his pocket. As Babilya was being processed at the McHenry barrack, he was found to be carrying several bags of cocaine, then he initiated a scuffle with barrack personnel and kicked a state trooper during the incident. Additional charges of possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia, as well as several traffic offenses, were not prosecuted.

Raymond Duane Miller Jr., 28, Accident, pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence, a charge filed in conjunction with additional unprosecuted accusations of second degree assault, resisting arrest, and numerous traffic offenses. He was handed a 60-day sentence, all but 14 days of which was suspended, fined $300, placed on one year of supervised probation, and ordered to complete 30 hours of community service. The February 2002 incident that led to Miller's arrest took place during a traffic stop, when he reportedly kicked a state trooper as he was being taken into custody for DUI.

Benjamin Morgan Evans, 21, Cincinnati, pleaded guilty to possession of marijuana and was handed a 30-day sentence, all but two days of which was suspended, fined $200, placed on six months' unsupervised probation, and ordered to complete 30 hours of community service. State troopers arrested Evans after observing a glass smoking device located in plain sight in his car during a May traffic stop. An ensuing search uncovered two bags of marijuana in the vehicle.

David Thomas Harter, 24, Norfolk, Va., pleaded guilty to marijuana possession and was handed a 30-day sentence, all but one day of which was suspended, fined $300, placed on six months' unsupervised probation, and ordered to complete 40 hours of community service. His May arrest stemmed from a traffic stop that had led to the discovery of marijuana in the car he was riding in. The driver, Kimberly Michelle Tharp, 35, Norfolk, was not prosecuted on possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia.

Frank Dale Andrews, 65, Star City, W.Va., pleaded guilty to destruction of property and was handed a 60-day suspended sentence, was searched and the materials needed to manufacture methamphetamine were found. A marijuana plant, drug paraphernalia, and a handgun were also found during the search, according to State's Attorney Lisa Thayer Welch.

When asking the court to incarcerate Hebb at the Division of Corrections, Thayer Welch outlined for the court the three possible outcomes because of his activities.

"If Hebb successfuily manufactured methamphetamine, we have on the street a very dangerous narcotic drug," she said. "If Hebb is not successful, people who think they've purchased meth are going to use even more the next time, causing an overdose situation, because they think it has no effect on them; or, Hebb could have created a substance that was not meth, but could be other wise toxic."

The state's attorney reminds residents that they can report suspected drug activity to the Task Force at 301-387-9566 or through the Garrett County Sheriff's Office or Maryland State Police.

ejected from the vehicle and suffering more serious injuries.

Friend, who was the vehicle's sole occupant, was charged with failure to control speed to avoid a collision. The owner of the car, Valencia Denise Norwood, 28, also of Grantsville, will be charged with failure to have the required insurance on the vehicle.

READY TO RIDE SAFELY – More than a dozen area youngsters were given bicycle helmets recently at Taco Bell in an effort to reduce bicycle injuries throughout Garrett County, according to John Sines, Oakland police chief. As part of an arrangement with Oakland's Taco Bell, Sines secured funding for 25 helmets that were presented to youngsters who might otherwise be unable to afford them. "We are grateful to Taco Bell's Good Neighborhood Program for responding to our effort to make bicycling safe for our kids." As an added incentive for bikers to wear helmets, Sines said his officers have been given hundreds of coupons for one free taco to give to every biker they see wearing a helmet, regardless of age. According to Bill Hancock, executive director of Taco Bell's Good Neighborhood Program, this is one of several community projects that Taco Bell will support in future months, and special Oakland Thursdays at Taco Bell are being designed to generate revenue for local schools, and civic and charitable organizations. Persons may call 1-888-306-TACO for more information. Pictured above are the recipients of the new helmets with Sines, on the left, and Hancock, on the right.

Tellers Of Tall Tales Wanted For AGF Event

Tellers of "tall tales" are being sought for the annual Autumn Glory Tall Tale Story and Book Festival, set this year for Oct. 11. The event is hosted by the local AAUW (American Association of University Women).

The schedule will be as follows: 9 a.m. for student tellers, and 10:30-12:15 for adults. The event will again take place at St. Paul's United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall, located at 318 E. Oak Street in Oakland. All proceeds will benefit the AAUW's scholarship fund.

Students, seniors, and adults are invited to retell a tall tale or to create a tall tale of their own to share at the festival, according to Dr. Gail Herman, organizer of the event.

"Remember, most folktales are pretty 'tall' in themselves," Herman said. "Exaggerations are in order about vegetables, machines, weather and climate, pets, and human abilities. However, don't overlook the truth. Truth can be stranger than fiction."

Tales should be no longer than 10 minutes for adults and between 1 to 5 minutes for children.

The guest performer at the festival will be Dr. Sally Stephenson, a musician who has produced CDs and tapes and has performed in many states, Herman said. She plays guitar, flute, and harmonica, among other instruments.

"Dr. Stephenson will add musical moments to the festival between stories," Herman noted.

The fee to participate is $4 for adults and $2 for students. The scholarship fund supported by these proceeds will help a local Garrett County student attend Garrett College.

To register as a teller or for more information, persons may call 301-387-9199 and give names and phone numbers. Dr. Herman will return the calls.

Hoppenthaler To Give Poetry Reading At GC

John Hoppenthaler, a published poet who also serves as author Toni Morrison's assistant, will present a poetry reading at Garrett College at noon on Oct. 1. The presentation has been arranged by the college's Arts and Sciences Division in conjunction with the Office of the Dean of Academic and Student Affairs.

The public is invited to attend the reading, which will be held in Room 305 of the Continuing Education Building at the college.

Hoppenthaler, who currently lives in New York, received a master of fine arts degree in poetry writing from Virginia Commonwealth University in 1988 and has done graduate study at West Virginia University's department of English. His poetry has appeared or is forthcoming in Ploughshares, The Southern Review, Kansas Quarterly, New Letters, Chelsea, Tar River Poetry, Pleiades, Connecticut Review, Poet Lore, the Bloomsbury Review, Margie, Two Rivers Review, the anthologies September 11, 2001: American Writers Respond, and Wild, Sweet Notes II: More West Virginia Poetry, Blackbird, Yale Anglers' Journal, and elsewhere.

His reviews, interviews, and essays regularly appear in such journals as Chelsea, Arts & Letters, The Bellingham Review, Pleiades, and Kestrel, the journal of literature and art published by Fairmont State College. Hoppenthaler also serves as poetry editor for Kestrel.

Among the poet's honors are an Individual Artist Grant from the West Virginia Commission on the Arts, a fellowship from the Virginia Center for the Creative Arts, a foreign travel grant from West Virginia University, and 14 Pushcart Prize nominations.

His first book of poetry, Lives Of Water, was published by Carnegie Mellon University Press in 2003. He is currently editing a collection of essays and interviews on the work of Jean Valentine, for which he has signed an advance contract with Wesleyan University Press.

Garrett College students who attend this event may receive co-curricular credit. For further information, persons may contact Sally Staley, assistant to the dean of student and academic affairs, at 301-387-3102, or Dr. Virginia Broaddus, director of arts and sciences, at 301-387-3077.

Lavine To Lead Watercolor Class For Arts Council

The Garrett County Arts Council will present a weekend workshop on watercolor painting with Alexis Lavine on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 18 and 19, with each session scheduled from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. The Saturday session will be held at Garrett College, and the Sunday session will be held at the Garrett County Visitors Center in McHenry.

"This will be our second workshop with Alexis this year," noted Steve Schlosnagle, director of the Garrett County Arts Council. "Participants in her first workshop gave her remarkably enthusiastic reviews for quality of instruction and support. We're delighted that she's accepted our invitation to return."

Lavine is co-owner of the Two Sisters Gallery in Greensboro, N.C., where she recently moved after owning and operating the Gallery on Greene Street in Cumberland for 10 years.

She began her artistic career with a master's degree in medical illustration from the Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, but turned her full attention to watercolor painting when she moved to western Maryland in 1980. Her award-winning paintings have been displayed in numerous juried and gallery exhibitions, and they hang in private and corporate collections throughout the country and abroad, Schlosnagle said.

The enrollment fee for the watercolor weekend is $75, and the registration deadline is Oct. 11. Participants should have some prior experience in watercolor painting and must provide their own painting materials and supplies.

Additional information is available at the Gallery along Alder Street in Oakland, or persons may call the Garrett County Arts Council at 301-334-6580.

Heselbach's Art Featured At Gallery Exhibit

A new exhibit at the Garrett County Arts Council's gallery along Alder Street in Oakland features abstract acrylic paintings by Swanton artist Carl Heselbach.

"This artist's subtle magic with color has transformed our special exhibit room into an area for quiet contemplation and introspection," said Steve Schlosnagle, the council's executive director. "Heselbach's work reflects a mature experience with the properties of hue, value, and saturation — the basic properties of color and perception."

The arts council will host a reception for Heselbach and other participating Gallery artists on Thursday, Oct. 2, 6-9 p.m. The public is invited.

"I work primarily in acrylics mixed with polymer to achieve the versatility and aesthetics I desire," said Heselbach. "I am more concerned with arranging the visual elements in my paintings — colors, shapes, textures, and space — than with the re-creation of particular scenes. By eliminating the subject matter of my pictures, the viewer can concentrate on the qualities of such elements as color and texture."

Heselbach studied art at the Rinehart Graduate School of Sculpture, the Maryland Institute of Art, Le Millet School of Art, Garrett College, and Baltimore City College. Before displaying in Oakland, he exhibited in shows and galleries at Atlantic City and Cherry Hill, N.J.; at Georgetown in Washington, D.C.; at Cumberland, McHenry, and Baltimore; at New Hope, Pa.; at Rehoboth Beach, Del.; at Miami, Fla.; and elsewhere.

"It is my philosophy," noted Heselbach, "that colors in art, like society in life, do not function in isolation from one another but rather as part of a whole."

Heselbach's paintings will be on display at the Gallery through Oct. 25. Additional information about his featured exhibit of abstract acrylics and the Oct. 2 reception at the Gallery is available by calling the Garrett County Arts Council at 301-334-6580.

HESELBACH'S "CONTINENTAL DIVIDE" – The Garrett County Arts Council will host a reception for abstract acrylic painter Carl Heselbach and other regional artists at the Gallery along Alder Street in Oakland on Thursday evening, Oct. 2, from 6 to 9 p.m. The public is invited. His work titled "Continental Divide" is pictured above. "By eliminating the subject matter of my pictures, the viewer can concentrate on the qualities of such elements as color and texture," said the artist. His featured exhibit will be on display at the Gallery through October 25. See story.

SOUTHERN BAND TAKES FIRST – The Southern High School Marching Band came home with several first-place trophies Saturday after competing in the Music in the Mountains band competition, held at Preston High School in Kingwood, W.Va. The band took first place in Group I with a score of 75.6, topping competitors Northern High School, which earned a 73.75, and Nicholas County, which took third with 71.1. Southern also garnered the awards for Best Percussion, Best Auxiliary, and Best Drum Major. The band is pictured above during the competition, and Kasey Bell, drum major, is shown at left during her award-winning performance. "We are continuing to grow with this show," said Director Richard Clever. "We will be adding new details to it, as well as refining and fine-tuning what we already do. As our students get more comfortable with the demands of the music and the drill, we expect to get better each week." In all, 14 bands in three divisions competed in Saturday's show, and Fairmont (W.Va.) High School took the Best Overall trophy. The band will next compete in the Allegany Band Spectacular in Cumberland on Sept. 27. The show will begin at 5:30 p.m. Photos by Dave Bell.

"His figurative works explore masking and superficiality, as do the room interiors that, while beautifully executed and somewhat benign, suggest an undercurrent of substance," said a spokesperson for the Stage Gallery. "These images become metaphorical to life in that what is apparent on the surface may indeed only be a veneer. These hyper-detailed prints suggest the complexities of life and the artist's narrative style allow viewers to interject themselves into an unfolding drama."

He continues exhibiting his work internationally as well as in western Maryland and surrounding areas.

The exhibition runs until Oct. 5. The gallery is located in the Stage Theater building at 2222 Hewlett Avenue in Merrick. The public is invited to view the works and meet the artists at an artists' reception on the closing day, Sunday, Oct. 5, from 6 to 8 p.m. Regular gallery hours are 1 to 7 p.m. weekdays, and weekends from 12:30 to 3 p.m. or by appointment. ## FSU To Host REO Speedwagon At Homecoming

The music of the 1970s and '80s will return when the Frostburg State University's Cultural Events Series and University Programming Council present the band REO Speedwagon on Saturday, Oct. 18, at 9 p.m. in the FSU Cordts Physical Education Center Main Arena.

The concert is part of FSU's 2003 "Blast from the Past" homecoming celebration.

REO has been on the road and recording non-stop since 1970, with 17 critically acclaimed albums and 13 Top 40 singles, including "Can't Fight This Feeling," "Keep On Loving You," "Time For Me To Fly," "Hi Infidelity," "Take It on the Run," and "Back on the Road Again."

"We started out as a bar band, playing as fast and loud as we could," said REO's bass guitarist, Bruce Hall.

After the band's original guitarist, Gary Richrath, and drummer Alan Gratzer left the band in the late 1980s, REO Speedwagon came close to ending, but was convinced by fans to "keep on truckin'," Hall said.

Besides Hall, current members include lead singer/songwriter Kevin Cronin, keyboard player and founding member Neal Doughty, drummer Bryan Hitt, and lead guitarist Dave Amato.

This show is presented in partnership with the FSU Alumni Association.

Ticket prices for the general public range from $25 to $45.

To order tickets, persons may call the CES box office Monday through Friday between the hours of 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The office can be reached at 301-687-3137 or toll free at 1-866-TIXX-CES, or visited on-line at ces.frostburg.edu.

Gallery To Celebrate Success With Oct. 2 Public Reception

More than 150 regional artists have exhibited work at the Gallery along Alder Street in Oakland since the Garrett County Arts Council began the gallery project in July 2000. To mark the achievement, the arts council will host a public reception on Thursday, Oct. 2, 6-9 p.m. All participating artists and friends of the Gallery are invited to attend, said Steven Schlosnagle, executive director of the arts council.

The purpose of the Gallery is to support artists and artisans and to provide a space where buyers can view and purchase local and regional artwork.

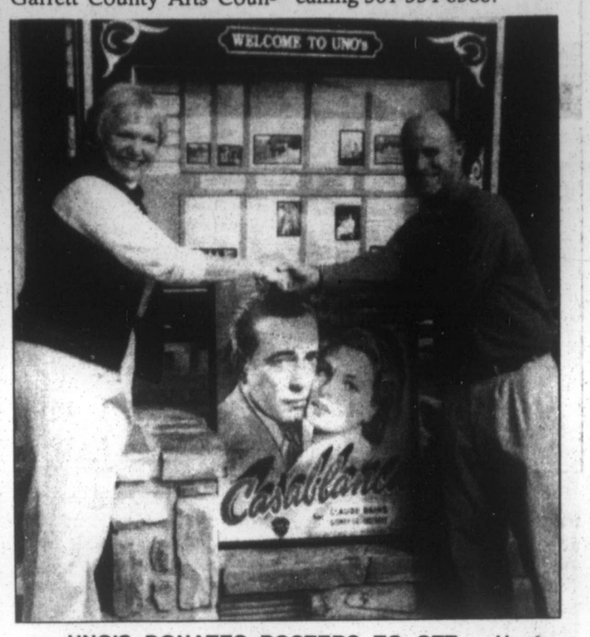
"We're delighted with the public's response to this endeavor," said Schlosnagle. "The creative quality of work presented by local artists continually improves, and we're confident that we'll soon exceed $40,000 in annual sales. The Gallery has been good for artists and artisans — and good for the community."

A hallmark of the Gallery showcase is reflected in its diversity, Schlosnagle added. Exhibited work includes paintings, photographs, stained glass, wood carvings, pottery and ceramics, knitted goods, turned wood, iron work, needlepoint, dough crafts, blown and fused glass, jewelry, baskets, woven rugs, wall hangings, and more.

Gallery exhibits are changed three times each year to refresh the collection, the director said. Featured exhibits of individual artists are rotated more frequently — every six to eight weeks. In addition, two exhibits by students attending Garrett County schools are presented each year.

The Gallery is operated as a special project of the Garrett County Arts Council, a non-profit organization governed by a volunteer board of directors.

Normal Gallery hours are Monday-Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Additional information about the Oct. 2 reception is available by calling 301-334-6580.



UNO'S DONATES POSTERS TO OTT – Uno's, Deep Creek Lake, recently donated movie and Broadway posters that have adorned the walls of the restaurant since it opened in 1990 to Our Town Theatre. The framed posters will be auctioned during the Autumn Glory Festival on Sunday, Oct. 12, at 1 p.m. at the theatre in Oakland. Sealed bids will be accepted until noon that day. The posters may be viewed Friday, Oct. 10, and Saturday, Oct. 11, between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. at the theatre. Pictured, left to right is Tiddie Wheeler accepting the donation on behalf of OTT from Bill Ingram, Uno's manager.

Amanda Gregory Becomes Bride Of Timothy Klotz In October Ceremony

Amanda Leanne Gregory and Timothy Douglas Klotz were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony held on Oct. 5, 2002, at St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Oakland.

The bride is the daughter of Jeff and Janet Gregory, Oakland, and the groom is the son of Doug and Bonnie Klotz of Friendsville.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents.

Serving as maid of honor was Diana Mayfield, friend of the bride. The bridesmaids were Angie Savage, sister of the groom; and Susan Mayfield, Jennifer Teagarden, and Misty Sereno, all friends of the bride.

The best man was Sean Savage, cousin of the groom. The groomsmen were Kevin Savage, brother-in-law of the groom; Luke Keller, cousin of the groom; and Jason Beitzel and Jesse Deniker, friends of the groom.

The flower girl was Montana Mahler, cousin of the groom, and the ring-bearers were Warren and Wyatt Wright, nephews of the groom.

The bride wore a designer gown of imported Italian satin featuring a sleeveless, fitted bodice with spaghetti straps. The straps were beaded with tiny pearls and sequins. The entire bodice was embellished with criss-crossed beads, pearls, and sequins. The Basque waistline held a full skirt that flowed into a cathedral-length train. The skirt and entire hemline of the gown and train were trimmed with matching lace, edged with pearls and sequins.

Following the ceremony, a dinner reception was held at the McHenry House at Wisp. The couple have established residence in Friendsville.

Miss Wade To Wed Mr. Graham

Daniel and Lois Wade, Swanton, announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter Erica Susanne to Scott Wayne Graham, son of Howard "Bill" and Nancy Graham of McHenry.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Allegany College of Maryland with a degree in psychology and is currently employed at the Mental Health Center of Western Maryland. She is the maternal granddaughter of Delbert "Pete" and Norma Broadwater, and the paternal granddaughter of Irene Saville and the late Kenneth Wade.

The prospective groom is a graduate of West Virginia University with a degree in chemical engineering and is employed at MeadWestvaco. He is the maternal grandson of Alicia Jean Vickers and the late Elmer Vickers, and the paternal grandson of Hazel Graham and the late Charles Graham.

Invitations have been sent for the wedding, which will be held in October 2003.

Miss Keplinger To Wed Mr. Hardesty

Leonard and Ethel Keplinger, Burlington, W.Va., announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter Christina Kaye to Kristofer Scott Hardesty, son of Kenneth and Leona Hardesty, Oakland.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Keyser High School, Potomac State College, and Allegany College of Maryland. She is employed as a certified occupational therapy assistant with Peak Rehab Inc., Mtn. Lake Park.

The prospective groom is a graduate of Northern High School and several technical schools. He is employed as a plumber with A.D. Naylor Contracting, Oakland.

An Oct. 4, 2003, wedding has been planned at Stemple Ridge United Methodist Church, Aurora, W.Va., followed by a reception in the church's pavillion. Invitations have been sent, but all friends and family are welcome to attend.

Marriage Permits Recently Issued

Seven couples recently applied for their marriage licenses, according to David Martin, clerk of the Garrett County Circuit Court. Two couples requested that their names not be published.

Michael Wayne Deem, 23, and Marissa Dawn Winans, 17, both of Oakland.

Daniel Paul Martin, 28, and Melissa Lynn Nixon, 28, both of Deer Park.

Christopher Quinn Feimer, 32, and Amy Elizabeth Mann, 31, both of Baltimore.

Charles Joseph Trader, 25, and Jamie Lynn Taylor, 27, both of Davis, W.Va.

Charles Edward Farley, 65, and Kathy Diann Toms, 43, both of Oakland.

Ram Golfers Take Second In Region; Qualify For Md. Tourn.

The Southern High School golf team fought its way to the runner-up spot in the Maryland West Region IA/IIA Tournament Tuesday on a soggy Blackrock Country Club course in Hagerstown. SHS's team score of 328 was just two strokes off Walkersville's winning tally, but, more importantly, the fine Southern showing allowed all four Ram regional team members to qualify for next month's Maryland State Championship Tourney.

"We're really proud of our kids and happy for them," Southern coach Jeff Friend said after the match. "We really didn't expect to qualify for states as a team, but it will be great to have the guys playing together in the championship, because they support each other real well."

SHS junior Matt Skidmore carded a 78 for the day, good for fourth place overall on the par-72 course. Fellow Rams Travis Friend and Josh Lear tied for eighth place as both turned in 81s, and Joe Albert shot an 88. The top five teams in the 16-squad field were Walkersville, 326; SHS, 328; Williamsport, 329; Catoctin, 333; and Smithsburg, 356. Northern High came in ninth with a 381, but individual Husky results wer not reported.

The low medalist for the day, whose name was not available, shot an even-par 72. The girls' individual champion was Jessica Jewell of Allegany, who won a playoff with a final score of 86.

In a previous match played in Moorefield, W.Va., on Wednesday, Sept. 17, the Rams followed Skidmore's even-par 35, good for low medalist honors, to victory over a field of three Mountain State competitors. SHS turned in a team score of 154, followed by Petersburg's 186, host Moorefield's 188, and East Hardy's 202.

Friend shot a 37 for SHS, second only to his teammate, while Lear and Albert carded a 40 and a 42, respectively. Graham Porter paced Petersburg with a 43, Jeremy Simmons had a 42 for Moorefield, and Adam Foltz shot a 39 for East Hardy.

Southern is slated to host Bishop Walsh, Fort Hill, and Allegany on Tuesday. The State Tournament will open Monday, Oct. 20, on the University of Maryland course in College Park.

Northern Golfers Down Preston; Ninth In Region

The Northern High School golf team finished in ninth place in the 16-team IA/IIA Maryland West Region field Tuesday in Hagerstown. The Huskies' 381 team score was 55 strokes off the winning tally carded by Walkersville, a 326. Individual scores for the NHS golfers were not reported.

In earlier match results made available just this week, the Huskies took a Wednesday, Sept. 17, win over Preston County by a team tally of 177 to 194. Mike Bergstrom used his home-course knowledge of the tricky Wisp links to card a 38 for the low medalist score.

NHS is slated to travel to Cumberland Monday for a triangular match with Beall and Allegany.

Southern JVs Declaw Tucker Mountain Lions

The Southern High School jayvee football team bagged the Mountain Lions of Tucker County Monday night in a 26-6 win. The victory upped SHS's record to 3-1.

The Rams drew first blood on an eight-yard touchdown carry by John Knox. Southern scored again in the second quarter when Anthony Schrock snagged an 18-yard scoring toss by quarterback Jason Wakefield, who notched another TD on a one-yard sneak before halftime. SHS carried a 20-0 lead into the intermission.

Southern's Aaron Friend scored on a six-yard run in the fourth quarter. Andrew Smith had the only score for the Mountain Lions.

Ram Netters Mash Mounties, Whip Wildcats; Stand At 7-1

The Southern High School girls' varsity volleyball team rolled to two easy wins this week on the road, as the Rams downed Beall Monday by a 3-1 tally before walloping Westmar last night in a 3-0 sweep. SHS's record is now 7-1.

The Rams took the first two games at Beall, 25-14 and 25-22, before the hosts rebounded for a 26-24 win to avert a sweep. Southern took the final contest with ease, 25-19.

Junior Sarah Bittinger netted 21 points from the service line and recorded four kills, while senior Megan Pike contributed 20 points and 11 assists. Bethany Steyer, a junior, had 12 assists, classmate Julia Bosley reeled off a Ram-high 10 kills, and junior Kayla Nazelrod recorded seven kills. The Mounties were led by Cara Wilt's 14 points and three kills.

The Southern junior varsity team defeated its Beall counterpart 25-19, 25-7. Natalie Rohrbaugh had 11 points and three assists, and Sarah Stephens had four kills. Melanie Delozier had eight points for Beall.

The Rams ran over Westmar last night in Lonaconing by game scores of 25-16, 25-21, and 25-19. Pike handed out seven assists for Southern, and junior Erica Pratt tallied five kills. The Wildcats' leader was Katie Harvey, who turned in nine points.

SHS's undefeated jayvees took their record to 8-0 with a pair of 25-16 triumphs. Rorhbaugh paced the Rams with 15 points, five aces, and two assists. Molly Workman has six points for the hosts.

Southern will take part in the Frankfort Tourney on Saturday, then the Rams are slated to visit Petersburg Monday. SHS returns home Wednesday to host Beall.

NHS Volleyball Squad Swept By Beall Hosts

The Northern High School girls' varsity volleyball team was swept by Beall last night in Frostburg by game scores of 25-17, 25-18, and 25-18. NHS drops below .500 with the loss and now has a 2-3 record.

Northern senior Kristi Garlitz and sophomore Angie Umbel recorded five service points apiece, and junior Lakin Weimer had 10 hits. Erin Festerman, a senior, contributed nine hits and a kill. The Mounties were paced by Cora Langan, who netted a dozen service points and 16 assists.

Northern won the jayvee match 25-21, 25-18. Sophomore Laura Maust had eight points and classmate Tara Devine contributed seven service points for the Huskies. Carlie Ritchie had eight service points for Beall.

The Huskies will be part of the field at the annual Frankfort Tournament this Saturday. Northern travels to Meyersdale Monday before a Wednesday evening homecourt match with Westmar.

Northern Girls Shoot Down Westmar, 5-1

The fifth-ranked Northern High School girls' varsity volleyball squad downed Westmar 5-1 in Lonaconing Tuesday night to improve to a 2-3 mark.

The Huskies jumped out to an early lead on a Tiffany Yoder goal, which came at the 31:29 mark on an assist from Lyndsi Butler. Five minutes later, Karie Kamp took a pass from Amber Shaffer to boot in a goal that put NHS up 2-0.

Westmar's Amanda Ziler scored unassisted to cut the margin in half, but Northern scored three unanswered goals to take the contest. Amanda Heacock scored the final first-half goal, on Kamp's assist. Butler and Brittany Milbourne had goals in the second half, with Victoria Moser getting an assist.

NHS led in shots 15-10 and Westmar held a 3-1 edge in corners. Sarah Masters had eight saves in goal for Northern. Jessie Wilhelm had two saves in the first half and Rae Michelle Fazenbaker had five in the second for Westmar.

Northern is scheduled to host Fort Hill tonight and Meyersdale Wednesday, with both matches getting under way at 7 p.m.

Husky Jayvees Fall To Raiders, Bitten By 'Cats

The Northern High School junior varsity football squad lost a pair of games in recent action, as the Huskies were downed by Meyersdale, 34-8, on Monday, Sept. 15, and fell to Westmar Tuesday by a 26-8 margin.

Meyersdale struck early and often in its win over NHS, as the Raiders scored three touchdowns in the first half, two on the ground and one through the air. The hosts added two more touchdown runs in the second half to go up 34-0.

Northern put its touchdown on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter when Corey Carr carried the ball into the endzone. Carr then passed to Brock Glotfelty for the successful two-point conversion.

The Huskies' coaching staff noted the defensive hustle of Glotfelty, who picked off two passes, and Nick Ferrell and Casey Kamp.

NHS hosted Westmar Tuesday, and jumped out to an early lead that slipped away over the course of the contest. Neil Kamp gathered in a 13-yard scoring pass from Carr for a first quarter touchdown. Carr followed that score with a two-point conversion run that put the Huskies up 8-0.

The tide began to turn in the second stanza, however, as the Wildcats roared back with two touchdowns, one on a 10-yard run and the other on a 32-yard pass. Westmar took its 12-8 lead into the halftime locker room, and maintained the advantage through a scoreless third quarter.

Westmar added two touchdowns in the final stanza to pocket the win, as a 19-yard scoring pass was followed by a 34-yard punt return that went all the way for a touchdown.

NHS's coaches noted the defensive play of Carr, Glotfelty, and Keenan Kabell.

Northern is slated to host Turkeyfoot in a 7 p.m. battle.

Huskies Give Berlin The Boot; Lock Horns With Vikings, 1-1

The Northern High School boys' soccer team downed Berlin 6-4 Monday before last night's homefield match with Petersburg ended in a 1-1 tie. The action gives the Huskies a 5-1-1 record heading into a Saturday contest with Beall.

NHS's Robert Fontaine capped a Husky rally by booting what turned out to be the game-winning goal early in the second half to put the Huskies on top for good. Northern had been down 3-2 midway through the first half, despite goals by Chris Speicher and Preston Sisler. NHS knotted the score at 3-all as Sisler connected on an unassisted goal before the halftime break.

Fontaine's go-ahead score was followed by goals by Northern's Zach and Derek Cutter that pushed the Northern lead to 6-3. Two of Berlin's goals came on penalty kicks.

Both of last night's goals in the Husky-Viking matchup came within the first eight minutes. Petersburg's Seth Porter drew first blood six minutes into the match by putting the ball into the goal with help from an assist by teammate Keegan Haig.

Northern's Sisler knotted the score at 1-all just two minutes later after Torrey Poholsky fed him with a perfect pass.

For the night, NHS led in shots 17-10, and in corner kicks 11-2. Husky goalie Chris Fickes recorded 10 saves, while his Petersburg counterpart Coty Sites had a dozen saves.

Northern (5-1-1) will play unbeaten Beall in a makeup game on Saturday. There will be three games at Northern that day. At noon, the Northern and Allegany girls play. Then, at 2 o'clock, the Beall and Northern jayvee boys play. The Beall-Northern varsity game begins at 3:30.

Maddawgs' Win Streak Intact As Raiders Foiled

The Northern Maddawgs continue to stand head and shoulders above the rest of the Pee Wee Football League, and the 'Dawgs showed their dominance again on Saturday by rolling over the Cumberland Raiders in a 45-6 win.

Northern's B team took the field in the first quarter and quickly took command as the defense stonewalled the Raiders by holding Cumberland to minus yardage through the stanza. The Maddawg offense got into the act as Cody Rodeheaver reeled off a 40-yard touchdown run and Matt Thomas bulldozed in for the extra point. The B unit was driving for another score when the first quarter expired, and left its A team in fine shape for the next stanza by handing off a first-and-goal from the eight yard line.

It took the Maddawg A squad just two plays to capitalize on the excellent field position, as Josh Duckworth broke free from a Cumberland tackler's grasp to carry the six yards into the end zone for the touchdown.

Northern's A defense showed its stuff by holding Cumberland to a three-and-out before the Maddawg offense struck again when Duckworth raced down the sideline for a 61-yard touchdown. Lightning struck again when Patrick Beckman busted up the middle for a 43-yard scoring carry, capped by a Dylan Day point-after touchdown run. Alex Baker closed out the scoring with a shifty 23-yard touchdown run to end the half 32-0.

The B team returned for the second half and continued to dominate the Raiders as the Northern defense blanked Cumberland for the entire stanza. The Maddawgs' scoring attack stayed on course as Teddy Linton sped 60 yards down the sideline for a score, then teammate Jacob Bosley rambled 20 yards for Northern's sixth touchdown of the day. Trevor Tombley dove in for the extra point after Bosley's scoring carry.

Cumberland avoided a shutout late in the battle when Northern gave up a touchdown.

In the day's other action, Northern's C team defeated its Raider counterpart 13-6. Tyler Ireland and Gerald Yutzy each scored touchdowns, and Collin Belcher added an extra point.

The Maddawgs hope to continue their unbeaten streak as they visit the LaVale Lions this Saturday morning for a 9:30 a.m. battle in the Lions' den.

The Southern High School boys' varsity soccer team rebounded Tuesday with a 2-1 win over Keyser, a victory that turned the tide of a three-game Rams' losing streak. James Naylor broke a 1-1 tie with a second-half goal made possible by a feeder pass from Ethan Chorpenning.

Naylor assisted on Southern's other goal, which was scored by Chucky Burton four minutes into the first half. Keyser's Nick Landis knotted the game with an unassisted goal eight minutes before halftime.

Southern led in shots, 18-11, and the Golden Tornado held a 2-1 edge in corners. Taylor Crabtree had 14 saves in goal for Southern, and Cole Anderson had 16 for Keyser.

Southern (2-3) hosts Fort Hill tonight at 7 o'clock.

Rams Control Westmar Line To Break Into Win Column, 34-14

The Southern High School varsity football team took its first win of the year with a 34-14 victory over visiting Westmar Saturday night in Oakland. SHS's key to victory was its continual improvement on the line of scrimmage on both sides of the ball, according to Ram coach Fred Gregg.

"We knew Westmar had good running backs, so going in we knew we had to control the line of scrimmage on defense. We also had a good effort along the front of our offensive line, which freed up our running game to do what it needed to do," Gregg commented.

Ram ball carrier Andrew VanBogelen followed his blockers to two touchdowns and 127 yards in the contest to lead all rushers.

Southern's Brett DeWitt opened the scoring midway through the first quarter with a fine 36-yard touchdown run. The guests knotted the score when Russell Miller intercepted a pass attempt by SHS quarterback Corey Bosley and returned it 36 yards for a touchdown.

Bosley got those points back on a 19-yard run with just 33 seconds remaining in the first quarter. "Corey saw something as the defense was lining up, so he called an audible for a quarterback sneak, got through the line and off to the sideline and was gone," observed Gregg. "It was some fine thinking on his part." The touchdown put Southern up 12-6.

The Rams scored two touchdowns in the closing minutes of the second stanza. VanBogelen scored on a two-yard plunge at the 2:59 mark, then Brad Reese gathered in a 51-yard pass from Bosley with just nine seconds on the clock to put Southern up 26-6.

VanBogelen scored on a 10-yard run in the third quarter to make it 34-6. "That was a great effort, because Andrew ran into a pile and it looked like he was stopped," Gregg remarked. "But he kept his legs churning, and popped out to take off for the end zone."

Westmar scored the final touchdown, with 7:20 left in the game, when Miller tossed a 73-yard touchdown pass to Justin McGregor.

SHS's Bosley accounted for 74 passing yards and 28 rushing yards. Brett DeWitt carried the ball seven times for 59 yards.

Southern outgained Westmar 341 to 141, and ran 71 offensive plays to only 31 for the Wildcats. Of Westmar's 141 yards, 137 came on three completions by quarterback Russell Miller.

Karl Hillen and Chris Miller had five tackles and Chris Bennett four for Southern, which held Westmar to four net rushing yards.

"We stuck with our defensive game plan and it worked," Gregg explained of his defenders' success. "By holding the line, we were able to free our linebackers up for more pursuits, and they did their part. We were especially impressed with defense end Zack Upole, who had two sacks, and noseguard Dan Goulart, who had good penetration all night.

"We're also happy to see things starting to come together on offense. Andrew VanBogelen runs hard, has real good vision, and has that natural characteristic of good running backs to be running at full speed and still be able to kick into a higher gear when he sees a sliver of daylight. Our blockers are doing a good job at opening holes for him and our other runners."

The Rams will have their hands full tomorrow night against a big Allegany squad. "We're going to be quicker than the Campers are, because they've got us in the size department," said Gregg. "They average 250 pounds or more across the front line, and we're not going to do much growing in the next 48 hours, so we'll have to be disciplined and stick to our game plan."

Alco brings a deceptively mundane 1-2 record into the contest, and will be hungry for a win in front of its home Greenway Stadium fans. One of the Campers' best weapons is fullback Curt Jacovino (5-9, 187), a junior with proven speed and ability. Allegany junior quarterback Austin Scell (5-11, 155) "throws a nice ball, with good accuracy and arm strength," stated Gregg. Scell's favorite target is senior tight end Jesse Ritter (6-2, 187). The Campers are expected to run a Wing T offense.

On defense, Alco recently instituted a switch from their customary 6-2 scheme to a 5-3 line-up. The Campers are strong and big up front, and Jacovino anchors an "excellent" linebacking corps, according to Gregg.

"It's going to be tough, but if we have 11 guys playing as one like we did against Westmar, we can take this one," Gregg said. "It should be a really good game."

Kickoff is slated for 7 p.m. at Greenway.

Northern Scalped By Indians Despite Big Offensive Stats

The Northern High School varsity football team dropped its third straight contest of the season in a 28-15 loss at Berkeley Springs Saturday evening. The defeat was made all the more painful by the fact that although the statistics showed a lopsided advantage in the Huskies' favor, after 60 minutes of play the scoreboard showed NHS down by 13 points.

"All you have to do is look at the numbers to see how disappointing this loss is," Husky coach Phil Carr commented afterward. "We moved the ball the way we wanted all night long, but when we'd break down on a key play they would push us back with negative yardage, and we never seemed to be able to recover from the mistake."

Northern's ball control option offense ground up and down the field seemingly at will, especially in the early going. By the end of the first quarter alone, the NHS offense had racked up 161 rushing yards, 71 of which were recorded by halfback Michael Wolf, but no points to show for it. On the night Wolf amassed 187 yards on 29 carries, and fellow runner Eric Johnson turned in 62 yards on 13 tries. NHS tallied advantages of 304 to 135 rushing yards; 360 to 260 yards in total offense; and 17 first downs to Berkeley's 11.

Despite those impressive numbers, however, the Huskies' long drives repeatedly stalled out in the red zone, and NHS was only able to punch the ball across the goal line once in the third quarter and again in the final stanza, as Johnson scored both touchdowns.

"Eric did a real good job subbing for an injured starter, and will be staying in the backfield for this week's game," Carr stated. "Both he and Michael turned in great efforts, as did some of our offensive linemen, especially Corey Yoder and Danny Ellis."

Northern's defense held the hosts' noted passing offense to just six pass completions in 17 attempts, a tally which showcased some good pressure by the Husky line and tenacious defensive work in the Northern secondary.

Berkeley Springs struck in the first quarter with a 73-yard touchdown pass gathered in by the Indians' Matt Rockwell with just under three minutes remaining in the stanza. BS quarterback Matt Weaver, who had more time than usual because of an uncharacteristically poor rushing effort by the NHS linemen, hit the receiver as he was cutting across the middle of the field. Rockwell took off with the ball and made it to the far sideline, where he turned the corner and sped for the end zone.

Three consecutive interceptions ensued. The first killed a Northern drive that had gotten off the ground with runs of 15 and 35 yards. NHS's defense picked a pass off in turn and returned the ball to the Indian 25-yard line.

The Huskies attempted to go deep on the next play, but a Berkeley defender intercepted the pass in the end zone for a touchback. Northern's defense held, and the ensuing Indian punt was downed at NHS's own 39 yard line with approximately seven minutes remaining in the second quarter. The Huskies pushed the ball downfield on an 11-play drive that had Northern's hopes riding high, but they were derailed at the BS 27-yard line when a fourth down play was stopped by the Indians' defense.

Berkeley Springs's running game then moved the ball down to Northern's 29 before the Husky defense shut down the drive. The half expired before NHS was able to get its offense in gear, and the two squads headed into their locker rooms with Northern, although down 7-0, still much in the game.

In the third quarter the combatants settled down into a struggle that did not result in a score until the third stanza, when Northern's Johnson capped a 60-yard, nine play drive with a 16-yard touchdown run. Steve Snyder's successful point-after kick knotted the score at 7-all with 8:16 on the clock.

Berkeley Springs was unable to move the ball on its ensuing drive, but the fourth-down punt landed between the two Husky returners and bounded all the way to the 13-yard line before being downed. Northern's offense sputtered with a three-and-out, and the Huskies were forced to punt from deep within their own territory. After a booming Johnson punt was negated by a penalty, the junior's rekick resulted in a 35-yard Berkeley return to Northern's eight-yard line. The Indians scored a three plays later on a one-yard run.

Northern took over and mounted a drive that got the ball to the 50-yard line, but a backfield collision between two Huskies resulted in a fumble that was scooped up by a Berkeley Springs lineman who churned all the way down to the NHS four-yard line before being dragged down from behind by Frantz's hustling effort. However, the Indians scored on a touchdown carry on the very next play to go up 21-7 before the third quarter's end.

Northern's Achilles heel of mistakes showed again in the fourth stanza, when a third-and-long passing attempt was picked off by an Indian defender. BS's offense went on a six-play, 55-yard drive that resulted in a five-yard rushing touchdown that gave the hosts a 21-point lead in the late going.

NHS put together a good drive of its own in the final four minutes that was capped by a 25-yard scoring strike from Frantz to Johnson, but the points were too little, too late.

"We played really good defense against a very powerful Berkeley Springs offense," observed Carr, the frustration evident in his voice, "but when your offense and special teams keep giving the ball to the other team in good field position, you only make it harder on yourself."

Northern's Homecoming game is tomorrow night at the Cove, where the Huskies will host an unbeaten Turkeyfoot squad. The Rams have a "very solid team," Carr noted, pointing out that they field nine sen-

GC Netters Downed By Knights; Rebound Over Boyce, Baltimore

The Garrett College volleyball team took two of three outings this week as the Lakers evened their record to 5-5. GC split a home triangular match Saturday in opening with a 3-0 loss to the College of Southern Maryland before bouncing back to down CCAC-Boyce 2-1. On Tuesday the Lakers recorded a 3-0 sweep at Baltimore City CC.

Garrett fell to the Southern Maryland Knights by narrow game score margins of 30-28, 30-28, and 30-24. Freshman Autumn Beavers had two aces, five digs, 11 kills, and six blocks. Sophomore Jolene Brenneman had three aces and four digs, while classmate Marlena Raines had two aces, nine digs, and nine points. Tiffany McFarland had four kills and two blocks, while fellow freshmen Amanda Frantz and Molly Wolf recorded two aces and four digs, respectively.

In the afternoon's second outing, GC took its first battle with Boyce by a 30-24 tally before the visitors evened the match with a 30-28 win. Garrett sealed the victory in a 15-6 tiebreaker. McFarland netted three aces, four kills, and eight points, while Brenneman contributed a pair of aces, six digs, and two blocks. Beavers had five aces and six kills, Frantz added seven digs and two blocks, and Raines recorded 11 points. Wolf hit the floor for eight digs.

Tuesday's road trip to Baltimore resulted in a convincing 30-9, 30-18, 30-14 Laker sweep. Brenneman netted 13 aces, four kills, and 19 service points, and fellow Northern High graduate Frantz tallied five aces, four digs, 17 service points, and the sole Laker block. Beavers had seven kills and Raines had 10 service points.

The Lakers are slated to visit Potomac State College tomorrow for a tri-match with the host Catamounts and the Community College of Beaver County. Garrett travels to Anne Arundel the following day, and visits Cecil on Monday. The Lakers return to their home court for a Wednesday showdown with the Fredrick Cougars and Butler CC.

iors who have started since they were freshmen. "They have great experience and work well together as a unit, and they are big," said the NHS skipper. "We're hoping we can counter those strengths with our own teamwork and our speed. On defense, our pursuit is going to have to be faster than their blockers, and our offense is going to have to be quick to get our backs to the outside so we can take off around the corners."

Some Rams to watch, all seniors, will be offensive linemen Brett Clevenger (6-1, 200), Scottie Herring (6-0, 255), Seth Livengood (6-2, 220), and Nathan Bower (6-2, 260), as well as tight end Bobby Lauger (6-3, 240).

"Turkeyfoot likes to run a pro set offense with split backs, and junior quarterback Billy Hinzy (5-7, 160) has a good arm," stated Carr. "He likes to roll out, and he has the speed to do it well. On defense we expect to see the Rams stick to their 5-3 scheme, and we're preparing our linemen to be ready to pick up blitzes. They know we've struggled some with our passing game and will be out to pressure us.

"Any Northern—Turkeyfoot game is a real hard-hitting, competitive battle. It's always the biggest game of the year for the Rams, and they'll be wanting to sour our Homecoming in front of all our fans. We're don't want to let that happen."

Kickoff is slated for 7 p.m. See separate story for details on the various Homecoming festivities.

NHS Homecoming Events To Wrap Up This Weekend

The annual Homecoming festivities at Northern High School have been under way throughout this week at the school, and will be capped this weekend with the Homecoming football game, coronation ceremonies, and a marching band performance, alumni reception, and student dance.

In keeping with this year's Hollywood theme, tomorrow the NHS student body will participate in a schoolwide pep rally billed as "A Star is Born."

The Husky varsity football Homecoming game, a 7 p.m. match-up with arch-rival Turkeyfoot, will feature a variety of halftime activities that will be capped by the coronations of the 2003 Northern High Homecoming Queen and King. The NHS Marching Band will present a special homecoming halftime extravaganza (weather permitting).

The game will be followed by an alumni reception in the school cafeteria for all former Husky football players and cheerleaders, and their families. Finger food and refreshments will be served.

The festivities will conclude with Saturday night's Homecoming dance, which will be held at the school from 8 to 11 p.m. The theme for the dance will be "A Night in Hollywood."

Scheffel, Ram Girls Boot BW, Hogtie Hampshire; Now 7-0

The Southern High School girls' varsity soccer team continued its unbeaten string with a huge 2-1 overtime win Saturday over powerhouse Bishop Walsh, then went on a rampage Tuesday at Hampshire by downing the Trojans 8-0. SHS has a 7-0 record heading into tonight's 5 p.m. homefield match with Keyser.

The Rams were paced in both victories by the outstanding play of Sabrina Scheffel. In helping hand arch-rival BW its first loss in 21 games, Scheffel booted both Southern goals, including the game-winner in the seventh minute of overtime. The clincher came off a pass from Kendra McLaughlin, and Scheffel put the ball into the upper left side of the net for the SHS victory.

Scheffel scored the game's first goal with an assist by Casey Taylor at 24:59. Karen Iames tied the game on a goal with a feed by Megan Finan before halftime.

"It was a well-played match," said Southern head coach Ron Petrella. "Our midfield and defense played a great game. Bishop Walsh played a great game. We were fortunate to come out with a win."

Southern controlled the shots in the game with a 23-5 advantage and had a 2-0 edge in corner kicks. Bishop Walsh's Konnie Christman stopped 21 shots. Southern's Alasha Rush made four saves.

Scheffel's flurry continued Tuesday as she netted a hat trick against the Hampshire hosts by scoring two goals in the opening period and one in the third. She also had an assist on a goal by Jadyn Swerbinsky in the fourth. The Rams spread the other four goals among Kendra McLaughlin, Robbin Gregg, Hannah Storey, and Laura Bonser. Lauren Shue, Ashley Rohrbaugh, Amber Grant and Sarah Mullenax had assists.

Southern held a 40-2 advantage in shots and a 6-1 edge in corner kicks. Hampshire's goalkeeper had 32 saves. Alasha Rush made two saves for Southern.

Following tonight's match with Keyser, the Rams are slated to take on Westmar Saturday.

Steelers Spear Warriors In CAYFL Battle

The Division I Northern Steelers followed ball carriers Randy Wiley and Ryan Evans to a 36-0 victory over the Braddock Warriors Sunday at Northern High School. Wiley and Evans scored three and two rushing touchdowns, respectively, while the Steelers' "steel curtain" defense came down hard on the visitors to notch the shutout triumph.

Northern ran up a big lead early in the contest by scoring three first-quarter touchdowns. Wiley put the first points on the board with a 22-yard carry, then Evans reeled off scoring runs of 31 and 19 yards. Kyle Gillum connected for successful point-after kicks following both of Evans's touchdowns.

In the second quarter, Wiley reeled off a 26-yard touchdown carry that gave the Steelers a 30-0 advantage heading into the halftime locker room. Wiley broke free in the third stanza for a 39-yard scoring run for the game's final points.

Northern's strong ground game resulted in 118 yards for Wiley on just 10 carries, while Evans chalked up 72 yards on seven runs. The Steelers' coaching staff also noted the fine defensive efforts turned in by Bobby Wingrove, Tyler Kamp, and Eddie Lytel.

The results of the Steelers' Division II contest were not made available.

Northern is slated to visit Frostburg on Saturday.

Oakland Drops 13-6 Contest To Mountie Visitors

The Division II Oakland Rams of the Cumberland Area Youth Football League were defeated by the visiting Frostburg Mounties by a 13-6 tally Saturday.

Frostburg scored first in the opening stanza when the Mounties capped a 96-yard scoring march with a four-yard touchdown carry. A defensive struggle followed, which stymied both offenses until Oakland's Ryan David Sweitzer broke through the Mountie defense and galloped 65 yards for a touchdown run to make the score 7-6. Frostburg put its final points on the board in the fourth quarter on a second four-yard rushing touchdown.

The results of the Rams' Division II battle were not reported.

Oakland's schedule shows the squad idle this week, and the Rams are slated to return to action Sunday, Oct. 5, when they host Ridgeley.

SHS Football Hall Of Fame Inducts Three

The Southern High School Football Hall of Fame added three new members during induction ceremonies held prior to the SHS-Westmar game Saturday night in Oakland. The latest additions to the Rams' hallowed list are former players Matt Glotfelty and Rob Unger, and longtime Southern supporter Paul Shockey.

A 1996 graduate, Glotfelty was one of the top offensive linemen to play at Southern, and his many accolades included selection to the All-Area First Team and All-State Second Team. He had begun what was projected to be a stellar college career with Keyser's Potomac State College Catamounts when a back injury ended his football playing days. Glotfelty now resides in Winchester, Va.

Unger, who graduated in 1999, was a member of the 1998 All Area defensive unit and the National Honor Society. He played one year at Potomac State, then transferred to the Division I-AA College of Holy Cross in Worcester, Mass., where he was a starter on the Crusaders' defensive line. The recent college graduate has enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps.

Shockey has helped provide for many improvement and renovation projects for the SHS field over the years, including installation of drain fields under the playing surface, construction of the visitors' bleachers, and alignment of the lights. He also made an avocation of field maintenance for a decade. A founding member and former president of the Southern Garrett Athletic Association, Shockey currently serves as mayor of Mtn. Lake Park and is vice president Team One Enterprises.

Flowery Vale Health & Fitness Center

By Peggy Santamaria

October 1 marks the beginning of the third year of operation for the Accident-based Senior Health & Fitness Center at Flowery Vale. Operated by Community Action – Area Agency on Aging, the program was funded through a state grant and organized on the principles developed by a team of student health professionals. Under the direction of Elaine Kackley, the center has served over 140 men and women, and achieved benchmark status among state health programs for senior citizens.

As the second anniversary of the Flowery Vale Senior Health & Fitness Center approaches, Community Action's Area Agency on Aging will kick off Travel For Fitness – a new program to get more Garrett County senior citizens on the path to better health. "With the start of our third year, we are going to take our show on the road," center director Elaine Kackley said. Beginning Oct. 1, she will pack up her "little black bag" of equipment and go to senior centers in Grantsville, Oakland, and Friendsville to offer one-hour sessions of fitness training.

This "road show" concept grew out of brainstorming sessions between Kackley and Area Agency on Aging administrators Adina Brode and Ronnie Padmos. Their goal: to expand the health and fitness program in a belt-tightening economy and with space at a premium. Obstacles loomed. Undaunted, the three women persevered and arrived at the solution. Brode sought and won a small grant from the office of the attorney general to make it a reality.

Faced with the impossibility of hauling universal gyms and treadmills around the county, Kackley set about finding a way to provide resistance training, stretching and flexibility training, aerobic exercise, and coordination and balance training at the senior centers.

"We had to be creative with what we could offer that would give the seniors the greatest health benefits," Kackley said. With a modest allowance for equipment, she invested in fit strips and physioballs. The strips, made of an elastic material similar to a heavy-duty balloon, come in three weights providing levels of tension ranging from two to five pounds. Used in stretching exercises, the strips approximate the use of a universal gym for resistance training, which is critical to maintaining muscle mass and strength, she explained.

The physioballs – large rubber balls similar to children's toys – are used in physical therapy. Kackley said she likes to incorporate them into training because they have multiple uses. "They help increase balance and coordination and they are fun. I'm going to leave one at each site for seniors to use between sessions," she said.

To provide the benefits of a treadmill, Kackley will introduce Walk-Aerobics at each center. No matter the level of stamina, each person will be able to participate to his or her individual ability, she pointed out. "Clients will range from age 55 up. Some will be very active and need a challenge. Others will need to work gradually to build strength and endurance," she noted. She will start each participant with a modified assessment of current activity levels, general health, and baseline blood pressure readings. With this information she will develop appropriate programs at each site.

Kackley said she hopes to be able to work with student interns or volunteers who can help keep all these parts of the health and fitness program going. Though expanding the program will present challenges, she said she enjoys working with the seniors and finding ways to keep their training interesting. "We have found that the social aspects of this program have been nearly as beneficial as the physical aspects. The clients make new friends, encourage each other, and feel good about their success. These are Garrett County seniors on the move," Kackley said.

To learn more about the senior health and fitness programs persons may call Kackley at 301-746-8050 or the Area Agency on Aging at 301-334-9431, ext. 140.

The Area Agency on Aging thanks The Republican for spotlighting the Flowery Vale Health & Fitness Center in this series.

FITNESS ROAD SHOW READY TO GO – Unable to haul treadmills and universal gyms to senior centers around the county, Elaine Kackley, director of the Flowery Vale Senior Health & Fitness Center, developed simple protocols for maximum results through the Area Agency on Aging's new Travel For Fitness program. On a shoestring budget, she purchased fit strips and physioballs, which she will use in the training programs along with aerobic movement and other exercises. The new program will begin October 1.

Touch-Screen Voting System Gets State's Ok

by MICHAEL DUCK
Capital News Service

ANNAPOLIS - Maryland officials plan to use the state's new touch-screen voting machines in next year's presidential election, despite security flaws in the voting system targeted for fixes.

"We believe we are fully prepared to roll out the (touch-screen) machines for the 2004 presidential primary," said Gilles W. Burger, State Board of Elections chairman.

An independent study of the voting system recommended security fixes ranging from reprogramming part of the systems' software to creating a "chief information systems security officer" at the state elections board.

State Budget Secretary James C. DiPaula Jr. said he expects the report and the new security measures to restore public confidence in the new machines, which the state purchased in July from Diebold Election Systems for $55.6 million.

"We're confident that this will safeguard the entire election process," DiPaula said.

Gov. Robert L. Ehrlich Jr. commissioned Science Applications International Corp. to review the system Aug. 5 after a Johns Hopkins University study found it insecure. After SAIC submitted its results Sept. 2, the elections board worked with Diebold and the state Department of Budget and Management to develop an action plan.

Burger called it the "most robust" risk assessment study ever done in the country for an election organization.

"It seems that the SAIC report pretty much backed our report and came to a lot of the same conclusions," said Avi Rubin, an author of the Hopkins study and a computer science professor. But Rubin said it's a bad idea for the state to rush forward with the new system until it's confirmed that the security holes have been plugged.

"If they're going to get this report and then go ahead with it anyway," Rubin said, "you have to question their motives for commissioning the report in the first place."

Technical improvements have been finished, Burger said, including encryption for unofficial results that are sent via modems, as well as programming measures that make it harder to create bogus "smartcards."

Other changes, ranging from an independent security review of Diebold software to hiring a security officer, will be implemented starting in October and continue through February and March of next year.

Many sections of the state report were deleted from the public version for security reasons, according to DiPaula. Some of the omitted information appeared to include interviews, as well as the kinds of encryption and the version of Microsoft Windows the voting terminals use.

"The best security is for you not to give a road map to the people who want to do harm," DiPaula said. "I was very concerned by the redactions in the report," Rubin said, noting that if the security problems truly had been fixed, there would be no risk in leaving them in the report. "It gives the impression that they're hiding something from the public," Rubin said.

The Hopkins study, which analyzed Diebold voting machine software, said "voters can trivially cast multiple ballots with no built-in traceability," and "the threats posed by insiders such as poll workers, software developers, and even janitors, is even greater."

Diebold responded that the researchers didn't consider how elections officials use the machines in actual elections.

The SAIC study addressed those problems by not only analyzing the software, Burger and DiPaula said, but considering how Maryland election workers use the equipment.

DiPaula said the difference between the two studies is like examining a car by starting with driver education, rather than merely looking under the hood.

Rubin and other critics had suggested printers might be attached to the voting terminals to create paper records for any possible recount, but the SAIC study counters that printed paper ballots might "still be subject to fraud."

"I stand behind the idea that a voter-verifiable audit trail is very important," Rubin said.

Problems with Florida's voting machines in the 2000 presidential election prompted Maryland to re-examine its voting systems and adopt a plan to create a uniform statewide election system by 2006.

Montgomery, Prince George's, Allegany, and Dorchester counties already used Diebold machines in last year's gubernatorial election. Maryland counties are paying half the $55 million cost.

Baltimore City, which won't get the machines until 2005, also will pay half of its system cost.

"We're delighted with the (study) results," said Pat Maurer, community relations director for the National Federation of the Blind, a Baltimore-based advocacy group that supports the Diebold machines, which ease voting for the blind.

Organization members, Maurer said, "are all looking forward to voting with the Diebold machines."

MONOPOLY GOES TO THE DOGS . . . . AND CATS – The Garrett County Humane Society will be selling four-legged versions of Monopoly, a popular board game, starting Oct. 1 through Nov. 30. Dog-opoly and Cat-opoly are two of newest versions of the game now on the market. "I remember playing Monopoly when I was a kid," said Lisa Baker of the Humane Society. "Even now, I play National Park Monopoly with my own kids." Sample games and order forms will be placed at several local businesses: Pineview Veterinary Hospital and Countryside Animal Hospital, Oakland; Casselman Veterinary Services, Grantsville; and Reminisce Antique Mall, McHenry. Once an order is placed, it will be available for pickup within two weeks. Reminisce, however, will have some of the games in stock for those who do not want to wait. The price is $24 per game, payable upon delivery. "Now is the time to get an early start on your Christmas shopping," said Baker. "You won't have to drive to a big-city specialty store or pay Internet shipping and handling costs. But the best thing is that by purchasing a game, you help us help the animals." Proceeds from the sale will help sick, abused, and homeless animals, as well as benefit the society's spay/neuter assistance program. For more information, or to inquire about displaying the games at a business, persons may call Baker at 301-387-4425. Pictured, left to right, with the games are Shelby, who was adopted from a shelter; Laurel Baker; Sarah Baker; and Scamper, who was once a homeless stray.

SCHOOLS HONORED FOR CHARACTER EDUCATION– Yough Glades Elementary School and Northern High School were recently honored by the Maryland Center for Character Education (MCCE) as Maryland Character Education Schools of the Year for Garrett County. Dr. Wendell Teets, superintendent of schools, expressed appreciation to the two schools for their outstanding character education programs and said he was pleased at their selection to represent Garrett County for the 2002-03 school year. Each month all schools emphasize the same character education traits, as follows: self-discipline/control, responsibility/dependability, caring/giving (citizenship), fairness/justice/equality; fairness/justice/equality; trustworthiness/honesty/sincerity; courage/facing challenges; respect/courtesy; and cooperation/teamwork (citizenship). Pictured above are representatives from Yough Glades. In the front, from the left, are Cynthia Shaffer and Sue Hillen, teachers at Yough Glades; and Keith Harvey, principal. In the back are Teets; Dr. Richard Steinke, assistant state superintendent; and Mark Beck and James Walker, MCCE. Pictured below are representatives from NHS. # AG Festival To Spotlight Local Heritage

The agenda for the 36th annual Autumn Glory Festival, Oct. 8-12, includes activities and events highlighting the heritage of the area.

The 1884 Oakland Train Station, one of the country's finest examples of Queen Anne architecture, will be open for free tours during the festival. Persons may visit the station Thursday, Friday, and Saturday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., and on Sunday from 12:30 to 3 p.m. For more information, persons may call 301-334-2691.

The Garrett County Historical Museum, which will be open daily during the festival from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. except during the parade, provides an overview of regional history. Displays include photographs, documents, artifacts, and clothing. The museum does not charge for admission; however donations are accepted. It is located at 107 S. Second Street.

Self-guided walking or driving tours of Mtn. Lake Park offer one a glimpse of the Victorian era. Horse-drawn wagon tours with a guide will also be available to enhance that historic flavor. Tours begin at the historic Ticket House at Rt. 135 and G Street and are available Friday, 11 a.m.-4 p.m.; Saturday, 3:30 to 6:30 p.m.; and Sunday, noon-5 p.m. For more information, persons may call 301-334-4314.

The Kitzmiller Heritage Expo slated Friday, 1-7 p.m., will recreate the town's old time mountain coal mining community. Visitors can see the mining museum, take part in a fishing rodeo, walk along the Potomac River, and enjoy the Volunteer Firemen's steak dinner for $12. For information, persons may call 301-453-3199.

The 30th annual Antique Show & Sale presented by the Civic Club of Oakland will present 31 dealers exhibiting primitives, antique jewelry, and more. Located in the National Guard Armory, Eighth and High streets, Oakland, the An-

Emergency Charges, EMS Budget Hazy

by Debra George Siedt
Capital News Service

ANNAPOLIS - Down the road, Maryland's more than 4 million vehicle owners may be facing another fee increase to pay for the rising cost of emergency services, even though vehicle registration fees have risen by $5.50 since 2002, according to a legislative analysis.

EMS fees increased $8 to $11 in 2002, then rose again to $13.50 in 2003.

The fee covers a variety of services under Maryland's Emergency Medical Services System, including MedEvac helicopters, ambulances, fire equipment, rescue squads and trauma units, according to the Maryland Department of Motor Vehicles web site. Of the current surcharge, $11 funds the EMS system and $2.50 funds the Maryland Trauma Physician Services Fund.

But EMS board decisions, increased expenditures and the possibility of replacing helicopters have put a strain on the cost of operating the EMS system.

"We've always been on the cutting edge in terms of EMS," said Dr. Robert R. Bass, executive director of the Maryland Institute for Emergency Medical Services System at a Joint Legislative Committee Meeting Wednesday.

The State Police Aviation Division is supported by the EMS fund, which may be needed to replace as many as 12 helicopters at a cost of $6 million to $7 million each, according to a Department of Legislative Services budget forecast.

After MedEvac helicopter crashes in 1972, 1973 and 1986 that left six people dead, the state, in 1998, purchased Dauphin helicopters, twin-engine helicopters that were safer and more reliable.

The new helicopters have had more than 70,000 accident-free flight hours to date. The institute conducted five in-house helicopter studies and concluded that if properly maintained, the helicopters could be replaced on a 17-year cycle beginning in 2007.

The legislative budget analysis did not take into account any helicopter replacement that may be necessary as early as 2006. Even without the helicopter replacement, EMS would operate with its current funding until 2018.

In 2002, 345,000 of the 682,000 EMS calls resulted in transports.

Two-thirds were medical transports and one-third were injury transports.

MedEvac transports accounted for 5 percent of all injury transports, totaling 5,070.

Ask The Everyday Scientist

by Dr. Thomas P. Sheahen

Baking Soda (4th edition)
Why does baking soda get out stains?

As a cleaning agent, baking soda is almost unsurpassed. That 69-cent package in your cupboard can clean many different things far better than all sorts of ritzy concoctions advertised on TV. Moreover, baking soda removes odors from moldy foods in refrigerators, smelly socks, and o so pungent kitty litter. It's amazing that this very simple household chemical is so effective.

To understand how it works, remember that various atoms can combine into molecules. If a molecule breaks apart with one part carrying an extra electron or two, while the other part is short of electrons, we call those parts ions and the process is ionization. The powder that is baking soda is a compound that has one sodium atom, one hydrogen atom and a cluster called the carbonate group (one carbon atom surrounded by three oxygens). When it dissolves in water, the sodium becomes one ion, missing an electron; and the rest carries away one extra electron and is known as the bicarbonate ion, $HCO_3^-$. Hence the alternate name "bicarbonate of soda." Because of its electric charge, any ion can exert an electrical force in its vicinity.

The molecules that constitute whatever the stain is made of (like ketchup) are normally great big organic molecules that contain hundreds of atoms; and these almost never ionize – but their electrons can slide along from one end of the molecule to the other, and we call that polarization. Meanwhile, substances like carpets also contain big molecules called polymers, and their electrons can be persuaded to move around if an opposite electric charge comes near. The organic molecules of the bad stuff (the ketchup, for instance) plop onto the carpet and electrons start to move around to one end or the other of the carpet fibers. Now there is an attraction between the carpet and the organic molecule that tends to hold them together – meaning the ketchup stays stuck to your expensive rug. [And guests are coming. What to do?]

Put some water on and nothing happens, because the attraction is strong enough to hold the staining substance to the carpet. Run a vacuum cleaner over it and nothing happens, for the same reason.

But now come along with baking soda, and the ions produce electric fields nearby. The ketchup, an organic molecule, would much rather bond to the baking soda's bicarbonate ion than to the material of the carpet. The staining molecule lets go of the carpet, and instead hangs on to the bicarbonate of soda. Now, the combo of the ketchup molecule and the baking soda is free to move around. At this point a little more water (perhaps a damp rag) scarfs up the entire combination of connected molecules. The stain has left the carpet.

Rinse out the damp rag and the bad stuff is down the drain. End of story.

Moldy, smelly socks? Same thing! The large organic molecules in sweat would rather bond to the baking soda's ions than to your clothing, and when the rinse water comes along, the smelly stuff goes away.

Odors inside refrigerators behave in almost the same way, but without the water. Large organic molecules are free to drift about in the air, and if they reach your nose they smell bad. But if they reach an open box of baking soda, they prefer to land on to the surface of the powder and stay put. Eventually, over a period of months, the baking soda gets "all used up" collecting bad molecules, and it's time to buy some more.

Credit Card Magnetism

Q: How worried should I be about the magnetic strips of all my credit cards affecting each other? They're all next to each other in my purse, along with metal keys.

A: For most people, most of the time, this is not a worry at all. The magnetic strips on the back of credit cards are just like recording tape. It takes a strong magnetic field to write data onto tape, and it takes a strong magnetic field to erase it.

If you should happen to be carrying around a strong magnet in your pocket or purse, then that magnetic field could spoil the information stored on the credit card strips. But almost nobody carries around any such thing. If you go for an MRI medical test and have credit cards in your shirt pocket, the very strong magnetic field could erase them. That's why the medical technicians tell you to take everything out of your pockets. There definitely are ways to erase credit cards, but they don't come along in everyday life.

The digital data encoded on a credit-card strip represents a bunch of ones and zeros by having little tiny magnetic domains point one way or the other: up for a "one" and down for a "zero." Since any data is a mixture of these two, the net magnetic field averages out to zero – so no credit card puts out a significant magnetic field all by itself. The magnetic strip on one credit card cannot affect a nearby credit card.

As for keys, most of them are brass or aluminum, metals which are non-magnetic and produce no magnetic field, so they couldn't affect your credit cards. If you have an oddball key made out of a magnetic steel, it could produce a slight magnetic field; but that key would have to sit in some very precise position next to a credit card for a long time before the key's magnetic field would have any effect.

It's much more likely that over time a credit card will get scratched up, thus disturbing some of the magnetic domains. Knowing this ahead of time, the bank or credit card company usually sends out a replacement every few years.

YOUTH COUNTRY MARKING COMING TO END OF SEASON – Aaron and Levi Lantz, pictured above, have experienced a successful summer of selling their produce at the Youth Country Market, which will come to a close on Oct. 4. Early in the spring, the two local boys and other area 4-H Club members attended a special youth session at the Alternative Agriculture Conference at Garrett College. At this event, they learned basic marketing skills and became interested in establishing a real youth market. The idea led to the Youth County Market, which was held each Monday during July and August, as well as on Saturday, Sept. 6. The market is located at the Garrett College Alternative Agriculture Center. The youngsters expressed their thanks to all the people who purchased produce this summer from them. They extended an invitation to all to come to the last market for the year, set for Saturday, October 4, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the noted location. There will be small and large pumpkins, sunflowers, and other fall products, in addition to maple syrup, honey, baked goods, crafts, and other items.

a $555 fine, one year of supervised probation, and an order to pay $1,000 restitution to the state police. Andrews was arrested during a May traffic stop, when a car he was riding in was stopped for following another vehicle too closely. Andrews, who was a passenger in the stopped vehicle, was initially taken into custody for repeatedly interfering with the troopers as they spoke with the driver. Once handcuffed he began beating his head against a police cruiser, leaving dents that required bodywork repairs.

Adam Wood Welch, 23, Charlottesville, Va., pleaded guilty to marijuana possession and was handed a 30 day suspended sentence, a $200 fine, six months of unsupervised probation, and 30 hours of community service. Welch's May arrest came after a traffic stop, during which a K-9 drug detection dog indicated his vehicle may have been carrying contraband. State troopers found a quantity of marijuana, a smoking pipe, and rolling papers scattered throughout the car. An additional possession of drug paraphernalia charge was not prosecuted.

Shane Dwayne Russell, 19, Frostburg (Garrett Co.), was convicted of disorderly conduct and handed a 30-day suspended sentence, fined $140, placed on six months of unsupervised probation, and ordered to complete 20 hours of community service. State troopers jailed Russell after a March traffic stop when he refused to sign a routine speeding citation and initiated a verbal confrontation with the trooper. As he was being arrested, Russell reportedly resisted being handcuffed. Additional charges of resisting arrest and various traffic offenses were not prosecuted.

Anthony James Hardesty, 19, Oakland, pleaded not guilty to marijuana possession but was nonetheless handed a probation before judgment (PBJ) ruling, along with a 30-day suspended sentence, a $400 fine, one year of supervised probation, and 30 hours of community service. Garrett County sheriff's deputies arrested Hardesty in April when a traffic stop led to the discovery of a deer antler that had been fashioned into a smoking device that bore burnt marijuana residue. Not prosecuted were additional charges of DUI and traffic offenses.

Kenneth Allen McRobie, 22, Oakland, pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace and was handed a PBJ along with a 30-day suspended sentence, a $100 fine, and one year of supervised probation. McRobie's June arrest came after he admitted to driving while intoxicated. As he was being walked to a sheriff deputy's cruiser, he yelled multiple obscenities in public. Additional charges of second degree assault and DUI were not prosecuted.

Douglas Allen Lyons, 19, Grantsville, pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct and received a PBJ and one day of unsupervised probation. Sheriff's deputies jailed Lyons in April following a short vehicle pursuit. Lyons, who was a passenger in the stopped vehicle, was extremely intoxicated at the time of the incident and yelled numerous obscenities at the officers.

Concetta Marie Boyce, 47, Mtn. Lake Park, pleaded guilty to drug paraphernalia possession and was handed a PBJ, while an additional charge of possession of marijuana was not prosecuted. Her May arrest by Garrett County Narcotics Task Force detectives came after a search of her residence uncovered a smoking pipe.

Paul Everett Miller, 65, Grantsville, was handed a stet ruling on a second degree assault charge filed by state troopers after he had allegedly slapped his wife during a domestic dispute at their home.

William Joseph Fultz, 38, Swanton, was handed a stet ruling on a second degree assault charge filed by sheriff's deputies after he reportedly struck his girlfriend with a coffee mug during a domestic dispute at the residence they were sharing.

Charges of misdemeanor theft and fourth degree burglary faced by Thomas Lee Uphold, 21, Oakland, were placed on the stet docket, while an additional charge of second degree burglary was not prosecuted. Sheriff's deputies had arrested Uphold in June for allegedly taking an air compressor from a locked shed without the owner's permission.

David Wayne Welch, 40, Mtn. Lake Park, was handed stet rulings on charges of second degree assault and failure to comply with a peace order. His April arrest came after he grabbed a juvenile and threatened to harm her father during a domestic dispute. Sheriff's deputies filed the charges.

Scott Edward Patton, 27, Oakland, was handed a stet ruling on a second degree assault charge filed in June by sheriff's deputies after he allegedly struck his girlfriend at their residence.

Michael Vincent Likar, 25, Oakland, was handed stet rulings in conjunction with charges of marijuana and drug paraphernalia possession. His January arrest came after sheriff's deputies searching a home where he was a party guest discovered suspected marijuana and paraphernalia in his possession.

David Spencer Glotfelty, 38, was not prosecuted on charges of second degree burglary and misdemeanor theft that stemmed from an April burglary of the Swanton Grocery. Sheriff's deputies had made the arrest.

Debra Jean Wolf, 34, Oakland, was not prosecuted on a second degree assault charge filed after a domestic altercation with her husband. The incident was investigated by sheriff's deputies.

Shawn Barmore, 27, Bloomington, was not prosecuted on charges of possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia filed after narcotics detectives discovered a bag of suspected marijuana during a search of his apartment.

Marty Lee Ritchie, 25, Frostburg (Garrett Co.), was not prosecuted on charges of second degree assault and fourth degree sex offense that stemmed from an April incident at his home. The charges were filed by sheriff's deputies.

Lynn E. Mason, 42, Oakland, was deemed not guilty of charges of misdemeanor theft, trespassing, disturbing the peace, and engaging in rogue and vagabond behavior filed in November after she allegedly took items from an ex-boyfriend's residence.

Ricky Harold Minnick, 41, Oakland, was deemed not guilty of violating an ex parte order stemming from repeated phone calls he allegedly made to a local woman.

Ray Everett Shillingburg, 42, Gormania, W.Va., was deemed not guilty of a harassment charge filed by the state's attorney's office, which accused him of repeatedly harassing a woman over a six-month period.

VFW DONATES TO LOCH LYNN – Carolyn Corley, Loch Lynn Heights council member and newly appointed coordinator of the concession stand project, recently accepted a donation from Paul Graham, commander of the VFW Post 10077, Deer Park. "With the generous donations of money and materials as well as the many volunteer hours by residents, the building will soon be complete," said Corley. According to Mayor Larry Friend, the facility, which includes a kitchen, restrooms, and storage area, will benefit the families as well as the hundreds of young people of Garrett County who play on the adjoining ball fields.

spokeswoman Katie O'Malley-Simpson said the waiver "certainly will help" manage the calendar. School systems handled the hurricane emergency differently, Reinhard said. Most school systems, he said, were closed Thursday, but not in Garrett and Alleghany counties. Others, like Carroll, Cecil, Fredrick and Washington counties, opened Monday, but let out early.

The quick action on the waiver took some by surprise.

"Usually we don't hear that until February or March," said Marlene Feldman, spokeswoman for Dorchester County schools.

Systems that were closed other days besides Friday because of weather-related difficulties may request additional days from the State Board closer to the end of the year. Such cases are considered on a case-by-case basis. "Parents and teachers are affected the most," Reinhard said. "No one wants to see students in class on July 4."

Thank You

The Gorman VFD would like to take this opportunity to thank Cobra Tire and Savage Services Corporation for their generous donation of one hog each. These hogs were purchased at the Garrett County Fair this year. Once again we express the importance of the communities supporting all of our volunteer fire departments. Your donations very well may make a difference in whether you will continue to receive the extra benefits that we have all become accustomed to over the years. Once again we thank you, Cobra Tire and Savage Services, for your donation; as always this department will use your donation in the best interest of our community.

Also we would like to inform the public that the department is holding a gun lotto for the month of October. The winning numbers will be taken from the Maryland Lottery 2nd drawing of the day. A prize will be awarded for each day of the month, the entire month regardless of what day your ticket was purchased. Example: If you purchase your ticket on the 23rd of October it will be retroactive to the first of the month. The tickets are already in circulation and if you have not purchased yours yet and would like to, the cost of the ticket is $25.00 and can be purchased from members of the Gorman VFD.

Thank you for your support.

Can you identify these local animal species?

Easy?
Hard?

With the current conditions of our waterways, this task may become difficult...

Saliva Is Essential to Good Health

Saliva is a liquid mixture in the mouth that can be difficult to live without. Recent estimates indicate that approximately 25 million people get dry mouth as a side effect of commonly used medications. Others who have received radiation therapy in the area of their mouths or develop a condition called Sjorgen's syndrome often experience severe dry mouth. Saliva coats the teeth, stops teeth from dissolving, and helps heal mouth wounds. When there is not enough saliva, a host of problems can occur including excessive cavities in the teeth, a sore tongue that becomes fissured, and yeast infections.

A variety of artificial saliva products and mouth moisturizers are available over the counter. Good dental hygiene is crucial because of the tendency for the mouth that is low in natural saliva to develop cavities. Brushing and flossing after every meal, and tooth-cleaning at the dentist's office are all essential to maintaining healthy teeth.

EMS Budget

"Maryland is recognized as having one of the best comprehensive trauma care systems in the country," said Bass. "Our aviation program gets them to a facility where they can intervene rapidly."

The institute oversees and coordinates the EMS system and has an 11-member board. Expenditures from the fund increased 50 percent through this fiscal year and not all is attributed to inflation. The board made the decision to increase available grants from $5 million per year in 1999 to $7.5 million dollars in 2000 and then to $10 million since 2000.

The R. Adams Cowley Shock Trauma Center, operated by the University of Maryland Medical System, also receives funds from the registration fees and has been held to an approximately 3 percent annual increase due to inflation since 1999.

It is unclear if the increase will continue, legislative analysts said.

Money allotted for replacement and modernization of medical equipment is also not included in the budget forecasts beyond fiscal year 2005.

Other sources of funding besides increased vehicle registration charges or changes to current expenditures were discussed briefly.

"The federal government set up EMS, but no funding except for homeland security," said Bass. "There is no dedicated funding in the

Hurricane Isabel Blows Through Md.

Hurricane Isabel arrived in Maryland last Thursday, which resulted in 3.5 days suitable for field work for the week ending Sept. 21. Winds gusted up to 55 miles per hour on Thursday night resulting in damage to corn, fruit trees, farm buildings, and some soybean fields. Flooding occurred in parts of Maryland, especially in low lying areas and shore lines. Most areas had up to 3 inches of rain from Hurricane Isabel.

Corn condition slightly decreased this week from hurricane damage. Many corn fields have broken stalks, but ear stands are still good and harvest should not be too much of a problem. Some farmers were able to harvest mature corn for grain before the storm hit. Corn for silage harvest increased early last week, with the threat of the storm, to 38 percent harvested. Soybeans fared pretty well with little change in condition. A few soybean fields were knocked down, but are expected to recover. Almost all the vegetable crops finished their harvesting season before the storm arrived. A small amount of hay was cut in advance of the storm.

Hawk Appointed Area SSCC Rep.

Cumberland resident Ronald D. Hawk has been appointed western Maryland representative for the State Soil Conservation Committee (SSCC). As area representative, Hawk will represent the Garrett, Allegany, Washington, and Carroll county soil conservation districts, as well as the Frederick and Catoctin districts of Frederick County. A voting member of the SSCC, Hawk will be responsible for working with other committee members to develop, formulate, review, and refine policies concerning soil conservation and water quality issues in Maryland, and advise the secretary of agriculture on such matters. He will complete Betty Meyers's term as the committee's western Maryland representative.

Hawk currently serves as a supervisor for the Allegany Soil Conservation District. He was previously employed as a district conservationist with the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service, working in Allegany County as well as several Eastern Shore counties. A graduate of West Virginia University's school of agriculture, Hawk operates two farms in his native West Virginia.

MAEF Accepting Applications For Excellence Awards

The Maryland Agricultural Education Foundation (MAEF) is currently accepting applications for mini-grants and teacher excellence awards for 2003. Completed applications are due to the Foundation by Oct. 1, and award recipients will be announced at the MAEF annual banquet on Nov. 6 at Michael's 8th Avenue in Glen Burnie.

These award programs are designed to support the development and sharing of innovative lesson plans and hands-on projects that educate learners about agriculture and its importance in today's society. Teachers or other educators with a project idea may apply to the foundation for a grant to provide materials and resources to make the project a reality for their students.

Projects must provide hands-on activities and help to enrich learner understanding of agriculture as the source of food and fiber. The maximum grant allowance is $400, and the project must be implemented within 6 months of receiving the grants.

For the first year, entries are being accepted from individuals and organizations beyond formal classroom teachers.

Excellence in Teaching about Agriculture Award entries are also being accepted from teachers who have already developed and implemented a creative lesson or project in their classroom. Entrants must have participated in an "Ag in the Classroom" workshop, have taught at a school that has been visited by the foundation's mobile science labs, and participated in the Maryland Agriculture Teacher Association summer conference or participated in any other foundation-sponsored workshops or programs.

Awards will be in the amount of $100, $200 and $300, and will be determined by a committee of judges.

Winning projects will become the property of the Maryland Agricultural Education Foundation, which will have the right to share these project plans with other educators via training workshops, on the web site, and/or in its newsletter.

For more information and application requirements, persons may visit the foundation's web site at www.maefonline.com , or call 410-939-9030 for a brochure.

Applications must be typed and postmarked by Oct. 1, 2003. Entries may be also be e-mailed to mstephens@maefonline.com. Entries will be evaluated on creativity, completeness, and relevance to agricultural education.

Founded in 1989, MAEF is a non-profit organization that promotes and enhances the understanding and appreciation of agriculture in the daily lives of Marylanders.

Current foundation programs include Ag in the Classroom, mobile science labs, Maryland Agriculture Showcase, Excellence in Teaching about Agriculture Awards, mini-grants for agricultural projects, management of the Maryland FFA organization, and conducting in-service training by agriculture teachers from across the state.

The foundation is currently developing an Ag in the Classroom program for middle school, and the first teacher workshop will be held in June 2004.

Support for the foundation comes from public and private grants, individual and corporate donations, and the sale of Maryland's "Ag Tag."

Casteel Honored At Mary Kay Annual Seminar

Anna Casteel, Bruceton Mills, W.Va. (formerly of Garrett County), joined approximately 53,000 Mary Kay independent business owners from throughout the United States at the company's 39th annual seminar, held in late July.

Casteel was honored on stage with a 14-karat gold bracelet set with diamonds and tourmalines for completing the challenge of $40,000 in personal retail sales for the 40th anniversary of Mary Kay. She was one of the top 29 persons who received the Mary Kay figurine, which was designed by Mary Kay herself for the 40-year milestone.

The skin care and cosmetics company, founded in 1963, has averaged double-digit annual growth since its beginning.

Heartland Honors Environmental Services Staff

Heartland of Preston County, Kingwood, recently recognized National Environmental Services Week, Sept. 14-20, by honoring its Environmental Services staff members for their teamwork and dedication.

"I am very proud to work with such caring and dedicated employees, always giving the special effort needed to insure a safe and healthy environment." said Environmental Services director Bertha Moser. "The pride in their work shows for all to see as they enter our doors to visit or make their home with us."

In addition to a pizza luncheon, staff members received appreciation gifts and prizes. Among those recognized were Linnie Miller and Moser, more than 20 years of service; Vicki Thorn, Rosemary Bolyard, Carolyn Parks, and Steve Ruggles, 15-20 years of service; and Diana Popielewski, Sharon Stonebreaker, Karen Lewis, and Lester DeWitt, 10 to 15 years of service.

STUDENTS VISIT SANDWICH SHOP – First graders in Mr. Hebb's class at Terra Alta/East Preston Elementary School recently visited the new Terra Alta Subway. Escorted by Trooper Marcus of the Terra Alta Police Department, the students walked from their school to the sandwich shop. They were greeted by the shop's owner and the employees, who then gave the students the "grand tour" of the establishment. They were also shown how to properly wash their hands and wear gloves for proper sandwich making. Each child was then given the chance to prepare his or her own sandwich behind the "sandwich-artist" counter. To show their appreciation, the children later wrote a thank-you letter to the staff. Subway restaurants are involved in many civic, education, and charitable organizations. On a local basis, franchisees are also involved with many schools and religious or community organizations. For more information, persons may check with their neighborhood Subway.

Bloodmobile Visit Set

The Red Cross bloodmobile will be at Aurora on Oct. 15 to collect donations. It is hoped that the public will plan to come to the Union Ambulance squad hall on that date, between 1 and 7 p.m.

Texas Sing

The annual Texas Bethel United Methodist Sing will be held on Sunday, Sept. 28, beginning at 1 p.m. The public is invited to attend for an afternoon of gospel music from various presenters.

Brookside Revival

A revival, with Tom Wegman as the guest evangelist, will be held Thursday through Saturday evening, Oct. 2, 3, and 4, at 7:30 p.m., at the Brookside Church of the Brethren. There will be special music each evening. The public in invited to attend.

Class of '51 Meets For Reunion

A reunion for members of the 1951 graduating class of Aurora High School was held Saturday evening, Sept. 13, at Melanie's Restaurant in Aurora. Those who attended were Harley and Regina Donham, Grafton; Hazel (Wilt) and Lewis Durst, Amboy; Dorothy (Auvil) and Clayton Hauser, Terra Alta; Mary Ruth (Helmick) and Glenn Ball, Terra Alta; Alan and Helen Lipscomb, and Thelma Stemple, all Aurora; Earl E. and Alice Roth, Renick; Arvin Harsh, Eglon; and instructors Virginia Martin and Martha Bolyard.

Personal Mention

Gay Roth returned to his home near Thomas last week after being a surgical patient in a Morgantown hospital.

Erma Heise of Arthurdale is recuperating after surgical repair of her fractured ankle and foot. Her sister, Carolyn Rhodes of Ohio, is staying with Mrs. Heise and her husband, John, at their home. On Saturday they were visited by their brother and his wife, Ed and Janet Shaffer of Grove City, Ohio, who were on their way to Davis at attend the Blackwater Lodge reunion of his Aurora High School class. Relatives and friends from the area visited them there before their return.

Bradley, 3-week-old son of Jason and Tiffany Fint of Aurora, underwent surgery on Friday at Morgantown hospital for a blockage in his digestive tract. He is the grandchild of George and Sadie Fint.

John Allman of Eglon is seriously ill at his home and under Hospice care.

Judy Highberger of Charleston, S.C., and Norman Fike of Belington spent last week with their mother, Louella Fike, Aurora, and also visiting during that time was another brother, Gary Fike of Terra Alta.

Donna Hartsell of Amboy has returned to her home at Amboy to continue recovery from hip replacement surgery at Garrett County Memorial Hospital.

Keith and Dee Douglas of Aurora were Sept. 8-12 visitors with their children and grandchildren in Ohio.

Herman Kemphfer Sr. of Aurora returned to his home on Saturday after spending part of the week in Preston Memorial Hospital.

Daniel Parsons was injured Thursday evening when he reportedly toppled a TV set. He was treated and released at Garrett County Memorial Hospital. On Sunday his parents, Leonard and Tammy Parsons, and brother Michael hosted a family birthday gathering in his honor at their Horse Shoe Run Home. Attending were Eugene and Bernadine Bachtel, Jack and Brenda Cassidy, Chuck, Eugenia, Shelly, and Amanda Cassidy, Scott, Teresa, and Stephanie Bittinger, Bill Diana, and Matt Bachtel, Gary, Denise, and Willie Bachtel, Larry and Jane Bachtel, Twila and Vernon Amtower and grandchildren, Brandon and Natalie Wood, John and Shirley Parsons, Ron Parsons, and Jean Skipper.

Mrs. Jessie Hughes will celebrate her birthday on Sept. 28. Her daughter Judy suggests that calls to her at 735-5810 would be well received. Cards may be addressed to her at Rt. 1, Box 215, Aurora, WV 26705.

Jackie and Alma Snyder visited this weekend in Stewartstown, Pa., with Alma's brother and his wife, Lawrence and Peggy Donham.

Grace Donham Winter of Fairmont has been a patient in Monongalia General Hospital since Thursday of last week, where she is undergoing tests.

Claire and Lois Kight of Montana are visiting with their daughter and family, Delores, Ronnie, Kari, and Tyler Harsh, Eglon, and attended the reunion of her graduating class on Sept. 20 at Blackwater Lodge.

The Maple Spring Church family took a hayride on Sept. 21. They first witnessed racing pigeons in their crates, set to be released to fly to their home at Camp Galilee near Terra Alta, where their owner, Glenn Nissley, is caretaker. Inadvertently released by the children, their takeoff was done prematurely. Following this, four wagons were loaded and the journey began its way to the first stop, this at the Bobby Harsh farm, to see his buffalo. The group then headed to Crimson Shamrock farm, where they viewed the alpacas and sheep. Back to the church via Cash Valley, the entire group expressed appreciation to Kelly and Ronnie Junkins, Jerry and Terry Houser, Stanley Harsh, and Ronnie Heishman for planning, tractors, and wagons.

An overnight birthday for Wesley and Trevor Spaid proved to be anything but a slumber party on Saturday, Sept. 20. But parents Ronnie and Angie Spaid of Eglon managed to make it out and about Sunday, despite the extra five sons they had for the evening and night.

And again the mountain top experienced a vehicular accident, when on Sunday evening the Roger Glotfeltys of Oakland were involved, with Mrs. Glotfelty life flighted to Morgantown. The incident on U.S. 219 between the Rt. 24 junction and the Maryland line.

ACCIDENT GROUP HOLDS BIKE RODEO – The Accident Community Planning Group recently held its annual bike rodeo in the parking lot of the old IGA store in Accident. This year the children participated in many challenging games, including the "figure 8," snail game, sponge relay, "between the lines," and music jam. In addition to the games, Sharon Custer from the Garrett County Health Department gave a presentation and conducted a safety inspection of the children's bikes. Refreshments were available, door prizes were awarded, and certificates were given to everyone who participated. "It was a beautiful day and the attendance in the rodeo was up from last year," said Angie LaMastus, Accident Community Planning Group reporter. "It was a very fun activity for all the kids." Pictured are some of the children participating in the event.

Brian Bender
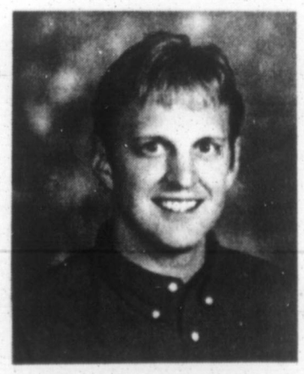
on obtaining his RRS Designation



Brian has successfully completed the Worldwide Recreation & Resort Specialist requirements in order to obtain the RRS Designation. RRS is a designation that recognizes real estate professionals who have completed the necessary course requirements. Designation requirements include: classroom instruction and training, a passing grade on the final exam, and the successful settlement of at least 50 transactions or over $15 million in closed transactions. The RRS Course focused on the unique characteristics of selling real estate in a recreation & resort area.

Congratulations, Brian, on a job well done.

DNR Slates State Forest Work Plan Meeting At NGSP

The Maryland Department of Natural Resources Forest and Park Service will host a public meeting on Saturday, Oct. 4, at 10 a.m. at the New Germany State Park lakehouse to present its proposed work plans for western Maryland's state forests for fiscal year 2005.

DNR staff representing Potomac Garrett, Savage River, and Green Ridge state forests will present proposals for new construction and changes in forest use and forest harvests. An opportunity for questions and comments will follow the presentations.

A 30-day public comment period will follow the meeting. Persons unable to attend may submit comments concerning a specific forest plan to the Potomac Garrett State Forest, 1431 Potomac Camp Rd., Oakland, MD 21550; (301-334-2038); or Savage River State Forest, 349 Headquarters Rd., Grantsville, MD 21536 (301-895-5759).

Forest managers formulated work plans last winter, and an interdisciplinary DNR team reviewed the plans in June. Subsequent reviews were later conducted by forest advisory boards. Copies of the annual plans will be available at the public meetings or can be obtained from any state forest headquarters office. Work plans are also available for viewing on the agency's Web site at www.dnr.state.md.us/publiclands.

PACK 70 HAS BUSY SUMMER – Cub Scouts from Pack 70, Broad Ford Elementary School, recently finished an eventful summer. Activities included Day Camp, biking at Ohiopyle State Park, a fishing derby/campout, and exploring Laurel Caverns. ASK BEFORE YOU LIST!

You're ready to sell your home... you need the training and experience of a real estate professional... but how do you select the best agent to match your needs?

When talking to an agent, pose thoughtful questions to help you decide. While professional designations can illustrate expertise, and years in practice may indicate success, there are other areas you want to learn about before listing.

For instance, how many homes has your agent sold in the last year, and in your neighborhood specifically? What is the agent's average "list-to-sale" price ratio? Determined by how closely the original listing price matches the final sale price, you want those numbers to be as close as possible.

Overpricing your home only extends its time on the market. An accurate market analysis will produce a price in line with other homes like yours, and guarantee consideration by buyers who comparison shop. So ask for your agent's average listing time on the market for a good indication of their pricing and marketing skills. Don't be afraid to ask what the agent will specifically do to market your home.

Finally, an agent can provide you with past sellers' feedback and testimonials. Successful agents build their listings by word of mouth and referrals from past clients. When you find the agent with the answers, you've found the agent to sell your home!

If you're planning to sell your home soon and would like information on its current value, give me a call today!

Energy Assistance Applications Now Sought By GCCAC

Garrett County Community Action Committee Inc., Office of Home Energy Program, formerly known as Maryland Energy Assistance Program, is taking applications for Energy Assistance and Electric Utility Service Program for anyone who has not applied since July 1, 2003.

Regular office hours are Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.; however, evening appointments can be scheduled.

When applying, applicants will need to bring proof of total household income for the previous 30 days, electric bill, and gas bill if gas is the main source of heat. If applicant has never received assistance before, he/she will need to provide a driver's license or birth certificate and social security cards for each member of the household.

Income guidelines are as follows: household size of 1, $1,123 maximum monthly income; 2, $1,515; 3, $1,908; 4, $2,300; 5, $2,693; and 6, $3,085. For each additional person, add $393.

For the Medical Waiver program, interested households that were ineligible for MEAP/EUSP due to being over income may now be eligible if they can provide receipts of medical bills that were paid at least 90 days ago.

Persons with questions or to schedule an evening appointment, may call 301-334-9431, ext. 114; or 1-888-877-8403, ext. 114.

Democratic Club To Meet At Garrett

The Garrett County Democratic Club will host a meeting set for 7 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 1, at the Continuing Education Building at Garrett College. The guest speaker, Susan Athey-Oxford, will deliver a presentation on the current programming and the clientele served by the Garrett County Partnership for Children and Families.

All interested persons may attend. For further information, persons may call 301-533-3242.

4-H Club News

NORTH GLADE
Samantha Gibson, reporter

The North Glade 4-H Club's September meeting took place recently with eight members present. Club president Lee Custer opened the meeting with roll call and the treasurer's report.

A vote was taken on the design and purchase of the sign for the exterior of the club building. A report on the recent Garrett County Fair was delivered during which members shared their fair experiences and told of the awards they won.

The members voted to schedule a fall social for 6 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 18. Committees were formed, and a planning/clean-up committee meeting will take place at 7 p.m. tomorrow, Friday, Sept. 26, in preparation for the event. The purchase of new tables and chairs for the social was also discussed.

4-H baby beef raffle tickets were distributed for members to sell, and any persons interested in purchasing a ticket may contact Samantha Gibson at 301-387-2990.

A building clean-up activity is slated for 2 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 28. Members have compiled a list of items they need to obtain for the building, through either purchase or donation. Items needed at this time are large trash cans, a used stove and refrigerator, plants for new flower beds, and swings for the swing set.

Any persons who would like to donate baked goods for the fall social, or items for the building remodeling project, are asked to contact June McClosky at 301-387-2990.

The next meeting of the North Glade 4-H Club is set for 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 16.

Ryan's Glade
by Tara Marple

The regular monthly meeting was held Sept. 16. Each member who had entries in the fair gave a report on what was entered. The club received a blue ribbon on the fair booth, "Treasures of 4-H."

Chas Custer gave a report on the hunter safety course, which several members attended. Aaron Lantz gave a report on his Reserve Grand Champion goat at the Maryland State Fair.

Each family was asked to recognize National 4-H Sunday in their own churches on Oct. 5. During National 4-H week, Oct.5-11, the club decided to do a public announcement on the radio and do a spot on Channel 3 local TV to thank all the club livestock buyers from the Garrett County Fair, and sell 4-H candy bars.

Officer applications are due at the next meeting. Any member wanting to run for office must complete one to run. The next meeting will be held Oct. 21 at 7 p.m. The farm safety program will be given by Bob Yeager.

Shillito/Hansford Insurance Agency

David W. Hansford, a Nationwide insurance agent, recently opened an office in Oakland, and is "happy to be part of the Oakland business community."

Hansford became a Nationwide agent in 1976 in Parsons, W.Va., and in October 2000, he merged with Nationwide agent Jay Shillito in Terra Alta, W.Va.

"I realized there were many growth opportunities in Garrett County, and decided to open an office in Oakland," Hansford said.

The agency handles most insurance needs of the consumer, he said. The office can also handle financial services, including IRAs and 401K rollovers.

"By offering both services, we are a one-stop business for our clients," he added. "Our agency tries to be unique in the insurance industry by providing superior service and by treating clients with the respect they deserve.

"With this in mind, we have decided to stay open until 7 p.m. on Friday evenings and Saturday until noon."

Hansford is assisted by Andrea L. Shaffer, associate agent.

They can be reached at 301-533-3999, and the office is located at 513 East Oak Street next to Get N' Go.

Longer Use Of Child's Booster Seats Mandated By New Maryland Law

By Angie Mason
Capital News Service

ANNAPOLIS - Patricia Campana is one step ahead of the law. Her 5-year-old son Vincent already uses a booster seat in the car, so when a new child passenger safety law takes effect in October, he'll be ready.

State laws on child passenger safety currently mandate that a child up to 40 pounds or 4 years old, regardless of weight, must be restrained in a safety seat. A law passed during the 2002 General Assembly session will extend the law to apply to 6-year-olds beginning Oct. 1.

"I just feel like it's safer," said Campana of Crownsville. "I'll probably keep him in it even longer."

"Kids usually around ages 4 to 6 are the ones being killed in auto crashes," said Laura Vetock, program coordinator for Maryland Kids in Safety Seats. Adult seat belts don't fit younger children properly and so are not as effective for children in accidents, she said.

The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration recommends that children up to 8 years old use safety seats. Once children reach 40 pounds they should use a booster seat with the vehicle's regular seat belt.

"Just like we wouldn't give a child adult strength medicine . . . it's the same thing with seat belts," said Meg Miller, occupant protection program coordinator for the Maryland State Highway Administration.

A booster seat elevates the child so that lap and shoulder belts fit correctly. Vetock said there is no "magic number" for determining what age a child is ready for a regular seat belt. It all depends on the child's weight and height.

Without a booster seat, children can't bend their knees over the edge of the seat and the seat belt is uncomfortable, said Cathy Chase, director of state affairs for Advocates for Highway and Auto Safety. They often push the shoulder strap under their arms or behind their backs, she said.

"They put themselves in a dangerous position," she noted. Booster seats make children more comfortable, Chase said, and they usually like that it helps them see out the window.

Advocates hope the law will encourage parents to use booster seats not only until age 6, but as long as children need them. The law forces parents to get booster seats, Chase said, and hopefully once they do they'll keep children in them even longer than the law requires.

"Laws are crucial to spreading the word," said Chase. "A lot of parents don't know why booster seats are important," but a law gives it importance.

"There is a trend in the last three years for states to pass booster seat laws," Chase said. More research has been done on the issue, she said, and mothers nationwide have drawn attention to it. Twenty-two states and the District of Columbia have child passenger safety laws that require booster seats.

A few years ago it was difficult to find child booster seats, but as more states are passing laws requiring them, "retailers are becoming more savvy," Miller said. She estimated that booster seat costs could run from $25 to more than $100.

Maryland Kids in Safety Seats runs loaner programs in all parts of the state so that low-income families can have access to safety seats.

Vetock said programs differ from region to region; some might offer a safety seat for $5, others might be $25. Parents calling the program will be referred to a loaner site in their region.

"They're going to try to take care of people who can't afford them," said Miller.

Maryland has a primary seat belt law, which means state troopers can make traffic stops based solely on seat belt violations.

"Seat belt violation is already a priority," said Sgt. Thornnie Rouse of the Maryland State Police. "Troopers have been pretty good about stopping cars if they see kids up and around."

He said the new law wouldn't cause much of a change in how they enforce passenger safety laws.

GRANTSVILLE

GOODWILL MENNONITE VILLAGE

A bus trip to the Cumberland Theater is scheduled for Oct. 8 to see "To Kill A Mockingbird." Lunch will be at Gehauf's Restaurant. If persons are interested in going they may contact Linda Beitzel by Sept. 29.

RED RUN MENNONITE CHURCH

Loretta Hummel will be singing at the church Sunday, Oct. 5, at 7 p.m. There will be a light snack afterwards and this will be the last singer of the year. For more information, persons may call Pastor Carlos at 240-727-7387.

TOWN NEWS

Fall Clean-Up Day will be Oct. 4. Large furniture will be accepted, but not tires or items containing freon.

CORNERSTONE ASSEMBLY OF GOD

On Friday, Oct. 3, missionary Rev. Robert Hymes will be visiting the church at 6 p.m. For more information, persons may call Pastor Thomas Twigg at 814-662-4235.

GRANTSVILLE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Grantsville Elementary School will hold a "Souper" supper on Oct. 3 from 4:30 to 7 p.m. at the school cafeteria. The proceeds from the dinner will go along with the $5,000 that the school has received from Campbell's Soup Company in order to assist with the reading program. The dinner will include a variety of Campbell's soups, crackers, hot dogs, chili dogs, sloppy joes, dessert, and coffee or punch. The cost for adults is $3, for students, $2.50, and children under 4 will eat free.

There will also be door prizes, "Souper Soup Baskets," cake walks, and entertainment by Christopher Jones. Raffle tickets for Minnie Bittinger's quilt will also be available. The quilt tickets will be sold at $1 each or six for $5. Interested persons may call the school for reservations at 301-895-5173 or 301-746-8662.

SWANTON

A history of Swanton meeting was held this morning at the community center. Model houses of the town constructed by the late Sherman Friend were to be identified at this meeting.

Otterbein Church Day is October 2. Applebutter will be made at the Burlington Children's Home, Burlington, W.Va. Help is needed beginning on Saturday, Sept. 27, getting apples ready for making the applebutter every day, Sept. 29 through Oct. 4. The main apple harvest will be Oct. 4 and 5. On those days there will be crafts, baked goods, and applebutter available. Applebutter will be on sale all week. Everyone is invited to attend or help anytime.

Friday and Saturday, Oct. 3 and 4, the Swanton Community Association will make and sell doughnuts at the Springs Folk Festival. Help there would be appreciated also.

The September meeting of the United Methodist Women was held at the home of Sandy Schofield. Grace Lee was the leader, assisted by Joan Riley and Sandy Schofield. The election of officers for the coming year was held. Elected were president, Linda Fleming; vice president, Sandy Schofield; secretary, Doris Howell; treasurer, Sandy Friend; secretary of program resources, Luella Baker; spiritual growth coordinator, Mareva Teets; education, Mary Wilson; social action, Grace Lee; and nurture and outreach, Phyllis Friend.

At the district meeting on Saturday, the unit was presented a certificate designating it as a Mission Today Bronze Unit. A membership certificate was also received for the addition of two new members.

Sunday's Homecoming at Otterbein United Methodist Church was attended by 46, with Amy Sweitzer and Mary June Harvey receiving gifts for being the oldest women and Orval Teets, the oldest man; longest married, Orval and Mareva Teets (62 years) and Hugh and Helen Friend (52 years). The following were 80 and over: Amy Sweitzer, Glenna Sweitzer, Mary June Harvey, and Glenola Wilson and Orval Teets. There were 28 over 60 years.

Special music and singing were provided by the church choir, Dave Minnich, Keyser, W.Va., Gloryland Three (Orval and Mareva Teets and Mary June Harvey), Kim Sweitzer and daughters Shayna and Amanda, Ray and Carol Sweitzer, and the Golden Girls (Mary Wilson, Linda Fleming, and Sandy Schofield). The service closed with those over 60 years singing "When We All Get To Heaven."

Mike and Ellisa Woodbrey and their girls, Shepherdstown, W.Va., visited family in the area over the weekend.

Luella Baker's, brother Ronnie Friend, is now in the Dennett Road Manor Nursing Home, Oakland.

Bennie and Dottie Beckman traveled to Baltimore Sunday to visit their family for a few days.

Notes From Bittinger

by Joan Sussman

I really don't think anything much has happened in Bittinger over the last week. However, I did hear that Jimmy Glotfelty was admitted to Ruby Memorial Hospital in Morgantown but was supposed to be discharged early this week.

I can't see past my own nose right now because it is running faster and more full than even Rock Lodge's spring, at least as it was before the hurricane passed over here. Although the Casselman River valley had some water on the road, but at the head water, which is below Katherine Bowser's house, was OK and the low place by Oliver Bender's house was all right. There was some water running across the road on Accident-Bittinger Road, but, as time rushed on, it cleared so traffic could go through. At the bottom of Negro Mountain on Accident-Bittinger Road, the land was flooded but not out on the roadway. I guess you would call that body of water their marsh or maybe just a deep place in a creek. It is not a real deep pond. Unlike in the early 1950s we did not get too much wind but did get a hard rain. My mother's gauge measured five inches of rain from the storm. I was worried about the possibility of losing the electrical power. But at least we dodged that bullet.

People say that with our late spring in Bittinger we should have some extra decent growing weather for an extra few weeks. We sure need it since we have lots of fields of corn still unharvested. Several years ago I noticed that whatever kind of weather the north West Coast or Rocky Mountain regions have, we have the opposite.

Aunt Betty Hummel from Olympia, Washington, said that this year was unusually dry enough so that she had to water her flower garden all summer. I don't think many people around here have had to water their gardens much this spring and summer.

I was pleased to see the western mountains had early snow so maybe winter will wait for awhile here in Garrett County. It seems like the more they get the less we get. Last year was the worst winter for skiing in the Rockies in a long time, while we had enough snow for both regions. But it is truly autumn today according to the calendar and the foliage. Even though we only have spashes of color in our trees, they are definitely there. I saw a beautiful display of autumn color on the ground along Rock Lodge Road. It was a big patch of fern colored gold, scarlet, and pale yellow with some dark green. Another fall color item that not many notice is the milkweed leaves that turn yellow-gold. As I passed through downtown Bittinger today I noticed that the wonderful grape arbor was loaded with a heavy crop of deep purple Concord grapes, whereas my vines, although they have lots of grapes, are still pale green and a long way from being ripe. It always amazes me how wide the gap is behind this part of Bittinger compared to the northern or east end.

Last weekend something happened that has never happened before in my memory. The annual Glotfelty family picnic, which is the big get-together for my father's siblings and their first cousins, is held at Fort Frederick near Hancock. Because of "Isabel" the state of Maryland closed all state parks, not just down-state where the hurricane really threatened. The Howe Country Store near New Germany had many bewildered and amazed visitors inquiring why New Germany State Park was closed.

For a month or more, I couldn't walk at all except with unbearable pain because my ankle brace broke. I had to go back to a stiff rigid one that was so uncomfortable. I could barely even make it to the car, let alone do anything. But at last today I got a new replacement, so now I want to run around like a crazy person, but I am too worn out to do anything.

Meredith and I enjoyed a visit from our new neighbors, Sherry, Paige, Ryan, and Cameron Weaver. The kids joined Mere and Emma and visited with our two equine friends. Sherry and Pastor Chris were away last weekend for a pastor and spouse retreat near Uniontown.

Lenny and Sally Poholsky attended a retirement dinner for Alice Sisler at the Will O' the Wisp on Friday night for her 30 years of service at the Garrett County Health Department. Also attending from Bittinger were Gary and Sharon Buckel, Beth Brenneman, and Rodney and Marci Glotfelty. Leslie Buckel sang several songs, and Rodney, Robbie, and Darryl and Elliot Glotfelty also entertained with their musical instruments.

Lenny and Torrey Poholsky went to the Pirate-Cubs game at PNC Field on Saturday night. Pirates won 8-2. Over the weekend Lenny and Torrey Poholsky and Matthew Bass were at Nemacolin Woodlands for the PGA Golf Open. Torrey, Sally, and Lenny spent last weekend in Virginia touring some colleges that Torrey might be interested in attending next year.

Ferne Beachy and Meredith Vagnetti visited with Chauncey Friend and Olis Brenneman at the Goodwill Nursing Home on Tuesday.

Visiting with Harriett Buckel this past week were Bernadette Henson, St. Albans, W.Va., Annette Keller, Accident, and Ruth DiPaolo.

Jim Glotfelty was admitted to Ruby Memorial Hospital Oncology Department Saturday evening for treatment of bone cancer. Visiting him were his sister, Bernadette Hanson of St. Alban's, W.Va., Linda Oester, Salisbury, Pa., Julius and Karmen Carey, Frostburg, Tom Glotfelty, Alpine Lake, and a friend Jasper, who was visiting here from the Netherlands, and Tim Glotfelty.

Word was received here of the recent death of Fannie Wiley of Canton, Ohio, a former resident of the Bittinger community. She was the daughter of Charles and Mary Brenneman Wiley, who at one time lived on what is now called the Nayburlee Farm.

Swanton School Reunion Held

The 5th Swanton School reunion was held on Aug. 23 at the Swanton Community Center (the former Swanton School).

There were 83 in attendance coming from Texas, Illinois, West Virginia, Tennessee, Delaware, Ohio, Virginia, and Maryland.

Music was furnished by Linda Teets Fleming.

Door prizes were won by 11 people. "A good time was had by all, including a cake walk like the students enjoyed at the school years ago," said a spokesperson.

Another reunion is planned for 2005 at the Community Center.

SCIENTIFIC SCHOLARS AT GRANTSVILLE ELEMENTARY – Students at Grantsville Elementary were "scientific scholars" this month when the Biotechnology, Food, Fiber & You Lab visited the school. Grades K-5 participated in this mobile science lab, allowing all students at Grantsville to experience a hands-on approach to learning. Fourth and fifth grade students utilized the lab each day of its visit. They made cottage cheese, wool bookmarks, soybean glue, and other agricultural products. Students also observed the making of lip balm and tested the strength of soybeans in plaster of Paris, as well as testing the strength of glue that they made with soybeans. Sponsored by Maryland Agricultural Education Foundation Inc., the Biotech Lab is one of several mobile science labs that travel around Maryland. Known as Maryland Ag in the Classroom, these science labs provide an enrichment to the science program of many schools across the state. According to Carol Fox, the instructor of this year's lab, the mobile labs are also placed at many county fairs throughout the state to help young people gain an appreciation of the benefits of agriculture. Students at Grantsville expressed enthusiasm about the science lab and included slides of their experiences on the Morning News broadcast at Grantsville Elementary. Pictured above is the fourth grade class of Ruby Thompson. Her substitute, Joann Maxim, is watching as Fox instructs the students.

Seniors' Fitness Classes Set In Various Locales

A grant awarded to the Garrett County Community Action Committee's Area Agency on Aging from the Office of the Attorney General will make it possible for the agency to offer fitness programs at outlying facilities beginning next month. "The programs are an extension of the Flowery Vale Fitness Center and will enable us to reach more older adults wishing to improve their overall health," said a spokesperson for the local agency.

The agency was contacted by the Office of the Attorney General in late May announcing the availability of funds to provide health and/or fitness programs and services to the older adult population. "We saw this as an opportunity to take some of the fitness programs available at the Flowery Vale Fitness Center to locations in outlying communities," the representative explained, "so we developed a proposal for a 'Fitness Road Show.'"

The new fitness programs will begin the first week of October. Participants do not have to be active members of the senior centers to participate in the programs, but they must be age 55 or older. The programs will be offered in two 12-week sessions at the three locations. The sessions will begin at the Grantsville Senior Center on Wednesday, Oct. 1, at 2 p.m.; at the Mary Browning Senior Center on Monday, Oct. 6, at 2 p.m.; and at the Friendsville Community Center on Tuesday, Oct. 7, at 10:30 a.m. Persons wishing to attend the sessions are reminded to wear comfortable clothing and appropriate footwear.

Flowery Vale fitness director Elaine Kackley, a certified fitness instructor and personal trainer, will visit each location one day per week to provide instruction and lead classes. The programs will include exercise and resistance training to improve cardiovascular health, range of motion and stretching activities to enhance flexibility, and PACE (People with Arthritis Can Exercise) classes to decrease chronic pain associated with arthritis. Exercise equipment will include flex bands, dumbbells, and fitness balls. Health education materials will be distributed and discussed on a monthly basis.

As with members of the fitness center, records will be maintained on each participant to gauge their progress. Participants will also receive a quarterly assessment to assure they receive the maximum benefit from the programs offered, and the degree of difficulty will be increased accordingly. Once instructed on the proper exercise techniques, participants can incorporate the fitness activities into their daily living routines in the interim between structured classes.

The agency will maintain data on each participant. Quarterly reports will be made to the Office of the Attorney General. The agency hopes to have results similar to those witnessed at the fitness center, which include weight loss, lower blood pressure, lower blood sugar levels, improved and increased flexibility, and reductions in medication.

Persons interested in participating are requested to contact either the Area Agency on Aging at 301-334-9431 or 1-888-877-8403, or the Flowery Vale Fitness Center at 301-746-8050 to register. Walk-ins will be welcome. A registration fee of $5 will cover participation in all sessions within a 12-week program.

Thank You

The Housing Department of Garrett County Community Action Committee, Inc., would like to thank Our Savior Lutheran Church for all their hard work during their Servant Event this summer. This event coordinated by GCCAC provides eligible homeowners with necessary repairs to their homes at no cost.

We would like to thank Greg Shockey of Team One for his assistance and support for this project. A special thanks to Ed Chalkley for volunteering numerous hours preparing work write-ups and delivering materials to the project sites. Many thanks also to Del Cosner for his expertise in preparing site plans and OC Cluss Lumber for their assistance with this project.

Without the support of individuals and businesses such as these, the Lutheran Servant Event would not have been nearly as successful.

Dec. 1, 1951 - Sept. 27, 2002

They say that time can ease all pain, but life without you will never be the same. Gone are the days when we could hear your voice and see your face. The morning you left for the hospital we had no idea that your life was going to come to an end so soon. Now, looking back at the days, the weeks, and the months preceding your death, it all seems to make more sense. We knew you were tired, attributing it to work as we all often do, but we never could have guessed that there was so much more to it. Perhaps you knew, perhaps you didn't. Maybe your attention to certain details should have told us before your untimely death. We think of you often, when we see familiar people or visit familiar places. We miss your humor, a distinct style all your own; we miss your phone calls, the likes of which we took for granted; we miss your gestures, your mannerisms that marked your personality. Work, a staple in our lives, is no longer what it used to be. You are the missing piece, the one that will always leave a void and can never be replaced. We took your presence for granted; now all we have are the memories. There was so much you dreamed of doing and so much that was left undone. But, our comfort comes from knowing you no longer suffer. At your funeral we heard the song about angels among us and now we pray that you have joined them, watching down upon us, concerned as always with our well-being. We will forever miss you. You're in our thoughts every day and though you are gone, we thank you for everything you left with us. We'll cherish the memories, so beautiful in retrospect, until we see you again.

Loved and sadly missed by your family

Different Cultures Mesh, Learn Together While In Garrett County

by Beth L. Bowers

Different cultures, languages, and experiences all meshed together these last few weeks as teachers from South Africa, students and teachers from Spain, and Garrett County students learned from each other through various activities.

The visitors from Spain have been in Garrett County since the second week of September, and are from Ubrique Cadiz in the very south of that country. They have been staying with various host families of Northern High School students.

The group of six is led by teachers Diego Guerrero and Gema Casillas, who have been staying with Pat and Kim Conroy, Deep Creek Lake. The students are Celia Villalobos, Enrique Onate, Julio Barreno, Fernando Gomez, Antonio Fabero, and Paco Garcia.

NHS students spent two weeks with these families while in Spain this past June. In total, these students have been with each other for a month. These visits are made possible through the Stanley P. Smith Family Foundation.

According to Guerrero, their town is similar to Garrett County in many ways. The town has a population of approximately 18,000 and is isolated in the mountains about 80 miles from the sandy beaches. Many people in the area make their living from the leather manufacturing industry.

The five educators from South Africa are currently on a seven-week visit to Garrett College, where they are being hosted by Dr. Nancy Priselac, GC coordinator of mathematics, and members of the mathematics faculty and staff. The purpose of their visit is to observe techniques of teaching mathematics through the use of technology and to attend the two-week Mathematics Institute.

The visiting educators are David Fransman, principal of Welkom Secondary School; Lucy Kganyago, mathematics teacher at Minerva High School; Thembilizwe (Tee-gee) Hawker, curriculum advisor for mathematics in South Cape/Karoo EMDC of the Western Cape Education Department; Masepe Harold Mokone, acting principal of Beacon Senior Secondary School; and Thembeni Dorothy Cele, mathematics teacher of Mshweshwe High School.

The South Africans' visit to the United States has been made possible through a grant written by Prince George's Community College and funding from the South African Ministry of Education.

Both groups have been included in numerous activities with the Garrett County school system throughout their stay. They shared cultural experiences with the students at Swan Meadow School, shadowed teachers and administrators, and toured economic development sites.

"We have enjoyed every minute of our stay," said Fransman.

One day during their visit, they visited the Hickory Environmental Education Center, viewed the planetarium, and ate lunch before heading to the Bear Creek Fish Hatchery along Fish Hatchery Road.

Students from Northern and Southern high schools also joined the visitors for the day's events.

The Northern High School students involved in the day's activities were Mike McKewen, Sam Sherrard, Amanda Sisler, Margaret Mastej, Mike Moyer, and Lindsay Phillips. They were accompanied by adviser April Slagle.

The Southern High students were Pat DiGioia, Greg Beckman, Emily Thomas, Tori Insley, JoAnn Buckel, Andrew Goad, Stephanie Keenan, Corey Lewis, and advisers Jamie Beeman and Angie Teagarden.

The group divided in half and spent 30 minutes at two different activities.

Jody Johnson, the fisheries' biologist, and Alan Klotz, district biologist, with the help of some local students, demonstrated how to electroshock fish.

This procedure stuns the fish for a short period of time, allowing the biologists to collect the fish and gather data from them.

Using a backpack shocker, Johnson shocked the water, while Amanda Sisler, Margaret Mastej, and Mike Moyer from NHS caught the stunned fish in nets.

KEEPING THEIR EYES PEELED – As Jody Johnson, biologist, electroshocks the stream, Amanda Sisler, Mike Moyer, and Margaret Mastej, Northern High students, stand by ready with nets and a bucket to scoop up the stunned fish for examination. Alan Klotz, district biologist, also helped out with this demonstration. This was part of a trip to the Bear Creek Fish Hatchery last week for several high school students and five South African educators, two Spanish teachers, and six Spanish students who have been visiting Garrett County for several weeks. In the picture below, Lucy Kganyago, mathematics teacher at Minerva High School in South Africa, dressed in her Garrett Lakers T-shirt, jumped right in to grab one of the large trout they learned about through the day's activities. See story for more details. Photos by Beth Bowers.

GETTING THEIR FEET WET – While at the Bear Creek Fish Hatchery, most of the South African visitors and Spanish students were more than eager to jump into the stream bed and experience this stream-monitoring technique organized by Liz McDowell of Elk Ridge NatureWorks. Dr. Wendell Teets, school superintendent, and Lucy Kganyago, mathematics teacher at Minerva High School, hold the kicknet that will catch any macroinvertebrates that are kicked up from those students turning over rocks and stirring up sediment farther up the stream. From examining what macroinvertebrates inhabit a stream, the water quality can be determined, as well as many other aspects of the environment. See story for more details. Below, McDowell explains how to use the identification chart when examining the insects found in the stream. Photos by Beth Bowers.

Farther down the stream, Liz McDowell of Elk Ridge NatureWorks and an Envirothon Team volunteer at NHS, was giving a group a lesson about the benthic and macroinvertebrates that live in the stream and demonstrating some stream monitoring techniques. These are creatures without backbones that live on the bottom of a stream and can be seen with the naked eye.

With the help of some of the students who were willing to get a little wet, and Dr. Wendell Teets, school superintendent, McDowell used a kicknet to catch a selection of various creatures from the bottom of the stream bed. Several students would do a "stream dance" in the water, stirring up the bottom, and others would lift up rocks and rub the bottoms off trying to loosen any life and send it along the stream into the net for future examination.

Many different life forms were found, including salamanders, crayfish, and other macroinvertebrates.

McDowell explained that seeing which macroinvertebrates live in the stream can aid in determining the environment of the water, especially the quality of the water and the possibility of any pollution.

Throughout the day, those involved learned not only from the trip organized by Bruce Taliaferro, director of Hickory, but from each other also.

They took turns snapping pictures of each other, and the South African visitors did a little singing and dancing while some Spanish visitors demonstrated part of the Macarena.

Special Olympics Open House Set

Special Olympics Maryland – Garrett County will hold an open house Friday, Sept. 26, from 5 to 7 p.m., at the Discovery Center, Deep Creek State Park.

Persons interested in becoming an athlete, coach, or volunteer are encouraged to attend. Refreshments will be served, and for additional information persons may contact Charla Beiler at 301-245-4388.

Used Book Shop To Open At Train Station

End of the Line Books, a non-profit, used book shop will open in the box car at the Oakland Railroad Station on Friday, Oct. 3, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The book shop will carry a wide variety of used books, fiction and non-fiction, suitable for children and adults, at resale book prices. It is planned that the shop will be open Wednesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays at the same hours as the Train Station is open (11 a.m. to 3 p.m.), from Oct. 3 through Oct. 25.

After closing for the winter, it will open again in 2004 from May until the end of October on the same schedule.

End of the Line Books is sponsored by the Ruth Enlow Library and the town of Oakland. Marilyn Moors is the coordinator.

She reports that donations of used books for resale can be made any of the hours that the book shop is open. The proceeds from the sale of used books will benefit the Ruth Enlow Library and other Garrett County arts, educational, and civic programs.

She also requests the assistance of volunteer book sellers, book sorters, and book shelvers. She may be contacted at 301-746-4057 for more information or to volunteer.

DNR Opens Md. Forests, Parks In Wake Of Isabel

The Maryland Department of Natural Resources has reopened a number of state forests, parks, natural resources management areas, natural environment areas, and wildlife management areas across the state as clean-up from Hurricane Isabel continues.

The following DNR facilities located in Garrett County are now open: Herrington Manor State Park – day use, cabins; New Germany State Park – day use, cabins, campground; Savage River State Forest – day use, campgrounds; and Swallow Falls State Park – day use, campground. A full list of state forests and parks that are open is available on the DNR Web site at www.dnr.state.md.us.

Due to the volume of site-specific damage, new campground reservations will not be accepted until Wednesday, Oct. 1, but instead, campsites will be available on a first-come, first-served basis at the park. The SFPS will honor reservations that were made prior to Wednesday, Sept. 17, and that have not already been canceled. The Reservation Service continues to accept reservations for the period May 1 through Sept. 30, 2004. The phone number for the Reservation Service is 1-888-432-2267.

All Wildlife Management Areas have reopened, with the exception of Deale Island and Fairmount, and all Wildlife and Heritage Service (a division of DNR) managed islands on the Potomac River.

"While many forest and park trails are open for recreational use, visitors are cautioned that the tropical storm winds and saturated soils may have left behind hazardous trail conditions," DNR spokesperson Heather Lynch stated. "Visitors should be extra observant of overhead hanging limbs, unstable tree crowns, and trees leaning over paved and natural surface trails that could fall and cause severe injury. In addition, trails may be partially blocked by fallen trees and limbs until clean-up and repair efforts are completed.

"All visitors are also reminded to practice 'leave no trace' ethics and avoid walking or riding on trails if they are wet and muddy," Lynch continued. "Recent excessive rainfall has saturated soils, making them highly vulnerable to erosion and damage from recreational use."

Officials Proclaim Lawsuit Abuse Awareness Week

The Garrett County commissioners on Tuesday proclaimed Oct. 6-10 Lawsuit Abuse Awareness Week in Garrett County. The proclamation recognized Maryland Citizens Against Lawsuit Abuse (MDCALA) and its dedication to stopping "the abuses of Maryland's civil justice system that are detrimental to citizens, communities, schools, and businesses."

Local business woman Janna Naylor of MDCALA was on hand to witness the signing of the official proclamation. Naylor has been a member of the organization's board since its inception in 1995. She said the organization wants to make people more aware of some of the high jury awards that are given for frivolous lawsuits.

"If you serve on a jury," she said, "be reasonable." She noted that those who pay for insurance are the ones who end up paying for the settlements. According to the national Citizens Against Lawsuit Abuse organization, lawsuit costs passed on to consumers add up to nearly $721 per year for every person in America today.

For more information about lawsuit abuse, persons may visit CALA's web site at sickoflawsuits.org.

The 40th annual Mellinger reunion was held on Aug. 16 and 17 at the John F. Mellinger Jr. farm near Swanton.

Crab soup and a corn roast were enjoyed on Saturday evening, and lots of food and entertainment were furnished on Sunday.

Skeet shoot trophies were won by Fredolen L. Wolf Jr., Zach Savage, Denise Ortman, and Rhonda Sweitzer.

Horseshoe trophies went to Debra Sweitzer and Rhonda Sweitzer, first place; and Mandy Curry and Theresa Romoser, second place, for the women. Men's horseshoe trophies went to Clarence Mellinger Sr. and Ray Connard, first place; and William Mellinger Jr. and Tim Lynch, second place.

Lots of prizes were won by many others.

GC Just Move It Walkers Asked To Submit Log Forms

Participants of the Garrett County Health Department Just Move It program are encouraged to submit log forms to Community Health (second floor) by Oct. 1.

Participants who complete at least 100 miles between April 1, and Sept. 30, will be eligible to win a gift certificate for a pair of walking/running shoes. The drawing will be held Oct. 1.

For each 100 miles logged during that time period, the participant's name will be entered into the drawing.

New to the program this year are Just Move It sweat pants. They will be available soon for anyone who logs 1,000 miles.

This program is free to Garrett County residents and employees of all ages. It is designed to motivate people to be more physically active for better health. Participants receive a sweatshirt when they log 100 miles and a water bottle when they log 250 miles.

For more information or to join the program, persons may call Garrett County Health Department, Community Health, at 301-334-7730 or 301-895-3111.

GCHD To Hold Child Safety Seat Check This Week

The Garrett County Health Department is holding a child safety seat check on Saturday, Sept. 27, 2003, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at its Oakland office along Memorial Drive.

"The event is being held to help parents and caregivers prepare for the change in Maryland's child safety seat law beginning Oct. 1," said Diane Lee, highway safety coordinator for the Garrett County Health Department. "The change requires that children use safety seats, which includes boosters, until they are at least 6 years old.

"The new law is closing the gap that left children from 4 to 6 years old inadequately protected. "They normally just don't fit in an adult belt correctly. Since they don't fit correctly, they don't use the belt correctly, and they are at risk for injury and even death."

Even at 6 years old a smaller child may not fit correctly into the adult belt.

Individual seat checks can be scheduled at the Health Department offices as follows: Most days appointments are available from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Oakland office by calling 301-334-7730; the third Tuesday of each month appointments are available from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Grantsville office by calling 301-895-3111.

For additional information about seat checks, to schedule an appointment, or for answers to child safety seat questions, persons may call Lee at 301-334-7730, or e-mail leed@dhmh.state.md.us.

Their families cared enough to put collars on them.

If they had cared enough to put ID tags on them, they might still be alive today.

The dogs and cats that wore these collars are now dead, killed because their families couldn't find them, and there were no adoptive homes available. Stray and unwanted animals pour into animal shelters daily, and the shelters can't keep them all. Nationally, statistics show that 95% of lost dogs that are wearing IDs are returned to their owners. 95% of dogs without IDs are never reunited with their owners.

Please don't let your dog or cat be counted among the strays that don't leave an animal shelter alive. Purchase an ID tag for your pet today and keep it on at all times. Check the tag regularly to make sure it is still legible. Update it if you move or change your phone number.

LESLIE EQUIPMENT CO.,
Judgment Creditor,

AND
DIANA SHARPLESS,
Judgment Debtors,

NOTICE OF SALE

Pursuant to a Writ of Execution issued out of the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland, at the suit of Leslie Equipment Co., Judgment Creditor, against Glenn Sharpless and Diana Sharpless, Judgment Debtors, Case No. 11-C-02-007625, I have seized and taken into execution all the right, title, interest and estate of the Defendants in and to the following property:

ALL those parcels of land situate in Election District No. 16, Garrett County, Maryland, which are described as follows.

PARCEL ONE: Part of Military Lot No. 975: BEGINNING at the original beginning of said lot and running with the first line thereof, South 67 degrees 80 perches; thence with the second line of said lot, North 23 degrees East 100 perches to a stone standing at the end of the first line of Military Lot No. 918, thence with the second line of said lot, North 67 degrees West 50 perches to a stake in said line, thence crossing said Lot No 975, South 40 degrees West 104 perches to the beginning.

PARCEL TWO: A parcel of and used for a right of way: BEGINNING at the end of the first line of Military Lot No. 898, and running with the second line of said lot, South 23 degrees West 100 perches, the line above described being the Western Boundary of said Right of Way, and the same from the beginning to the determination thereof having a uniform width of 16 feet East of the western boundary of said right of way.

PARCEL THREE: Part of a tract of land known as Military Lot No. 471, and being a part of the tract of land called "Triumph": BEGINNING at a chestnut tree near a stone pile, said tree being corner to the E. W. Keslo land, and running thence in a westerly direction with J. O. Harvey's land about 6 perches, then leaving said line and running in a northeasterly direction 53½ perches to the west line of Military Lot No. 418, thence south with said line about 2 perches to J. O. Harvey's land, thence in a southerly direction with J. O. Harvey's line to the place of beginning.

PARCEL FOUR: BEGINNING at a stake standing in the westerly line of the 42.5 acre tract that was conveyed to Harry W. King, et ux, by deed from Belvin Fazenbaker, et ux, dated April 20, 1951, and recorded in Liber 166, page 452, among the Land Records of Garrett County, Maryland, said stake standing 300 feet from the end of said line and running thence with the line of Lee R. Steyer, North 66 degrees 48 minutes East 279.88 feet to a stake in the center of a 24-inch chestnut stump and running thence with the line of Lee R. Steyer, North 47 degrees 14 minutes East 32.23 feet to a fence post at the east end of the gate, thence North 65 degrees 27 minutes West 240 feet to the corner of said 42.5 acre tract and with the line thereof South 25 degrees 11 minutes West 100 feet to the beginning.

PARCEL FIVE: The tract presently in use as a roadway, extending 820 feet across the land of John Evans Jr., et ux, being 16 feet wide and beginning at a stake standing in the southwesterly margin of Maryland Route 560, and following said roadway now in use from the said State Highway to the lands of the said Harry H. King, et ux, the boundaries of said Route 560, and following said roadway now in use from the said State Highway to the lands of the said Harry H. King, et ux, the boundaries of said Road being unmarked at regular 20 foot intervals by iron stakes.

I HEREBY GIVE NOTICE that I will sell at auction in the Rotunda of the Garrett County Courthouse, Fourth Street, Oakland, Maryland, on the 29th day of October 2003, at 10:00 a.m., all the right, title, interest and estate of the Defendants in the above property. The property is subject to primary liens, mortgages and encumbrances.

TERMS: Ten percent (10%) cash the day of the sale, balance within 30 days after ratification. I reserve the right to reject all bids if unconscionably low.

Garrett County

Application for State Discharge Permit 00-DP-2997, NPDES Permit MD0066478:

Garrett County Office of Solid Waste & Recycling, 3118 Oakland-Sang Run Road, Oakland, MD 21550, submitted an application for renewal of a permit to discharge an average of 27,500 gallons per day of groundwater and variable volumes of storm water from a closed public solid waste sanitary landfill, located on Oakland-Sang Run Road, four miles north of Oakland, MD, to Round Glade Run.

The Department is proposing to re-issue this permit with the following requirements: limitations at Outfall 002 for total suspended solids (27 mg/l average, 45 mg/l max.), BOD (30 mg/l average, 45 mg/l max.), Total Iron (3.0 mg/l average, 6.0 mg/l max.), Total Manganese (2.0 mg/l average, 4.0 mg/l max.), Total Silver (0.0069 mg/l max.), Total Ammonia (4.9 mg/l average, 10 mg/l max.), Total Zinc (0.11 mg/l average, 0.20 mg/l max.), Alpha Terpineol (0.016 mg/l average, 0.033 mg/l max.) Benzoic Acid (0.071 mg/l average, 0.12 mg/l max.), p-Cresol (.014 mg/l average, 0.025 mg/l max.), Phenol (.015 mg/l average, .026 mg/l max.), Total Selenium (.034 mg/l maximum) and pH range (6.0-9.0). The permit also includes requirements for in-stream monitoring and a stormwater pollution prevention plan. The permit allows reduction or elimination of monitoring at Outfall 002 upon a determination that the effluent is not landfill leachate.

A public hearing on the tentative determination will be scheduled if a written request is received by October 16, 2003. The request should be sent to the Maryland Department of the Environment, Water Management Administration, 1800 Washington Blvd. STE 455, Baltimore, Maryland 21230-1708, Attn.: Edwal Stone, and must include the name, address, and telephone number (home and work) of the person making the request, the name of any other party whom the person making the request may represent, and the name of the facility and permit number. Failure to request a hearing by October 16, 2003, will constitute a waiver of the right to a public hearing on the tentative determination. Written comments concerning the tentative determination will be considered in the preparation of a final determination if submitted to the Department, to the attention of Mr. Stone at the above address, on or before October 27, 2003. Any hearing-impaired person who requests a hearing may also request an interpreter at the hearing by contacting Mr. Stone at 410-537-3323 or by written request to the above address at least ten working days prior to the scheduled hearing date.

Information supporting the tentative determination, including the draft permit and fact sheet, may be reviewed by contacting Mr. Stone at the above telephone number to make an appointment or by written request to Mr. Stone at the above address. Copies of documents may be obtained at a cost of $0.32 per page.

PUBLIC NOTICES

Charter Revision Resolution 2003-1

A resolution of the Mayor and Town Council of Accident, Maryland, adopted pursuant to the authority of Article XI-E of the Constitution of Maryland and Section 13 of Article 23A of the Annotated Code of Maryland, 1957 Edition as amended, to repeal Sections 1-86 and 1-87 of the present Charter of the Town of Accident, said Sections being entitled: "Misdemeanors" and "Municipal Infractions," in their entirety, and to reenact a new Section 1-86/187 in its place and stead.

Be it resolved by the Mayor and Town Council of Accident that the present sections 1-86 and 1-87 of the present Charter of the Town of Accident, being entitled: "Misdemeanors" and "Municipal Infractions," are repealed in their entirety, and replaced by a new Section 1-86/181, "Enforcement," in their place and stead, a true copy of which will be posted at the Accident Town Hall for a period of forty (40) days following this enactment. A fair summary of the changes proposed is as follows.

1) Section 1-86/87, Enforcement: The Mayor and Town Council may provide that violations of any Town Ordinance shall be a "municipal infraction" as defined by Article 23A, Section 3, of the Annotated Code of Maryland, unless the violation is declared to be a felony or misdemeanor by State Law. All "municipal infractions" shall be considered civil offenses and shall be handled in accordance with the procedure set forth in Article 23A, Section 3, of the Annotated Code of Maryland, or any amendments thereto. The Mayor and Council shall from time to time, by resolution, establish the level of fines to be imposed for ail such "municipal infractions." Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit or prevent the town from seeking other legal remedies such as injunctions, criminal prosecution, or damages in a civil action pursuant to Section 7.01 of Article 66B Annotated Code of Maryland as amended.

The Mayor and Town Council of the Town of Accident hereby gives public notice of the adoption of this Charter Revision and its intent to publish a fair summary of the changes proposed by this Revision in a local newspaper of general circulation in the town not less than four (4) times, at weekly intervals, within a period of at least forty (40) days following the enactment of this Resolution.

If a proper petition for a referendum has not been received within the forty (40) days timeframe, this Charter Revision shall become and be considered the Charter of the Town of Accident in all respects to be effective and observed as such upon the 1st day of November 2003.

Authority, Mayor and Council of the Town of Accident

Case No. 11-C-02-007625

LESLIE EQUIPMENT CO.,
Judgment Creditor,

v.

AND
DIANA SHARPLESS,
Judgment Debtors,

NOTICE OF SALE

Pursuant to a Writ of Execution issued out of the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland, at the suit of Leslie Equipment Co., Judgment Creditor, against Glenn Sharpless and Diana Sharpless, Judgment Debtors, Case No. 11-C-02-007625, I have seized and taken into execution all the right, title, interest and estate of the Defendants in and to the following property:

ALL those parcels of land situate in Election District No. 16, Garrett County, Maryland, which are described as follows.

PARCEL ONE: Part of Military Lot No. 975: BEGINNING at the original beginning of said lot and running with the first line thereof, South 67 degrees 80 perches; thence with the second line of said lot, North 23 degrees East 100 perches to a stone standing at the end of the first line of Military Lot No. 918, thence with the second line of said lot, North 67 degrees West 50 perches to a stake in said line, thence crossing said Lot No 975, South 40 degrees West 104 perches to the beginning.

PARCEL TWO: A parcel of and used for a right of way: BEGINNING at the end of the first line of Military Lot No. 898, and running with the second line of said lot, South 23 degrees West 100 perches, the line above described being the Western Boundary of said Right of Way, and the same from the beginning to the determination thereof having a uniform width of 16 feet East of the western boundary of said right of way.

PARCEL THREE: Part of a tract of land known as Military Lot No. 471, and being a part of the tract of land called "Triumph": BEGINNING at a chestnut tree near a stone pile, said tree being corner to the E. W. Keslo land, and running thence in a westerly direction with J. O. Harvey's land about 6 perches, then leaving said line and running in a northeasterly direction 53½ perches to the west line of Military Lot No. 418, thence south with said line about 2 perches to J. O. Harvey's land, thence in a southerly direction with J. O. Harvey's line to the place of beginning.

PARCEL FOUR: BEGINNING at a stake standing in the westerly line of the 42.5 acre tract that was conveyed to Harry W. King, et ux, by deed from Belvin Fazenbaker, et ux, dated April 20, 1951, and recorded in Liber 166, page 452, among the Land Records of Garrett County, Maryland, said stake standing 300 feet from the end of said line and running thence with the line of Lee R. Steyer, North 66 degrees 48 minutes East 279.88 feet to a stake in the center of a 24-inch chestnut stump and running thence with the line of Lee R. Steyer, North 47 degrees 14 minutes East 32.23 feet to a fence post at the east end of the gate, thence North 65 degrees 27 minutes West 240 feet to the corner of said 42.5 acre tract and with the line thereof South 25 degrees 11 minutes West 100 feet to the beginning.

PARCEL FIVE: The tract presently in use as a roadway, extending 820 feet across the land of John Evans Jr., et ux, being 16 feet wide and beginning at a stake standing in the southwesterly margin of Maryland Route 560, and following said roadway now in use from the said State Highway to the lands of the said Harry H. King, et ux, the boundaries of said Route 560, and following said roadway now in use from the said State Highway to the lands of the said Harry H. King, et ux, the boundaries of said Road being unmarked at regular 20 foot intervals by iron stakes.

I HEREBY GIVE NOTICE that I will sell at auction in the Rotunda of the Garrett County Courthouse, Fourth Street, Oakland, Maryland, on the 29th day of October 2003, at 10:00 a.m., all the right, title, interest and estate of the Defendants in the above property. The property is subject to primary liens, mortgages and encumbrances.

TERMS: Ten percent (10%) cash the day of the sale, balance within 30 days after ratification. I reserve the right to reject all bids if unconscionably low.

MARYLAND DEPARTMENT OF THE ENVIRONMENT
WATER MANAGEMENT ADMINISTRATION
NOTICE OF TENTATIVE DETERMINATION

Application for State Discharge Permit 00-DP-2997, NPDES Permit MD0066478:

Garrett County Office of Solid Waste & Recycling, 3118 Oakland-Sang Run Road, Oakland, MD 21550, submitted an application for renewal of a permit to discharge an average of 27,500 gallons per day of groundwater and variable volumes of storm water from a closed public solid waste sanitary landfill, located on Oakland-Sang Run Road, four miles north of Oakland, MD, to Round Glade Run.

The Department is proposing to re-issue this permit with the following requirements: limitations at Outfall 002 for total suspended solids (27 mg/l average, 45 mg/l max.), BOD (30 mg/l average, 45 mg/l max.), Total Iron (3.0 mg/l average, 6.0 mg/l max.), Total Manganese (2.0 mg/l average, 4.0 mg/l max.), Total Silver (0.0069 mg/l max.), Total Ammonia (4.9 mg/l average, 10 mg/l max.), Total Zinc (0.11 mg/l average, 0.20 mg/l max.), Alpha Terpineol (0.016 mg/l average, 0.033 mg/l max.) Benzoic Acid (0.071 mg/l average, 0.12 mg/l max.), p-Cresol (.014 mg/l average, 0.025 mg/l max.), Phenol (.015 mg/l average, .026 mg/l max.), Total Selenium (.034 mg/l maximum) and pH range (6.0-9.0). The permit also includes requirements for in-stream monitoring and a stormwater pollution prevention plan. The permit allows reduction or elimination of monitoring at Outfall 002 upon a determination that the effluent is not landfill leachate.

A public hearing on the tentative determination will be scheduled if a written request is received by October 16, 2003. The request should be sent to the Maryland Department of the Environment, Water Management Administration, 1800 Washington Blvd. STE 455, Baltimore, Maryland 21230-1708, Attn.: Edwal Stone, and must include the name, address, and telephone number (home and work) of the person making the request, the name of any other party whom the person making the request may represent, and the name of the facility and permit number. Failure to request a hearing by October 16, 2003, will constitute a waiver of the right to a public hearing on the tentative determination. Written comments concerning the tentative determination will be considered in the preparation of a final determination if submitted to the Department, to the attention of Mr. Stone at the above address, on or before October 27, 2003. Any hearing-impaired person who requests a hearing may also request an interpreter at the hearing by contacting Mr. Stone at 410-537-3323 or by written request to the above address at least ten working days prior to the scheduled hearing date.

Information supporting the tentative determination, including the draft permit and fact sheet, may be reviewed by contacting Mr. Stone at the above telephone number to make an appointment or by written request to Mr. Stone at the above address. Copies of documents may be obtained at a cost of $0.32 per page.

PUBLIC NOTICES

Charter Revision Resolution 2003-1

A resolution of the Mayor and Town Council of Accident, Maryland, adopted pursuant to the authority of Article XI-E of the Constitution of Maryland and Section 13 of Article 23A of the Annotated Code of Maryland, 1957 Edition as amended, to repeal Sections 1-86 and 1-87 of the present Charter of the Town of Accident, said Sections being entitled: "Misdemeanors" and "Municipal Infractions," in their entirety, and to reenact a new Section 1-86/187 in its place and stead.

Be it resolved by the Mayor and Town Council of Accident that the present sections 1-86 and 1-87 of the present Charter of the Town of Accident, being entitled: "Misdemeanors" and "Municipal Infractions," are repealed in their entirety, and replaced by a new Section 1-86/181, "Enforcement," in their place and stead, a true copy of which will be posted at the Accident Town Hall for a period of forty (40) days following this enactment. A fair summary of the changes proposed is as follows.

1) Section 1-86/87, Enforcement: The Mayor and Town Council may provide that violations of any Town Ordinance shall be a "municipal infraction" as defined by Article 23A, Section 3, of the Annotated Code of Maryland, unless the violation is declared to be a felony or misdemeanor by State Law. All "municipal infractions" shall be considered civil offenses and shall be handled in accordance with the procedure set forth in Article 23A, Section 3, of the Annotated Code of Maryland, or any amendments thereto. The Mayor and Council shall from time to time, by resolution, establish the level of fines to be imposed for ail such "municipal infractions." Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit or prevent the town from seeking other legal remedies such as injunctions, criminal prosecution, or damages in a civil action pursuant to Section 7.01 of Article 66B Annotated Code of Maryland as amended.

The Mayor and Town Council of the Town of Accident hereby gives public notice of the adoption of this Charter Revision and its intent to publish a fair summary of the changes proposed by this Revision in a local newspaper of general circulation in the town not less than four (4) times, at weekly intervals, within a period of at least forty (40) days following the enactment of this Resolution.

If a proper petition for a referendum has not been received within the forty (40) days timeframe, this Charter Revision shall become and be considered the Charter of the Town of Accident in all respects to be effective and observed as such upon the 1st day of November 2003.

Authority, Mayor and Council of the Town of Accident

Authorized DIRECTV Dealer
"In select markets, DIRECTV offers local channels via the DIRECTV System or DIRECTV Multi-Satellite System. Eligibility for local channels based on service address within designated market areas as defined by Nielsen Media Research, Inc. ACTIVATION OF PROGRAMMING MAY BE SUBJECT TO CREDIT APPROVAL AND REQUIRES VALID & VERIFIED ADDRESS, SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER AND/OR MAJOR CREDIT CARD. DEPOSIT OR PREPAYMENT MAY BE REQUIRED. Offer may not be valid in the limited areas served by any affiliate of the National Rural Telecommunications Cooperative. In some areas service is for residents of principal residence only. Telecommunications Corporation and programming may vary from area to area. Described above. Limited time offer for new residential customers who purchase any DIRECTV programming package between 7/7/03 and 10/17/03, connect to and pay for 3 consecutive months of any TOTAL CHOICE or OPTION (STARZ, CINEMAX, programming package ($33.99/mo. or above, plus subscription to 2003 NFL SUNDAY TICKET ($249 Showcase offer price) and the TOTAL CHOICE PREMIER and Local Channels package ($61.98/mo. or above) for 90 days of equipment purchase. IF YOU FAIL TO ACTIVATE THE DIRECTV SYSTEM WITHIN 30 DAYS OF PURCHASE, YOU AGREE THAT DIRECTV MAY CHARGE A FEE OF $150.00, AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, FOR DIRECTV'S RECEIVER NOT ACTIVATED. A PROMOTED FEE OF UP TO $150.00 MAY BE CHARGED FOR EARLY TERMINATION, SUSPENSION, DISCONNECTION OR DOWNGRADE OF REQUIRED DIRECTV PROGRAMMING, DEPENDING UPON THE TIMING OF SUCH ACTION. 2003 NFL SUNDAY TICKET subscription billed in four monthly installments of $59.75 each. Blackout rules and other restrictions apply. In the 50th month, your TOTAL CHOICE PREMIER with Local Channels package will continue at the then current monthly charge unless you call to change service. The DIRECTV System has a "locks and limits" feature which allows you to control access to movies based on their MPAA rating (such as G, PG, PG-13, R, NC-17, etc.) or channels. (The use of these and other parental controls is encouraged.) Commercial locations require an additional subscription agreement. NFL SUNDAY TICKET programming consists of "Early Games" (generally on 1 OR and UHS at 1 pm and 4 pm ET. However, games broadcast by your local FOX or CBS affiliate may not be available on NFL SUNDAY TICKET.) To receive NFL SUNDAY TICKET programming, you must have the necessary hardware and programming and equipment. Pricing is residential. Taxes not included. Equipment, specifications and programming options may vary in Alaska and Hawaii. DIRECTV services not provided outside the U.S. Package of DIRECTV programming may be subject to the terms of the DIRECTV Customer Agreement. # Local Schools Receive Funding From Chesapeake Bay Trust

From tree plantings and stream restorations, to school field trips and oyster gardens, Maryland communities, including three schools in Garrett County, received more environmental grant money from the Chesapeake Bay Trust in 2003 than in any other year of the organization's existence. The Chesapeake Bay Trust, which raises grant money primarily through the Chesapeake Bay license plate and the donation option on state tax returns, awarded more than $1.84 million for 559 grants in 2003, reaching every county in Maryland as well as the city of Baltimore.

Crellin School, Northern High School, and Swan Meadow School were among those who received 2003 Bay Trust grants and put the money to work in their own neighborhoods.

According to Randee Craig, principal at Swan Meadow, the school will be working on many projects to enhance the environment already created at the school.

The students plan on building 11 bluebird houses to give as a gift to each elementary school, build two bat boxes, complete an observation blind for the school-yard habitat, and build composting bins and two rain barrels in the spring.

At Crellin Elementary, the grant monies were used for its summer camps, where students worked on the data stream analysis project on Snowy Creek and the butterfly gardens.

These projects are continuing into this school year, said Dana McCullough, principal.

Northern High School used the funds to support two environmental clean-up projects, one at Poplar Lick and the other at Savage River. Funds were also used to help with costs involved in a field trip to the Chesapeake Bay, where April Slagle, Environthon adviser, took her environmental science students for three days.

"This was a terrific year," said David O'Neill, executive director of the Chesapeake Bay Trust. "We placed more money than ever back into the hands of Maryland schools and community organizations. We want to thank all of the Marylanders who made this possible, by buying a Bay plate or making a donation through their tax return. It's important for people to realize their donated dollars do make a difference, for hands-on projects in their own schools and neighborhoods."

The Chesapeake Bay Trust is a private, nonprofit, grant making organization based in Annapolis. Its mission is to promote public participation and awareness in the protection and restoration of the Chesapeake Bay and its rivers. Since its inception in 1985, the trust has awarded more than $13.5 million for 5,500 grants to approximately 2,500 community groups, schools, and organizations. Grants range from approximately $50 to $50,000.

For more information about the Chesapeake Bay Trust or to apply for a grant, persons may call 410-974-2941 or visit the trust online at www.chesapeakebaytrust.org.

NHS CLASS OF '53 REUNITES – Thirty members of the Northern Garrett County Junior Senior High School (now Northern Garrett High School) class of 1953 recently reunited at the Bittinger fire hall to celebrate their 50th anniversary. Charles Strauss, a popular faculty member who taught or coached some of the class members, was their special guest. A moment of silence was observed for their 14 deceased classmates. The class of 1953 was the first to graduate from Northern High. Ninety-four students from Accident, Friendsville, and Grantsville high schools were consolidated into the senior class of the newly constructed school. Of the 80 living class members, 30 reside in Garrett County. Class members attending the reunion included Betty Artice Upold, Janet Ault Campbell, Reganold Bowser, Robert Beachy, Virgil Beachy, Margaret Brenneman Wagner, JoEllen Buckel Graham, Wilma Jo DeWitt Rodeheaver, Dorothy Frantz, Patricia Durst Pope, Evelyn Friend Fike, Homer Hoover, John Georg, Joanna Glotfelty Ringer, Wilbur Hutzel, Garland Jenkins, Glenn Krause, Esther Murphy Benedict, Ruth Michael Miller, Francis Miller, Robert Oester, Mabel Ohler Butler, Thelma Schroyer Kelley, Charles Ringer, Alice Sisler Friend, Carroll Smith, Mary Stanton Miller, Ronald Wilburn, Golda Wilt Wilburn, and Gordon Wright. The class agreed to meet again in 2008 and selected members to organize the reunion.

SCOUTING OUT THE OUTDOORS, members of Cub Scout Pack 31 and their families spent a recent weekend enjoying a Summer Family Camp, which featured a variety of outdoor activities and explorations setting forth from their camp base at Swallow Falls State Park. The activities included a boat tour of Deep Creek Lake with Steven Stallings, a nature craft at the Discovery Center, and Night Sounds with Kevin Dodge at the Swallow Falls amphitheater. Back at camp, Scouts learned to scavenge for fallen firewood and to cart large pieces back to camp with only a rope and lots of muscles. They also tried their hand at making and tasting desserts (brownies and monkey bread) baked over a campfire in Dutch ovens. Some of the Scouts pictured in the front row, from the left, are J.R. Upole, Bryson Meadows, Mitchell Beeman, and Ethan Walkling. In the back row are Steven Stallings, Nathaniel Walkling, and Jesse Paugh. Cub Scout Pack 31 is based at Dennett Road Elementary School, and chartered by the Oakland Elks. Any first-through fifth-grade boy at Dennett Road School interested in joining the pack may call Jim Walkling at 301-334-5295 for further information.

FSU Speaker To Discuss "Love Of Country"

Dr. Paul Lyons, professor and author of The People of This Generation: The Rise and Fall of the New Left in Philadelphia, will present the talk "Dissent and Patriotism: What Do We Mean By Love of Country?" on Monday, Oct. 13, at 7 p.m. at Frostburg State University.

The discussion will be held in the Leake Room of the Cordts Physical Education Center. It is free and open to the public.

Lyons has a background integrating social work and history, and he regularly teaches senior seminars on the Vietnam War, as well as and the "Holocaust and the American experience." He is a professor of social work at Stockton College in Pomona, N.J., and he serves on the associated faculty in historical studies and the faculty in the master program in Holocaust and genocide studies.

ACE Meeting Set

The first meeting of the Advisory Committee on Education (ACE) for the 2003-2004 school year will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 30, at 7 p.m. in the Board Room, #315, at Garrett College.

Agenda topics include a summary report of test scores and a curriculum update. The pubic is invited to attend.

VFW Auxiliary Slates Trip To Statue Of Liberty

The Department of Maryland Veterans of Foreign Wars Ladies Auxiliary is sponsoring a bus trip to the Statue of Liberty National Monument, Upper New York Bay, on Tuesday, Oct. 28.

There will be several stops in order to accommodate those wishing to attend. The first stop will be at the Garrett Memorial VFW Post 10077 along Maryland Highway, near Deer Park, at 4 a.m. The bus will also stop in Westernport, Cumberland, and Hagerstown.

The cost of the trip is $45 per person, which includes the Shaffer Tours bus fare and a Liberty Island ferry ticket. Stops will be made at Shoney's in Hagerstown for breakfast and dinner. These meals are the responsibility of each person.

Those interested in a reservation are asked to call Martha Lytle at 301-786-7899 no later than Tuesday, Sept. 30. If the auxiliary is unable to fill all the bus seats, it will have to cancel the trip.

VFW's Ladies Auxiliary Holds Regular Meeting

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 10077, recently held its regular meeting at the post home along Maryland Highway near Deer Park.

The auxiliary voted in two new members: Leona Switzer and May Simms. The group's next scheduled meeting will be Thursday, Oct. 9, at 7 p.m. The organization welcomes new members. "We always are open to new ideas that will help make our program more informational, as well as fun," said an auxiliary spokesperson.

The organization made donations this summer to the VFW National Home for Children and the Cancer Aid & Research Program. The children's home is located in Eaton Rapids, Mich., and houses the orphans of veterans.

"This complex is solely operated from the funds provided by the VFW post homes and their ladies auxiliaries throughout the country," said the spokesperson. "They receive no federal or state funding."

During the past few months the auxiliary has also been selling chances on a crocheted doll. The drawing was held during the recent meeting, and Ezekiel Marshall won the doll. Bunn Beckman also won a gift certificate, and Dr. Lynn Grant won a knife set. Proceeds from the raffles have been designated for auxiliary-sponsored programs throughout the year.

There will be a district meeting at Post 1936 in Oldtown on Sunday, Oct. 19, at 1 p.m. Department officers and the chairman will make their official visit at that time. District meetings are "schools of instructions," to keep auxiliaries informed about current information that is available to help with their programs. Members are urged to attend this meeting to show their support for the auxiliary and their interest in gathering information.

For more information about the auxiliary and its programs, persons may call Martha Lytle at 301-786-7899.

Eastern Star Chapter Meets

Oakland Chapter #67, Order of the Eastern Star recently met at the Paul B. Naylor Masonic Temple in Oakland. Juanita Bosley, Worthy Matron, opened with a reading, "Help Is On the Way."

She then greeted Lester Dempsey, Worthy Grand Patron of West Virginia; Mildred Martin, Past Grand Matron of Maryland; Bette Bowen, Wilda Hile, Joan Morris, Charee Reckner, Deputy Grand Lecturers of Maryland; Past Matrons and Past Patrons of other chapters, Joy Lou Fogle, Brenda Dempsey, Barbara Kight, Jack Kight, Sid Bowen, Keith Morris; officers; members, Past Matrons and Past Patrons of the Oakland chapter; and all Master Masons.

A program was presented, "Harvest Times," and the Worthy Matron and Debbie Raynovich presented gifts. Pauline Faucett and Reckner rendered a duet, "Ivory Palaces." Signs and passes were reviewed under the direction of the Worthy Patron and Conductress.

Bette Bowen, president of the Past Matrons and Past Patrons Association of Western Maryland, gave a reading, "Believing the Best in One Another."

The Worthy Matron's closing thought was "Experience is what you get." Ted Raynovich closed with "A Really Sweet Tooth." Refreshments were served following the meeting by Eleanor Teats and Faucett.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, Oct. 7, at 7:30 p.m. and will be Honor Station Night, and review of signs and passes. Refreshments will be hosted by Lillian Reckner and Hazel Sherwood.

NASCAR unveils new logo for 2004

Cox News Service

NASCAR on Monday unveiled the official logo for the NASCAR Nextel Cup Series that will begin in 2004.

Sporting a bold yellow-and-black look, the distinctive logo will be NASCAR's brand identifier.

"We think this design will be appealing to our drivers, team members, tracks and, of course, our fans," NASCAR President Mike Helton said.

The new logo will be utilized beginning in January, when NASCAR Nextel Cup teams come to Daytona International Speedway for NASCAR Preseason Thunder, the annual test sessions leading up to the season-opening Daytona 500.

"We've worked with NASCAR to create a logo and identity that exudes the strength of the athletes and the power of the sport," said Nextel Senior Vice President of Marketing Mark Schweitzer.

"Since announcing the 10-year partnership between NASCAR and Nextel, one of the most-asked questions we've received has been about the logo. It's bright, bold and forward moving — just like the sport it represents," Schweitzer said.

Nextel Communications and NASCAR signed a 10-year title-sponsor agreement in June.

Miss America to get NASCAR initiation

Cox News Service

Ericka Dunlap, the newly crowned Miss America, will serve as grand marshal for Sunday's EA Sports 500 at Talladega Superspeedway. Dunlap was crowned Miss America 2004 Saturday in Atlantic City, N.J., in front of a televised national audience.

She begins her year of service as Miss America in New York with a week of promotional stops, including "Late Night with David Letterman" and "Good Morning America."

She will arrive in Talladega, Ala., for the EA Sports 500 weekend on Saturday.

"We're thrilled beyond words to have Miss America as the EA Sports 500 grand marshal," track President Grant Lynch said. "Miss America is a woman who demands such high respect around the world. We're extremely honored to have her here. We also believe if she isn't a NASCAR fan before she gets here, she'll be hooked before she leaves Talladega."

Before the start of the race, Miss America will fulfill the usual responsibilities of the grand marshal. She will visit several suites, attend the drivers' meeting, conduct media interviews and take part in pre-race festivities moments before she gives the command to drivers to start their engines. She then will take a seat in the grand marshal car and lead the field around the track in the parade lap.

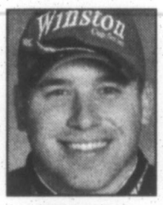
Newman sweeps Dover in seventh victory of season

Cox News Service

Ryan Newman overcame a flat tire that cost him two laps, then gambled on fuel to claim his seventh victory of the season and a sweep at Dover International Speedway. Newman's victory in the MBNA America 400 Sunday follows his first career win on "The Monster Mile" on June 1. Newman is the only Winston Cup driver with more than four wins this year.



NEWMAN

But claiming Sunday's victory did not come easy. Newman had to hold off a hard-charging Jeremy Mayfield in the race's closing laps while racing with a dwindling fuel supply.

"Being able to save fuel from the driver's seat is not really easy to do when you're going fast," Newman said.

He drove the final 106 laps without stopping, benefiting from two late caution flags that slowed the field for 12 laps. Newman didn't have to race hard to get the first lap back because of NASCAR's new rule awarding a lap to the highest-scored car off the lead lap.

Although it worked out for him, Newman is opposed to the rule.

"I just don't want to see guys get their lap back and not earn it," he said. "Once we got our lap back it was just sort of a fuel mileage race."

Newman was surprised he had as much fuel as he did at the end — enough to circle the track on a victory lap before smoking the tires in the traditional doughnuts in front of the grandstand. For that, he credited crew chief Matt Borland.

Finishing second was Mayfield, who battled Newman closely for 10 laps until Newman opened a five-car-length lead with 15 laps to go.

"He raced very clean," Newman said of Mayfield. "I felt I used up everything in my car."

Mayfield reached the rear deck of Newman's car and got inside twice, but was unable to hold the low line and eventually faded.

"I was not blocking him, but taking up everything in my line," Newman said.

Tony Stewart was third in a Chevrolet, followed by Kevin Harvick and Jeff Gordon.

Newman's Dover victories in 2003 mark the second straight sweep on the high-banked concrete oval, where Jimmie Johnson won twice last year. It was the ninth sweep since the track went to two races in 1971.

Sunday's race was the first Winston Cup event in history in which racing back to the flag stand under caution was prohibited. NASCAR outlawed the practice after Dale Jarrett's wrecked car sat in the middle of the track as others attempted to unlap themselves or improve their positions a week earlier in New Hampshire.

Series points leader Matt Kenseth finished ninth after starting from the pole, and increased his points lead to a season-high lead 436 over Kevin Harvick.

Kenseth was awarded the pole for the race on the basis of car-owner points when NASCAR canceled qualifying last week because of approaching Hurricane Isabel.

Talladega streak

Talladega Superspeedway

Dale Earnhardt Jr. will be looking to continue a four-race winning streak at Talladega Superspeedway Sunday. Earnhardt, shown above after winning last year's EA Sports 500, spun out and hit the wall on Lap 364 of Sunday's race at Dover. He was taken to a hospital, where he was diagnosed with a bruised foot and slight concussion. Earnhardt's last victory at Talladega was the spring race at the track, the Aaron's 499 on April 8.

POST-RACE NOTES

Stewart says tires cost him a victory

Cox News Service

Tony Stewart had his eye on a victory in Sunday's race at Dover, but instead faced another frustrating defeat.

This time the culprit was a bad set of tires.

STEWART

"Well, thanks to Goodyear, we ended up third," Stewart said after the race.

Stewart led 97 of 400 laps in the MBNA America 400, but began to fade with 75 left and fell to 12th. A four-tire change with about 35 laps remaining enabled him to charge forward, but not enough to close in on race winner Ryan Newman.

"It's just disappointing to have a car as strong as we have had in a couple of different places and come in and put on four tires and be terrible," Stewart's crew chief Greg Zipadelli said.

Father, son to compete

Dale Jarrett will have the opportunity to race with his son this week — providing Jason qualifies for the EA Sports 500 at Talladega Superspeedway.

"I know he's run there in the ARCA series and he's run a couple of Busch races there, but he hasn't seen anything quite like what he's going to get into," Dale said. "He knows that, and he's extremely excited, and I'm excited for him."

The decision to put the younger Jarrett in the car gives Robert Yates Racing three entries. Jason will team with his father and Elliott Sadler.

The younger Jarrett is second in points in the ARCA series, which races Saturday at Talladega. His ARCA crew will stay over and pit his Ford on Sunday in the Winston Cup race.

"With the Robert Yates engine and the cars they have, I believe that we are going to make the field," Jason said. "I just want to get out there and run all day and learn more about the draft."

The older Jarrett admits to a bit of trepidation.

"It's always a nerve-racking race, but now I've got double nerves because there's two of us out there," he said.

Leader Bonus grows

Matt Kenseth will have another shot at a record bonus payment Sunday at Talladega Superspeedway.

Kenseth is the only driver eligible for the $290,000 leader bonus from series sponsor Winston. It's payable to the leader if he wins, or it goes to any other driver who moves to the top of the standings with a victory.

With a season-high 436-point lead over Kevin Harvick, Kenseth cannot be caught in either of the next two races. The maximum point spread from first to last is 151 points. Kenseth has been the only bonus-eligible driver since May 25, when he finished second in the Coca-Cola 600 to take a 160-point lead.

It's been 58 races since the bonus — which increases by $10,000 each time it goes unclaimed — has been collected. Sterling Marlin won the bonus twice last season, getting a total of $50,000.

Bobby Labonte set the record for a bonus payoff when he got $190,000 three years ago in the Brickyard 400.

Money unclaimed at the end of the season is divided among the top 10 drivers.

Busch driver suspended

By RICK MINTER
Cox News Service

Busch Series driver Shane Hmiel has been suspended indefinitely from NASCAR for violating the sanctioning body's substance abuse policy.

NASCAR officials say Hmiel, the son of veteran Winston Cup mechanic and crew chief Steve Hmiel, will be held out of racing until he meets the terms and conditions for future reinstatement. Those conditions include counseling and undergoing periodic random testing.

"NASCAR has a zero tolerance for any type of behavior in violation of our substance abuse policy," said NASCAR President Mike Helton.

Teen wins another Busch race

VICKERS

Winston Cup-bound teenager Brian Vickers took the lead in the Busch Series standings with a victory Saturday at Dover International Speedway.

It was the third win of the season for Vickers. He won in part because of a quick pit stop and took the points lead from David Green, who crashed early in the Stacker 200 to finish 31st.

Vickers is moving up to NASCAR's top series next year, replacing Joe Nemechek with Hendrick Motorsports. The win enabled Vickers to tie Nemechek and Kevin Harvick for the most wins in the Busch Series.

Musgrave on a roll

Ted Musgrave matched a Craftsman Truck Series record by winning for the third straight time at California Speedway on Saturday.

Musgrave outran series leader and pole-starter Brendan Gaughan for his third victory of the season and the 13th of his career in the American Wheels 200.

Musgrave won despite starting from the back of the 36-truck field after having to make an engine change before the race.

"OUCH...my toe!! I've stubbed it. I just know I've broken it! The bulb in my lamp has blown...wouldn't you know it! It's so dark. I can't even find my slippers. Ok, there's the dresser. No, it's not. What is it?? How can I get so lost in my own room? Well, at least I found the door. Just a few more steps...Oh, thank goodness, and there's the light switch. I can't believe I was so disoriented. Now everything makes sense."

If you have ever had this experience, you know how helpless you feel. Sometimes we feel just as helpless stumbling about in our lives. Perhaps you have a dilemma and you "don't know which way to turn". You search for a solution and none comes. Have you turned to God? Isaiah 2:5 instructs us, "Come, let us walk in the light of the Lord."

Through prayer and meditation and the study of God's Word, you will find the light. Solutions will clearly appear and life will make more sense. Won't you worship this Sabbath in your local church or synagogue? Step into the light of the Lord.

Comparing Ourselves To Others

Envy is an emotion that is built into the fabric of our society. It is a by-product of what psychologists call social referencing, which is a fancy phrase that simply means that we look to others in judging ourselves. If we did not so often compare ourselves to others, we would rarely have occasion to feel this emotion. Since envy can be a particularly uncomfortable feeling, it is not usually something that we are proud of. Therefore, we will rarely admit to someone that we envy them. When we do, we usually mean it as a compliment, saying in effect that we wish we could be more like the envied person. Emotions always fulfill some purpose, and usually that purpose is to inform ourselves about something that we might not otherwise know. For example, anger tells us that we have been wronged in some way, and sadness lets us know that we have experienced a loss. Of course, our emotions can go awry and mislead us, but generally they are a fairly trustworthy guide to what we are actually experiencing. So what is the purpose of envy? Perhaps it reminds us that we are part of a larger whole, and that other people and their opinions do matter. Perhaps it is that we would do well to compare ourselves to others, and in some cases even to emulate them. But we should also remember that what we envy says a lot about our values. The next time we are feeling envious, we should ask ourselves exactly what we are envious of and use this reflection as an opportunity for self-improvement.

SUPPLEMENTS MAY AFFECT PERSONS WITH DIABETES

People with diabetes can benefit from knowing which supplements and herbal products can impact their disease according to several recent studies. Taking a daily multivitamin did not prevent minor infections in non-diabetics. Some diabetics reported having significantly less head colds, the flu, or a "stomach bug" if a daily multivitamin was being taken daily. Diabetics in the study were more likely to be deficient in at least one vitamin or mineral at the start of the study, and most were also obese.

Research has shown that taking a daily oral magnesium supplement improved the body's sensitivity to insulin and metabolic control in type II diabetics. Taking into account the low cost and safety of magnesium supplements, a daily dose could help prevent the chronic complications that sometimes affects people with diabetes. Lastly, new studies in rats resistant to insulin are showing that green tea has definite benefits in improving sugar and fat metabolism, enhancing insulin sensitivity, and protecting the balance between fat deposit and fat burning.

'Kingpin' stud working with J. Lo, Gere

By Taylor Michaels

Bobby Cannavale

Q: I loved Bobby Cannavale on "Third Watch." What has he done since "Kingpin"? –Lorri in Nebraska.

A: Like most of today's best actors, Cannavale, 32, comes to television and film from work in the New York theater.

Almost at the same time that the New Jersey-born, Florida-reared Cannavale was playing violent stud Chato Cadena in the 2003 NBC miniseries "Kingpin," he was mixing it up as creepy, sexually ambivalent inmate Alonzo Torquemada on the final season of the HBO prison drama "Oz." He also stars currently in the critically acclaimed independent film "The Station Agent."

The son of an Italian father and a Cuban mother, Cannavale has a 5-year-old son with wife Jenny Lumet, daughter of director Sidney Lumet and granddaughter of vocalist Lena Horne.

Next up, Cannavale has a featured role in the romantic comedy "Shall We Dance?" a 2004 feature film in which he appears with Richard Gere, Jennifer Lopez and Susan Sarandon.

Q: A few years ago I heard that the African-American actor who plays Marcus Dixon on ABC's "Alias" was shot and killed by police while brandishing a toy gun at a Halloween costume party, yet he appears on recent episodes. Am I thinking of a different actor? –R.B. in Long Beach, Calif.

A: Yes. A black actor named Anthony Dwain Lee, 39, was attending a Los Angeles Halloween party on Oct. 28, 2000, when he was fatally shot by a policeman who mistook Lee's toy gun for the real thing.

Carl Lumbly plays Dixon on "Alias," which premiered a year later, in fall of 2001.

Q: I read that Phil Hartman designed a logo for albums by Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young, and I know there's a "Simpsons" episode in which a character voiced by Hartman calls David Crosby. Crosby is looking at the logo as he answers the phone, which I say is a reference to that connection. My best friend, a "Simpsons" trivia buff, refuses to believe me. –Shannon Bartlett, Marysville, Wash.

A: It's true, Shannon's friend. Hartman, who was fatally shot by his wife, Brynn, in 1998, studied graphic design at California State University and designed cover art for other bands as well, including Poco ("Legend"), America ("History: Greatest Hits," "Harbor," "Silent Letter") and others.

Q: Did Michelle Trachtenberg ("Buffy the Vampire Slayer") have a bit part on an early episode of "Law & Order"? –R.F., Judsonia, Ark.

A: Whoa, nice catch! Yes, Trachtenberg didn't even get on-screen credit as Dinah Driscoll in an October 1991 episode called "God Bless the Child."

TRIVIA

Gary Busey ("Point Break") suffered from cocaine and alcohol addictions, but has been drug-free for more than seven years.

Kyle Chandler ("The Lyon's Den") got into acting when his drunk friends suggested he try out for a role in a Shakespeare play.

Beitzel Family Reunion Held

The 65th annual reunion of the descendants of John George Beitzel and his four sons, Henry, Lewis, Christian, and George, was held Aug. 31, at the Bittinger fire hall. The Beitzels came to American from Germany in the mid-1800s.

The 170 in attendance came from California, Ohio, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Illinois, and Maryland.

Prizes were awarded to the following: oldest lady, Pauline (Beitzel) Eiford, 80; oldest man, Marvin Beitzel, 86; newlyweds, Craig and Victoria Miller, 19 months; longest married, Sherman and Alice (Beitzel) Bittinger, 61 years; largest family, Andy Fread; youngest baby, Annika Fread; and farthest traveler, David Beitzel, Los Angeles.

A candy pick-up was held for the children under the direction of Melissa Fazenbaker. Many door prizes were also given. The candy count jars were won by Michael Massaro, Jennifer Beitzel, Pauline Eiford, and Jacqui Ray.

Officers elected for 2004 are John Beitzel, president; Doug Beitzel, vice president; and Hollie (Beitzel) Fazenbaker, secretary/treasurer.

The next reunion will be held at the Bittinger fire hall on Sept. 5, 2004.
